Our University of 1959 is a changing University where we find the old within the new—remodeled Denny Hall.

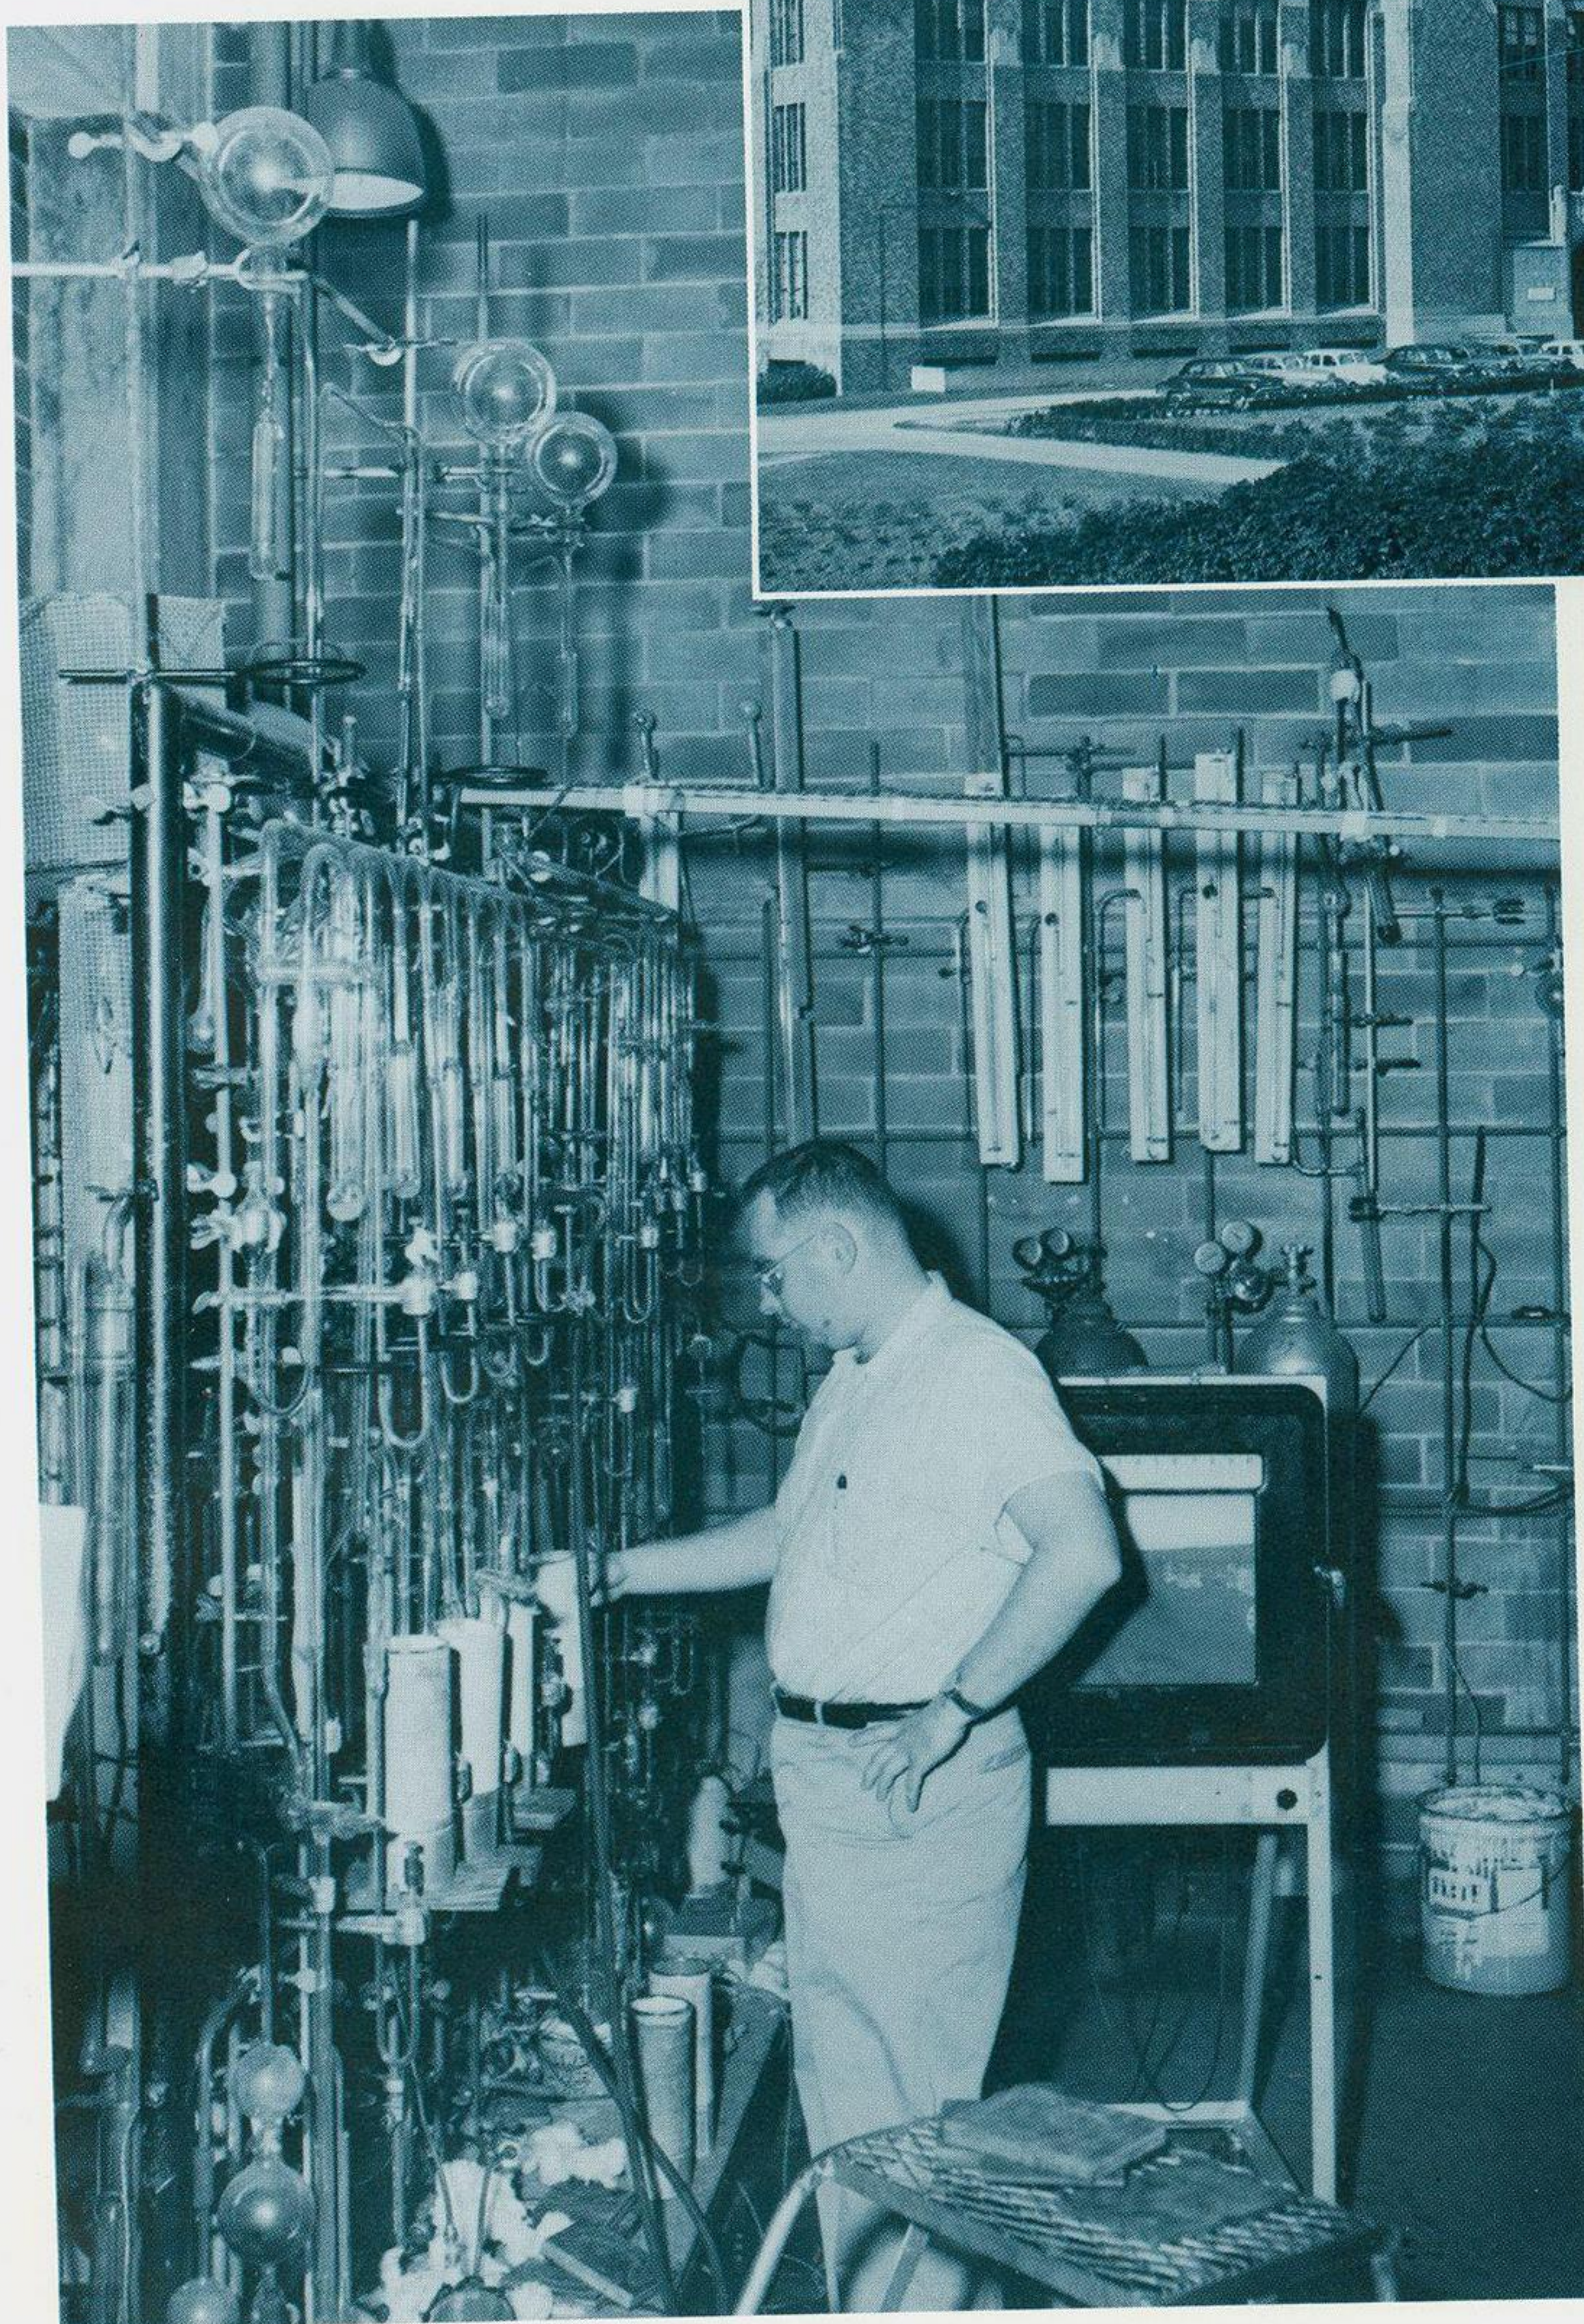

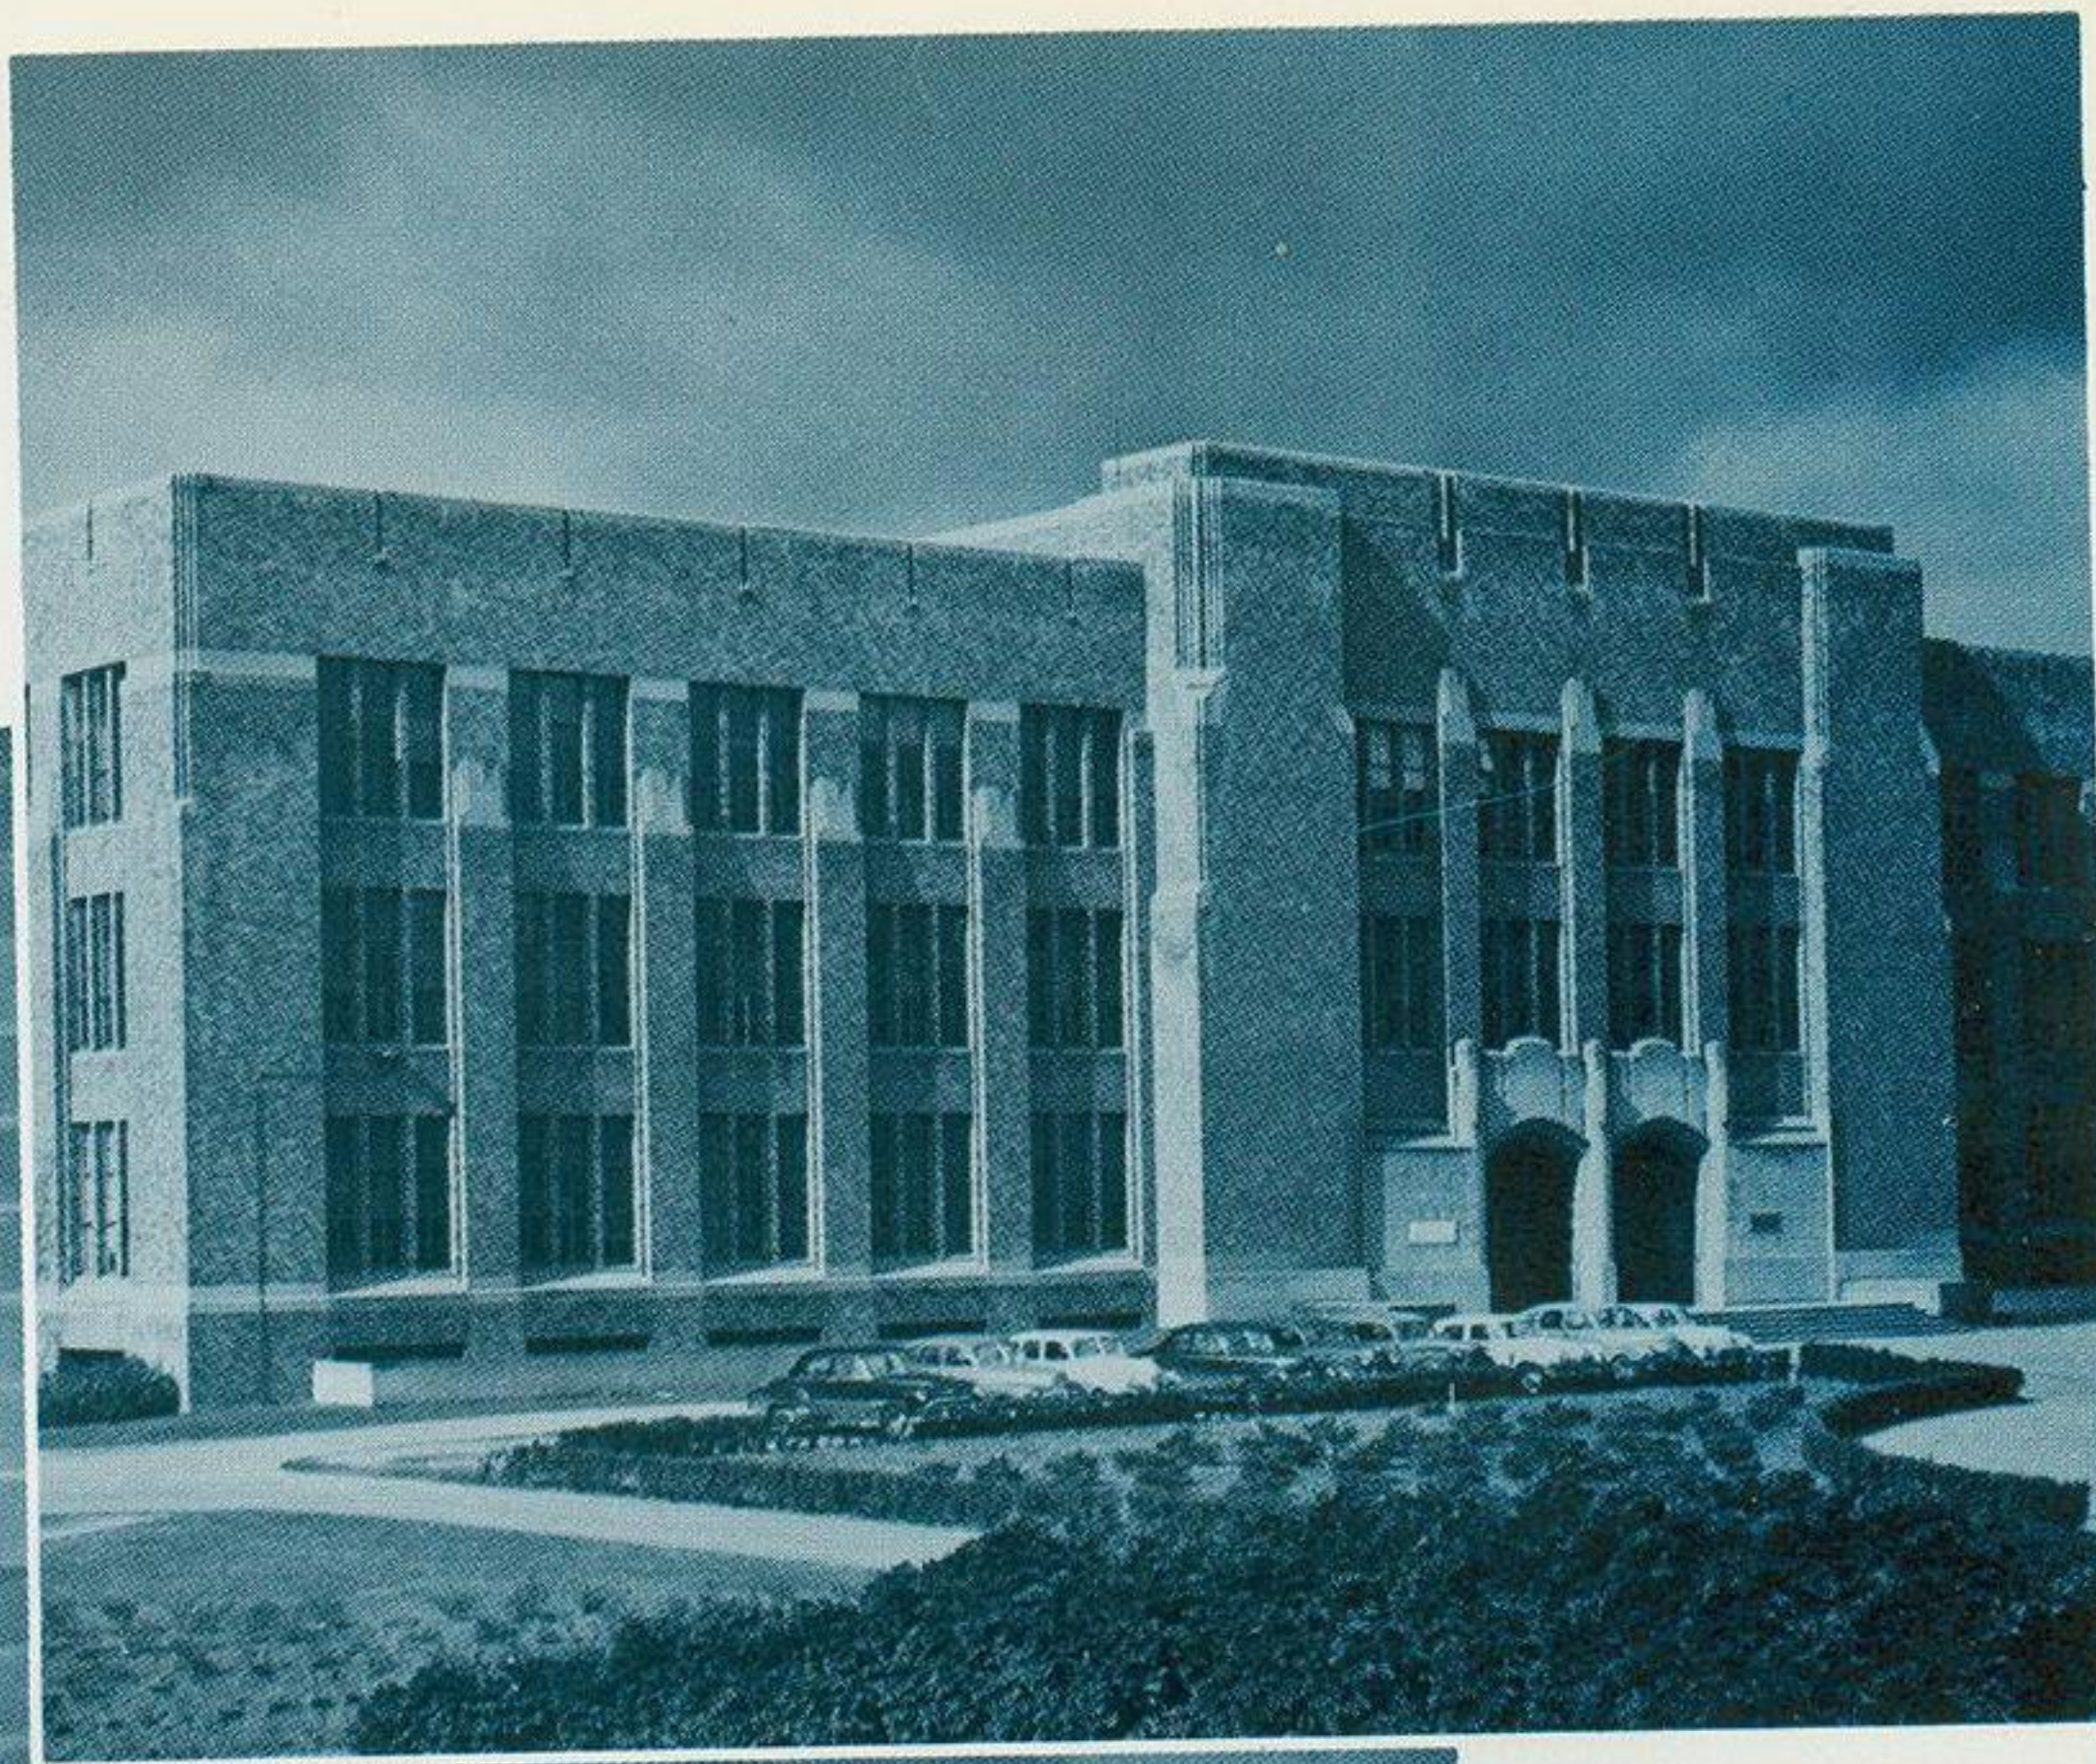

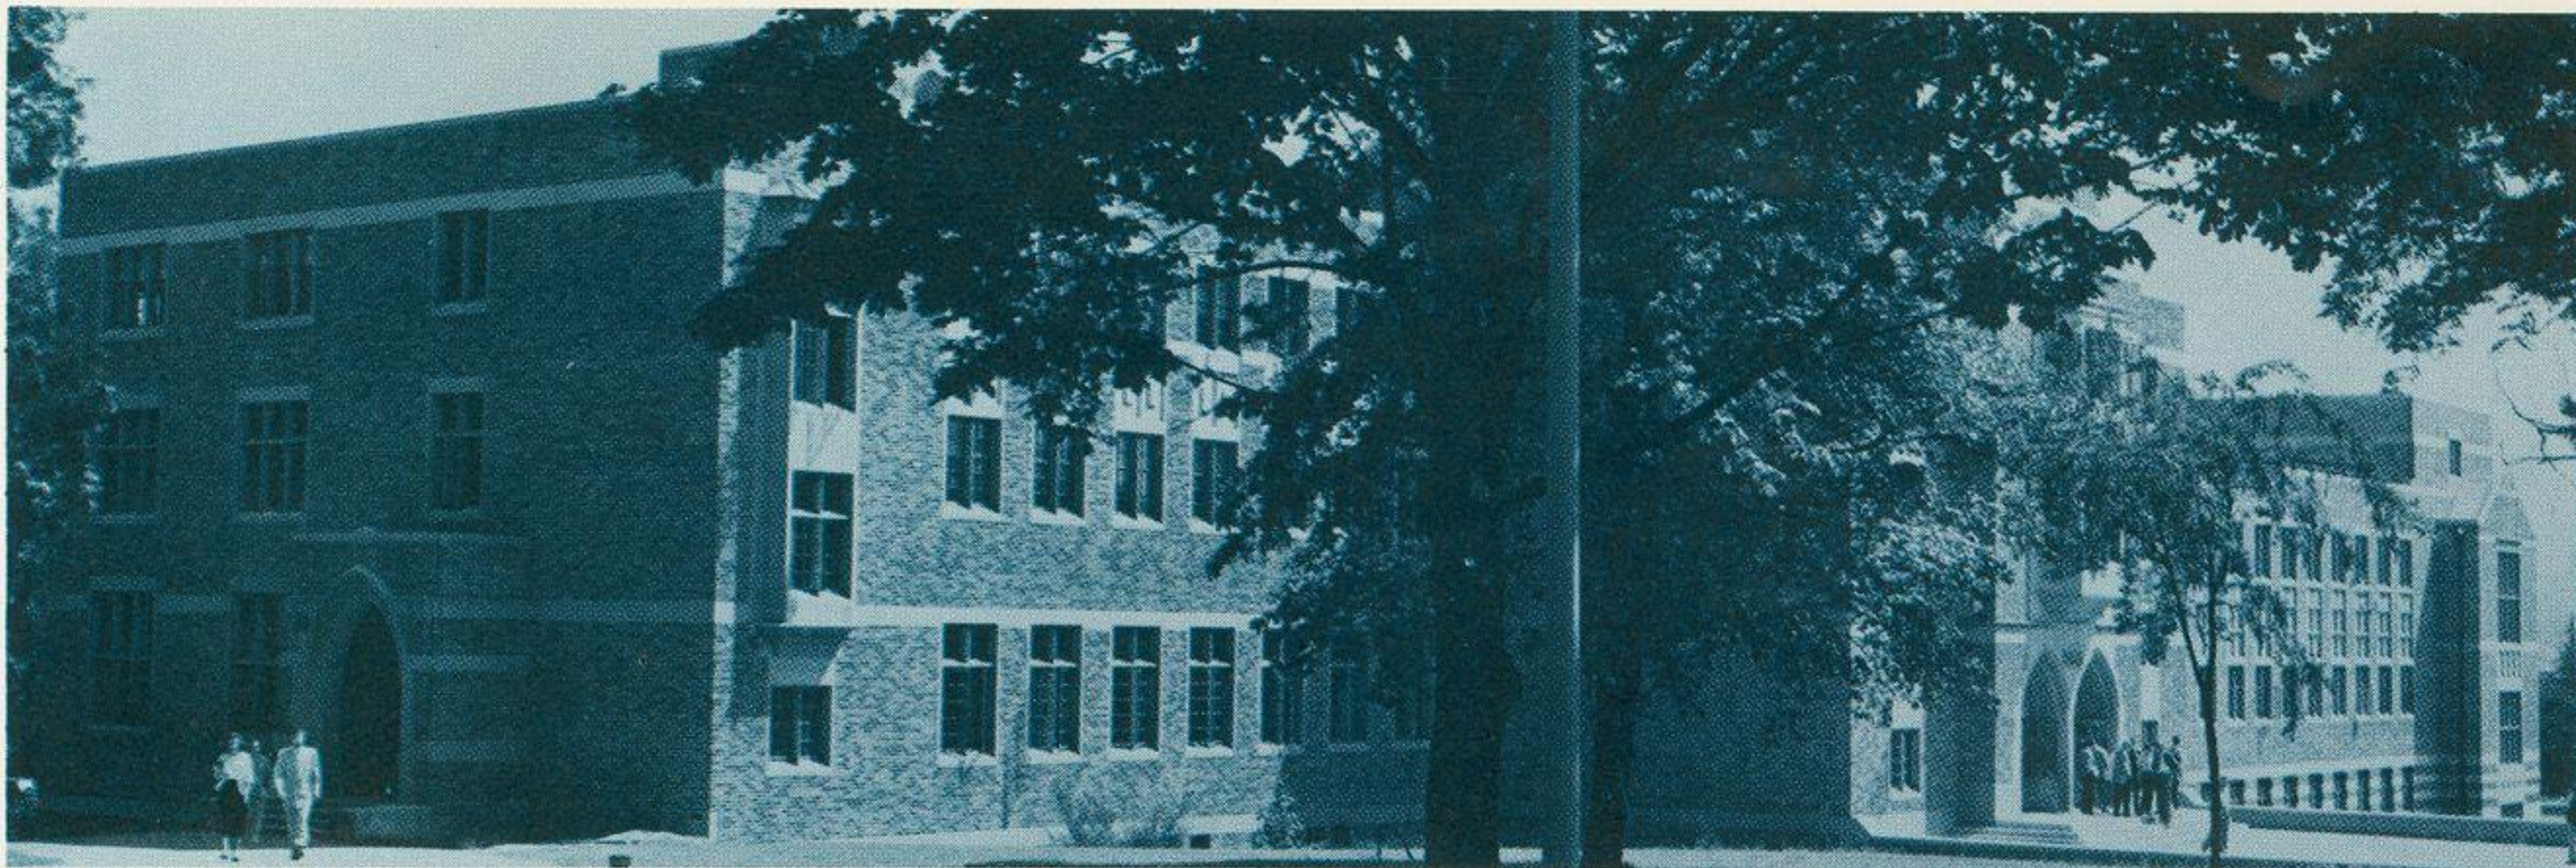

Ours is a University where we find intensive study in psychology and languages as we prepare for a future beyond our academic years—left, undergraduate psychology lab; right, language lab.

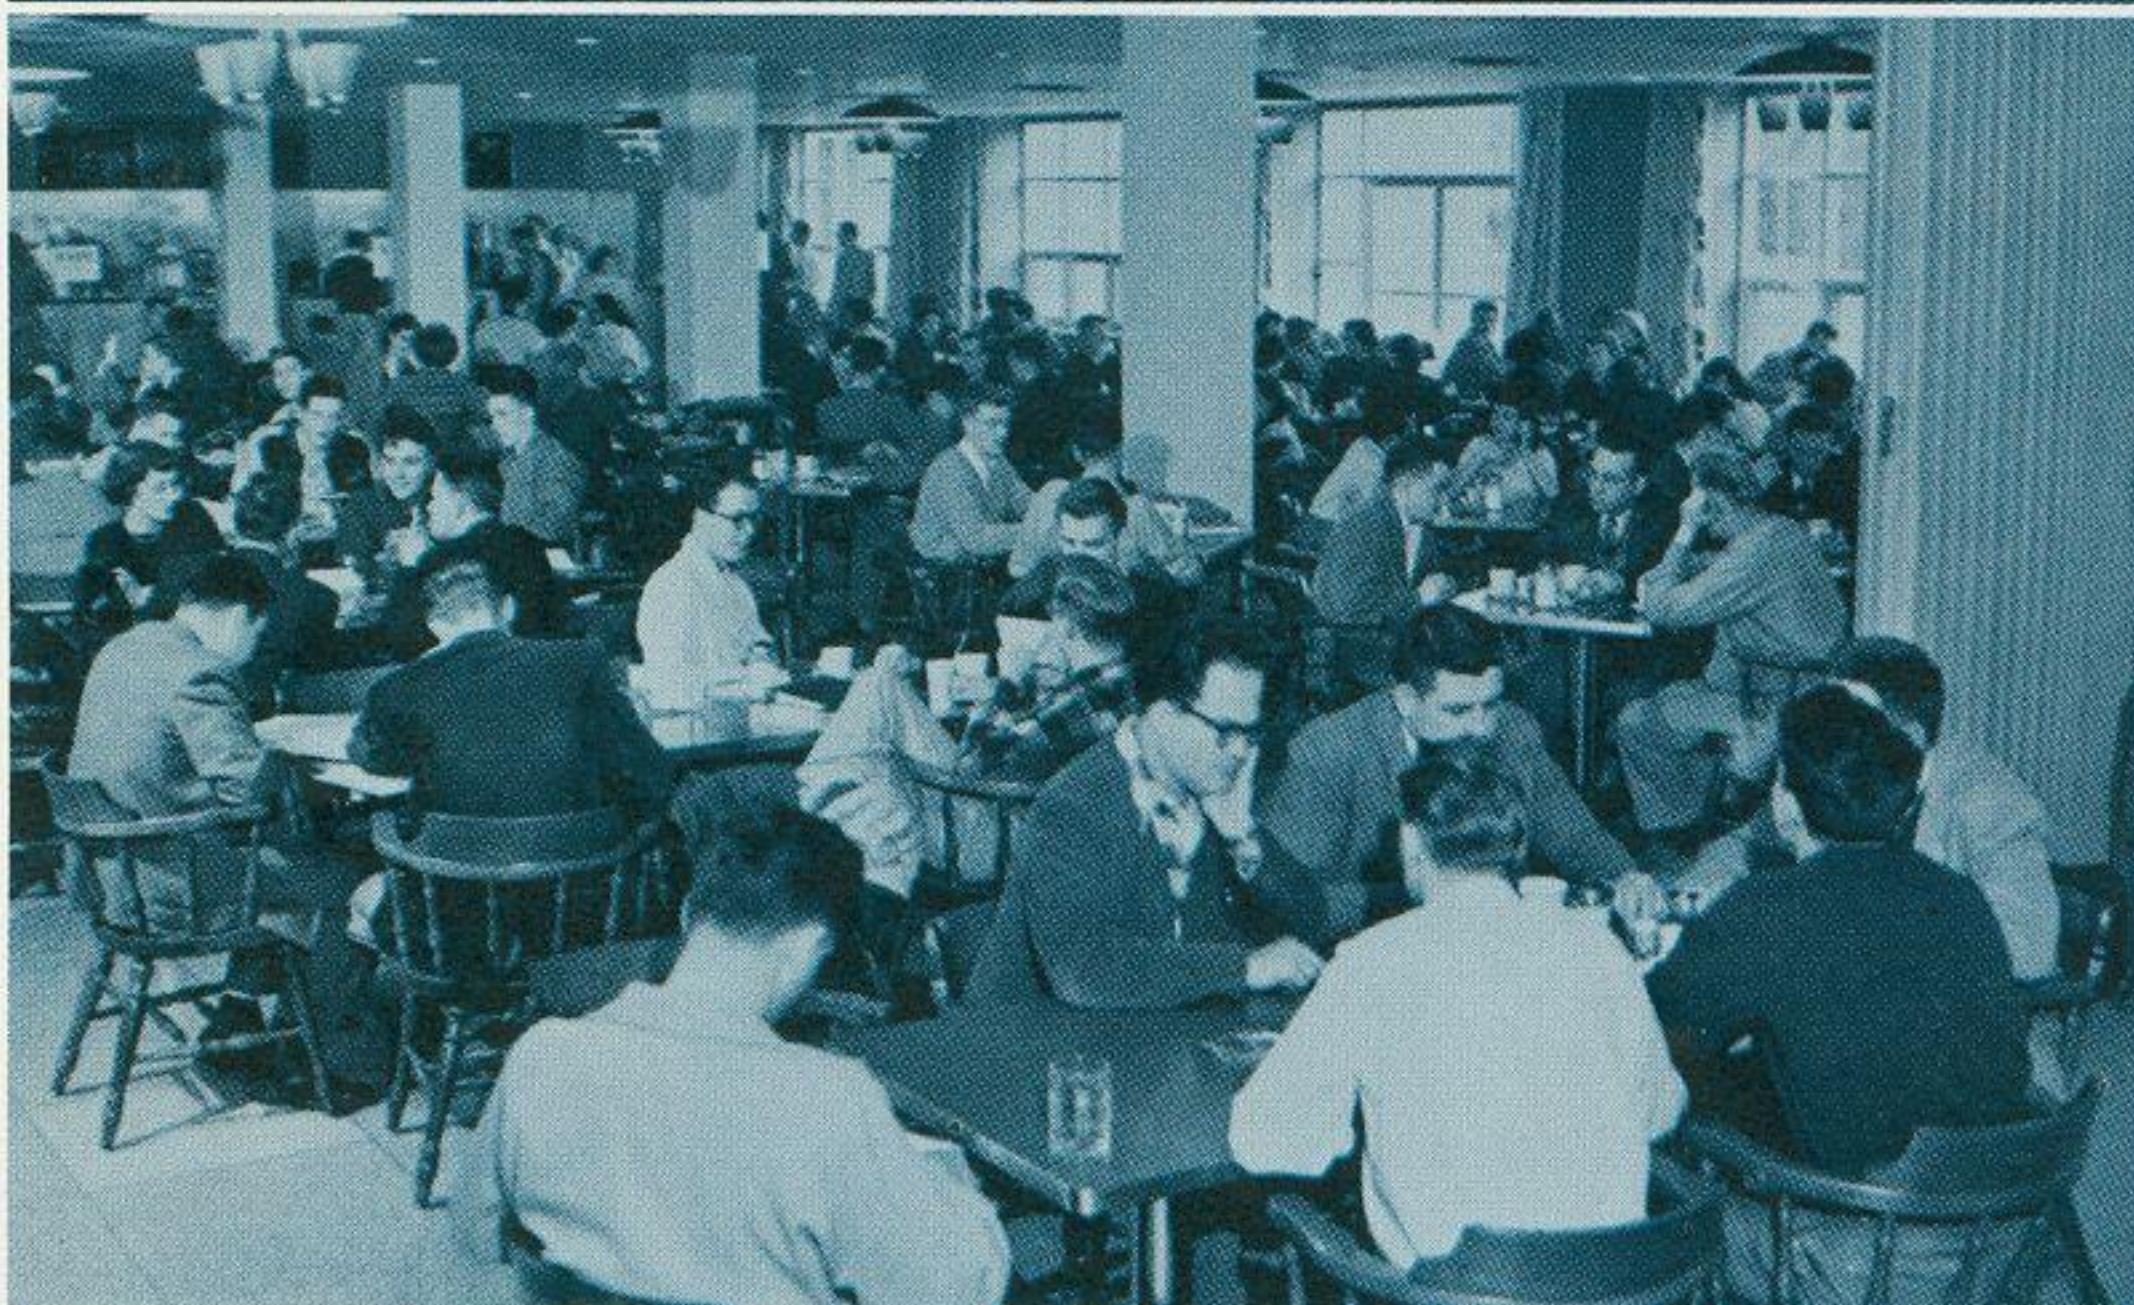

Within our University of 1959 are available the records of the past used in individual academic pursuit—left, Henry Suzzallo Library; above, the reference room.

Our University constantly contributes to the growing knowledge of the scientific world—right, Bagley Hall; below, graduate chemistry lab.

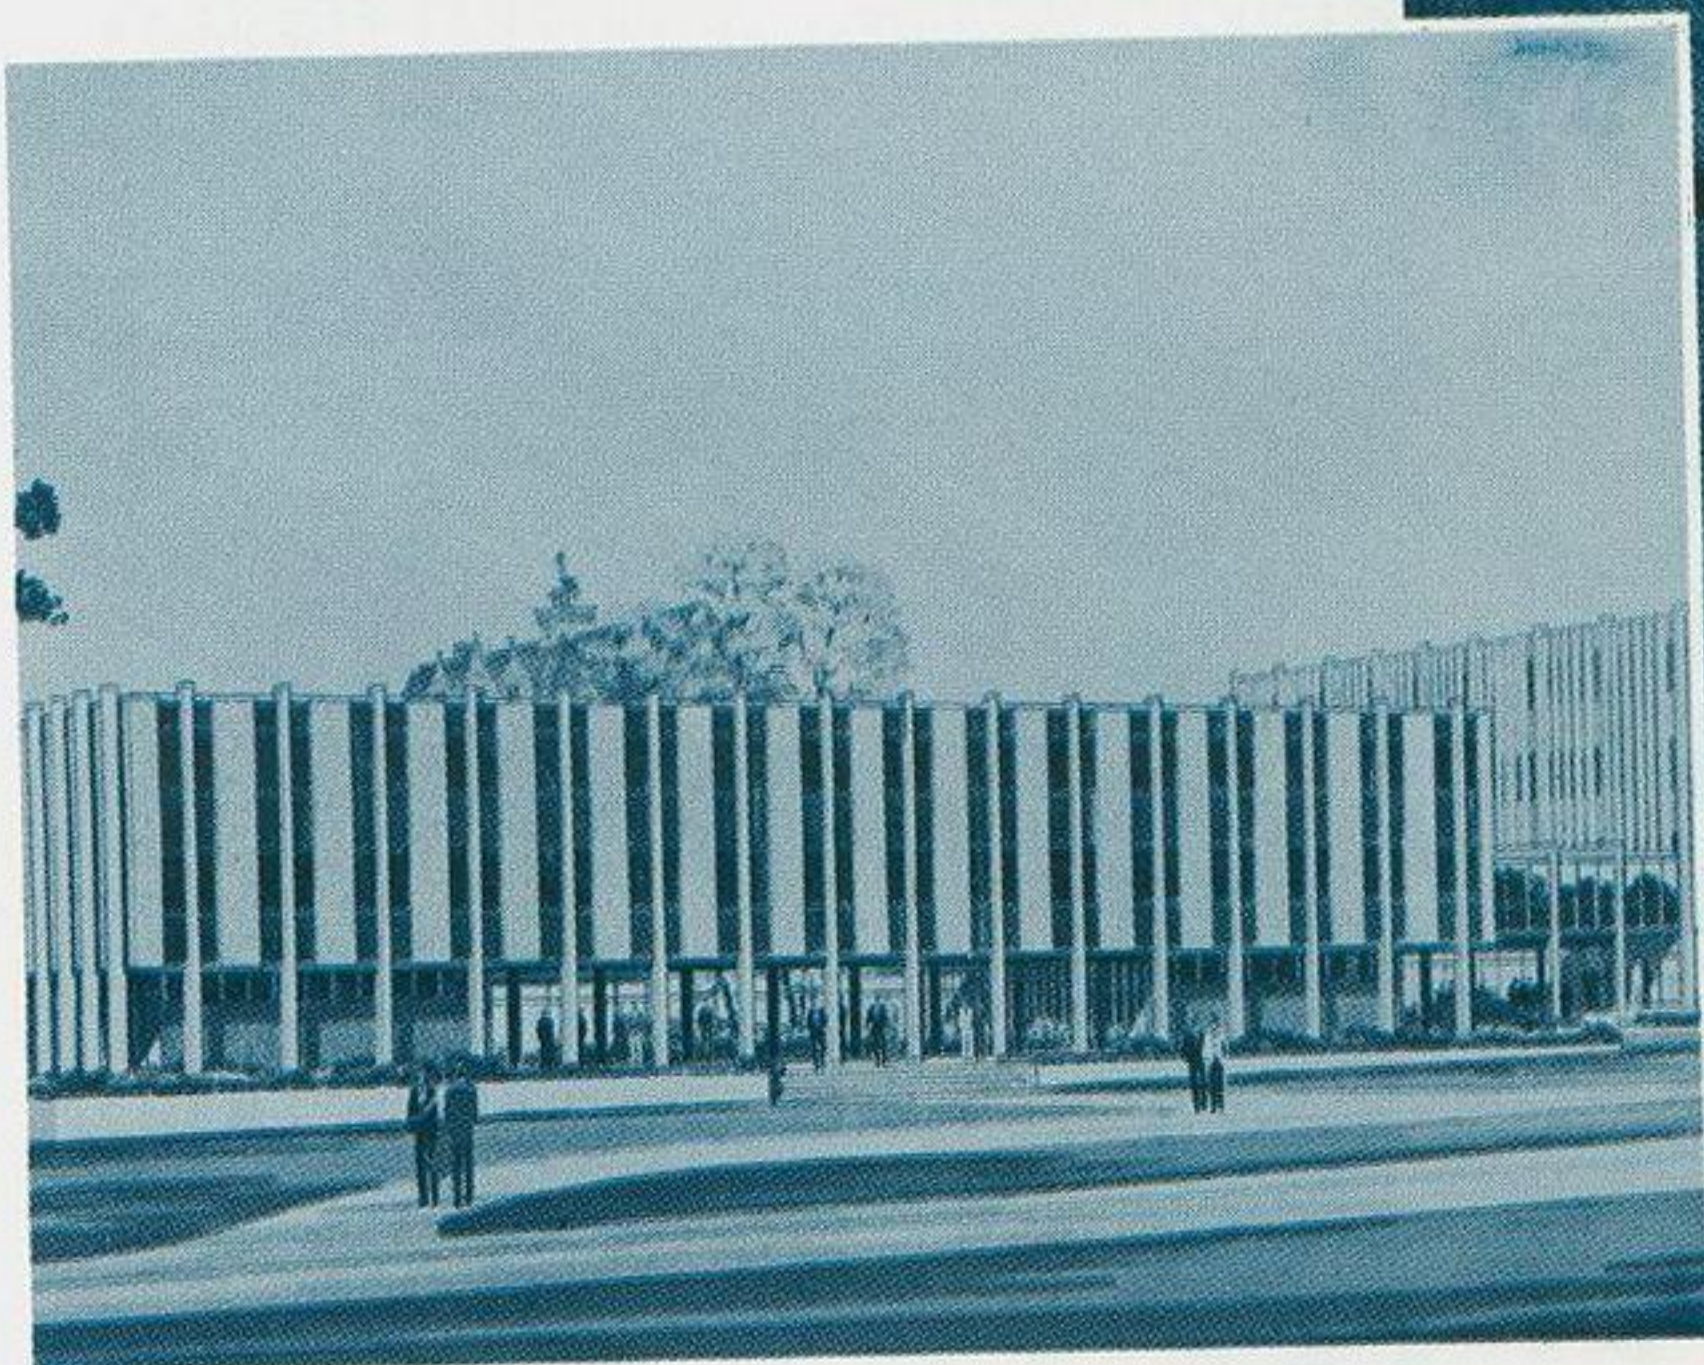

Our University of 1959 provides opportunity for faculty and students to relax or participate in non-scholastic activities—Husky Union Building.

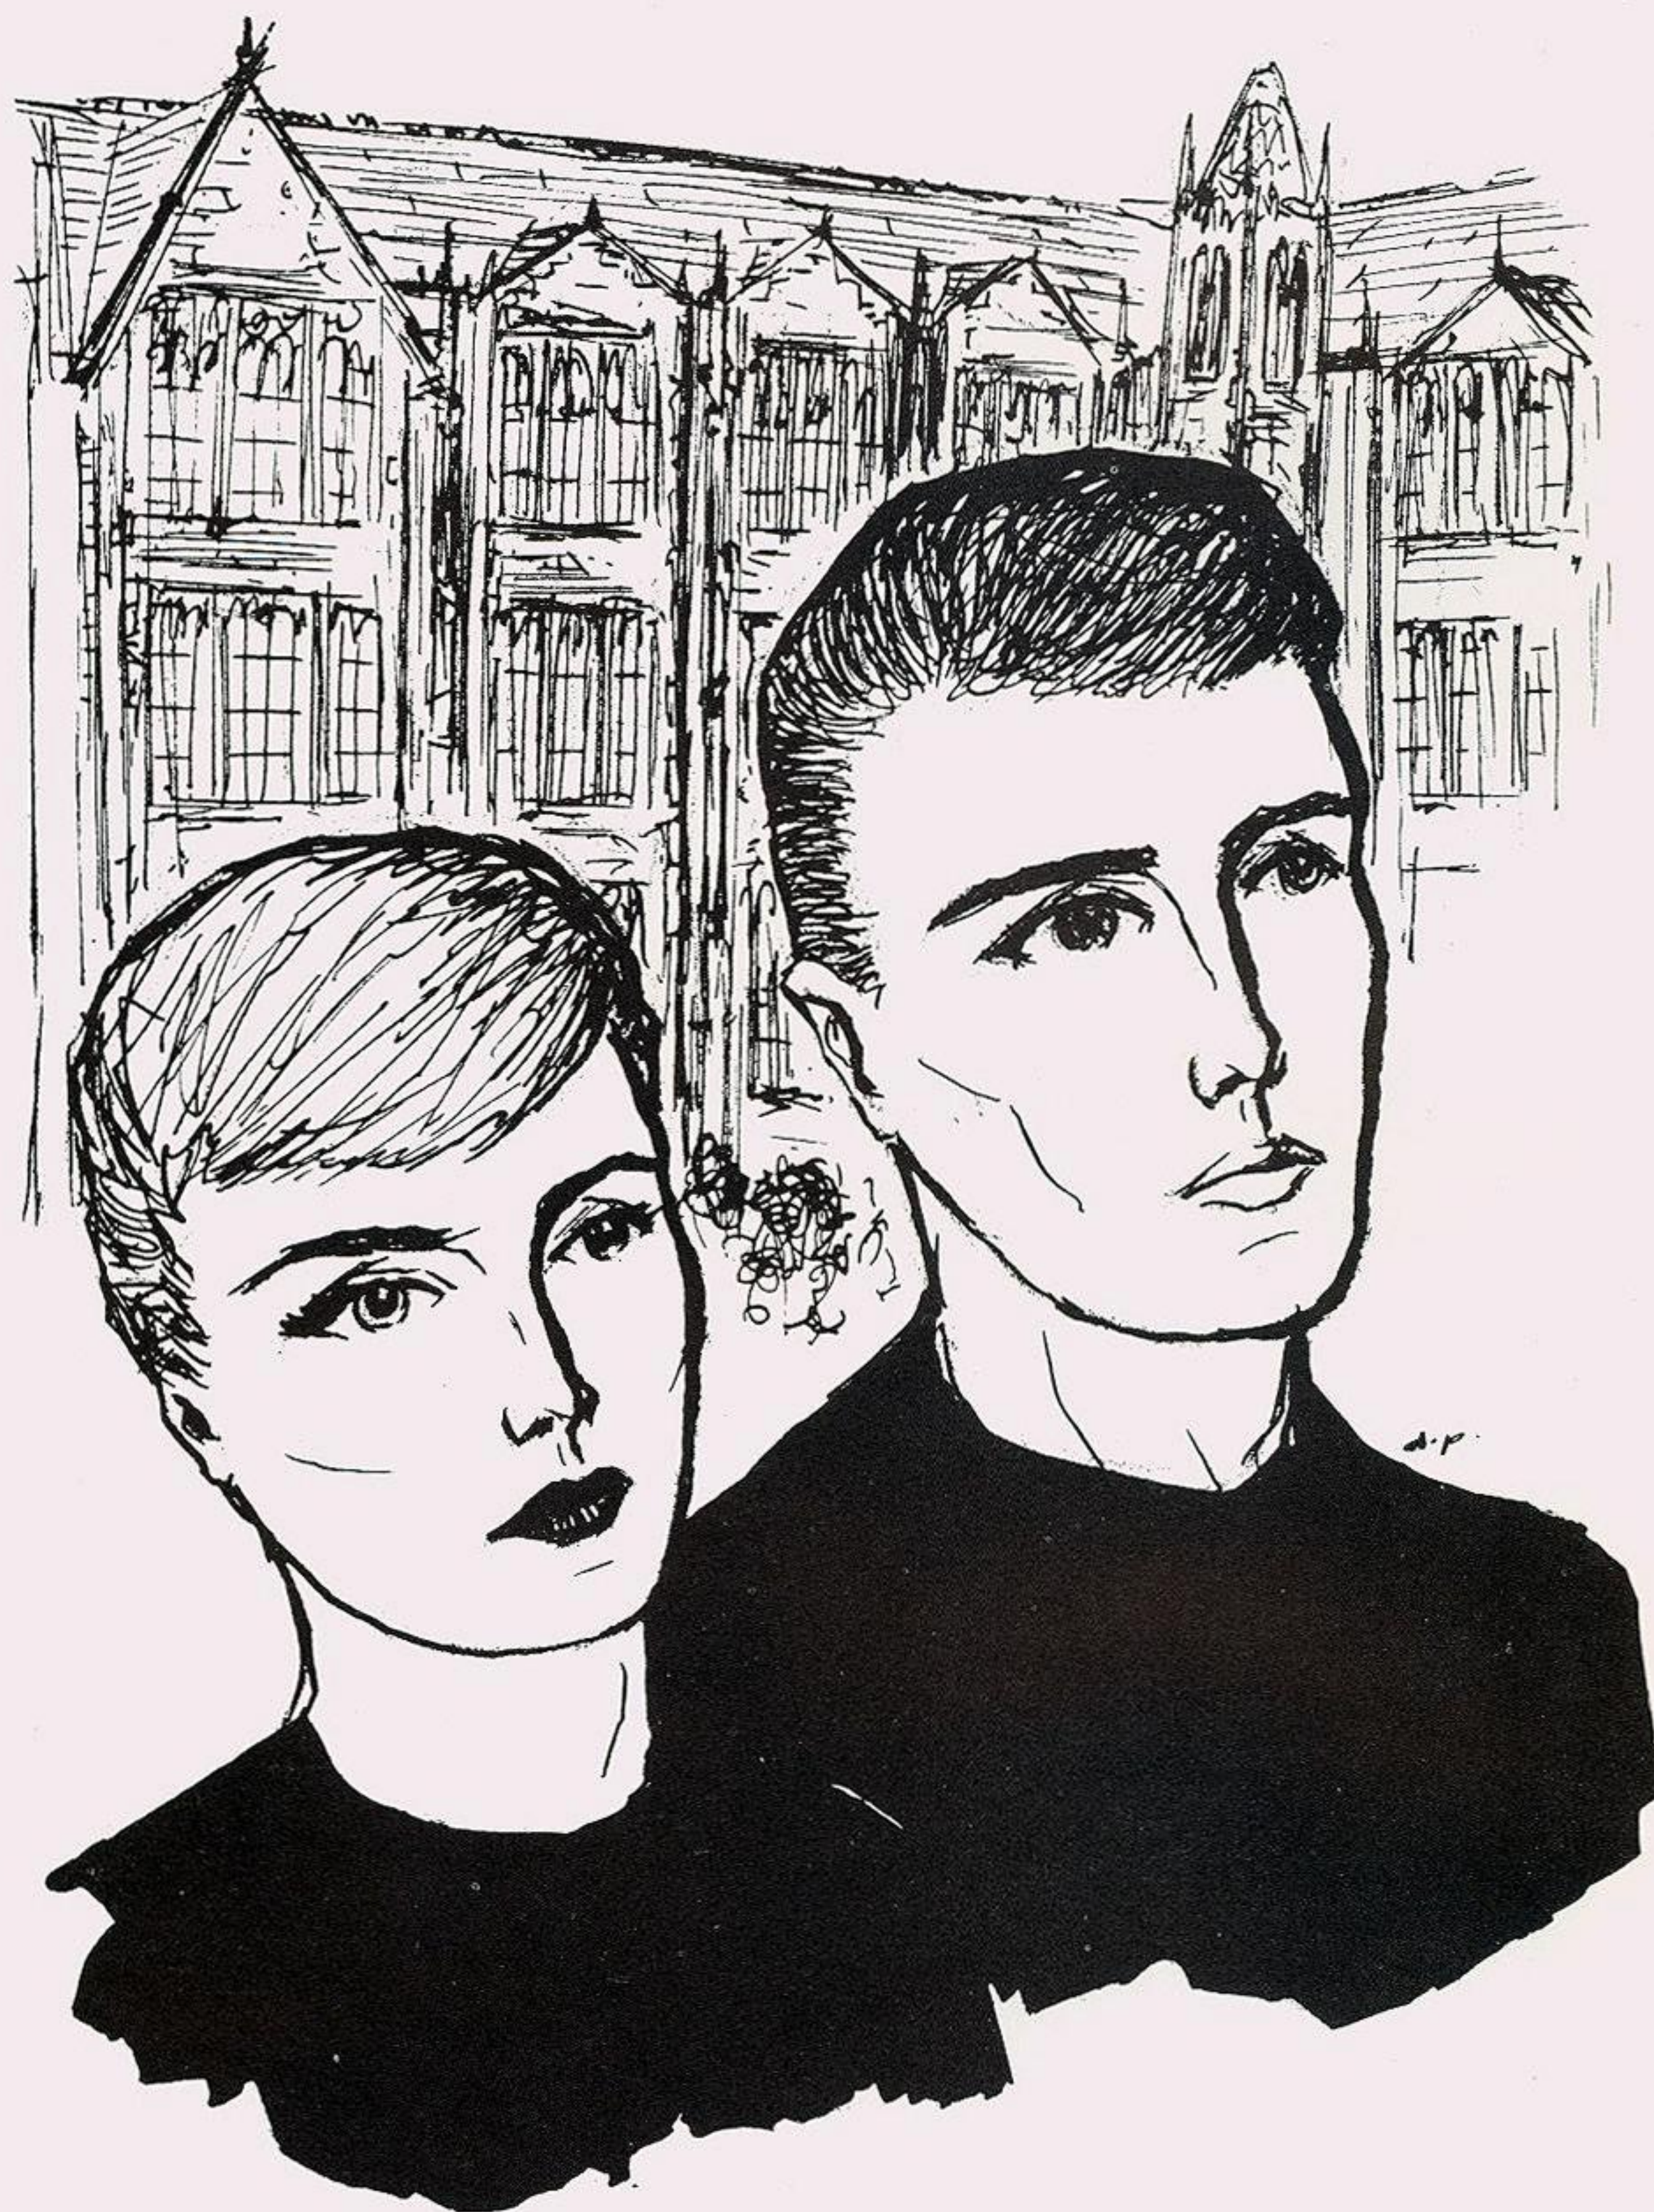

Dances and coffee breaks are among the popular pastimes of this University's students—above, all-University cabaret dance; left, the Husky Den.

Our University is expanding to provide adequate facilities for our increasing academic needs—right, a Business Administration class hears lecture on foreign trade; below, architect's drawing of the planned Business Administration Building.

Studies of the past and preparation for the future combine as we enter our University of 1959—45th Street entrance.

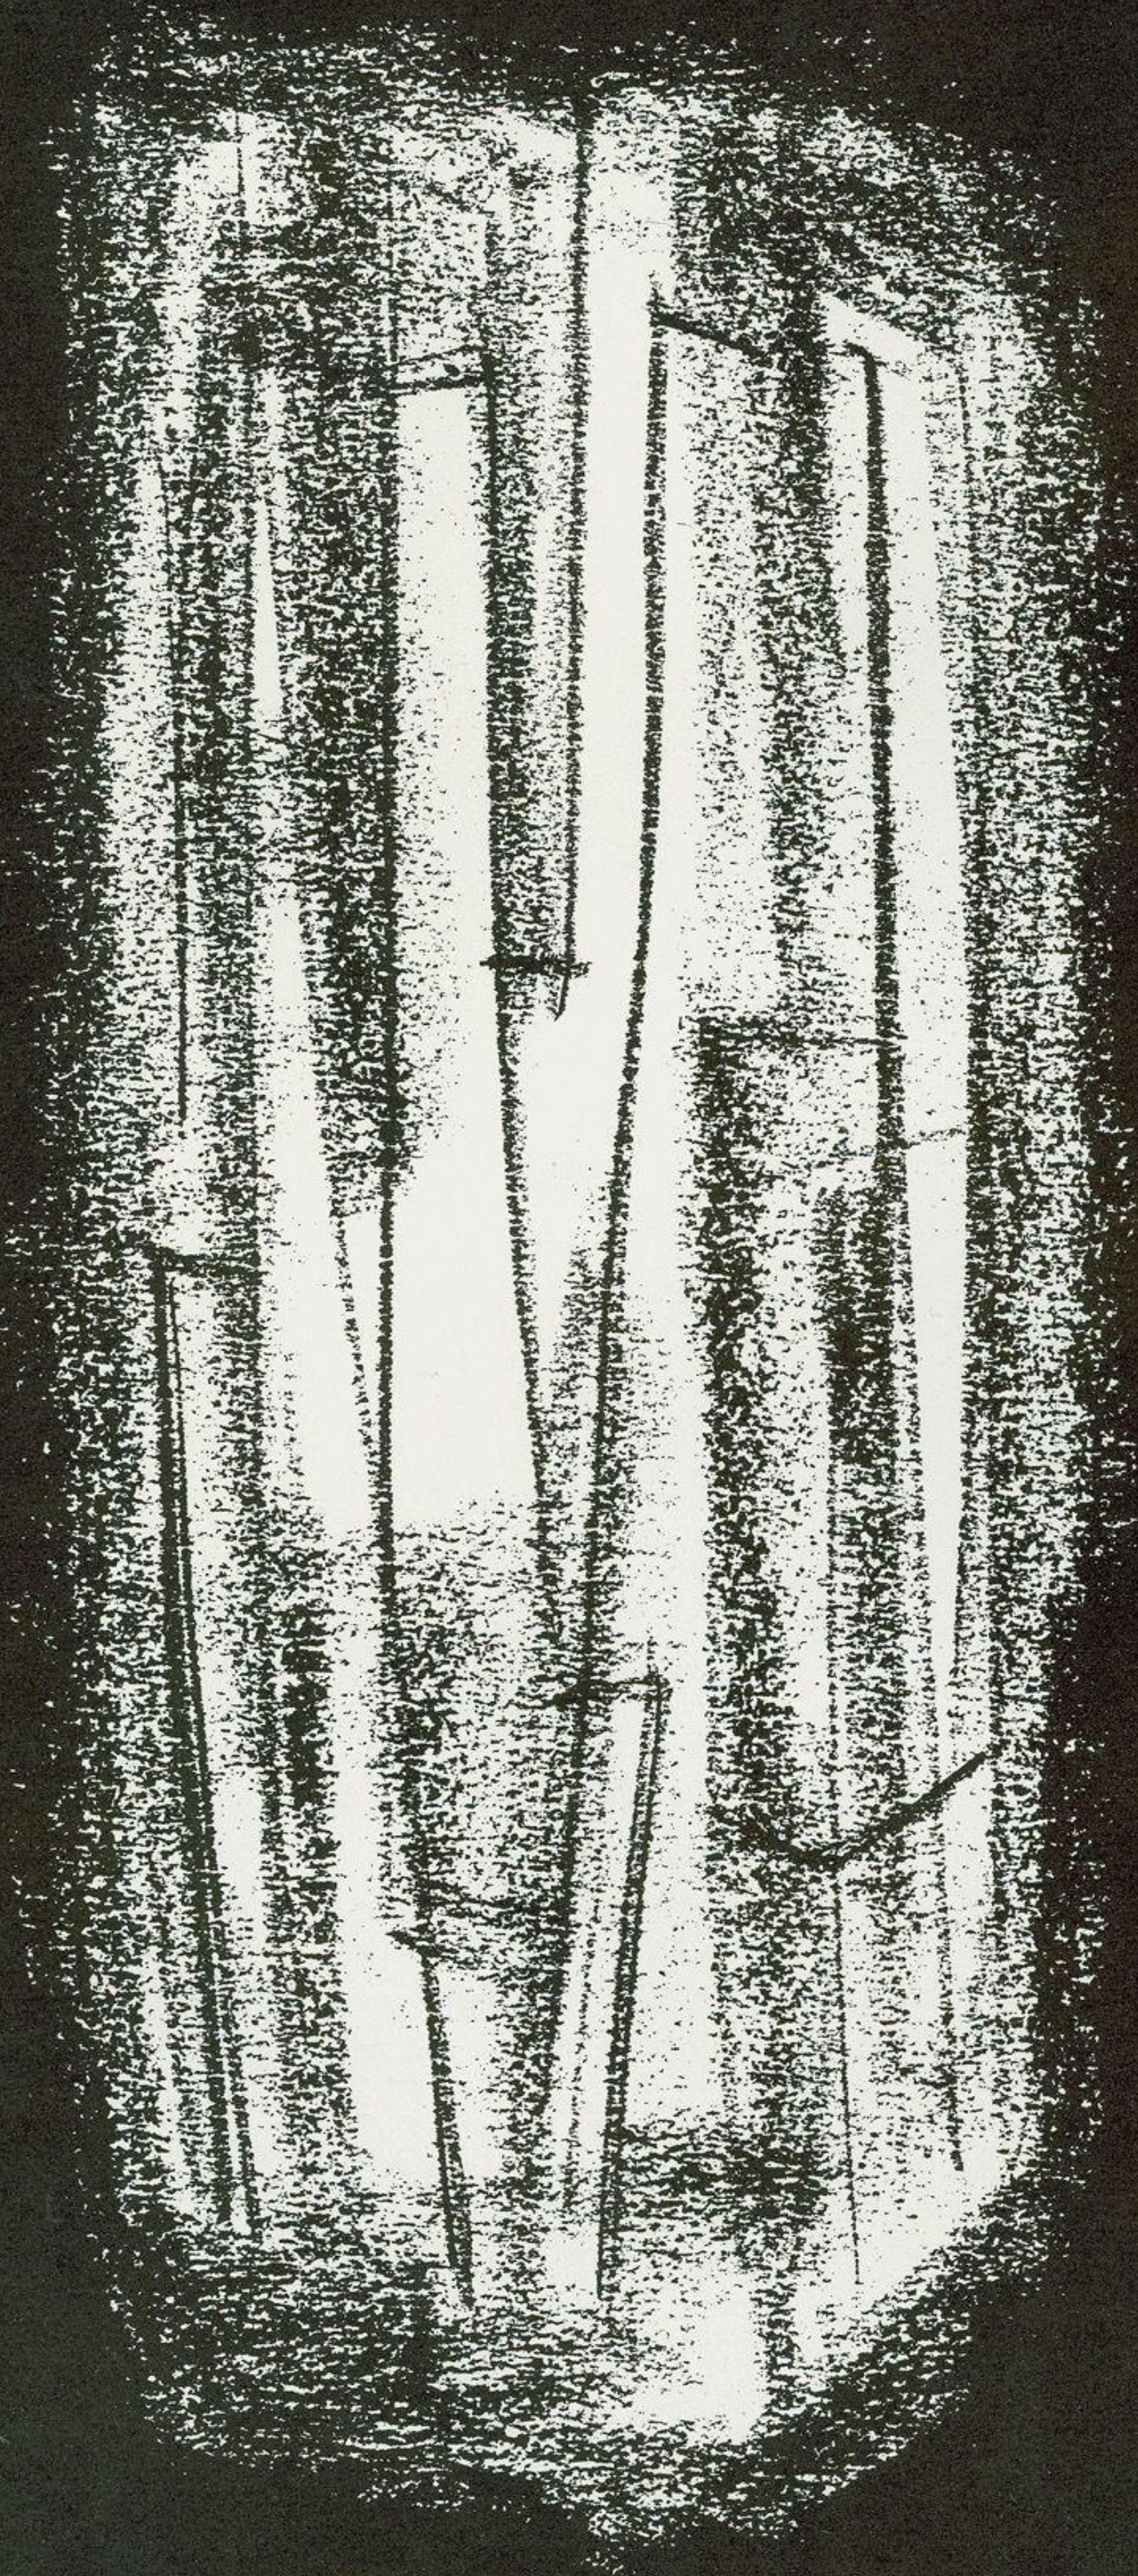

To the senior class:

In recognition of four years of academic achievement, the 1959 Tyee is dedicated to you.

Leadership . . . Highlight of the year was the inauguration of our new president, Dr. Charles E. Odegaard. In his inaugural address Dr. Odegaard promised "advocacy of the realistic needs of the University as it strives to be a great university, serving greatly the people of the state."

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

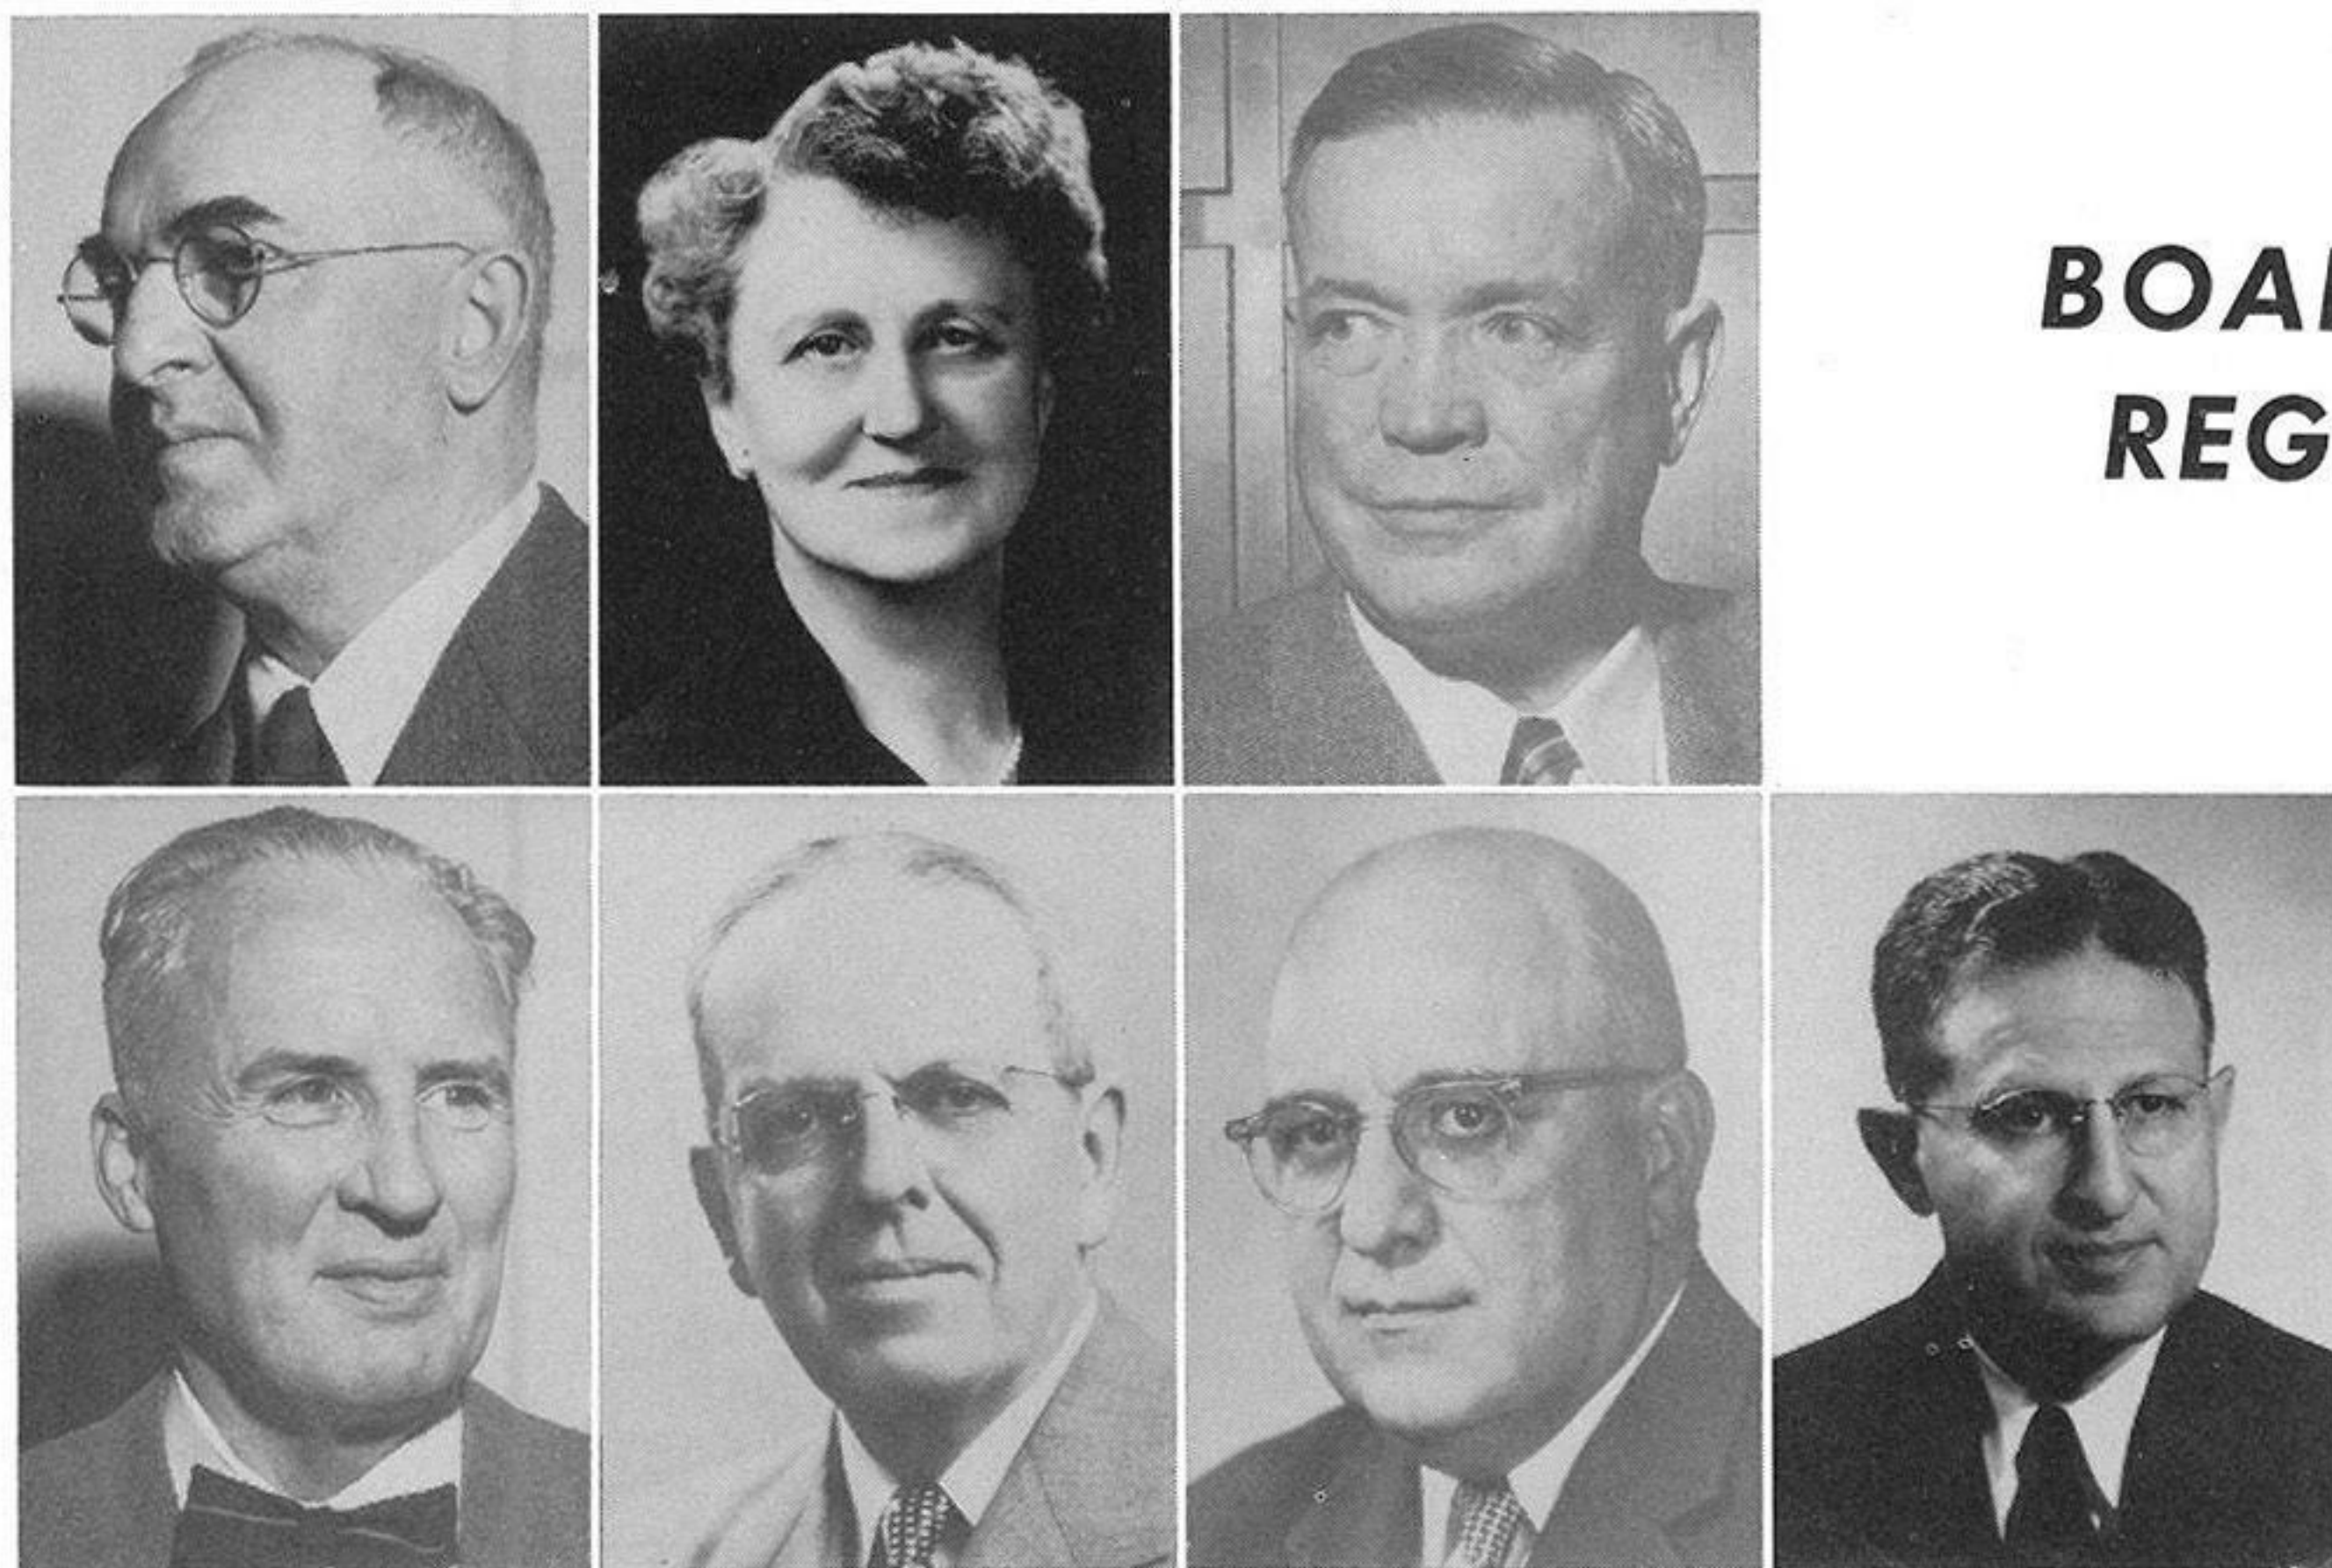

TYEE is a book for a lifetime, a book in which is gathered the record and the spirit of that segment of the University's continuing history with which you have been closely associated.

In its pages you will find reminders of many activities in which you have participated, of events you have witnessed. You will find pictures of friends, student and faculty, you have made during your stay at the University of Washington. As the years go by you will find in thumbing the pages of Tyee occasion to think fondly of many of your experiences at the University.

For all of us on this campus—for students, for the faculty, for the members of the various staffs, and for all of those who share our affection for the University—I extend the warmest greeting to this record of our recent past. To the students who will be leaving the campus in June, I offer my sincerest wishes for success and happiness.

President

For the first time in the history of the United States, it has become apparent to the mass of this nation's people that our national security depends on how well we educate our young.

Higher education is receiving more attention because we suddenly have become aware as a people of its importance.

I have always taken deep satisfaction in the work of the students and faculty at the University of Washington and I have never doubted our ability to produce scientists, technicians and students of the humanities to deal with problems of production and the pressures of a growing population.

But may I emphasize that in addition to our needs in a world race for scientific superiority that our country needs the intelligent direction at every level of government of realistic, conscientious citizens. Apathy at a time when the responsibilities of citizenship are becoming increasingly complex is perhaps the greatest enemy of democracy as we know it.

As students you hold the future of your nation in your hands. Yours is a tremendous responsibility.

Sincerely

Albert D. Rosellini

COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE AND URBAN PLANNING

The College of Architecture and Urban Planning has made many advances. In June, 1957, the title of the School of Architecture was changed to College of Architecture and Urban Planning. Approximately 300 students are registered in this college this year.

Two separate five year programs are offered, one leading to a Bachelor of Architecture degree, the other to a Bachelor of Urban Planning degree. A professional atmosphere is created to help the students learn the fundamentals of good architecture.

Fuhuan Ho, a fourth year architecture student, discusses an arena-theater model with Dean Herrman and Professor Robert Dietz.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Dean Lloyd S. Woodburne

Upon entering college many freshmen are directed to 121 Miller Hall, the main office for the College of Arts and Sciences. This, the largest college in the University, consists of twenty-six departments and the semi-professional schools of Art, Communications, Drama, Home Economics, and Music, and has an enrollment of over 7,000 students this year. A special pre-major program is offered to students who have not yet decided on a major.

Some of these courses were among the first offered at the University. Almost every major includes Arts and Sciences courses. This college plays an important role in preparing all students for a useful and satisfying career.

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The College of Business Administration has been in existence for more than forty years. The numerous courses offered by this college include accounting, advertising, banking, business education, finance, foreign trade, insurance, marketing, office management, personnel, production, real estate, secretarial training, and transportation.

This January, construction was begun on the first unit of the new Business Administration building which will be located between the Art Building and Denny Hall.

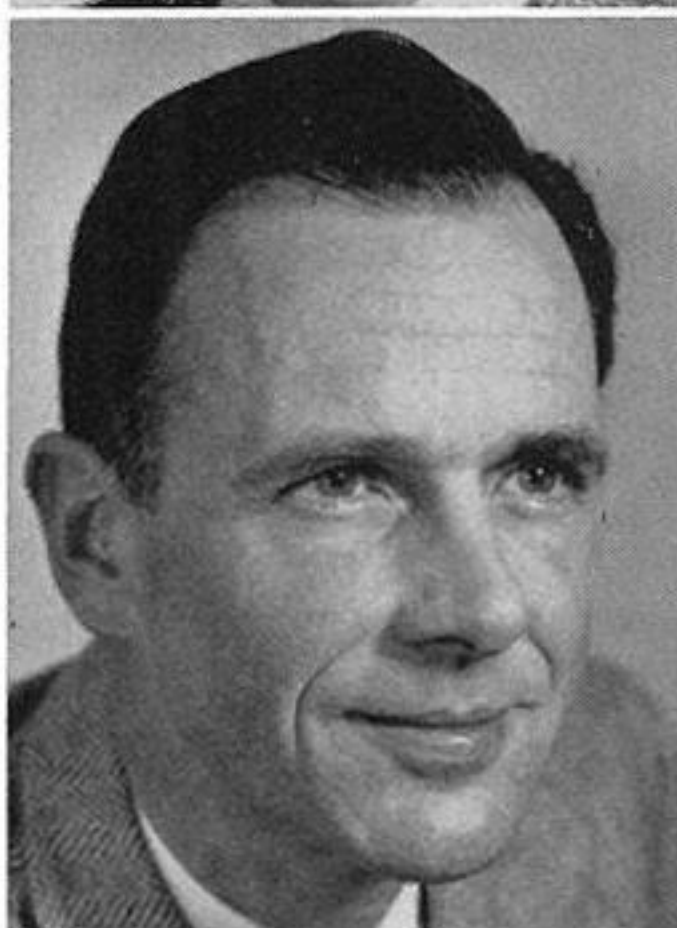

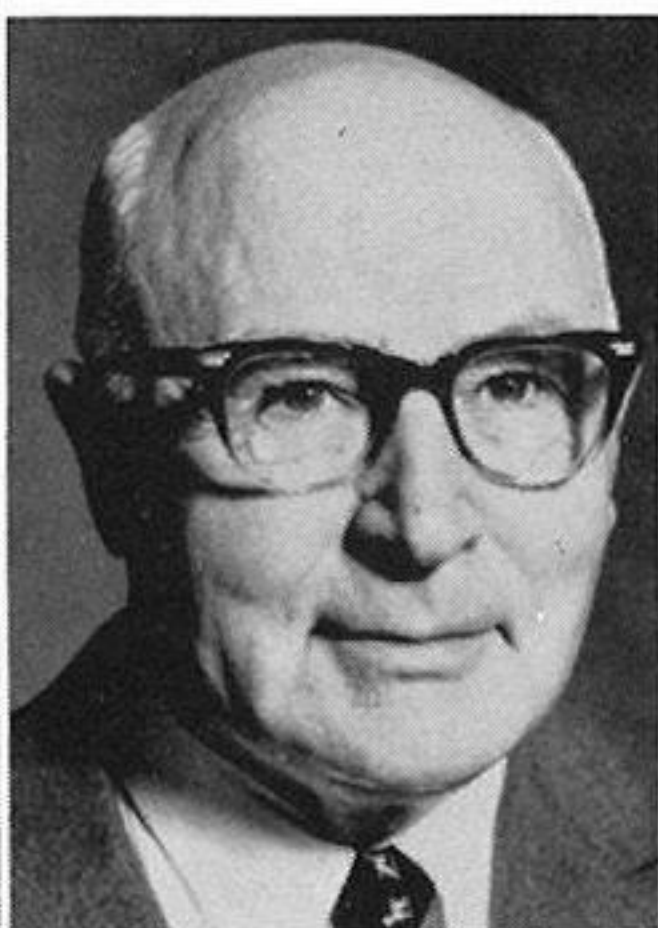

Students in Business Administration are trained in a knowledge of the business world and developed in qualities of character that make them useful, intelligent citizens. They graduate in a field of study which is a vital part of our economy.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The University of Washington was the site of the first teacher training in the state with first instruction given in 1878. In 1914, it became the first College of Education at any state university.

The college offers a cadet teacher training program and also includes a curriculum workshop, a consultative program, and a reading clinic.

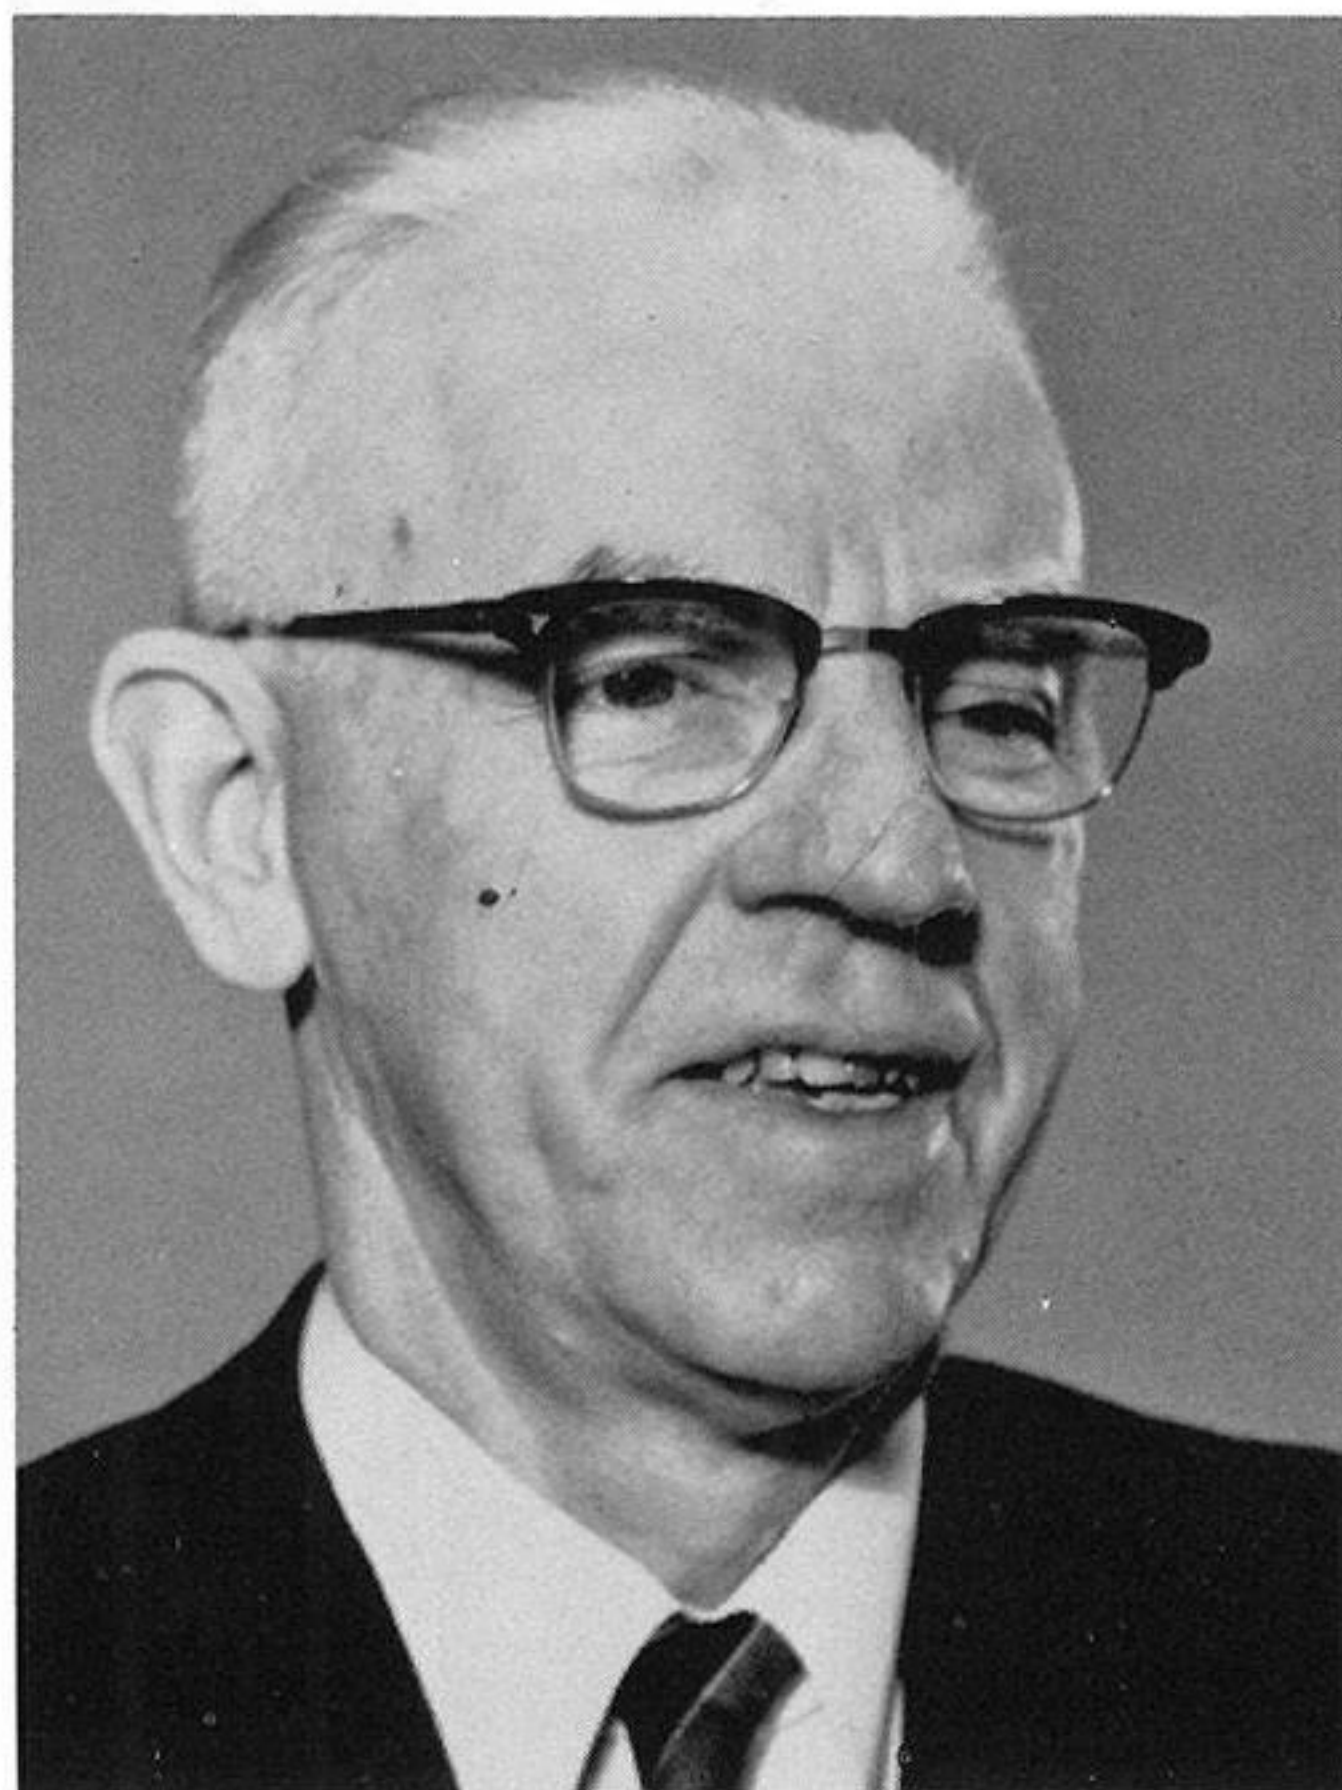

Restoration of elementary and secondary teaching certificates has been a major concern of the College of Education. At present students in teacher training earn a "general" certificate which allows them to teach in any grade through high school. The elementary and secondary certificates provide for specific training at those levels permitting greater intensification in the subject matter area of the student's interest.

Dean Francis F. Powers

Education faculty and students hear a guest speaker from a subject matter department.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

The College of Engineering offers a general course to its freshman students in the General Engineering Department. After the first year, undergraduates may specialize in any one of these fields of engineering: aeronautical, chemical, civil, electrical, mechanical, mining, metallurgical, or ceramic. They also take prescribed courses in humanistic-social studies.

Besides the regular four year program, the college offers a course in industrial engineering for which a second bachelor's degree is awarded at the end of five years.

All curricula are accredited by the Engineers' Council for Professional Development, the principal accrediting agency recognized by the engineering profession in the United States. Among the other schools throughout the country, the College of Engineering at the University of Washington is recognized as a pioneer in its establishment of a nuclear engineering program.

COLLEGE OF FISHERIES

Throughout the history of the University, interest has been taken in the natural resources of the Northwest. This interest was evidenced by the establishment of the College of Fisheries in 1919.

This college offers students an ideal balance of laboratory, classroom, and practical experience.

In January, 1958, the Board of Regents reaffirmed this interest and recognized the importance of fisheries to the economy of the area by incorporating the two fisheries groups on the campus, the School of Fisheries and the Fisheries Research Institute, into the re-established College of Fisheries.

Dean Richard Van Cleve

COLLEGE OF FORESTRY

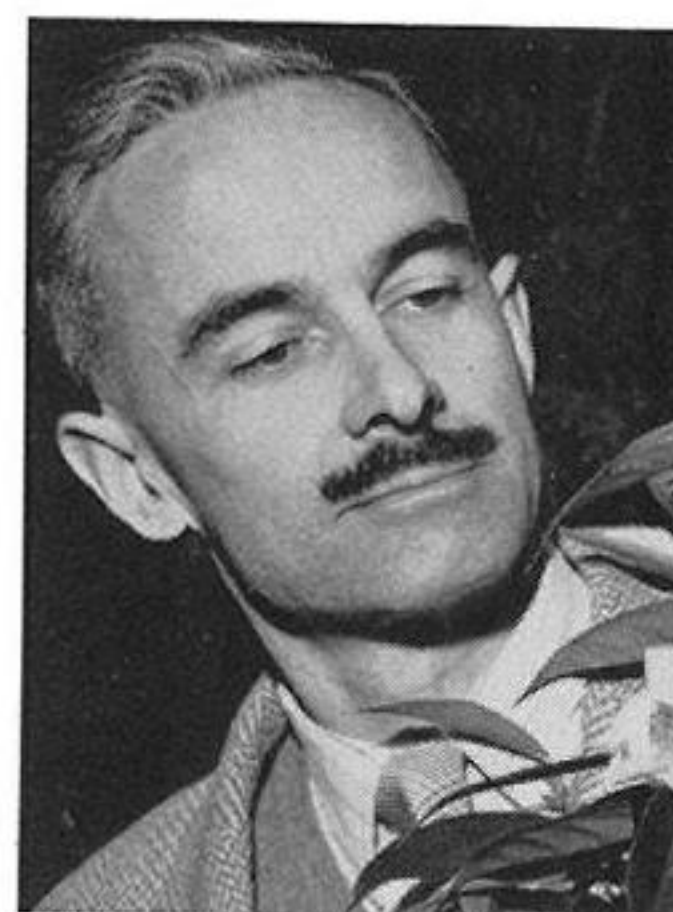

The College of Forestry at the University, founded in 1907, is accredited by the Society of American Foresters. This college trains its students in forest management, logging engineering, and forest products. Situated in the center of the northwest's lumber-producing area, the University offers students the opportunity to gain experience while working for their degrees.

A highlight in the college this year is the 50th Anniversary celebration of Xi Sigma Pi, forestry honorary. One of its founders on this campus, Dr. Bror Grondal, professor of forest products, is retiring after forty-five years of service to the University of Washington in the College of Forestry.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

Dean Jack E. Orr

The College of Pharmacy at the University, established in 1894, is accredited by the American Council of Pharmaceutical Education as a class "A" college. Its five year program, initiated in 1957, includes one year of pre-pharmacy and four years of professional pharmacy curricula.

This college is administratively part of the Division of Health Sciences, and presently occupies quarters in Bagley Hall. At some future date, a pharmacy wing will be added to the Health Sciences Building.

These pharmacy students are gaining practical experience through laboratory work.

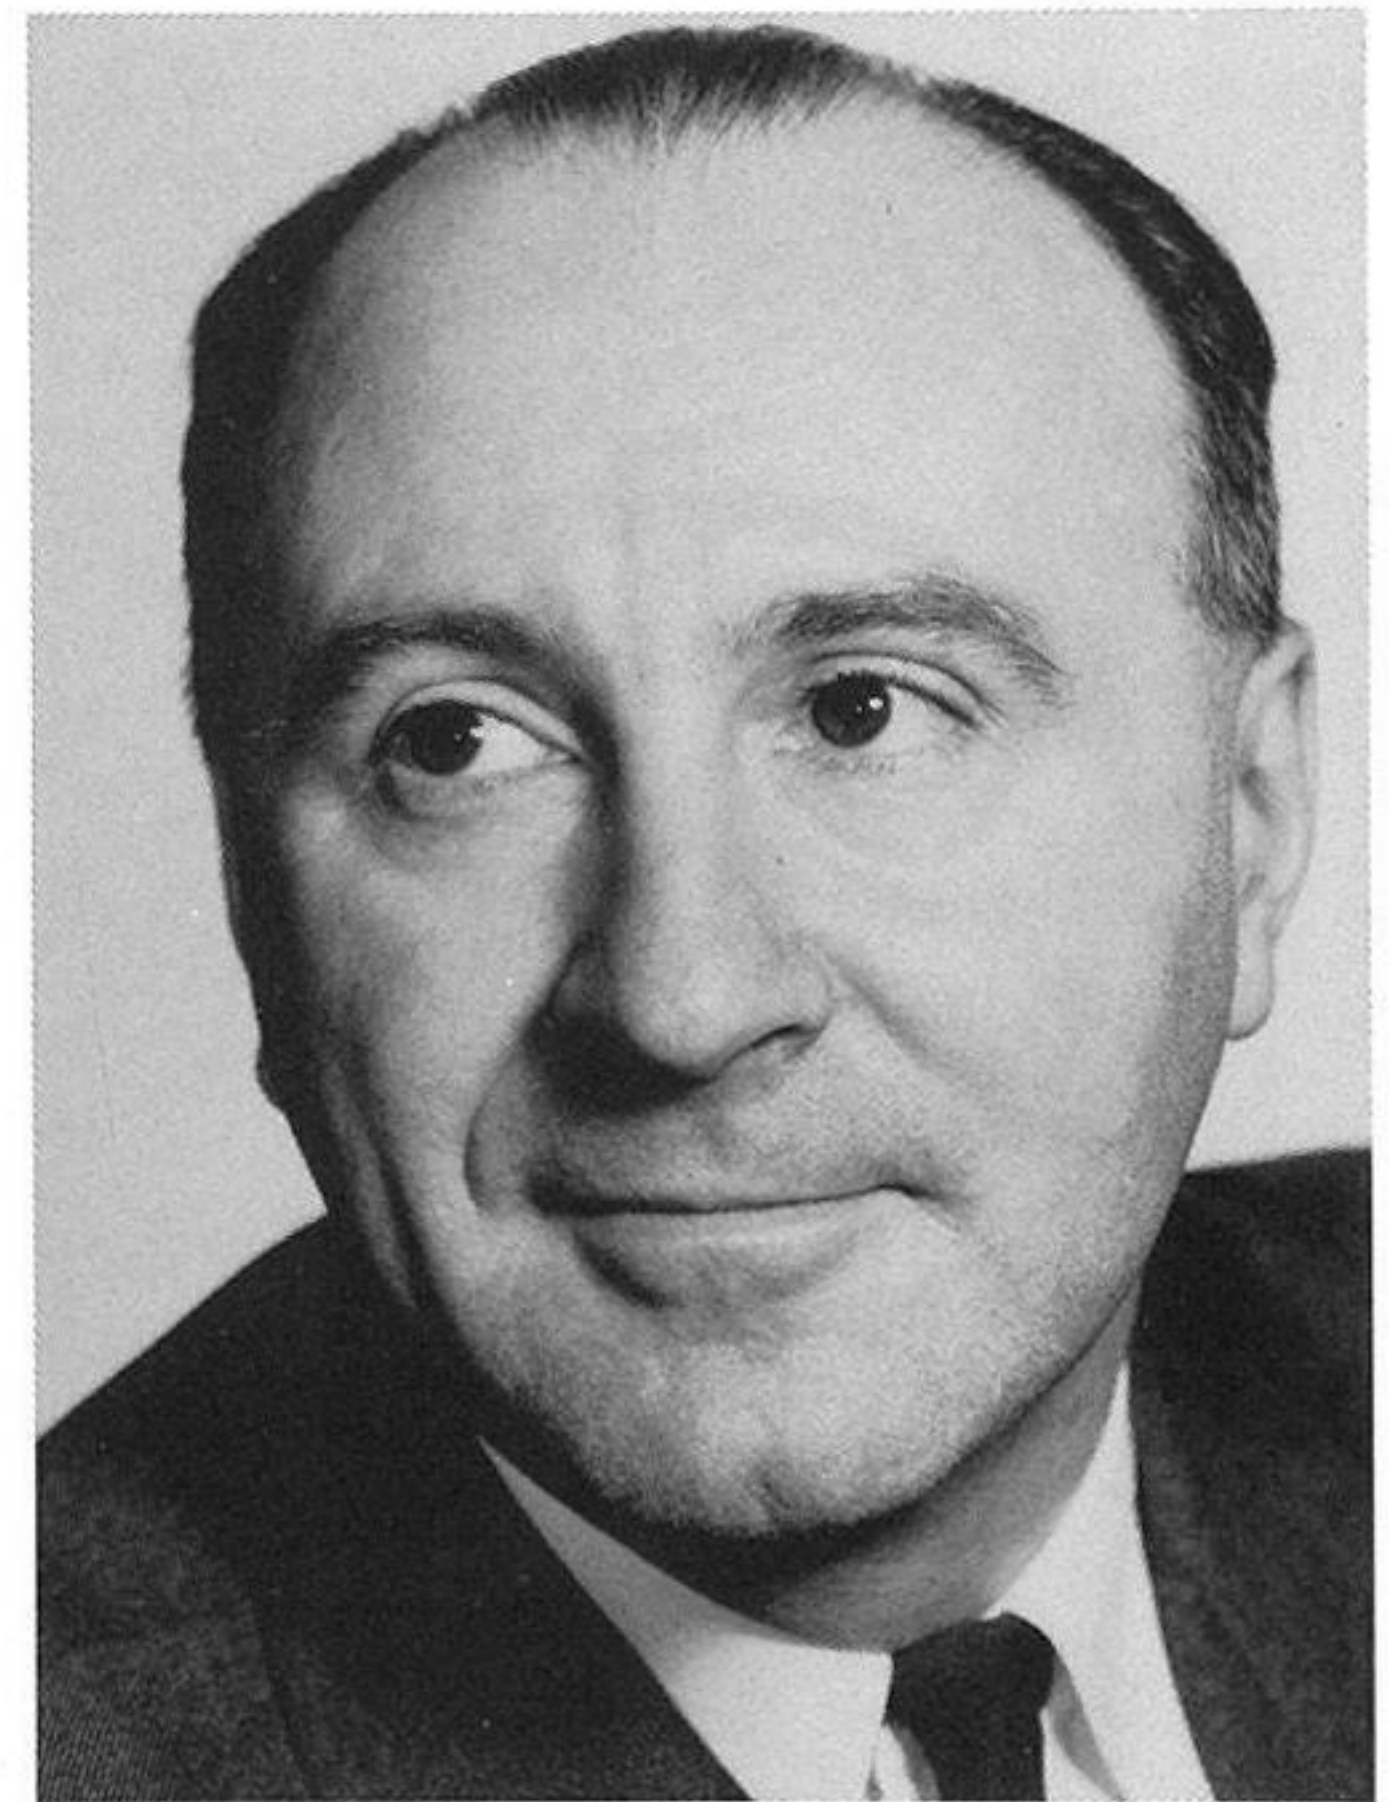

SCHOOL OF LAW

The School of Law was established at the University in 1899. It is presently situated in Condon Hall. This building is particularly designed and constructed for the particular needs of a law school.

The School is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is approved by the Council of Legal Education and Admission to the Bar of the American Bar Association. With the assistance of the faculty, the Student Bar Association conducts an extensive moot court competition.

Judges, lawyers, faculty, and students participate in the moot court conducted by the Student Bar Association.

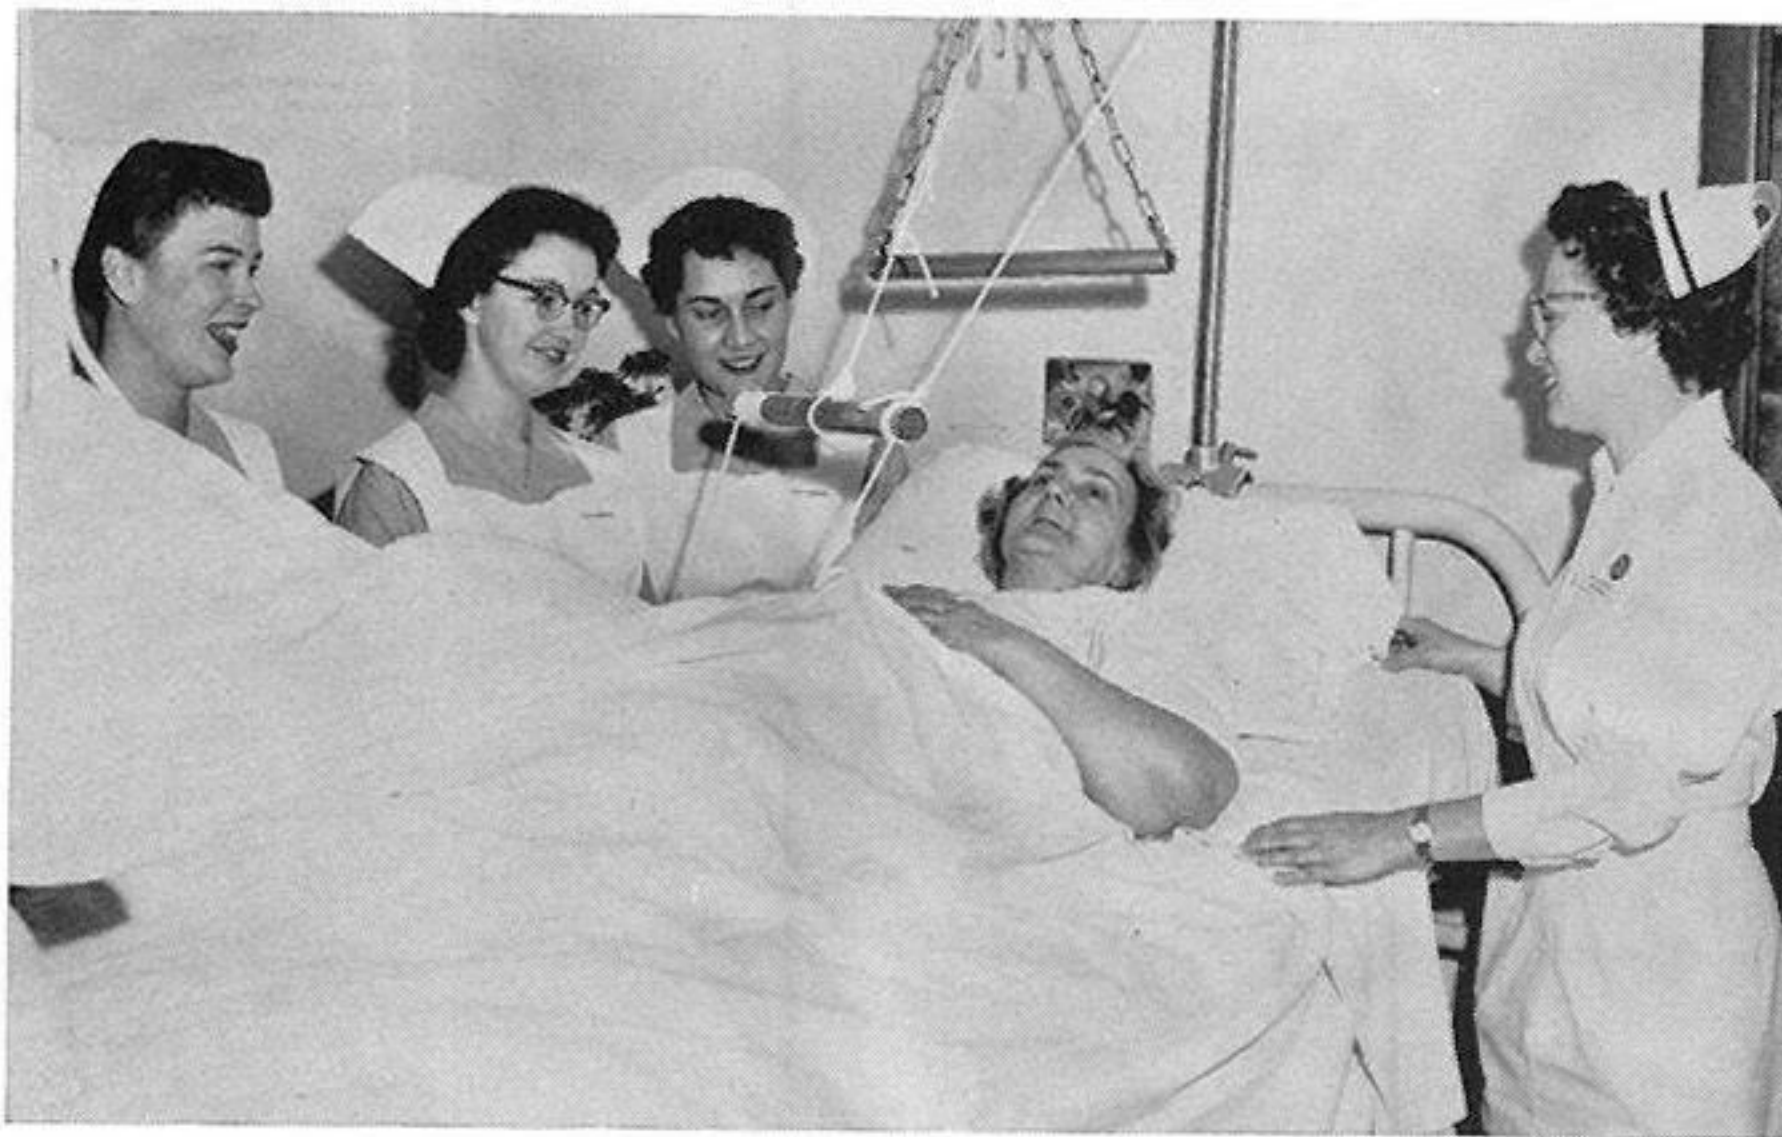

Dean George N. Stevens

SCHOOL OF NURSING

In 1945 the School of Nursing became an autonomous professional school with its own administrative organization, dean, and faculty.

This school prepares professional nurses through a four year program leading to a Bachelor of Science degree. Before graduation each student attains practical experience by doing part-time work at Harborview, Swedish, or Virginia Mason Hospitals. Also offered is the graduate program leading to a Master's degree.

This spring additional opportunities were made available to nursing students when the University Hospital opened. This addition completes the Health Sciences Building.

Dean Mary S. Tschudin

Seattle hospitals provide practical experience for the student nurses.

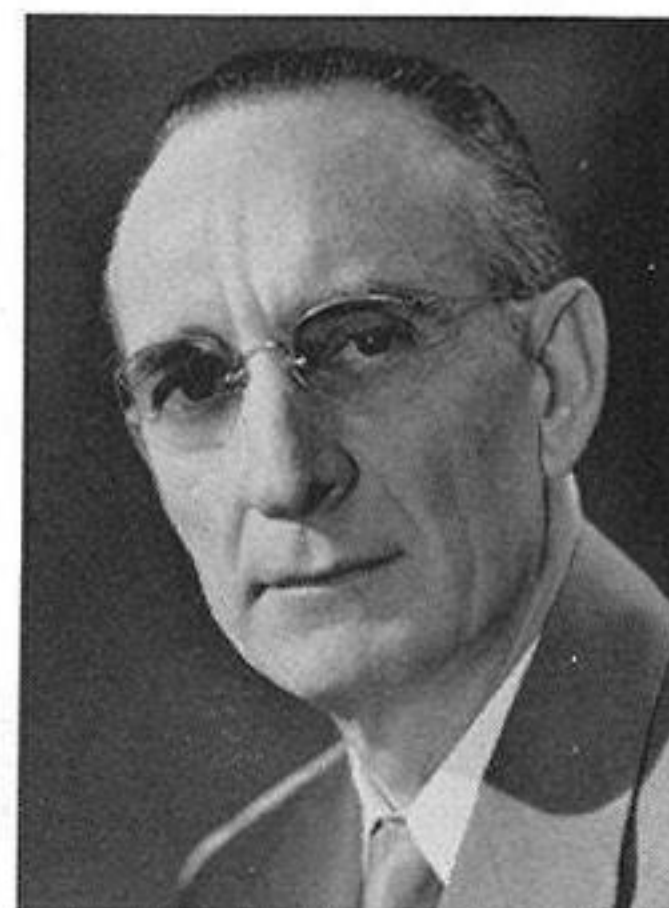

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

Dr. Maurice J. Hickey, Dean

The School of Dentistry was fully established at the University in the fall of 1946. Since January, 1949, it has been located in the Health Sciences Building. The school is accredited by the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association and the American Association of Dental Schools.

Only select students are admitted to the School of Dentistry and trained by its excellent educational techniques. Admission to actual practice relies upon passing the state dental examination and meeting state board requirements.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Dr. George N. Aagaard

Student research is emphasized in the School of Medicine.

The 1945 Legislature authorized the establishment of the School of Medicine. The University is noted for its excellent medical school which places particular emphasis on medical research. The School is affiliated with King County Hospital, Veterans' Administration, Children's Orthopedic Hospital, United States Health Service, and the mental hospitals at Medical Lake, Steilacoom, and Sedro Woolley.

The University Hospital, which began admitting patients this spring, is staffed by many of the teachers of the medical school faculty who are assisted by the medical students. The opening of the hospital will expand the graduate program which offers advanced study in a number of specialty fields.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

The School of Social Work was established in March, 1958, by the Board of Regents of the University of Washington. Prior to this date, instruction in social work was offered through the Graduate School of Social Work.

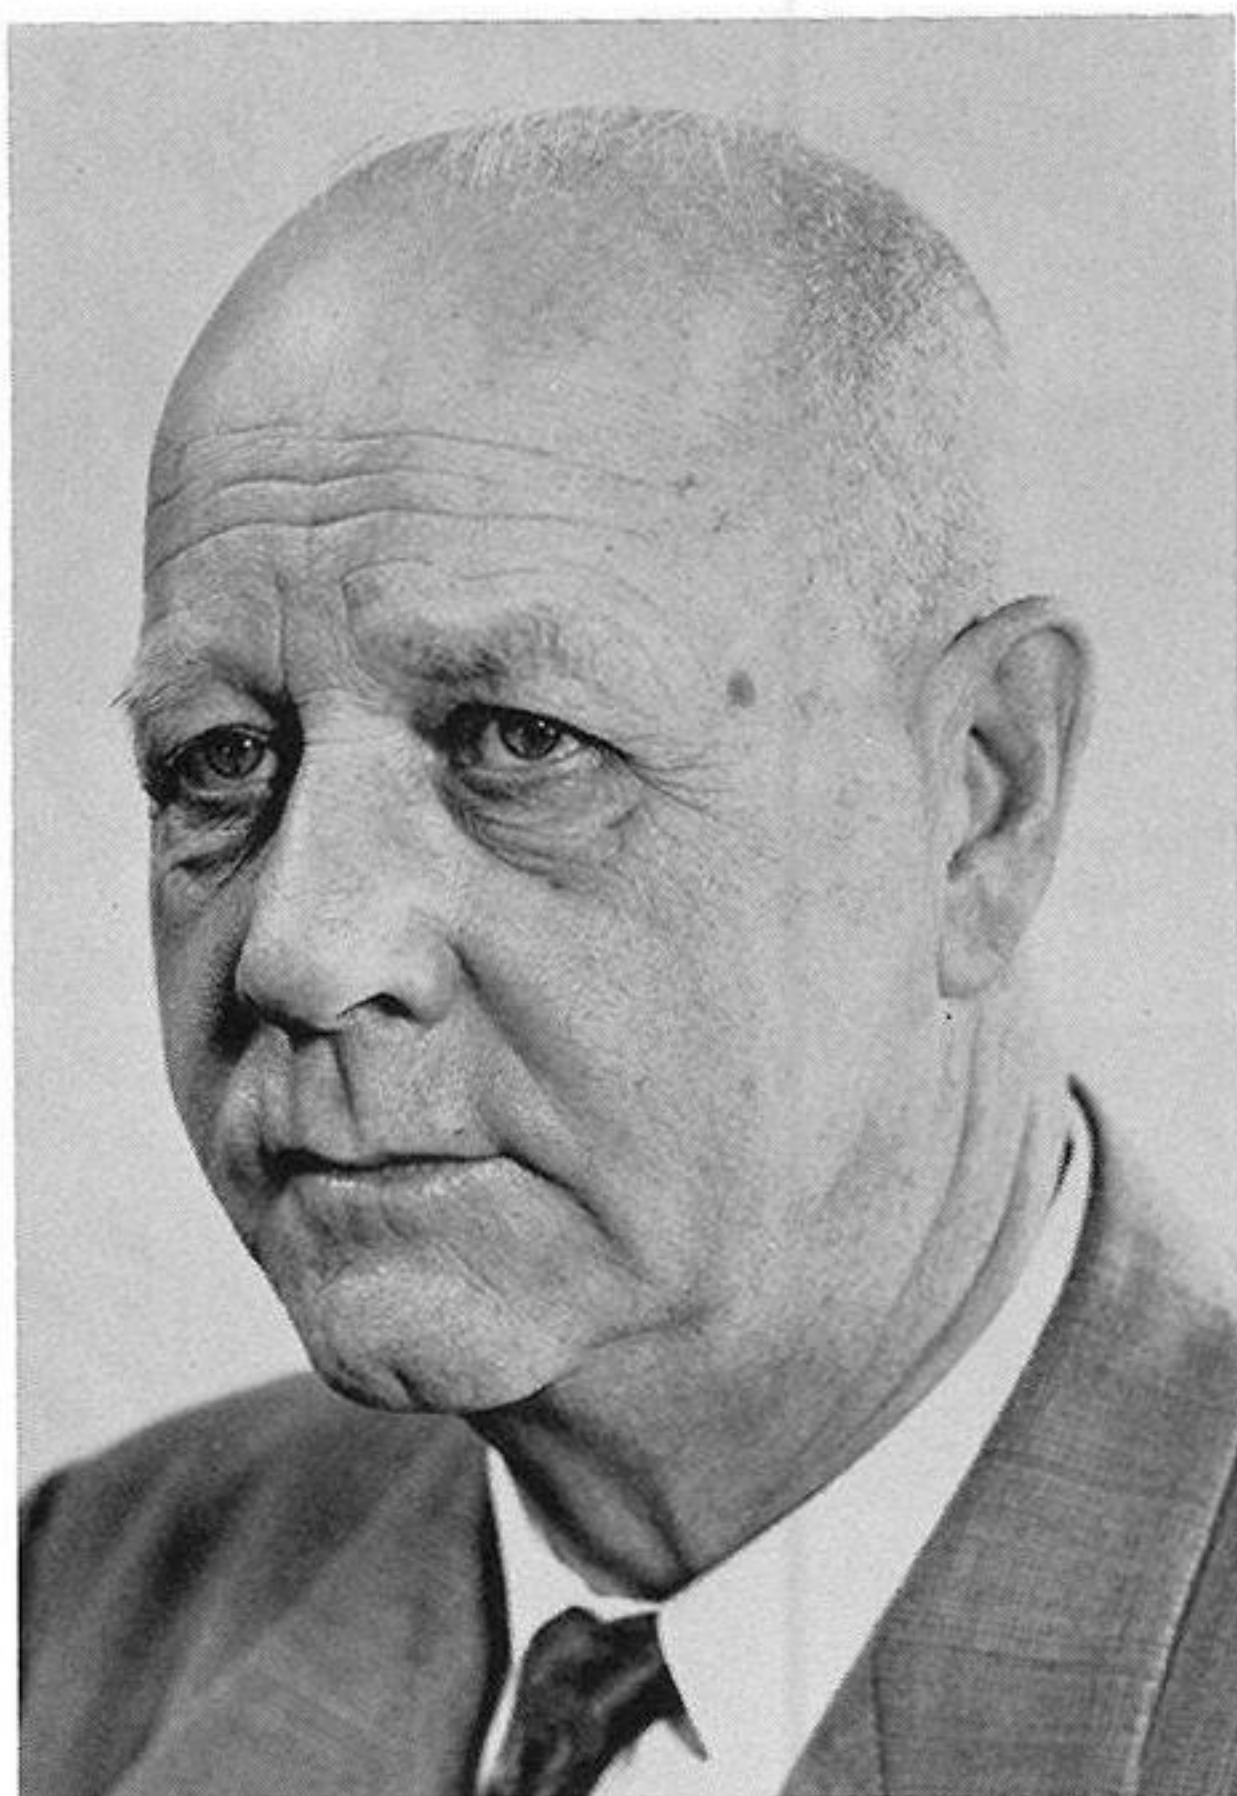

Instruction in social work was first offered at the University in 1919 under the department of sociology. The Graduate Division of Social Work was then established in 1934, and in 1939 it became the Graduate School of Social Work. Today the School of Social Work is recognized as an independent professional school. It is fully accredited by the Accreditation Commission of the Council on Social Work Education.

The School provides educational preparation for positions of professional responsibility in public and private agencies. A preprofessional program is also offered through the College of Arts and Sciences.

The Graduate School at the University of Washington is administratively in charge of graduate study in whatever division of the University such study is undertaken. This involves the supervision of student programs beyond formal undergraduate work, or work of the professional schools into areas of advanced training, research, and scholarship.

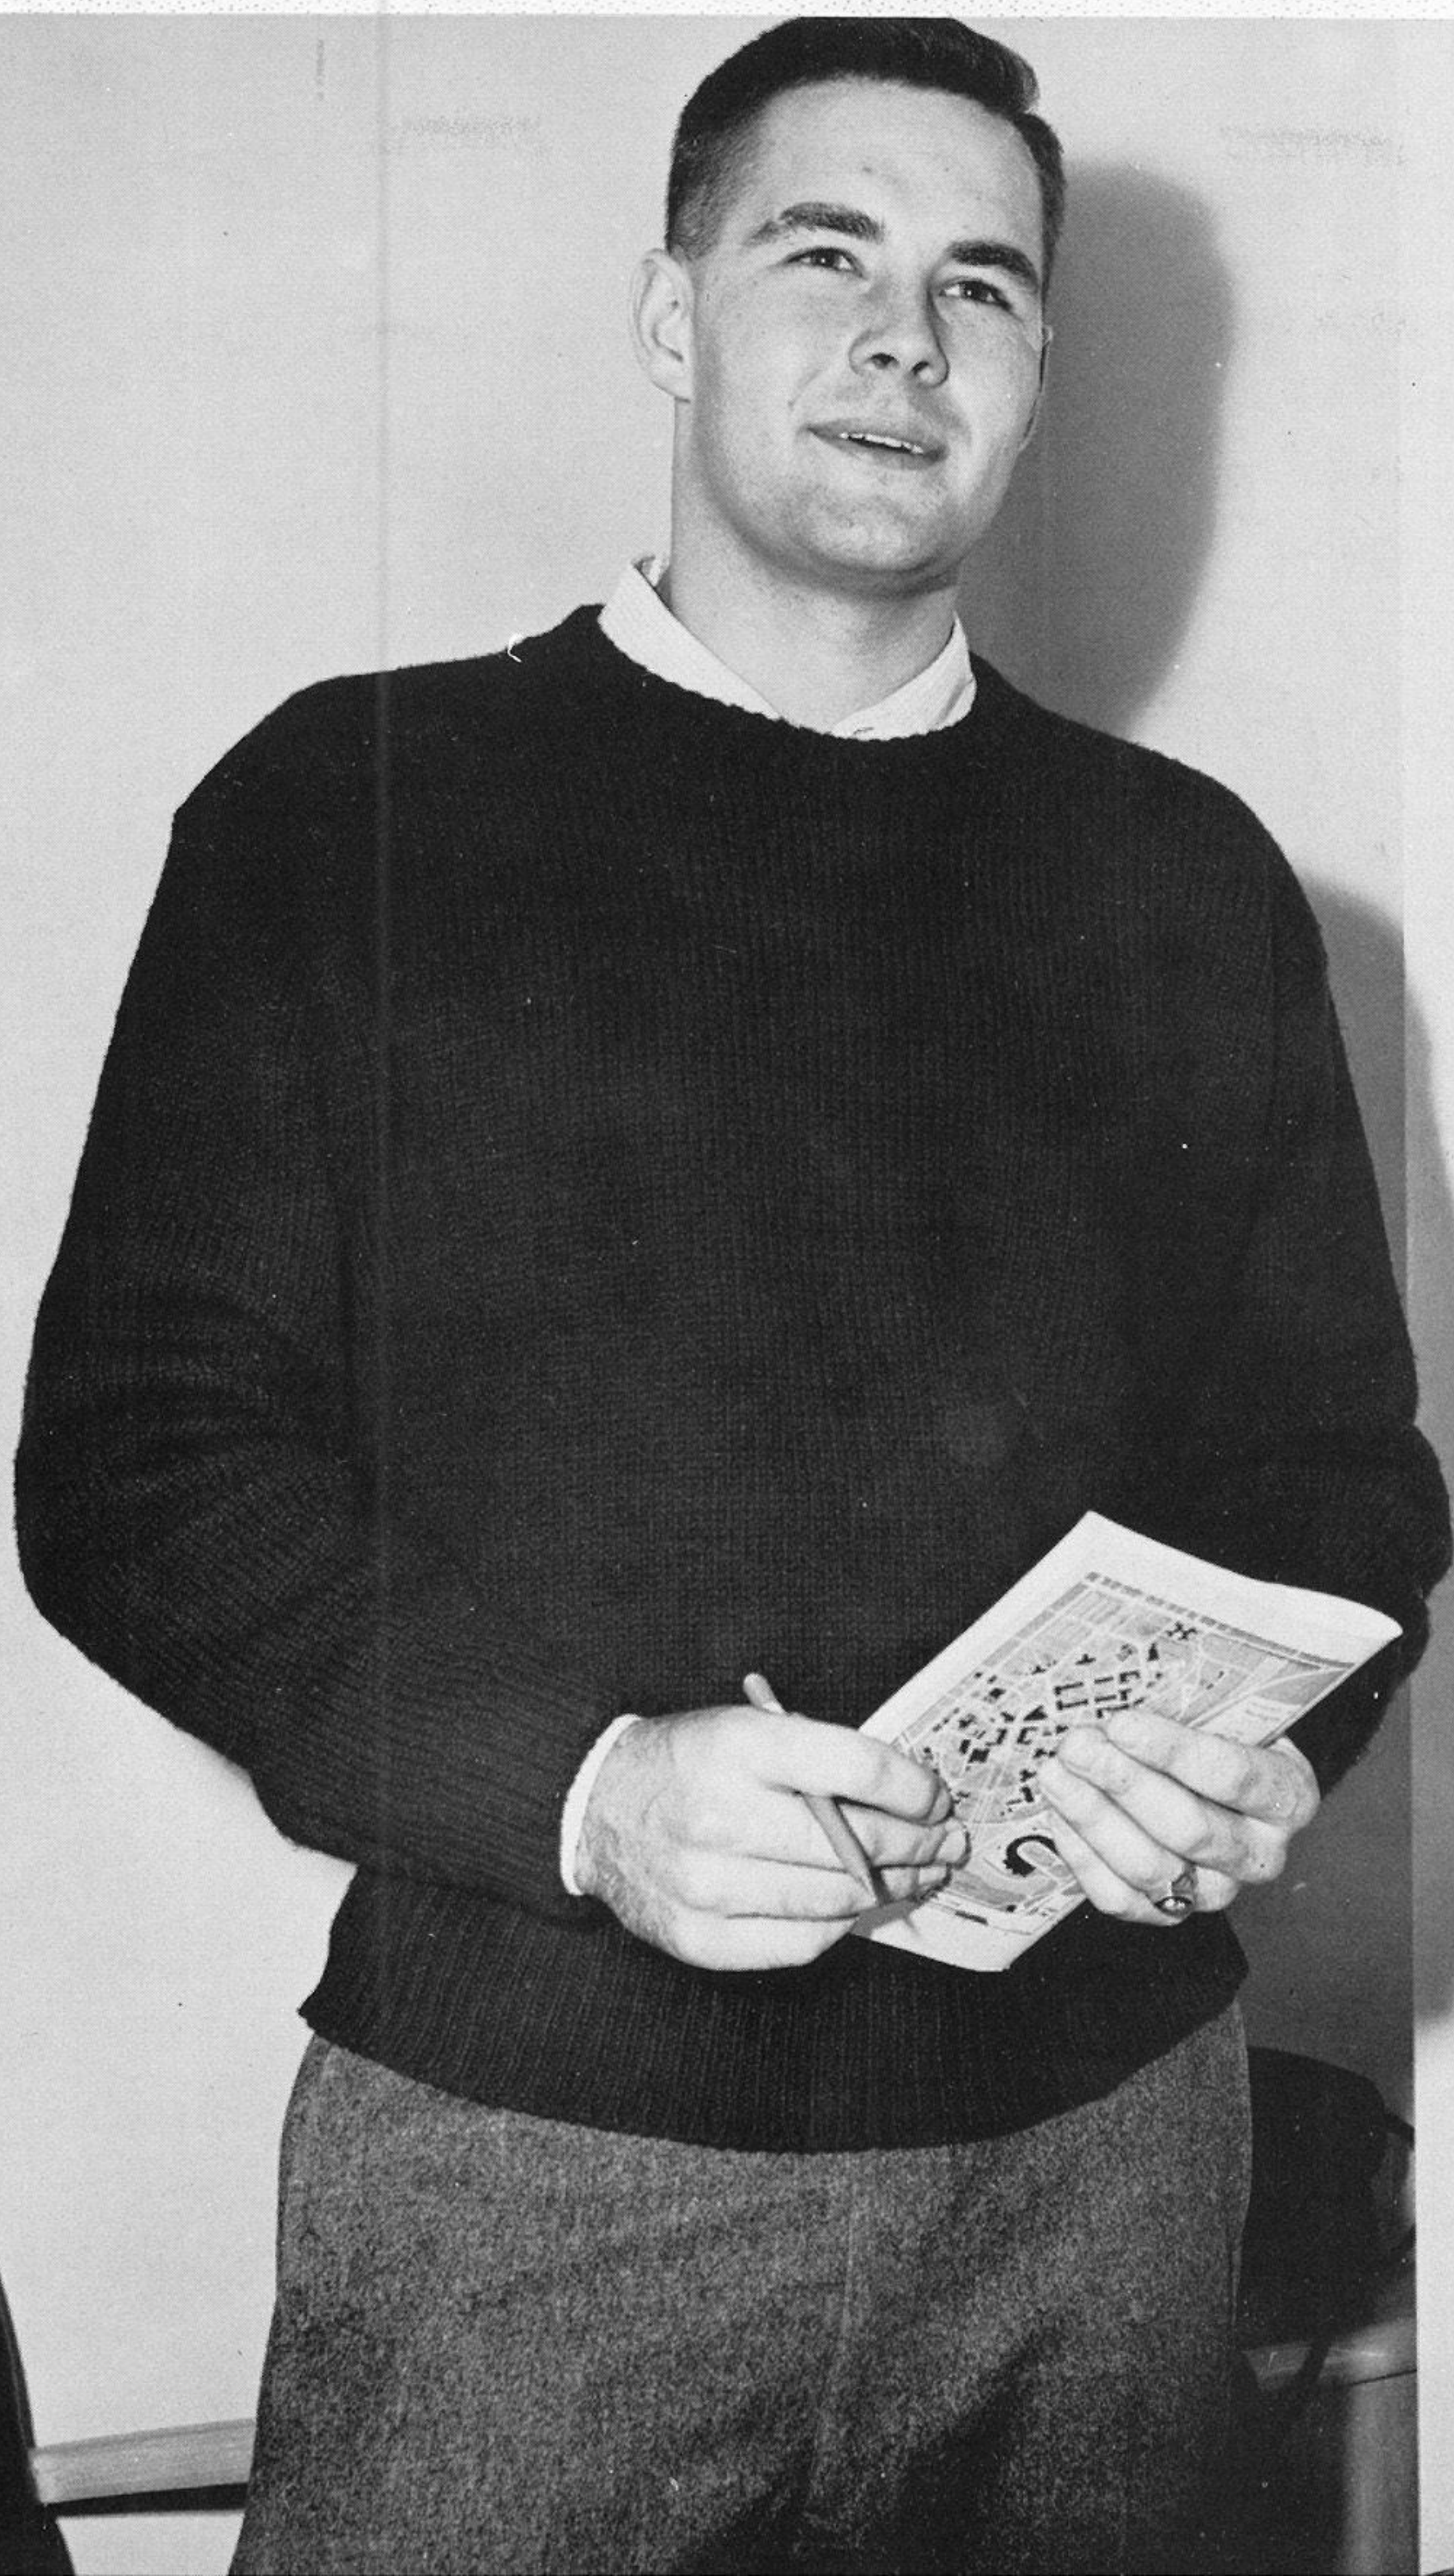

Research is of particular concern to the Graduate School. Almost every phase of the graduate student's career is dominated by the research idea.

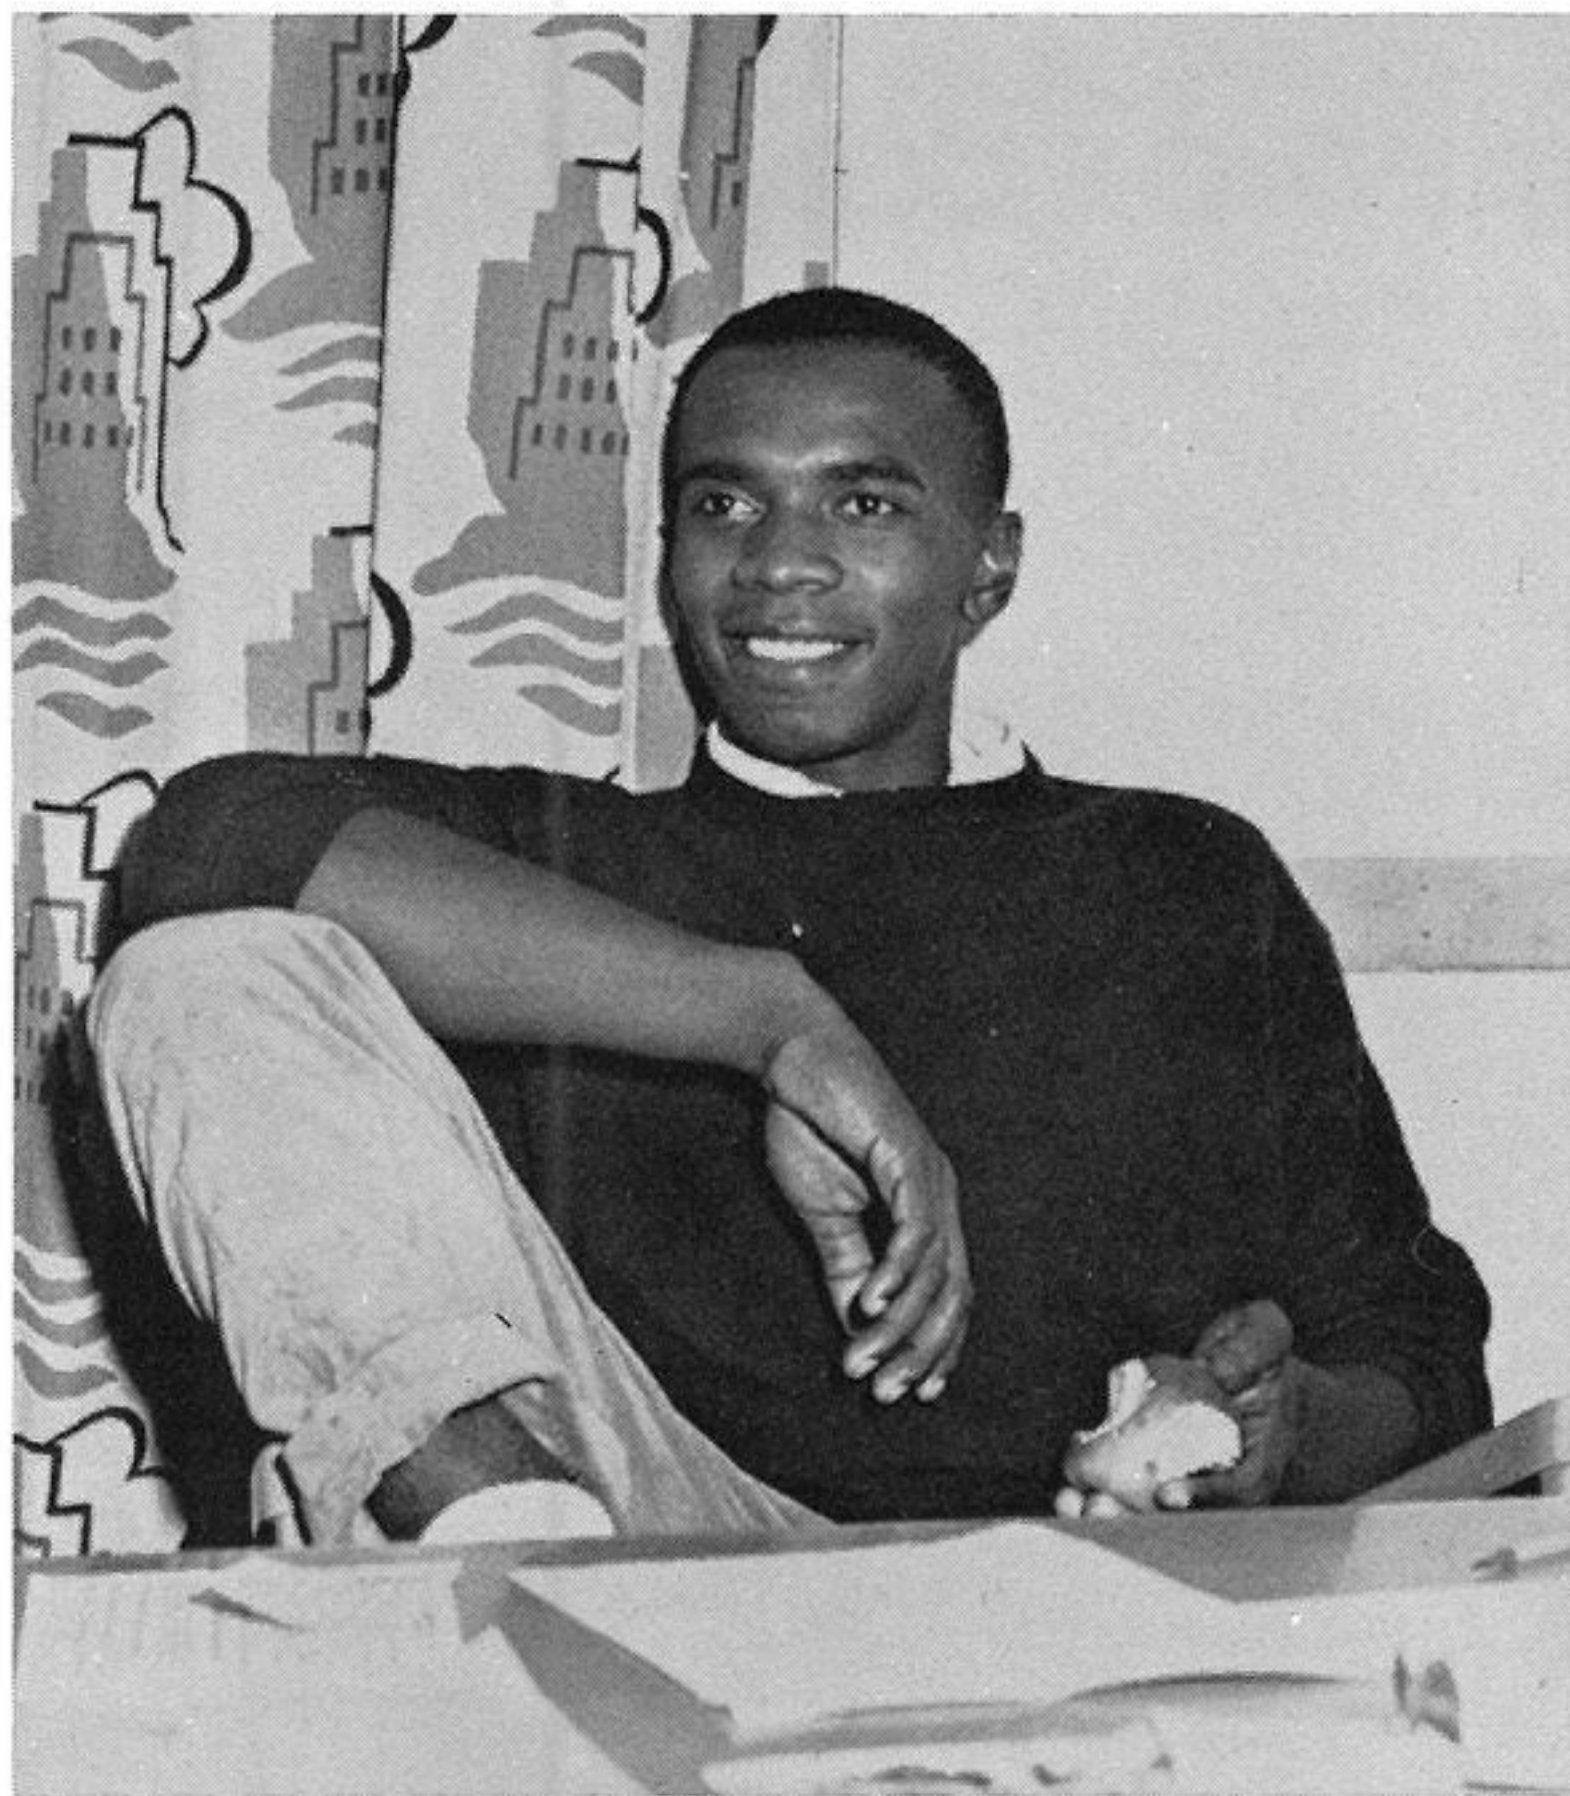

Graduate students in the College of Fisheries further their studies in the Fisheries Research Institute.

Undergraduate Honors 1958-59

The undergraduate honors are compiled from those students whose names have appeared on two or more of the quarterly scholarship lists of the preceding year at the University, as well as two-thirds of all quarters here. Transfer students appearing on these lists are those who entered with averages approximately equivalent to those of the students who have attended only the University of Washington.

The undefeated eight man shells of Washington oared their way to a victorious 1958 season making a clean sweep of the Pacific Coast Conference. Ulbrickson's navy outrawed Stanford and UBC with a time of 14:07.1 to Stanford's 14:38.3. At Cal, Washington drowned the Bears with a time of 14:30 to 14:48.9. The Huskies then returned to churn the calm waters of Lake Washington and outdistance the University of British Columbia and Oregon State in the 2,000 meter sprint race, chalking up a time of 6:05 to 6:09.2 and 6:30 respectively. This win sent the Huskies to Henley.

Below: Varsity crew. John Bisset, John Sayre, Andy Hovland, Lou Gellerman, Chuck Alm, Phil Kieburtz, Gene Phillips, Dick Erickson and Bob Svendsen.

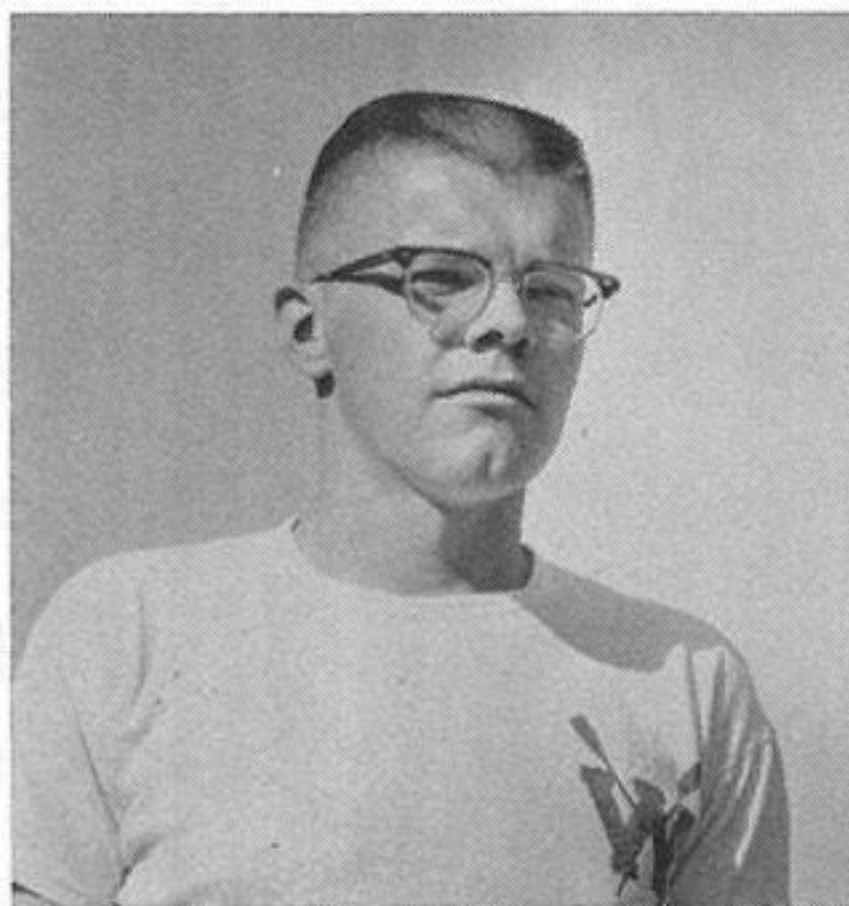

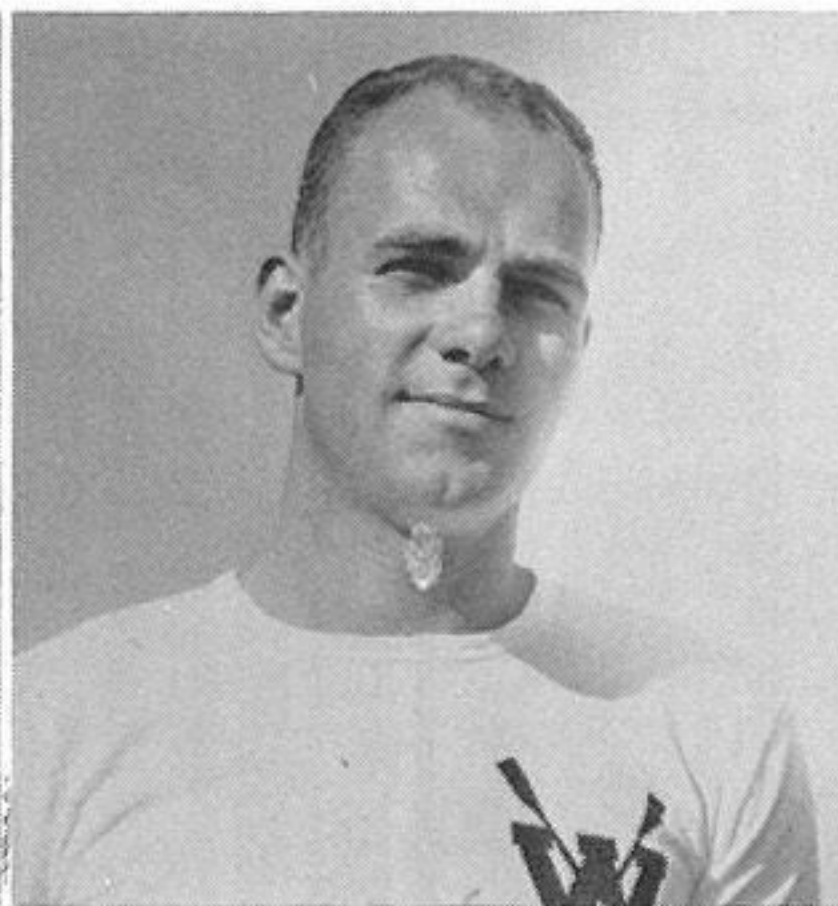

This triumphant season led to the invitation to Europe. The Huskies competed for the Grand Challenge Cup at Henley on Thames, England, where they were defeated by the Leningrad Trud Club of Russia. Washington then accepted an invitation to row in the Russian tournament and smoothly turned the tables on the Leningrad Club to even the score and to claim the Moscow Cup.

The Junior Varsity boat furnished a promise for next year as they swept the conference by beating California in a time of 14:59 and the Stanford Indian boat with a time of 14:14 for the three-mile course. A victory over the University of British Columbia crew finished the season.

The crew of '61 followed in the wake of the upperclassmen and established a new record during the season. Rowing against the Stanford freshmen, the Pups chalked up a record-breaking 10:09.1 for the two-mile course. A win over the California frosh climaxed a victorious season for Washington.

Frosh crew: Brian Wagar, Dick Fulton, Ed Argersinger, Jim Bingman, Ron Wolfkill (kneeling), John Wilcox, Fred Raney, Bob Diehl and George Olstad.

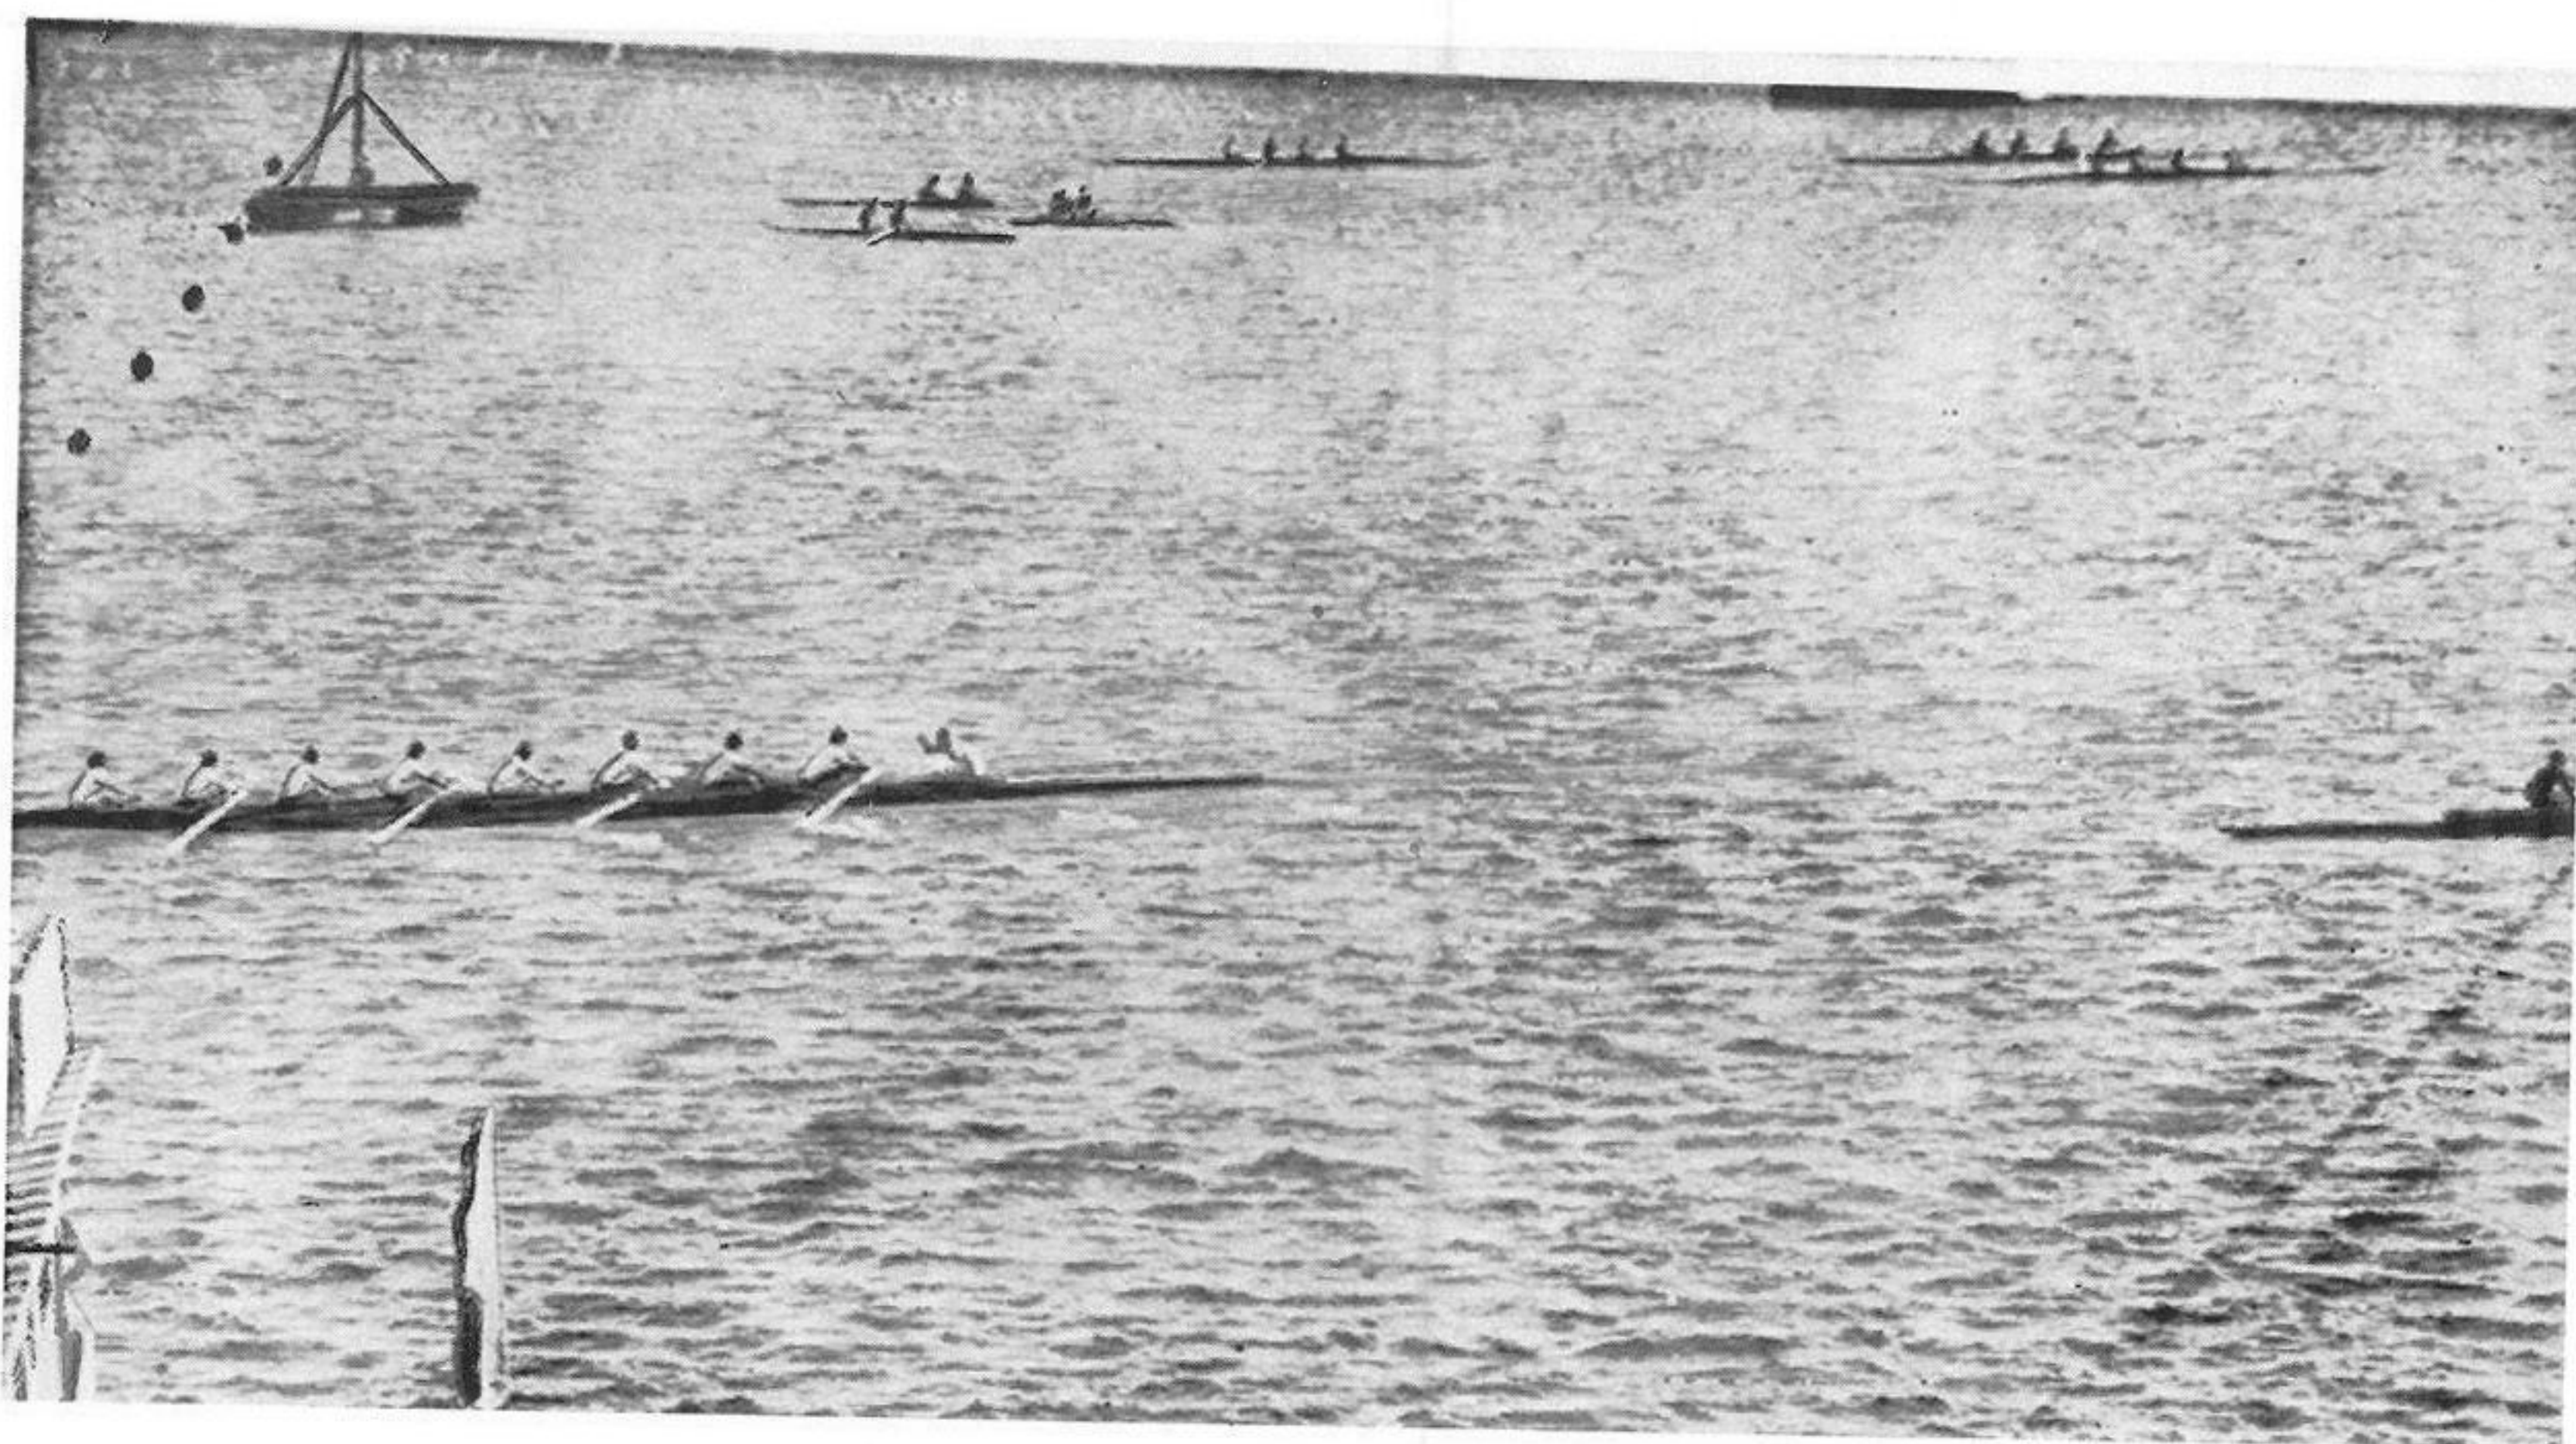

Managers: L. Snider, D. Shaw, D. Hielman, D. Evans, G. Steiner, R. Haffner and H. Pebbles, head manager.

MOSCOW, RUSSIA

Below: The varsity boat upset all pre-race expectations July 19, when they finished one and one-half lengths ahead of the Leningrad Trud crew in their 2,000 meter race. Time: 6 minutes 24 seconds.

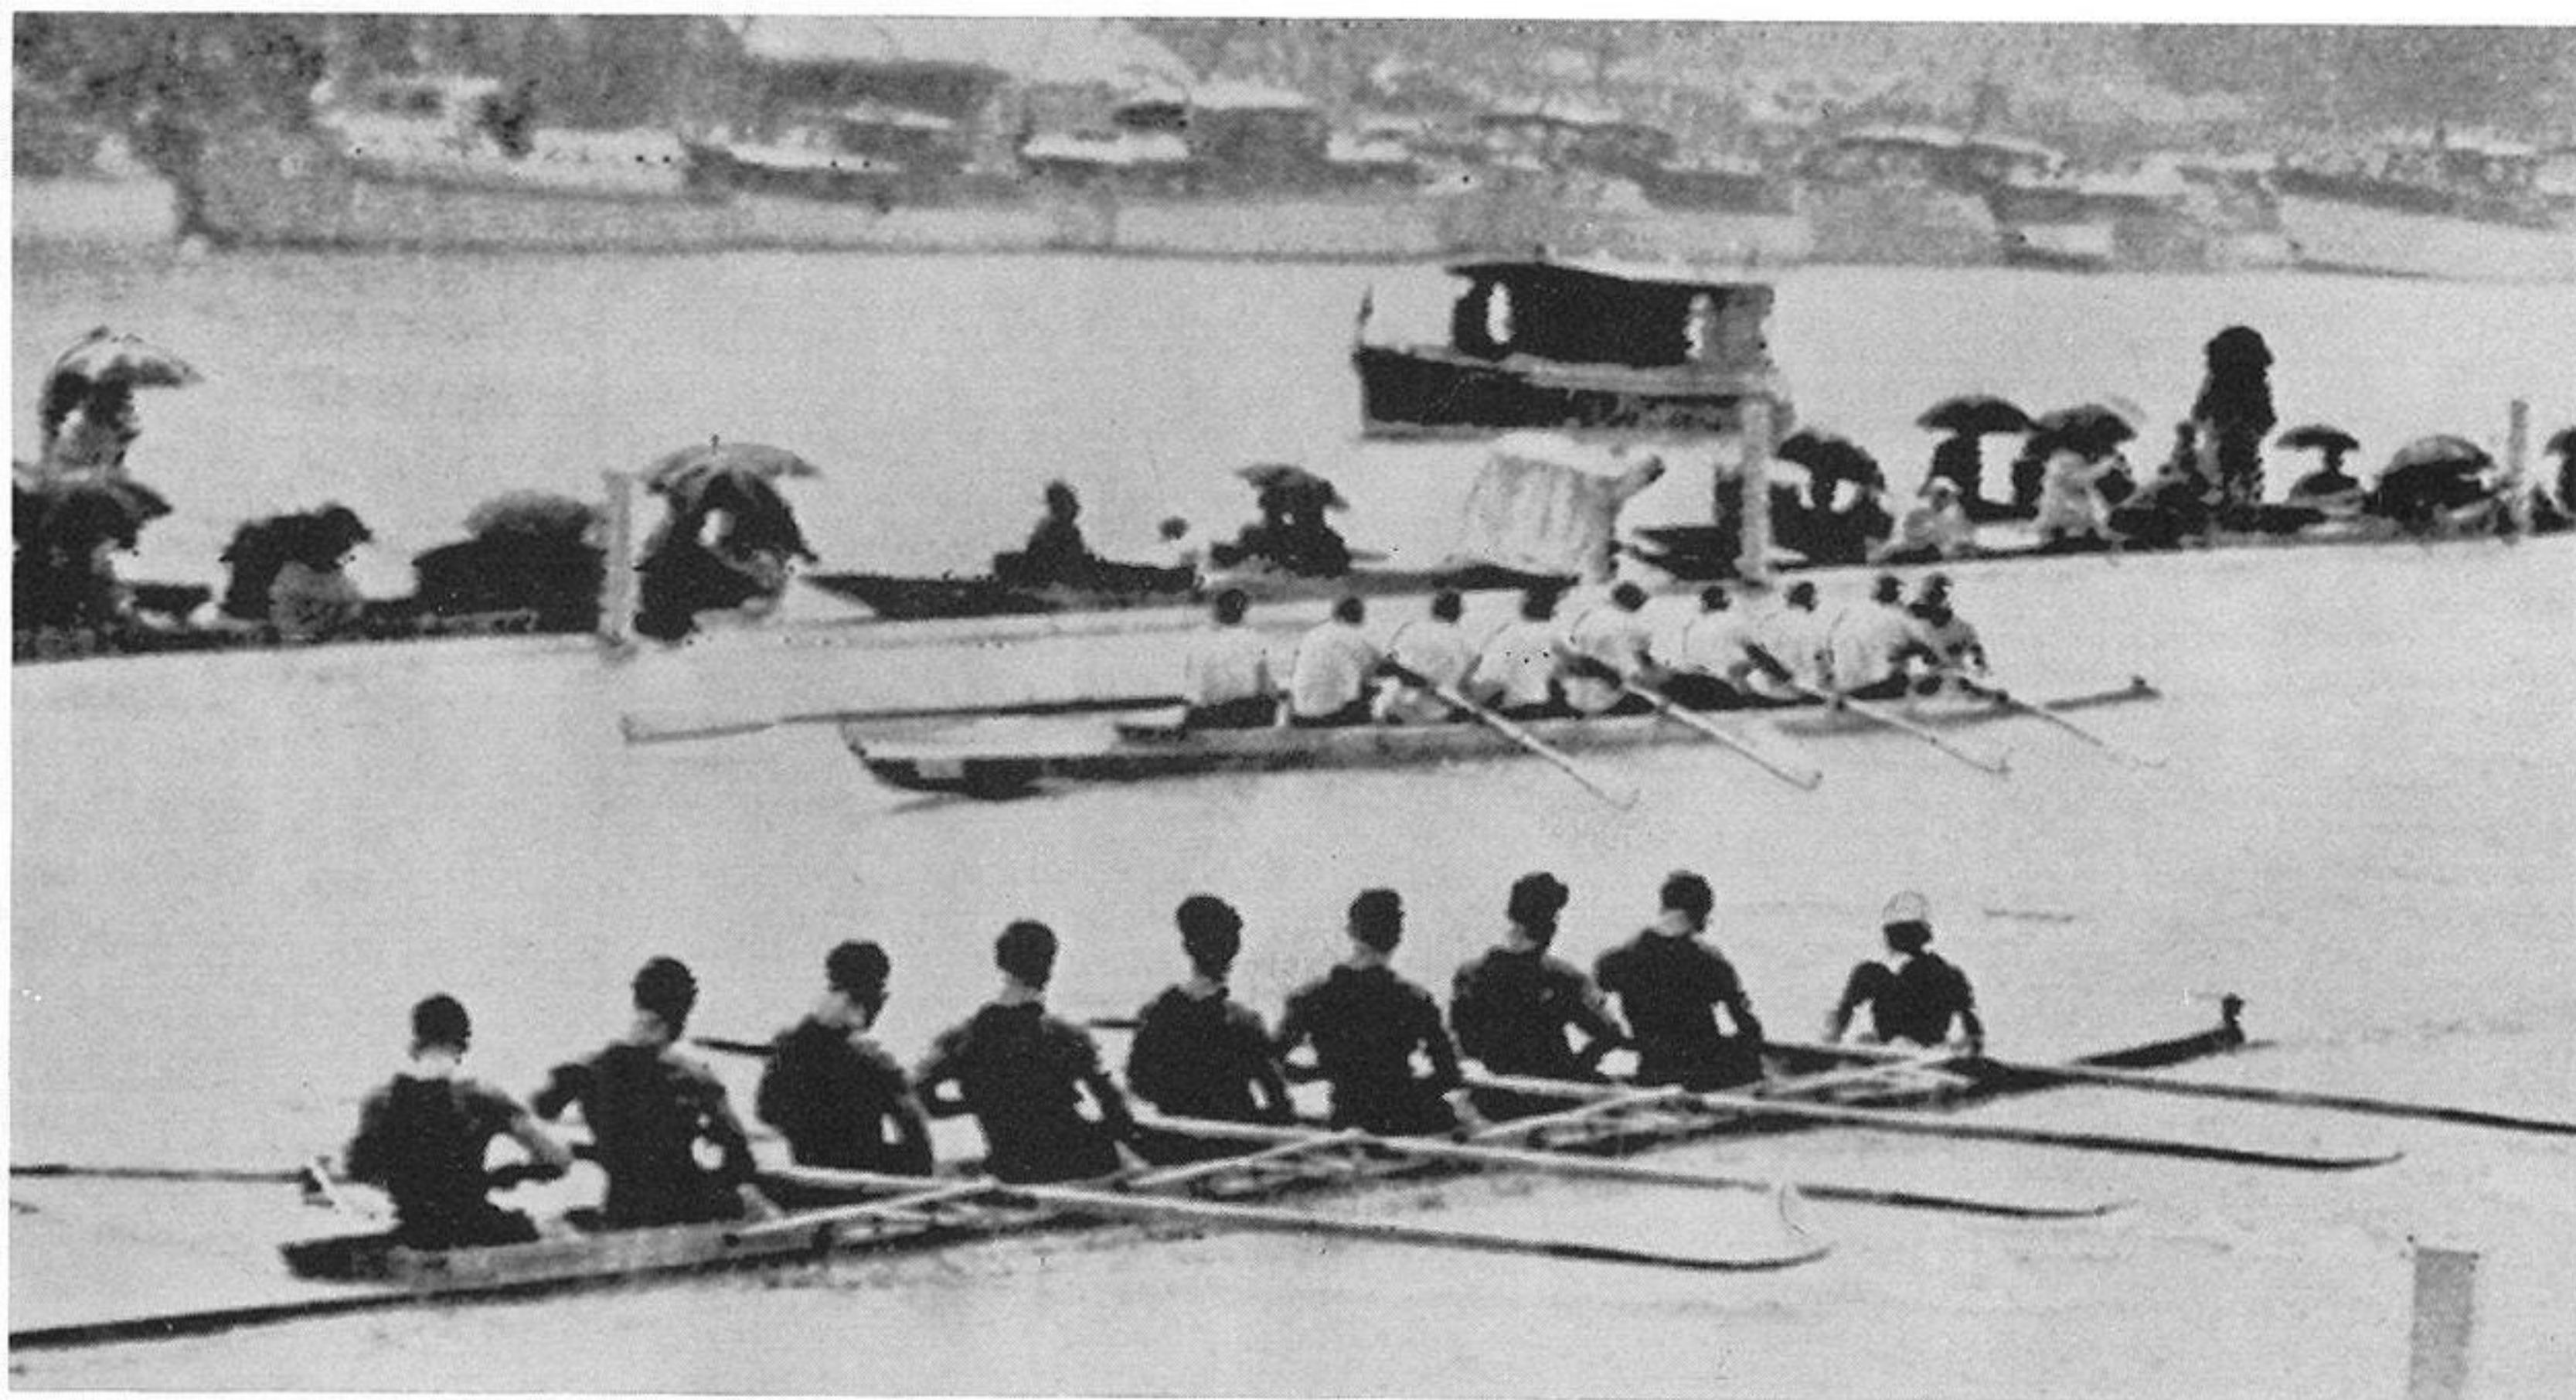

HENLEY, ENGLAND

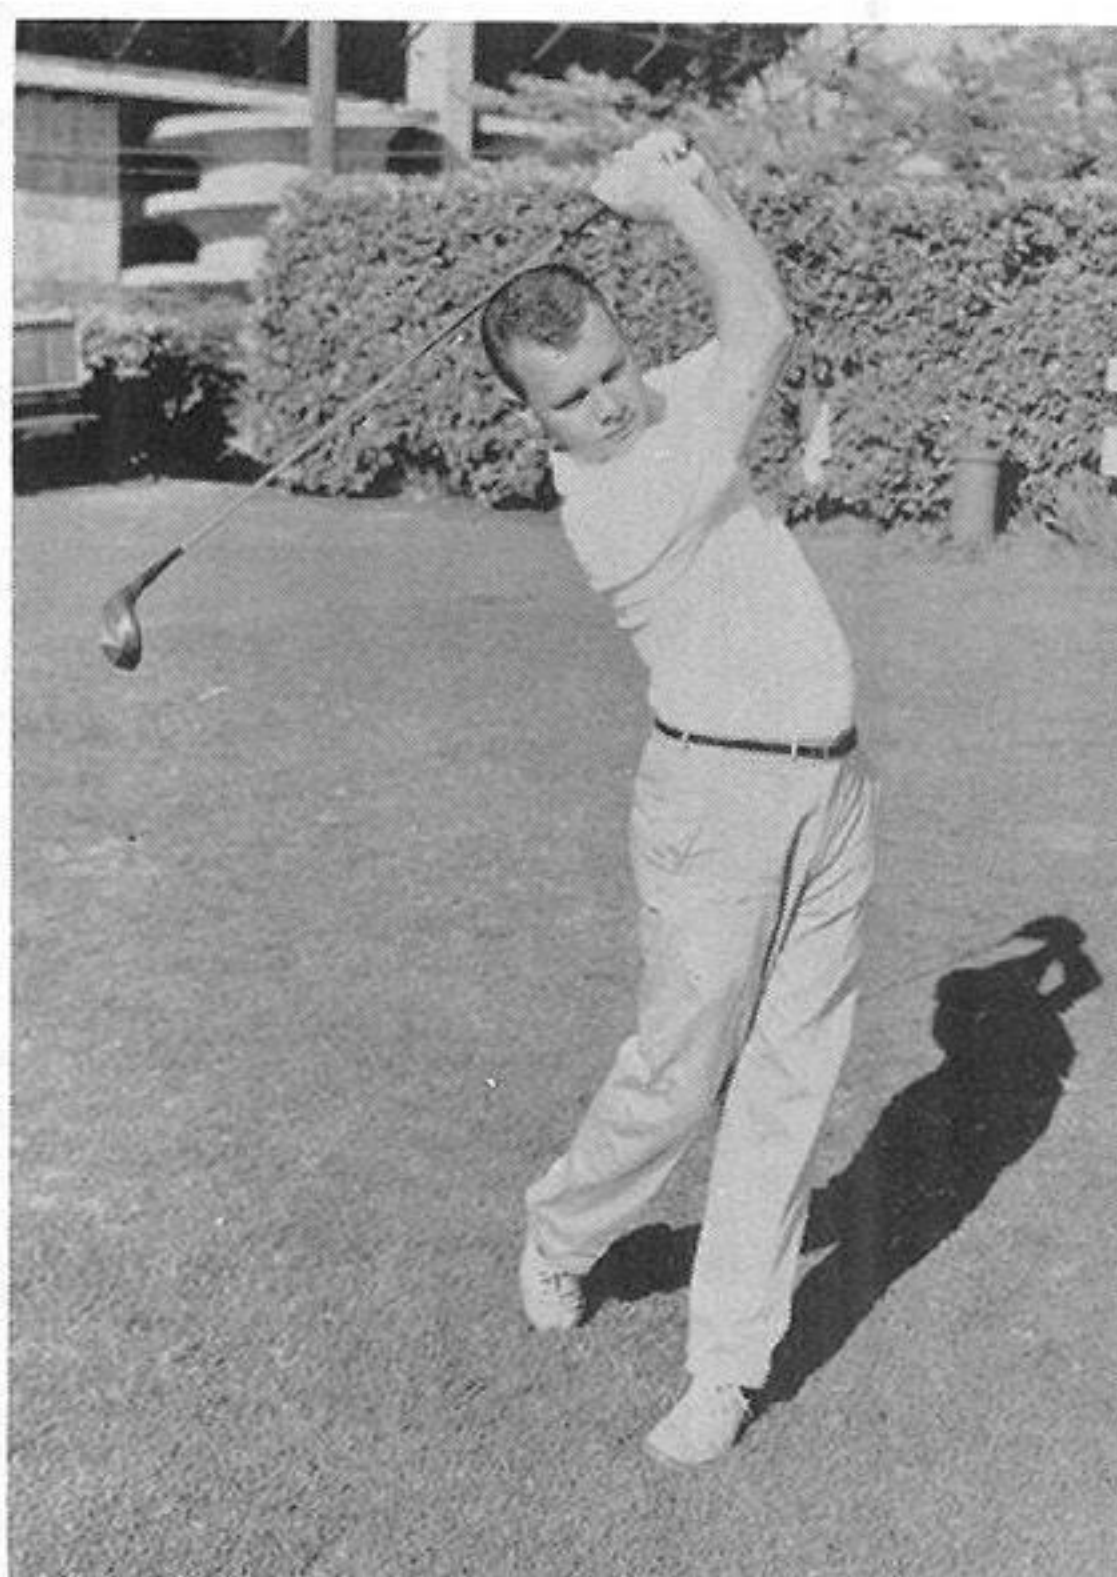

Above: July 4th the Washington four-oared crew splashed across the finish line to beat out Emmanuel College of Cambridge in a heat of the Stewarts Cup. The Husky boat was eliminated by the Barn Cottage Boat Club in the semi-finals.

Below: Rain did not bring luck for the Husky varsity as it lost its opening race to the eight-oared shell of the Trud Club of Leningrad. Winning time was 6 minutes 49 seconds.

GOLF 1958

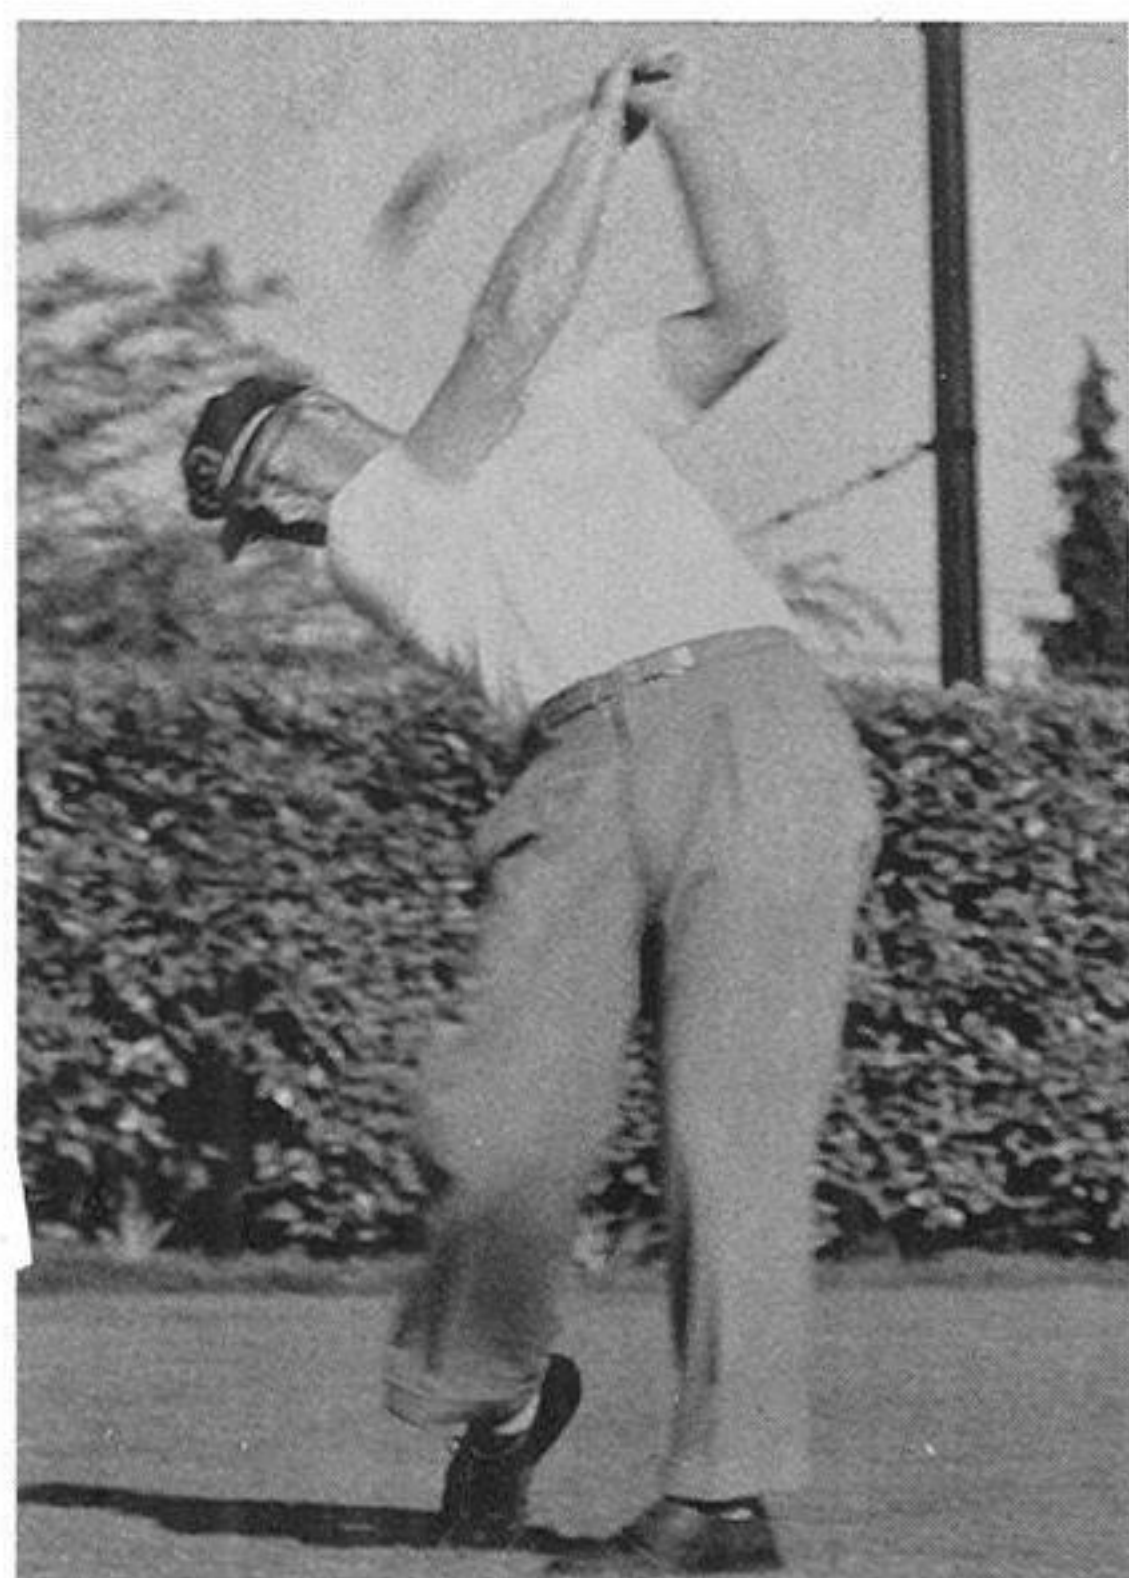

Bob Sumner

The 1958 golf season could not be termed one of the Huskies' more spectacular. Ending the season in Northern division competition with one win, one tie, and two losses, the Huskies took third place.

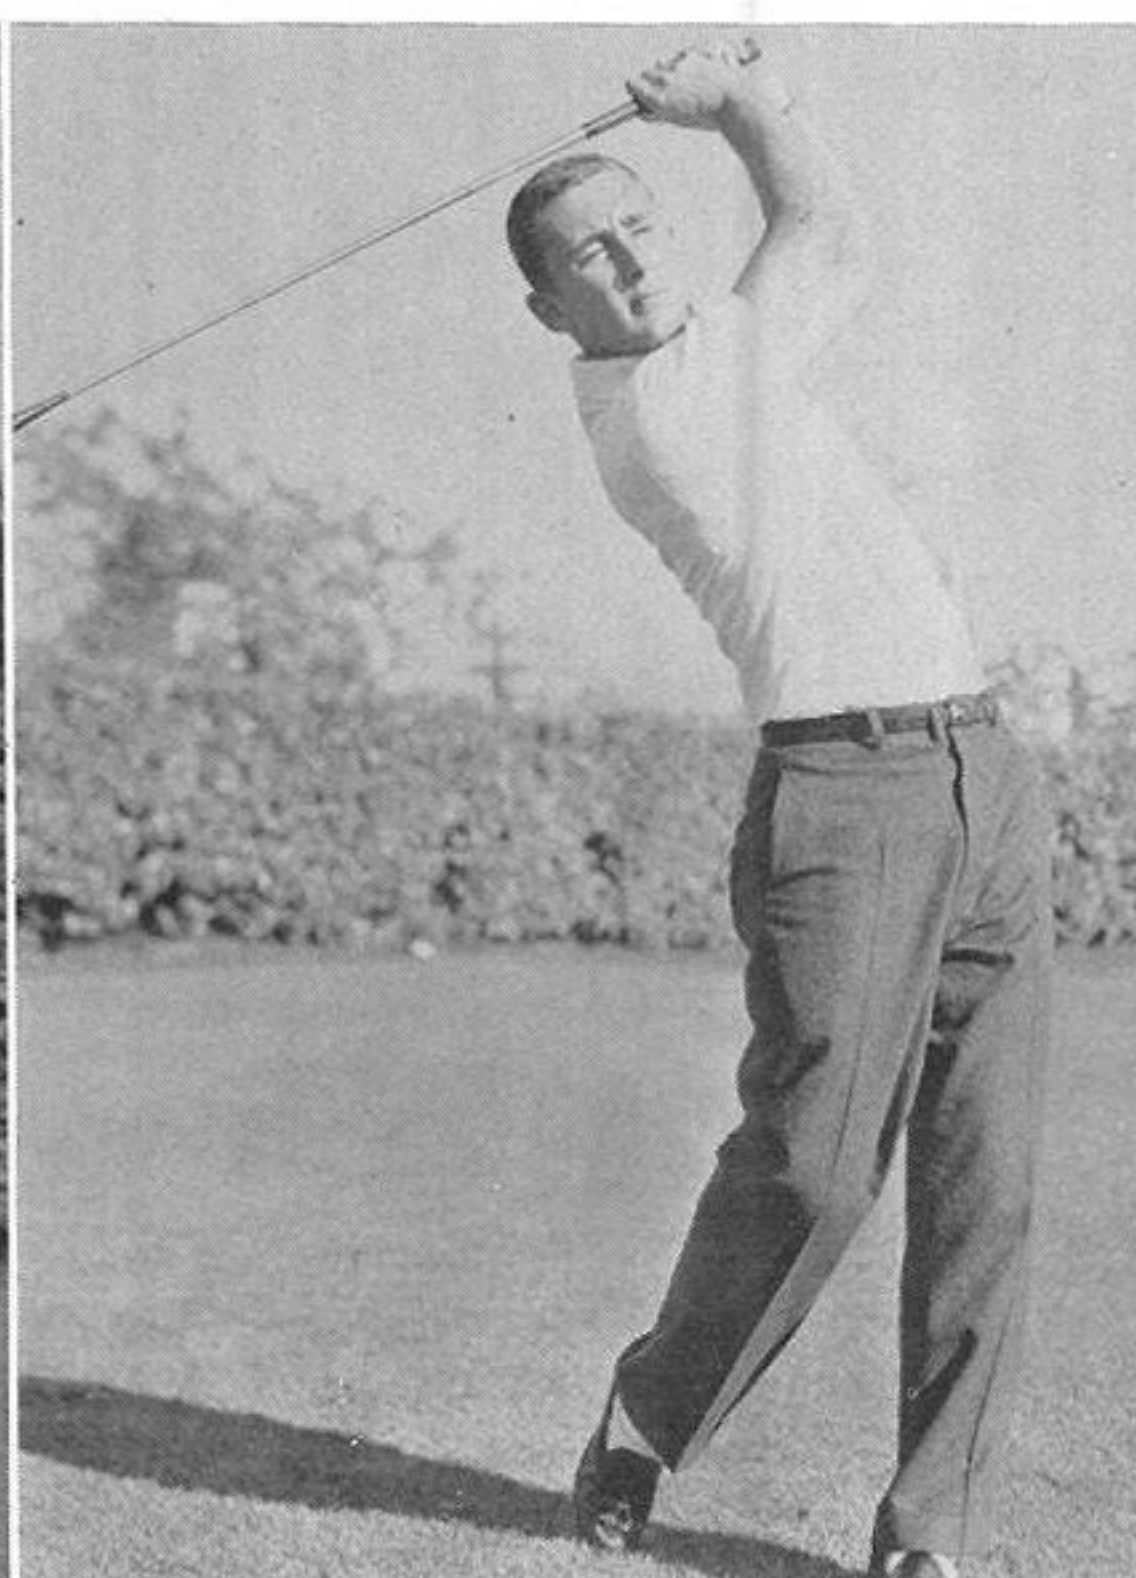

Coached by Ray Bennett and led by four returning lettermen, the Huskies met nine opponents during the season. The opening month of April proved to be a bad one for the Huskies as they came out on the short end of their first two matches with Seattle U. by 6-2 and 15½-2½ scores. The annual match with Seattle Golf Club also turned sour as the Huskies lost 14½-9½. Down, but not out, Coach Bennett's clubbers came back to tie a strong Oregon team 13½-13½.

The Husky divoters dropped the next match to Portland University, then came back to win the following week from UBC, 11 to 1. The big surprise of the season was a win over the powerful Oregon State squad. The Huskies then flew to California where they wound up the Pacific Coast Conference in sixth place at the meet on the rugged Stanford course. The Huskies finished the season with a pair of defeats at the hands of Washington State and Idaho.

Top: Terry Tobacco finishes the ND 440 in :48.7, while teammates Bob Braunschweiger and Dave McCulloch take second and third for almost a sweep of the event.

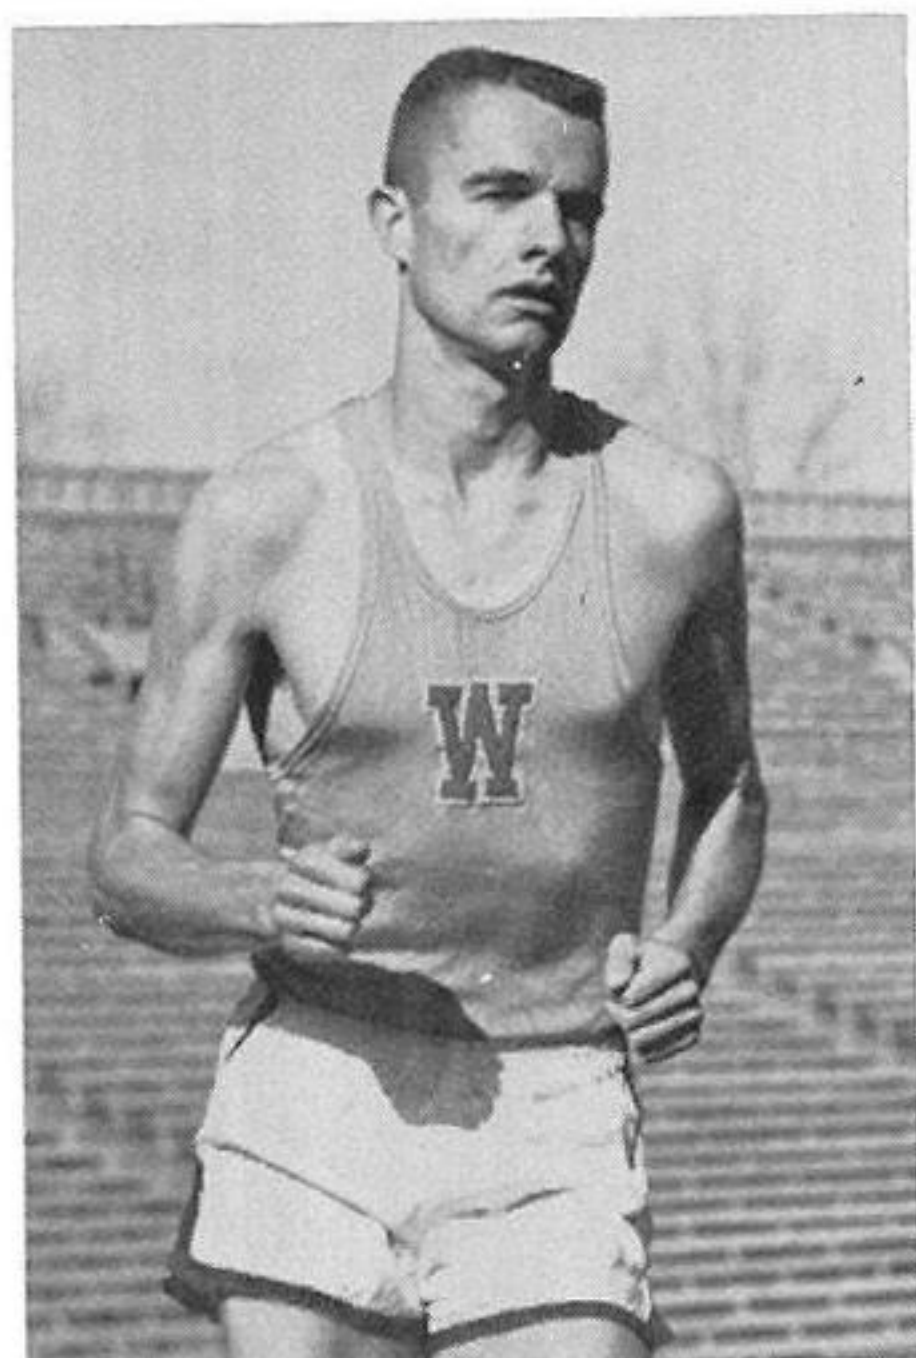

Bottom: In one of the fastest miles on the coast this year, Jim Grelle took first in the ND mile in 4:06.1 with Jack Larson right behind him, taking second in 4:07.2.

The Northern Division Relays, held for the first time this year, gave a pre-season forecast of what the Husky track fan could expect this year. Oregon led all comers by a 20 point margin, while WSC nosed out the Huskies for second by 4 1/3 points. OSC and Idaho, lacking all-round strength, battled to stay out of the cellar.

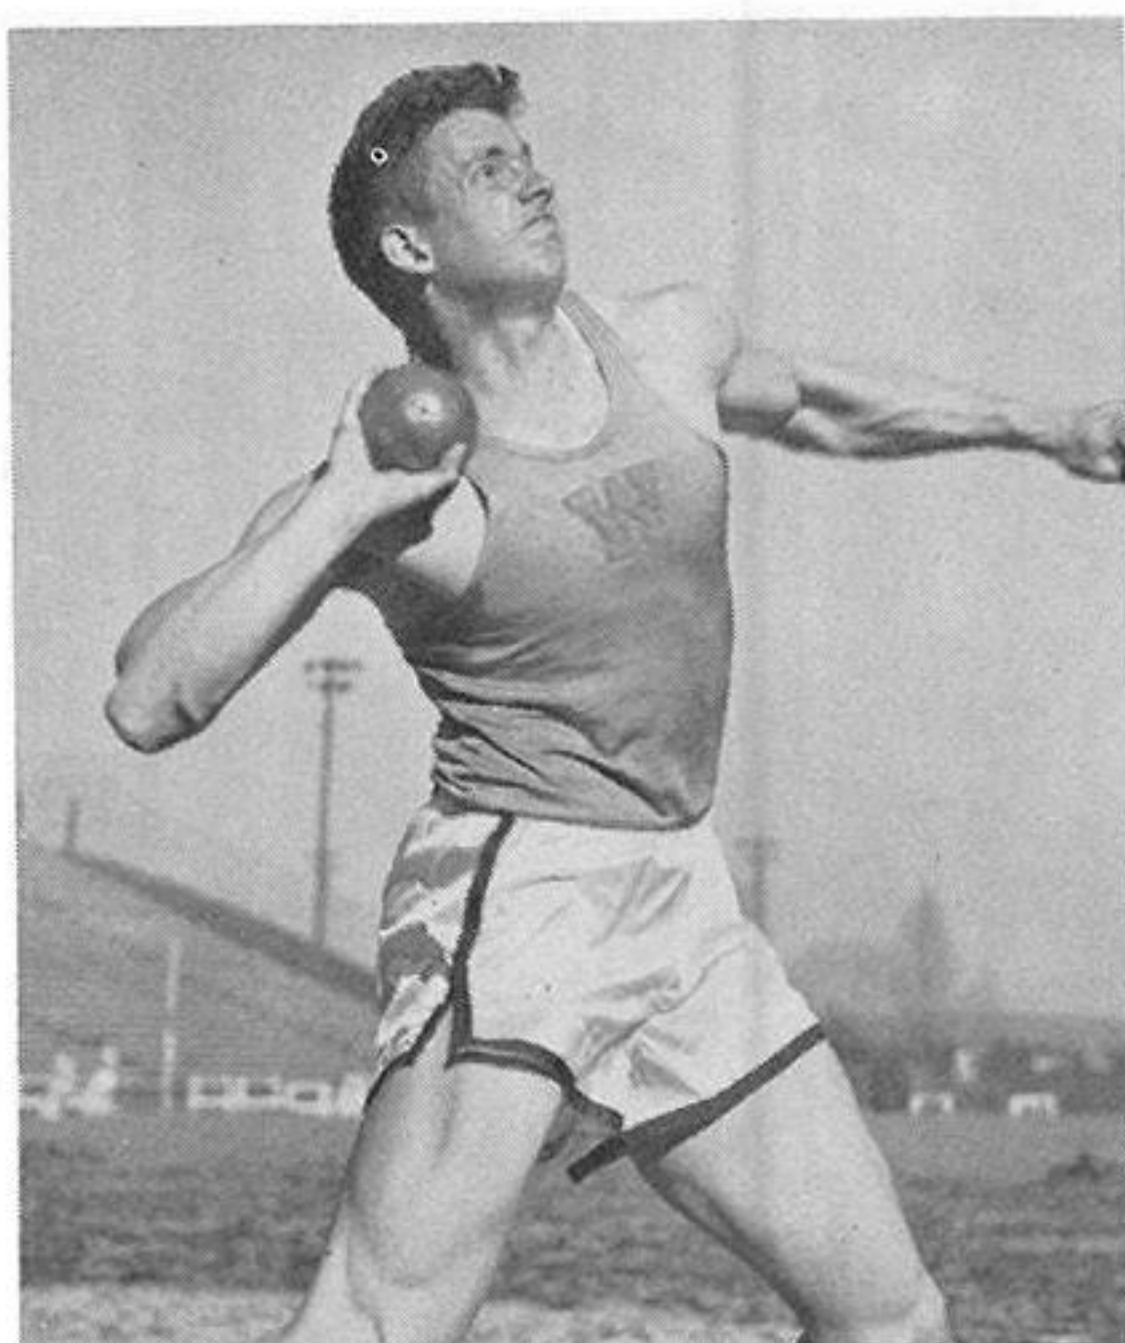

In their first dual meet of the season with OSC, the Huskies gave a fine showing of their potential, but they also had an indication of troubles to come. Both Terry Tobacco, winner of last year's PCC 440 yard championship, and Gary Mapes, who the week before sprinted the 100 in :09.6, came up with pulled muscles while running their specialties. On the brighter side, soph Jack Larson set a new meet and all-time UW record in running the mile in 4:10.4. Against Idaho the following week, the Huskies sloshed to a winning score identical to the one against OSC, 84-47. The track was covered in places by water three inches deep, while it rained through the entire meet. The following weekends, although they were losses to Oregon and WSC, nevertheless provided interesting viewing for the spectator. Bill Moser set a new meet record against the Ducks running the half-mile in 1:52.7, while Cliff LaBounty set one of his own the same day, pole vaulting to 14' 2". This broke his own all-time UW record of the year before. Miler Jack Larson led Oregon's Jim Grelle for three and one-half laps, but then his old rival shot past him in the homestretch in the most interesting race of the afternoon. Against the Cougars Don Anacker sent the discus spinning 160' 3 1/2", while Paul Ailenkoff broadjumped 23' 2 1/2".

At the ND Championships the Huskies set two new school records and thoroughly frightened Oregon's front-finishing Ducks by taking six of fifteen firsts. Jack Larson pushed Jim Grelle to a record time, while finishing himself in 4:07.2, breaking his own previous record. Jet-propelled Tony Softli didn't surprise anyone in the broad-jump, leaping 24' 6 3/4". Larson, Moser, McCulloch, and Tobacco ran the mile relay in 3:16.9.

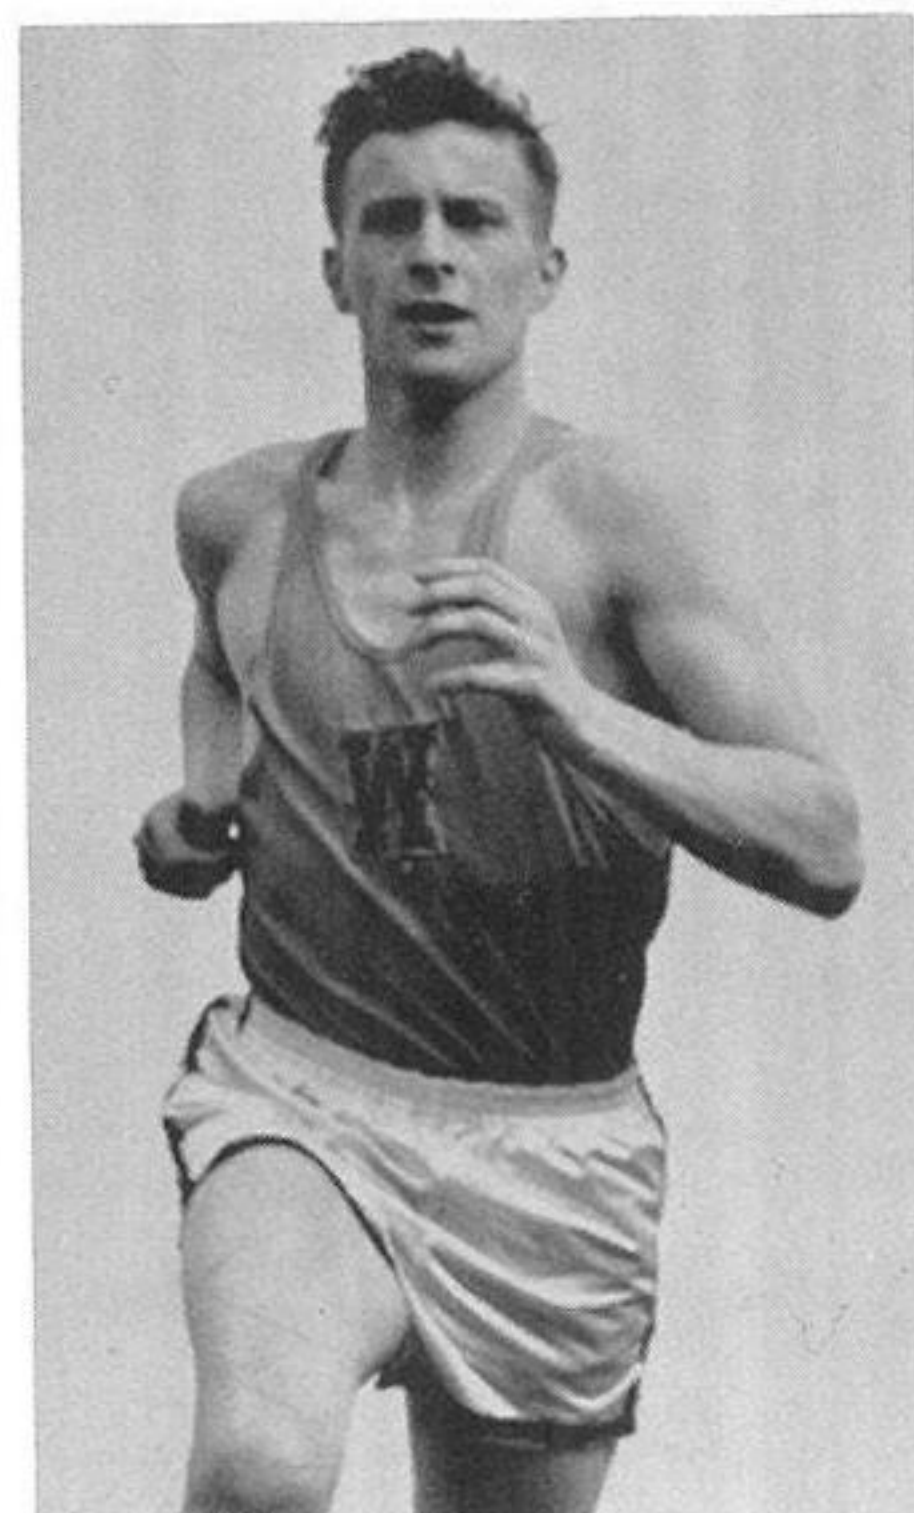

At the PCC championships, Terry Tobacco repeated last year's win with a time of :47.1 in the 440, providing Washington's only first. Larson, Olberg, Brannon, and LaBounty all placed to bring the Huskies a fifth among the eight competing schools.

The 1958 baseball season went into the books as a good effort by the Husky diamond men. It was a season in which the "breaks" meant the difference between a win and a loss and the "breaks" didn't come for the Huskies.

Dale Parker's crew finished the conference season behind O.S.C., Oregon and Washington State. Idaho brought up the cellar position. Non-conference play treated Washington better with the Huskies posting wins over Portland U., C.P.S., Pacific Lutheran and Central Washington.

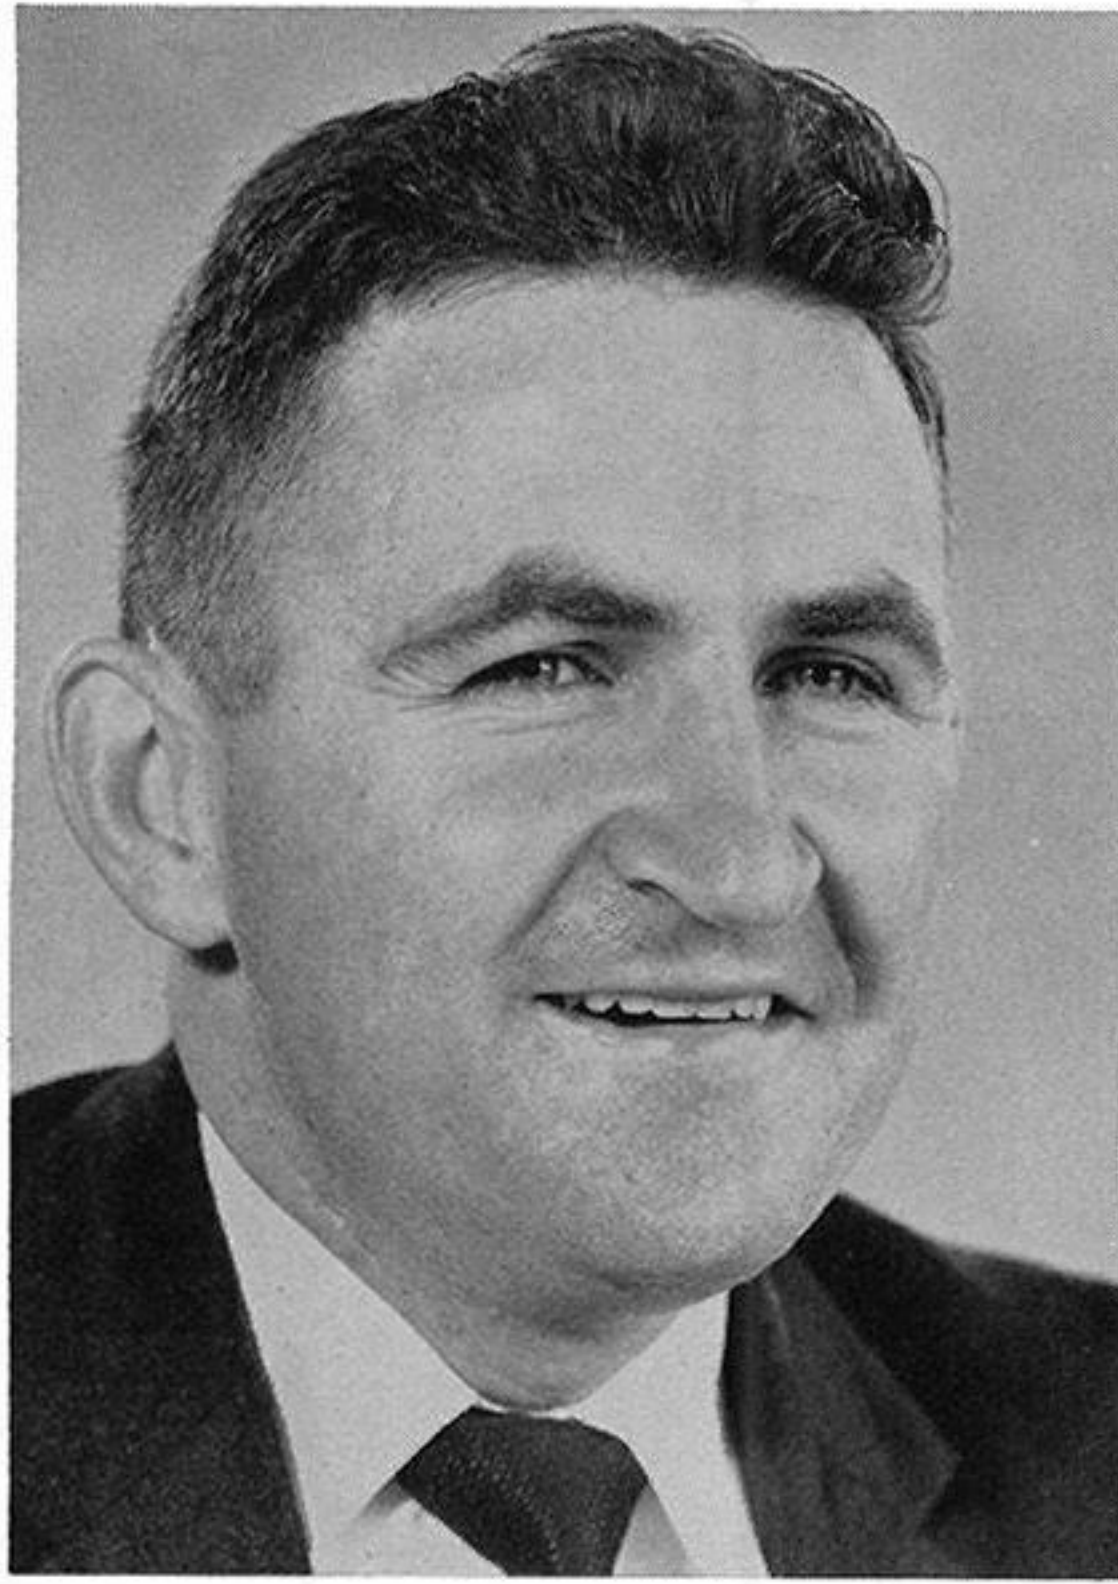

The high point of the season came with a no-hit, no-run ball game, racked up by ace hurler, Daryl Burke.

With only two returning lettermen, Larry Mounger and Masami Kono, the Husky tennis team wound up a spectacular season by winning every match of the season to retain their Northwest Champion title for the 21st year. The Husky racket men, coached by Windy Langlie and Glen Linden, have run their winning streak in conference play to 80 games.

The season's first two matches were played away from home, with the remaining four here. The opening match saw the Huskies beat Idaho by a 7-0 score. The next four teams to face the Washington net aces, W.S.C., W.W.C.E., U.B.C. and Oregon, also fell by 7-0 scores.

The last match of the season saw Washington win a close one over Oregon State by a 4-3 score.

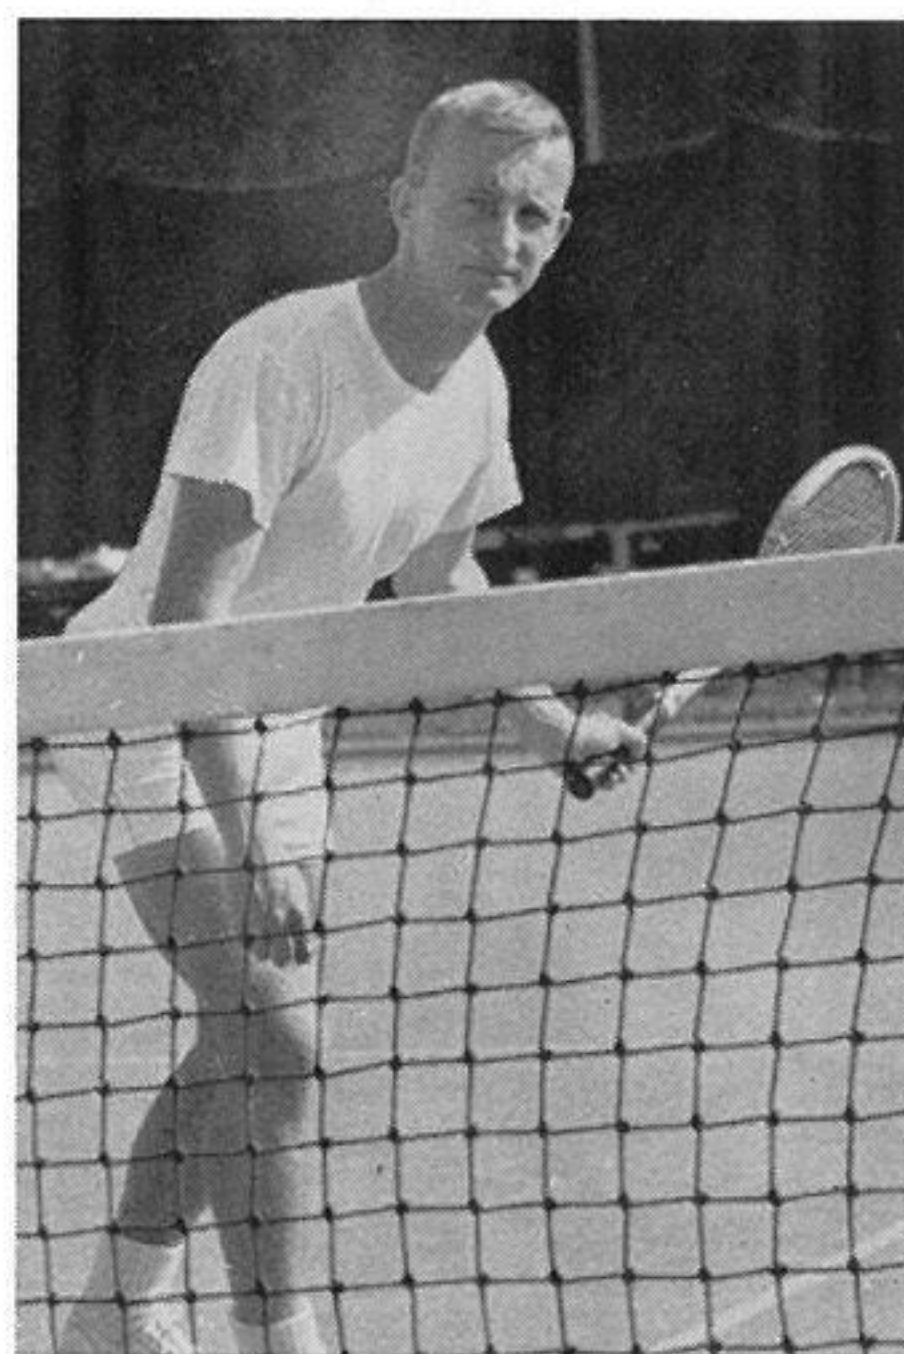

Husky luck was not as favorable in the P.C.C. championships, however, as Langlie's crew placed fourth behind U.S.C., U.C.L.A. and Stanford.

With the freshman team compiling a six win-one loss record and with all this year's lettermen but Kono returning, 1959 looks to be a big year for the Husky court kings.

Intramural sports, the perennial diversion for the frustrated and off-season athletes, were again a big feature this spring. Over 3,400 participants were active in the program.

The sports of softball, water polo, tennis, golf, track, crew, and horseshoes provided areas for everyone to work off excess spring energy. Eighty-five organizations sponsored teams during the intramural year. Phi Delta Theta proved to the field that, intramural wise, they had the best teams, as they walked away with five titles during the year 1957-58.

Students and living groups got into the spirit of Homecoming with their sign displays. Alums were welcomed by a homecoming rally, signs, and open house. The sign contest winners were Alpha Gamma Delta in the women's division and Theta Delta Chi in the men's division.

Entertainment was provided by Jackie Souder's Orchestra and the comedy team of Jackie and Marc.

HUSKIES 14

Washington's Huskies opened their 1958 football season on familiar soil—Husky Stadium. San Jose State's Spartans, with one of the nation's most potent passing attacks, fell to a determined Purple and Gold squad, 14-6. A 36-yard pass from quarterback Bob Hivner to halfback Mike McClusk and a 42-yard run by Bob Schloredt on a pass interception set up both Husky touchdowns. After a lifeless first half, the Huskies went to work in the third quarter. The Hivner-McClusk aerial put Washington deep in Spartan territory on the 13. Five plays later, Hivner sneaked to score from the four yard line.

George Fleming converted. Washington's second score came with less than two minutes left in the fourth quarter as Schloredt snatched a San Jose pass and ran it back to the opponent's six. McClusk scored and the Huskies led 14-0 as Fleming converted again. The San Jose score was set up on a pass interception in the fourth quarter.

Minnesota's Gophers, returning to Husky Stadium to continue a flaming rivalry, were upset by the Huskies in a 24-21 thriller that had 38,000 fans on the edges of their seats. George Fleming's toe was the margin of victory as he booted a 16 yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. This was Washington's last scoring effort as they were held pointless in the second half. But the first half scoring was enough to beat the Gophers. Late in the fourth quarter with the score 24-21, a savage tackle by Washington's Kirk Wilson saved the day for the Huskies. With Minnesota on the

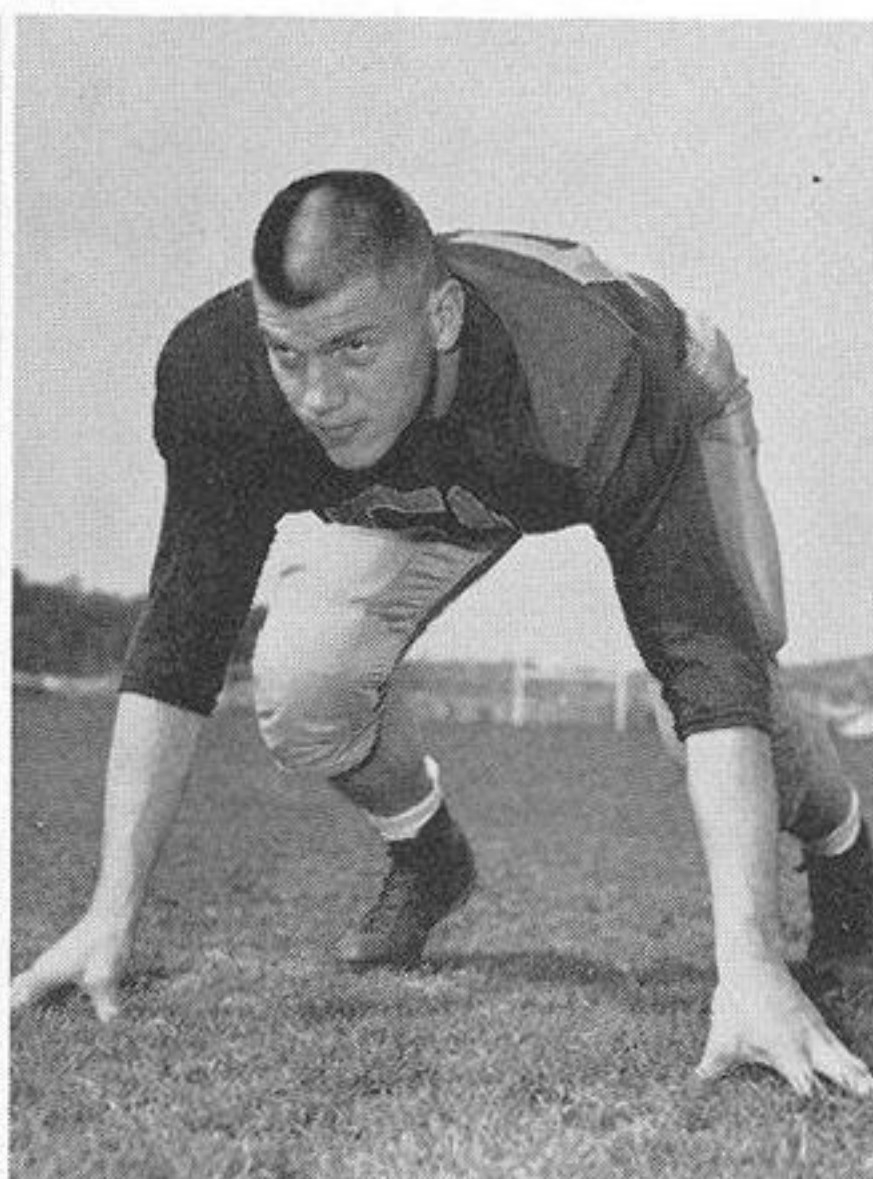

GOPHERS 21

Washington 11 yard line and seconds remaining in the game, Gopher quarterback Jimmy Reese lost the ball when Wilson made a driving tackle. As the ball rolled free, Bill Kinnune fell on the ball for Washington, ending the Gopher threat. Quarterback Bob Hivner engineered all three Husky touchdowns, passing for one to Mike McCluskey and scoring twice on the ground, himself. "Gamesaver" George Fleming added the important conversion point each time and kicked the winning field goal.

No giant is invincible . . . not even the Ohio State Goliath.

Armed with arrows of determination and enthusiasm, the Washington Huskies won a moral victory in Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 4, although the record books will forever indicate a close 12-7 defeat.

Coach Jim Owens' fighting eleven went up against a supposedly "unmovable" Buckeye line, but it was soon obvious to 82,901 Ohio fans that the forward wall was indeed pliable. The Huskies moved it.

It was one of those football afternoons when the so-called "breaks" engineered both teams' scoring. Three breaks, three touchdowns. Washington scored first: Ohio's Bob White, forced to punt early in the first quarter, slid a football off the side of his shoe, and the Huskies went on to score with fullback Don McKeta hitting the line for 14 yards before finally scoring from 13 yards out on a sprint up the middle. George "Toe" Fleming made it 7-0 with a perfectly executed place kick.

Ohio scored its first touchdown late in the first quarter, capitalizing on an interception. At half-time, it was Washington leading, 7-6. Just before the third quarter ended, Ohio's Jim Marshall blocked a punt by Bob Schloredt and returned it to the Husky 27. Seven plays later, the Buckeyes led 12-7 and the ball game was won.

Washington dominated play throughout most of the ball game, demonstrating that its young and light front line ranked with the best on the Pacific Coast.

A slim crowd of 25,000 sat under sunny skies in Stanford Stadium and watched their Indians beat Washington Huskies 22-12, Oct. 11. It was Stanford's first victory of the season.

The Huskies got their 12 points all in the first half and led at that point, 12-7. The first scoring drive started on the Husky 46. From there Washington marched 54 yards in 8 plays, all on the ground. Dick Nicholl drove over left guard from the 4 to score.

Stanford bounced back to lead 7-6 in the second quarter as Rick McMillen scored from around right end. But the Huskies, determined to reverse the scoring leadership, went on another sustained drive of 63 yards in 7 plays. The big play was quarterback Hivner's 39-yard aerial to Dick Nicholl, setting up the scoring position. Hivner cracked over right guard from the two. A second conversion attempt failed.

An interception and a recovered fumble figured greatly in Stanford's second half scoring. Late in the third quarter, Bob Nicolet, Indian quarterback, snagged Bob Hivner's pass on the UW 25. One play later, McMillen scored his second touchdown as he scrambled for 20 yards. The Indians converted and took the lead 14-12.

Early in the fourth quarter, Stanford recovered a fumble on the Washington 20. Nicolet passed for the touchdown, finding a man wide open in the end zone. The Indians converted on the ground: Stanford 22, UW 12.

Homecoming! And the Huskies "came home" to a rain storm, mushy turf and the UCLA Bruins. Passes by UCLA's Don Long with All-American end Dick Wallen catching them stymied the Washington defense to a tune of 20-0.

UCLA scored single touchdowns in the first, second and third quarters. The Huskies failed to score, although they began to put something together in the all-too-late fourth quarter.

It was a day of bad breaks for the Huskies: five times they had crucial passes intercepted and three times UCLA recovered Washington fumbles. But it was UCLA's offensive machine that did the most harm. The Bruins racked up 19 first downs to 9 for the Huskies.

In the first quarter, UCLA went 78 yards from the opening kickoff to score and lead 7-0 in 12 offensive plays. Long hit his halfback, Marv Luster, with the culminating 22-yard touchdown pass. Early in the second quarter, Long again passed for a touchdown to Jim Steffen from the 25. A second conversion was good and UCLA led 14-0.

The final touchdown came after Bill Leeka intercepted Bob Hivner's pass on the Husky 34. Dick Wallen had to make a diving catch, only plays later, to fall into the end zone. UCLA's ground conversion attempt was stymied and the Huskies fell, 20-0.

Washington stuck to the split-T offense all day, while Oregon State poured on the steam with a versatile single wing attack. The Beavers racked up a first half yardage total of 231 to 62 for the losers.

Both teams scored in the second quarter after a scoreless first period. OSC's Dainard Paulsen passed to Don Thiel for 14 yards and a score. Bob Schloredt, quarterbacking for the Huskies, countered by passing to halfback Carver Gayton for 15. OSC converted for two points, the Huskies failed in their place kick attempt. OSC led 8-6 at the half.

OSC wrapped up the third quarter and put it in its back pocket. With seconds left in the period, OSC came to life. They traveled 89 yards in 8 plays to score a second and final touchdown.

Washington's final scoring came in the fourth quarter after Sam Hurworth fell on an OSC fumble. Schloredt and Gayton carried the ball on the next five plays with Schloredt finally crossing the goal line on a 6-yard jaunt. Schloredt, attempting to tie up the ball game, tried a roll out but was caught short of the end zone. OSC went home with a two-point victory.

Washington's third victory of the season came on a spectacular note against the Oregon Duck in Husky Stadium, Nov. 1. It was a 6-0 shutout triumph over the defending PCC champions.

Out-first-downed and out-gained, the Huskies made one good drive pay off when they sent halfback Luther Carr 34 yards with a screen pass from quarterback Bob Hivner. The touchdown was all the Huskies needed as they fought savagely and successfully to keep Oregon from crossing their goal line.

The Ducks drove into Husky territory several times, but each time the Huskies stopped them cold in their web feet when they had to. The Purple and Gold got a few good breaks for the first time in several ball games, some of which were the kind which heads-up play brings.

Sophomore Bob Schloredt started at quarterback, he intercepted a crucial pass in the end zone, and did a fine job in the starting role. But it was Hivner and Carr who did the job.

Carr's touchdown ramble came early in the third quarter. From the Oregon 34, Hivner stepped back to pass and flipped the screen pass to Carr. The shifty halfback picked up the blocking and tip-toed his way through the Oregon defensive backs to score standing up.

Coach Jim Owens' gridders continued to have trouble gathering victories on the road, and the USC Trojans sent Washington down to its fourth PCC loss on Nov. 8 in Los Angeles. The Trojans drubbed Washington 21-6.

Three things troubled the Huskies all afternoon: (1) Quarterback Tom Maudlin's fine running, (2) USC's off tackle slants and end sweeps, (3) Halfback Don Buford.

Southern California scored single touchdowns in each of the first three quarters. Washington's solo score came in the third quarter. The smog-filled Coliseum had only 33,000 fans on hand to witness the contest.

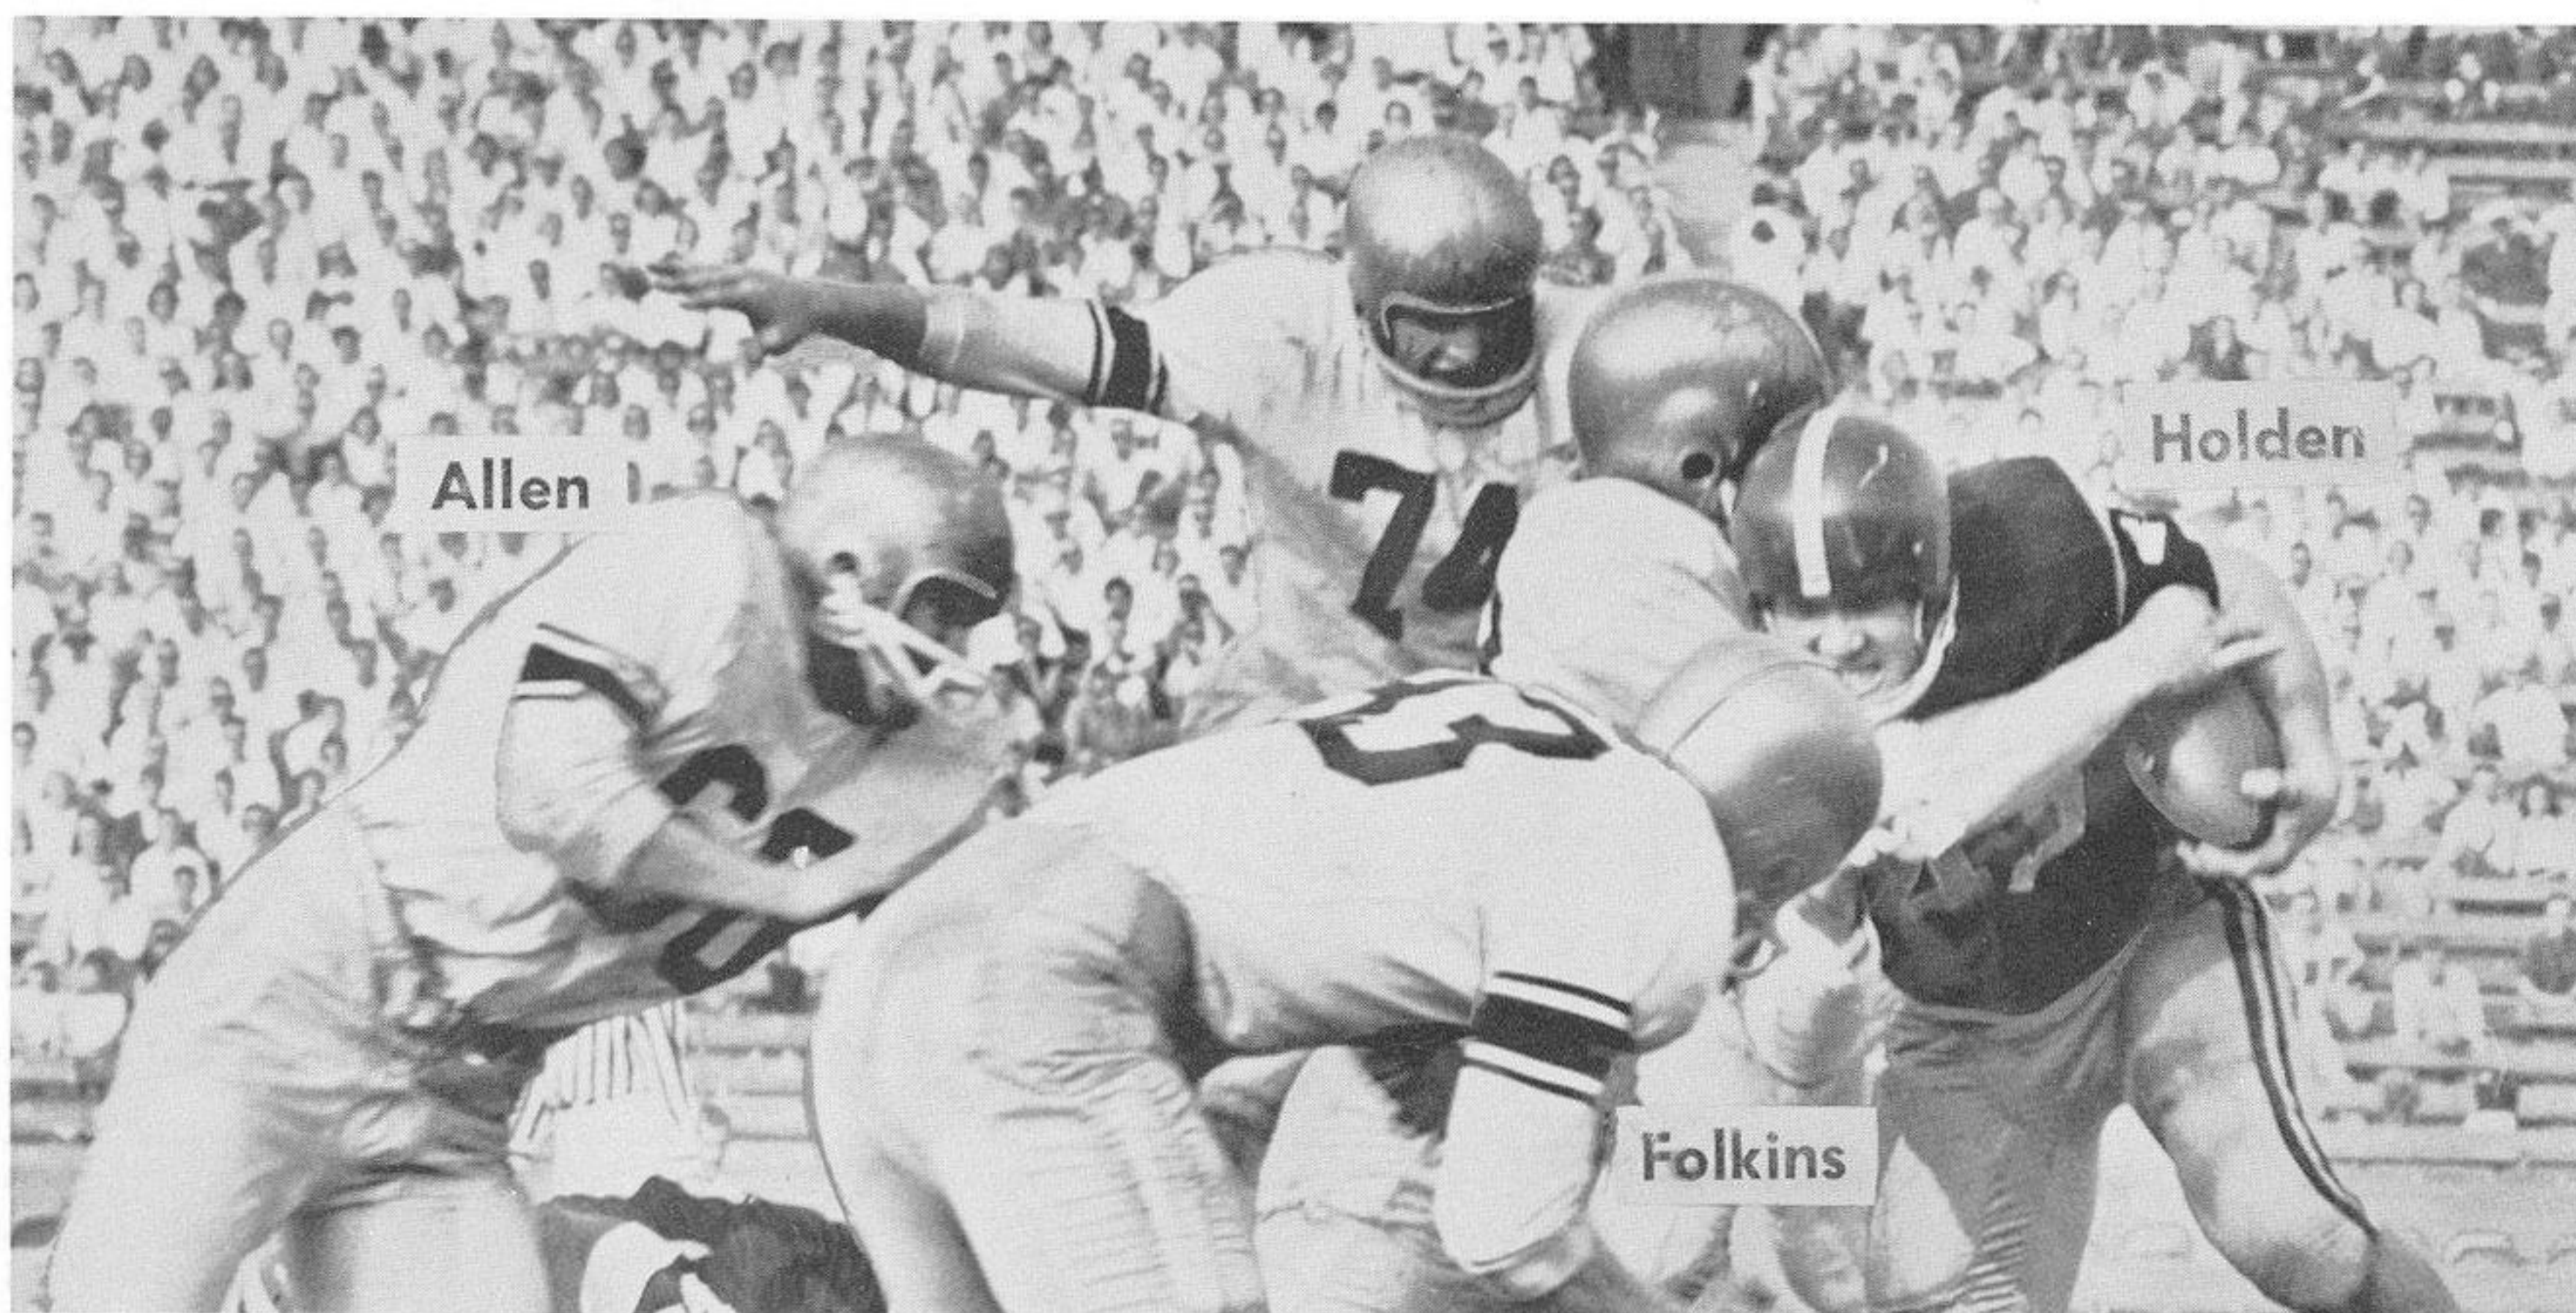

USC's initial touchdown followed the opening kickoff with the Trojans marching 74 yards in 10 plays. Washington's first quarter threat was diminished when the Trojans intercepted Hivner's aerial. USC's second score was given initial impetus by a "roughing the kicker" penalty that gave them the ball on their own 49. Six plays later they scored to lead at half time, 14-0. Southern California's final touchdown came after a USC punt touched safety man Luther Carr on the Husky seven.

Washington's score came after the ensuing kickoff. The Huskies went 69 yards in 11 plays, the big play being a pitchout from Hivner to Carr who passed to Bruce Claridge for 23 yards to the USC 40. Hivner's 19-yard rollout put the Huskies on the USC 9. Four plays later Hivner sneaked over from the one to end the day's scoring.

California's Golden Bears used the Washington Huskies as a stepping stone towards the Rose Bowl on a bitter cold Nov. 15 in Husky Stadium. Led by split-T quarterback Joe Kapp, the Bears squeezed past the Huskies 12-7.

Although a six point underdog, the Huskies dazzled fans by holding a 7-6 halftime lead. The Bear touchdown coming as a climax to a 51-yard march when Walt Arnold fell through to pay dirt. The Huskies started their touchdown effort late in the second quarter with quarterback Bob Schloredt calling the plays. Washington's other mainstay quarterback, Bob Hivner, took the wheel and steered the Huskies home, covering 82 yards in 18 plays with Carver Gayton making the TD.

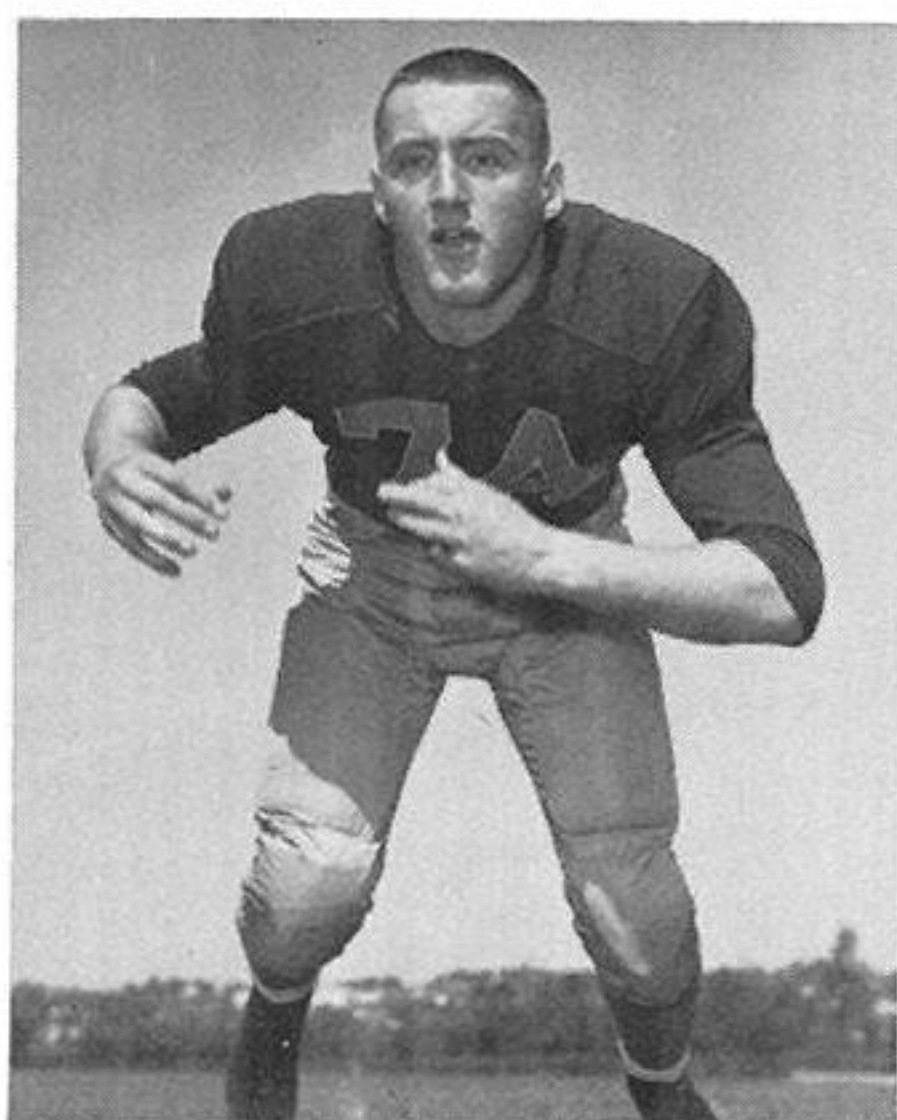

BEARS 7

Fleming converted and the Huskies led 7-6 at halftime.

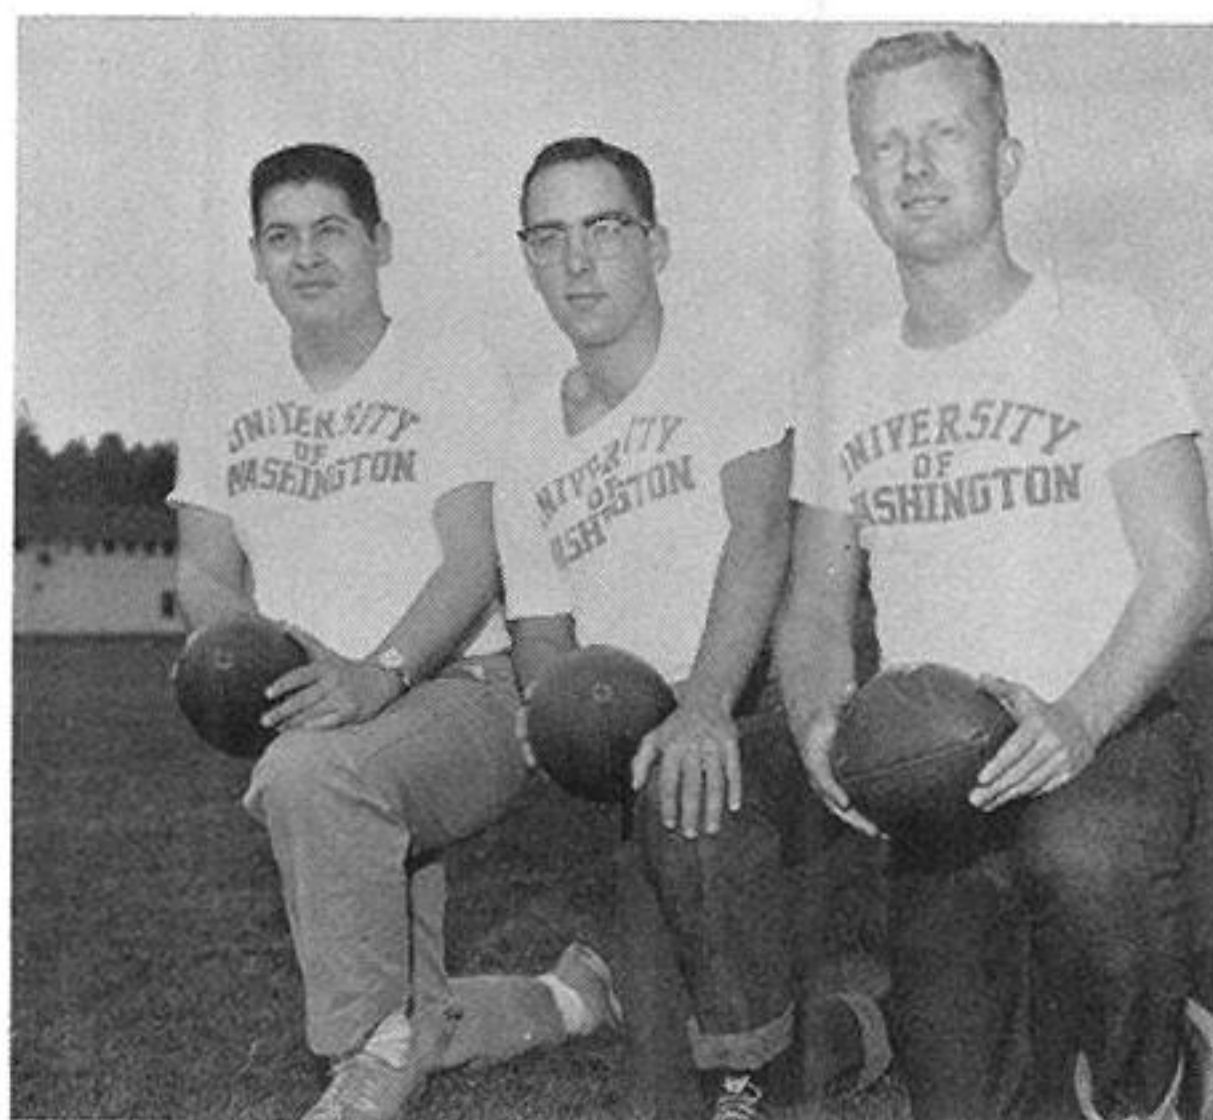

The Husky crew could not contain a determined California Bear, however, and in the third quarter California clinched the victory with a drive that started on their own 35 yard line. Bruce Claridge stopped the attempted two-point conversion and the score read 12-7 until the clock ran out.

The California All-American, Joe Kapp, had a great day completing 11 of 17 passes for 135 yards and packing the ball for 70 more. It was Kapp all the way for California that spelled defeat for Washington.

Washington's cross-state rivals, the Cougar of WSC, edged out the defiant Husky Nov. 22, 18-14. WSC was fighting to stay in Rose Bowl contention and the sophomores of Washington almost ended their hopeful anticipation. But earlier Washington handed WSC two touchdowns via the fumble route and the Cougars took a 12-0 lead in the first quarter.

Purple and Gold's faithful followers had something to cheer about when Washington countered with touchdowns in the first and second quarters. Washington's first touchdown was engineered by quarterback Hivner, whose timely passing was a key factor in both scoring drives.

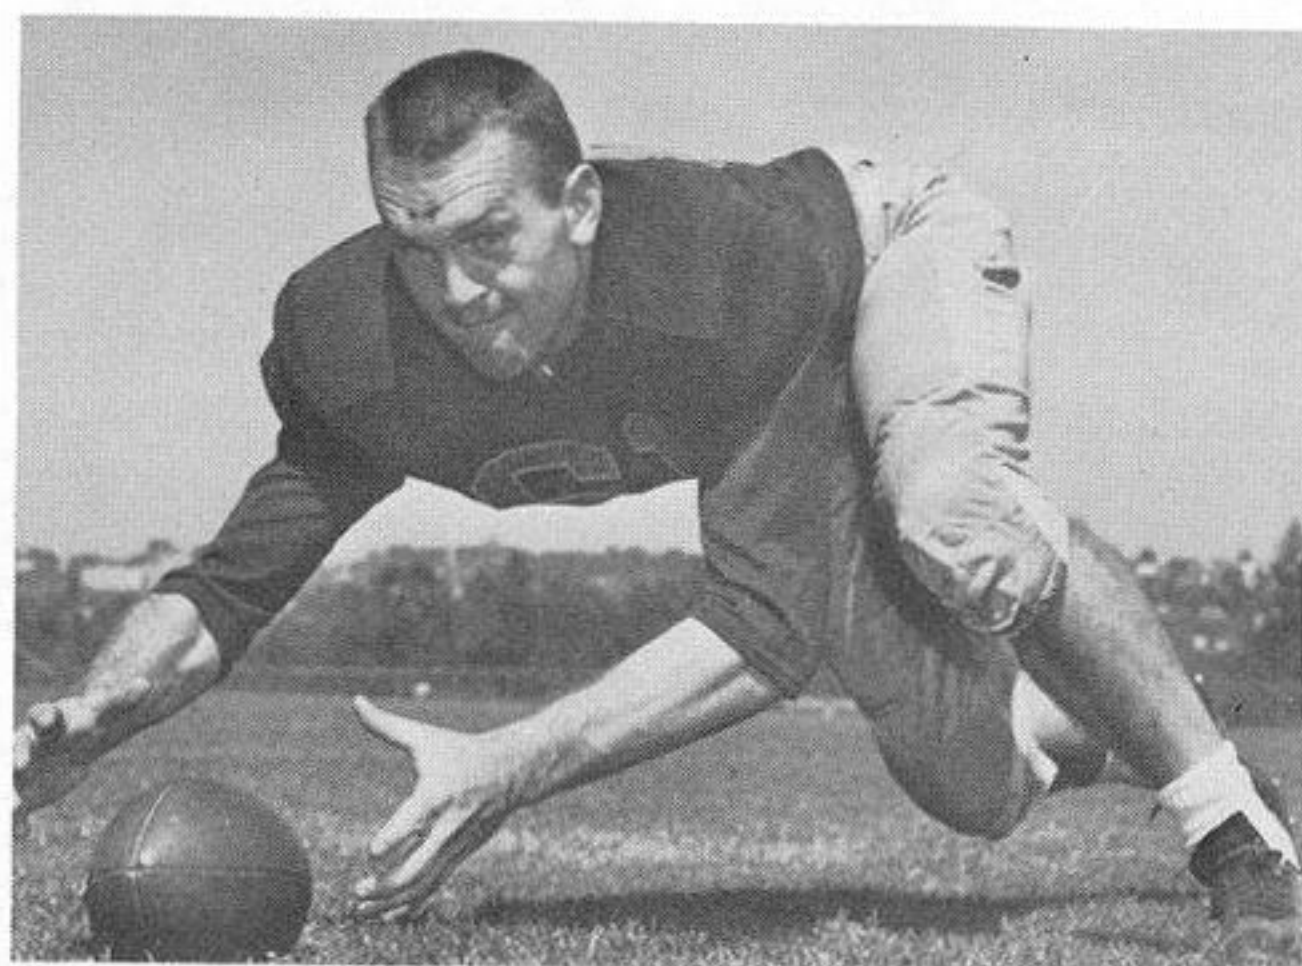

A 17-yard pass from Hivner to Fleming set the stage. On the next play Hivner ran for 21 yards and a first down on the WSC three. Two plays later, Hivner kept and went over right guard from the two. Fleming converted.

A second touchdown came in the second quarter after an aerial from Hivner to Carr for 14 yards put the Huskies on the WSC three.

Hivner faked a keeper and sent halfback Mike McCluskey over the goal line. Fleming again converted and the Huskies led at half time, 14-12. Determined to undermine the Husky cause, the Cougars stormed into the second half of play, scoring immediately. Again the Cougars failed to convert, but WSC led 18-14.

CLASS OF '62 ELECTS LEADERS

The freshman elections came in with a bang this year, with many houses "drumming" up publicity for their candidates.

As the final electioneering hours drew to a close, the aspiring candidates gave their last speeches on the state of the class.

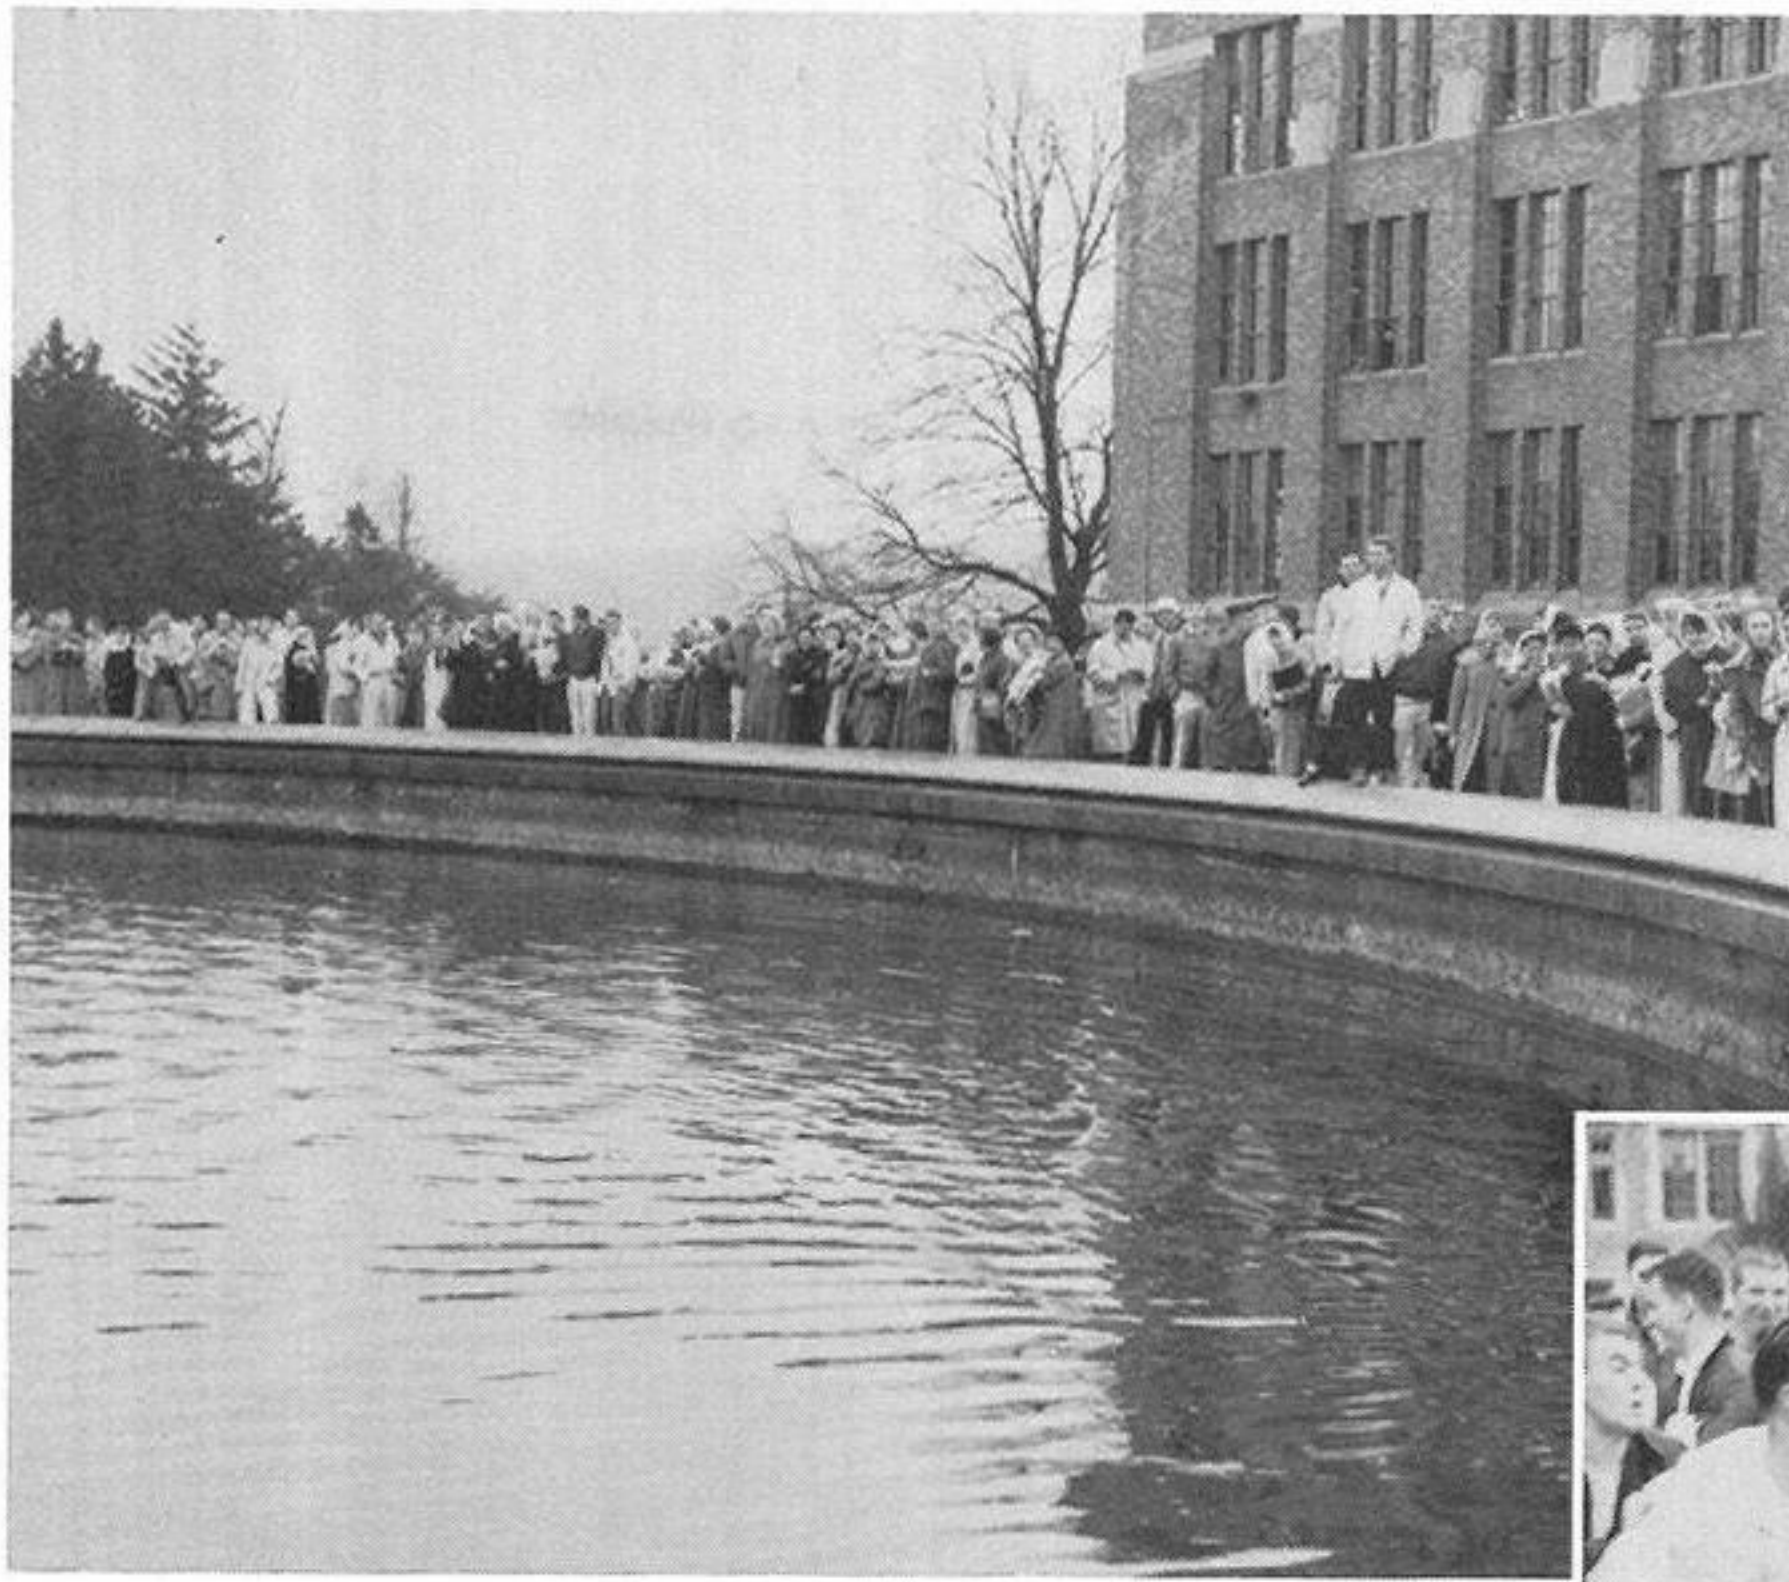

Pi Phi's carried on an A-1 campaign for secretary-elect Yvonne Perier.

Making a clean sweep of all offices, the Greeks carried to victory Linda Christensen, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Vice President; Kelly Pickering, Beta Theta Pi, President; Yvonne Perier, Pi Phi, Secretary; and Linda McLean, Tri-Delt, Secretary.

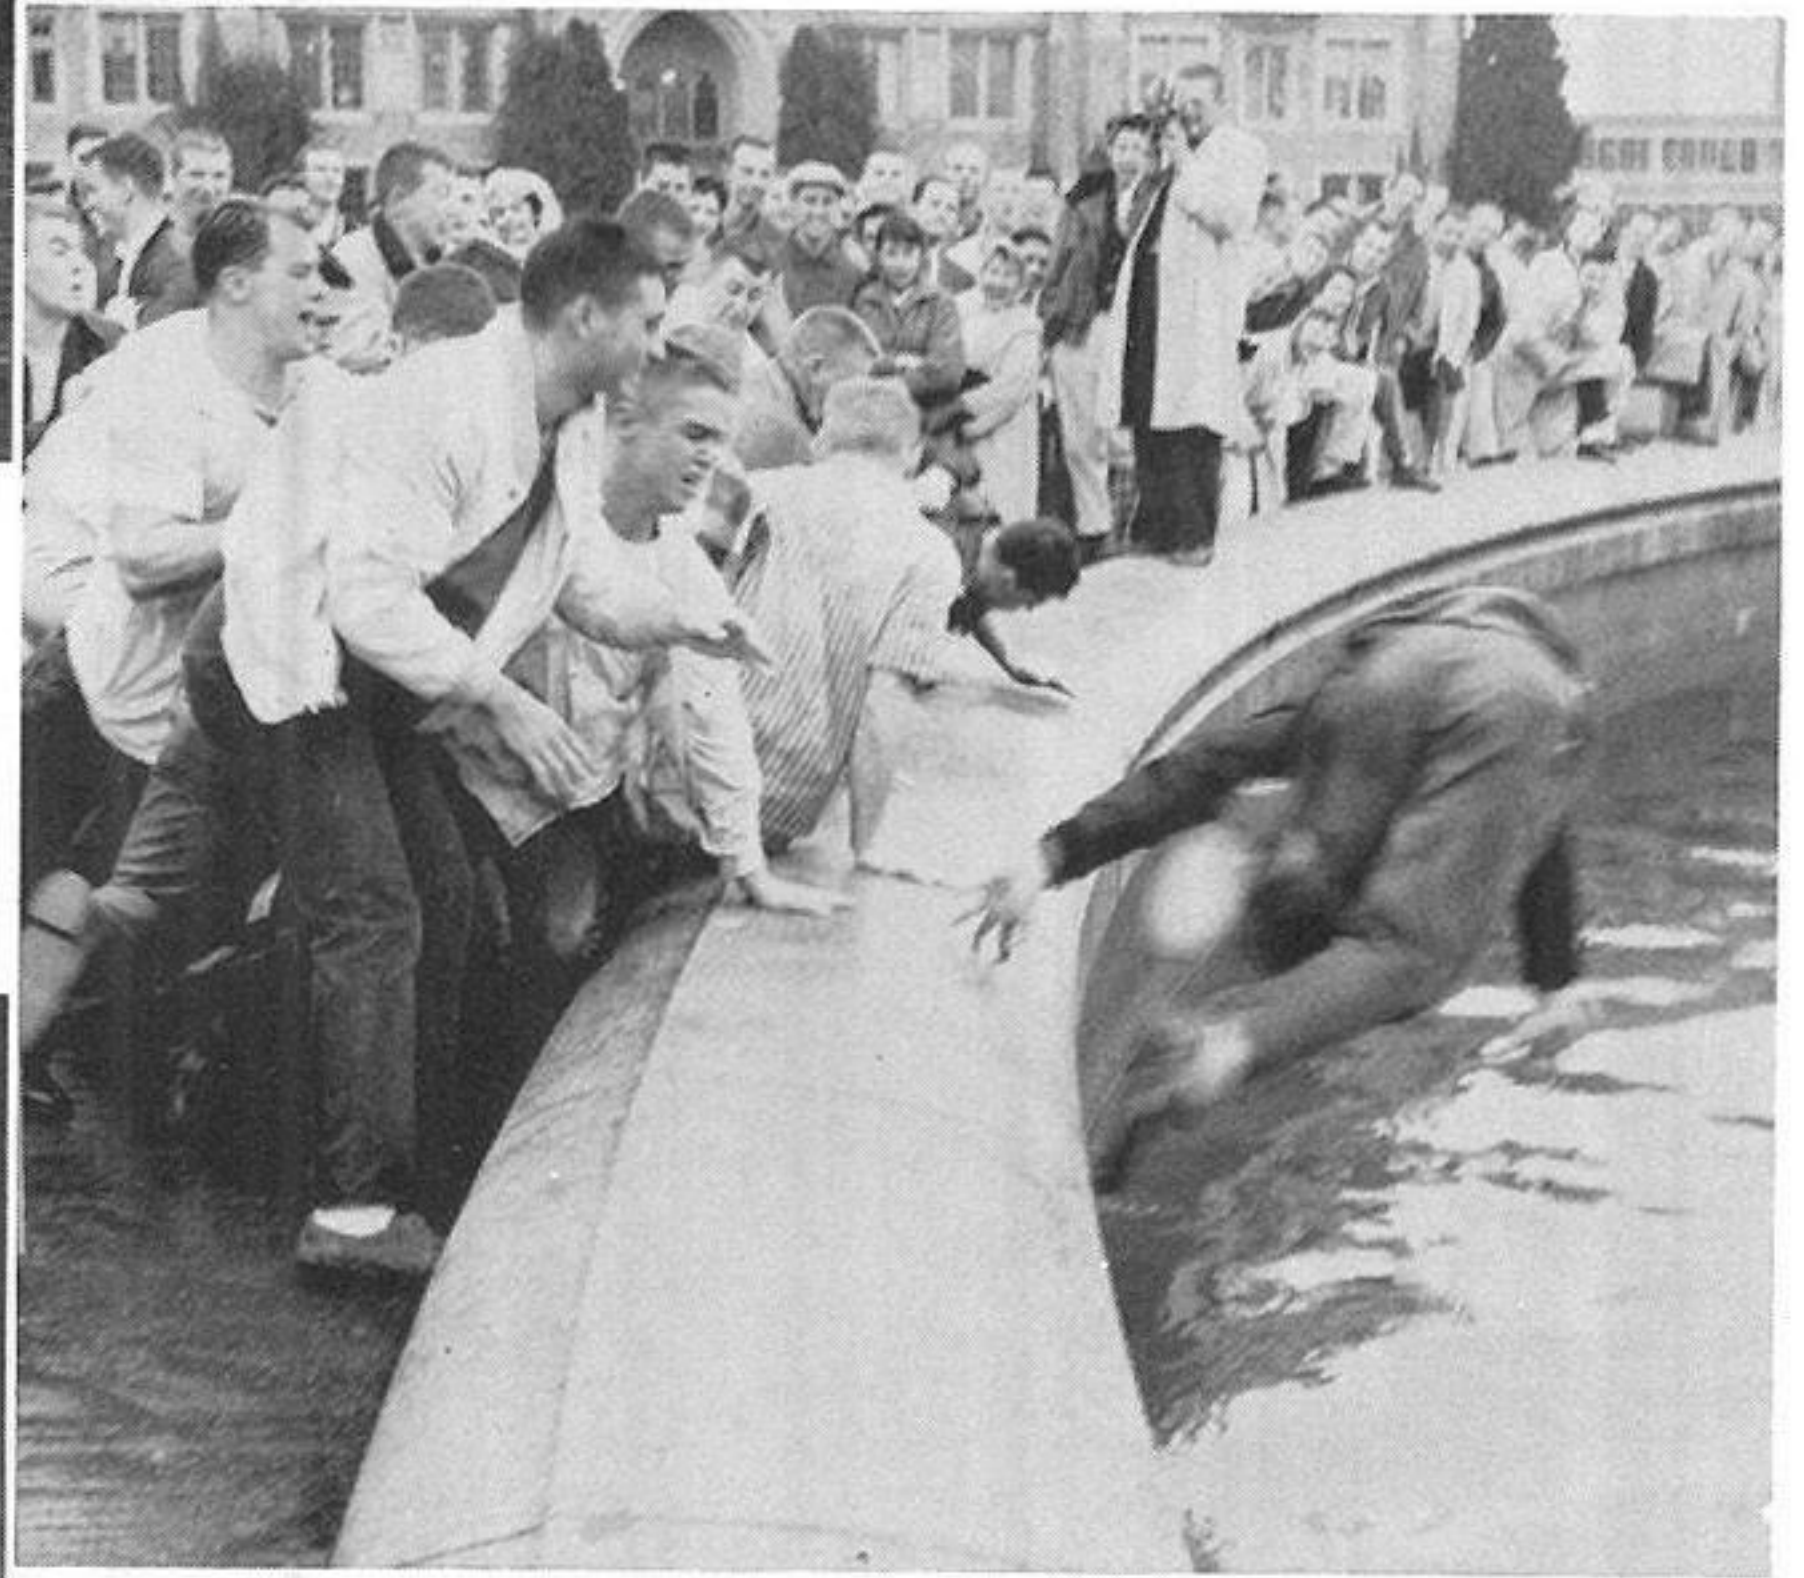

CLASS OF '62 MAKES BIG SPLASH

As Freshmen and Sophomores gathered around Frosh Pond to watch the battle between the two classes, an exciting Frosh Day was brought to a close.

The Sophomores went down to defeat again. The Freshmen retained their perfect "Tug-of-War" record as they shamelessly "tugged" the Sophs into the Pond again.

Well, there's always another year, and the Sophs climb out of the drink to make way for next year's class to be pulled in.

In addition to the "Tug-of-War," there was a jazz combo in the Hub, a brown bag luncheon rally, and the Frosh Ball after the basketball game.

SONG AND STUNT NIGHT

A night of laughs began when the Totem Club sponsored Song and Stunt Night, "I Led Four Lives," opened for its annual appearance. The Seniors stole the show with their offering, "The Relentless Debutante," or "My Rare Lady," or "Rally Round the Hag, Boys."

The Sophomores related their version of life and love smorgasbord style in "I Oared in the Fiord." Kirk Douglas will never be the same again.

The Juniors in "It's All in the Game," gave an account of the Great National Sport. Those in attendance have yet to decide what the sport was.

Interspersed among the general madness was the music from the Mark IV quartet.

Another added attraction was the Charleston dancers accompanied by the jazz combo, "The Saints."

The seniors, led by Bob Humphreys, came on stage to accept their second winner's plaque from Sandy Taylor, general chairman of Song and Stunt Night.

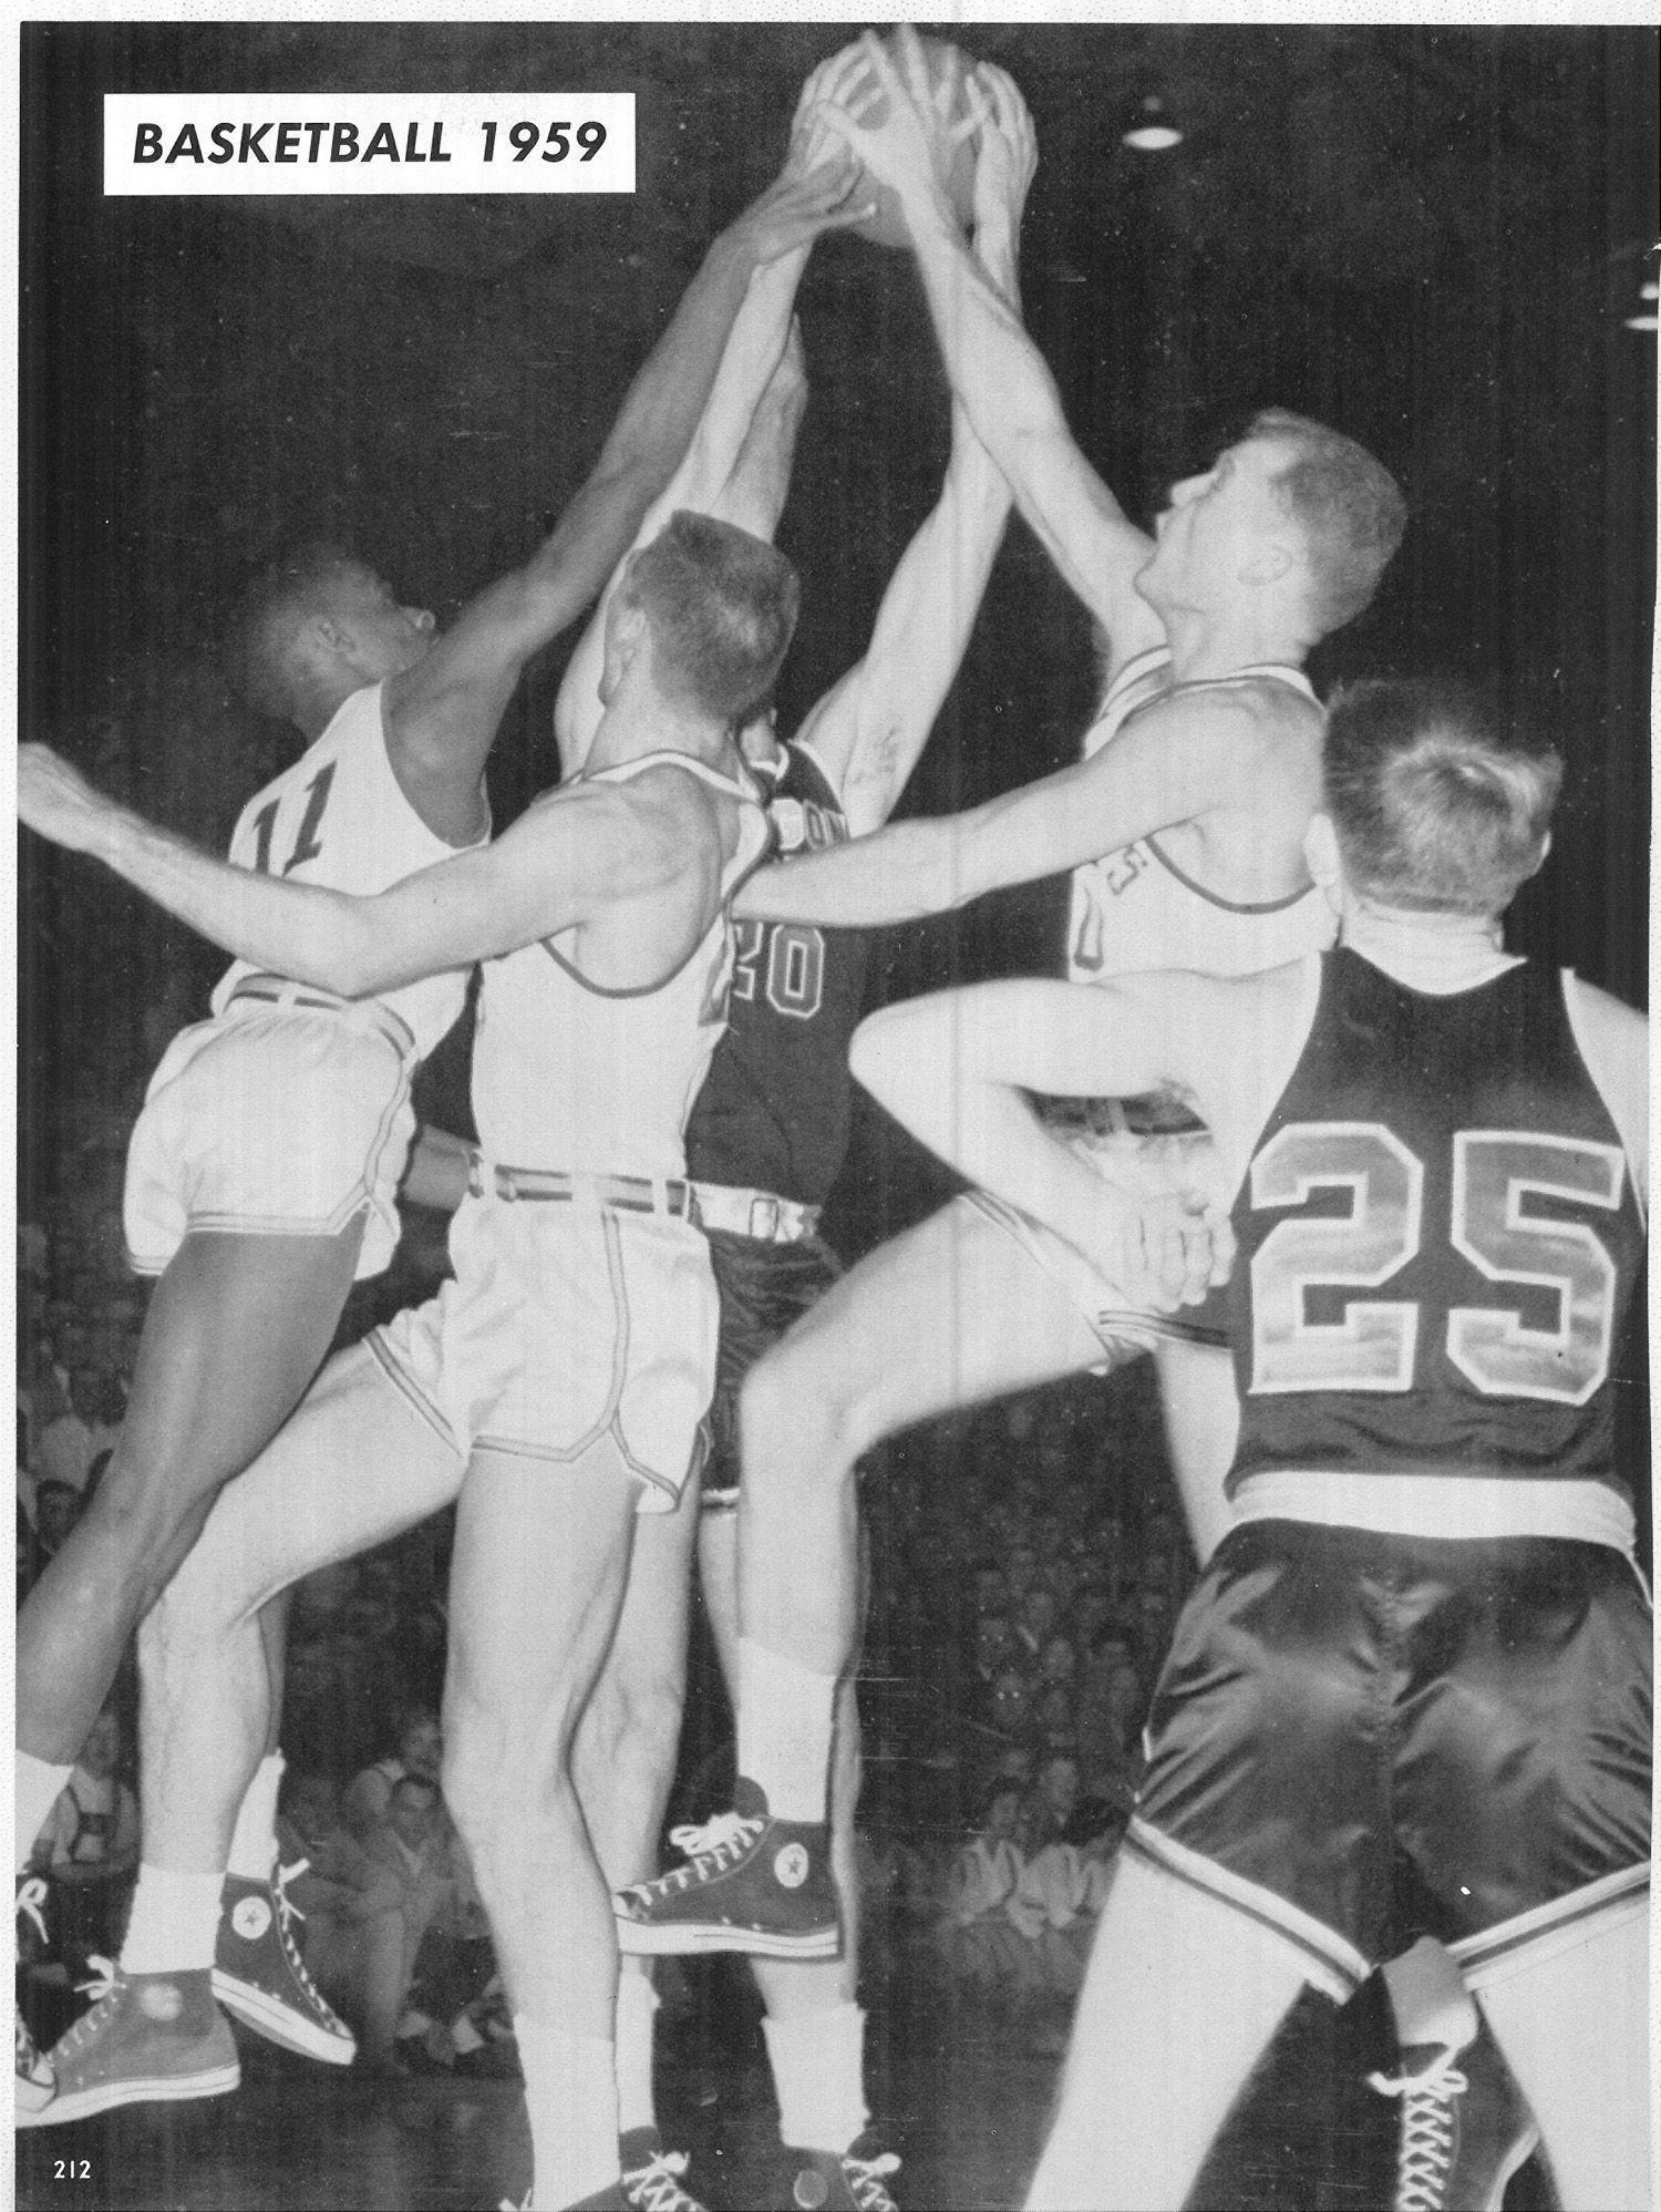

The traditional columns stand in memory of our original one-building campus.

The Huskies wound up splitting their series with the Stanford Indians. At Palo Alto the Indians held off a last minute rally climaxed by a 15 foot attempt by Bruno Boin, narrowly missing its mark. Doug Smart finished high with 14 points followed by Irvine, Boin, and Grant with 8 points each. During this close contest the lead changed seven times, while the score was tied eight times in the first half. Stanford's Paul Neumann and John Arrillaga were instrumental in handing out Washington's third conference loss.

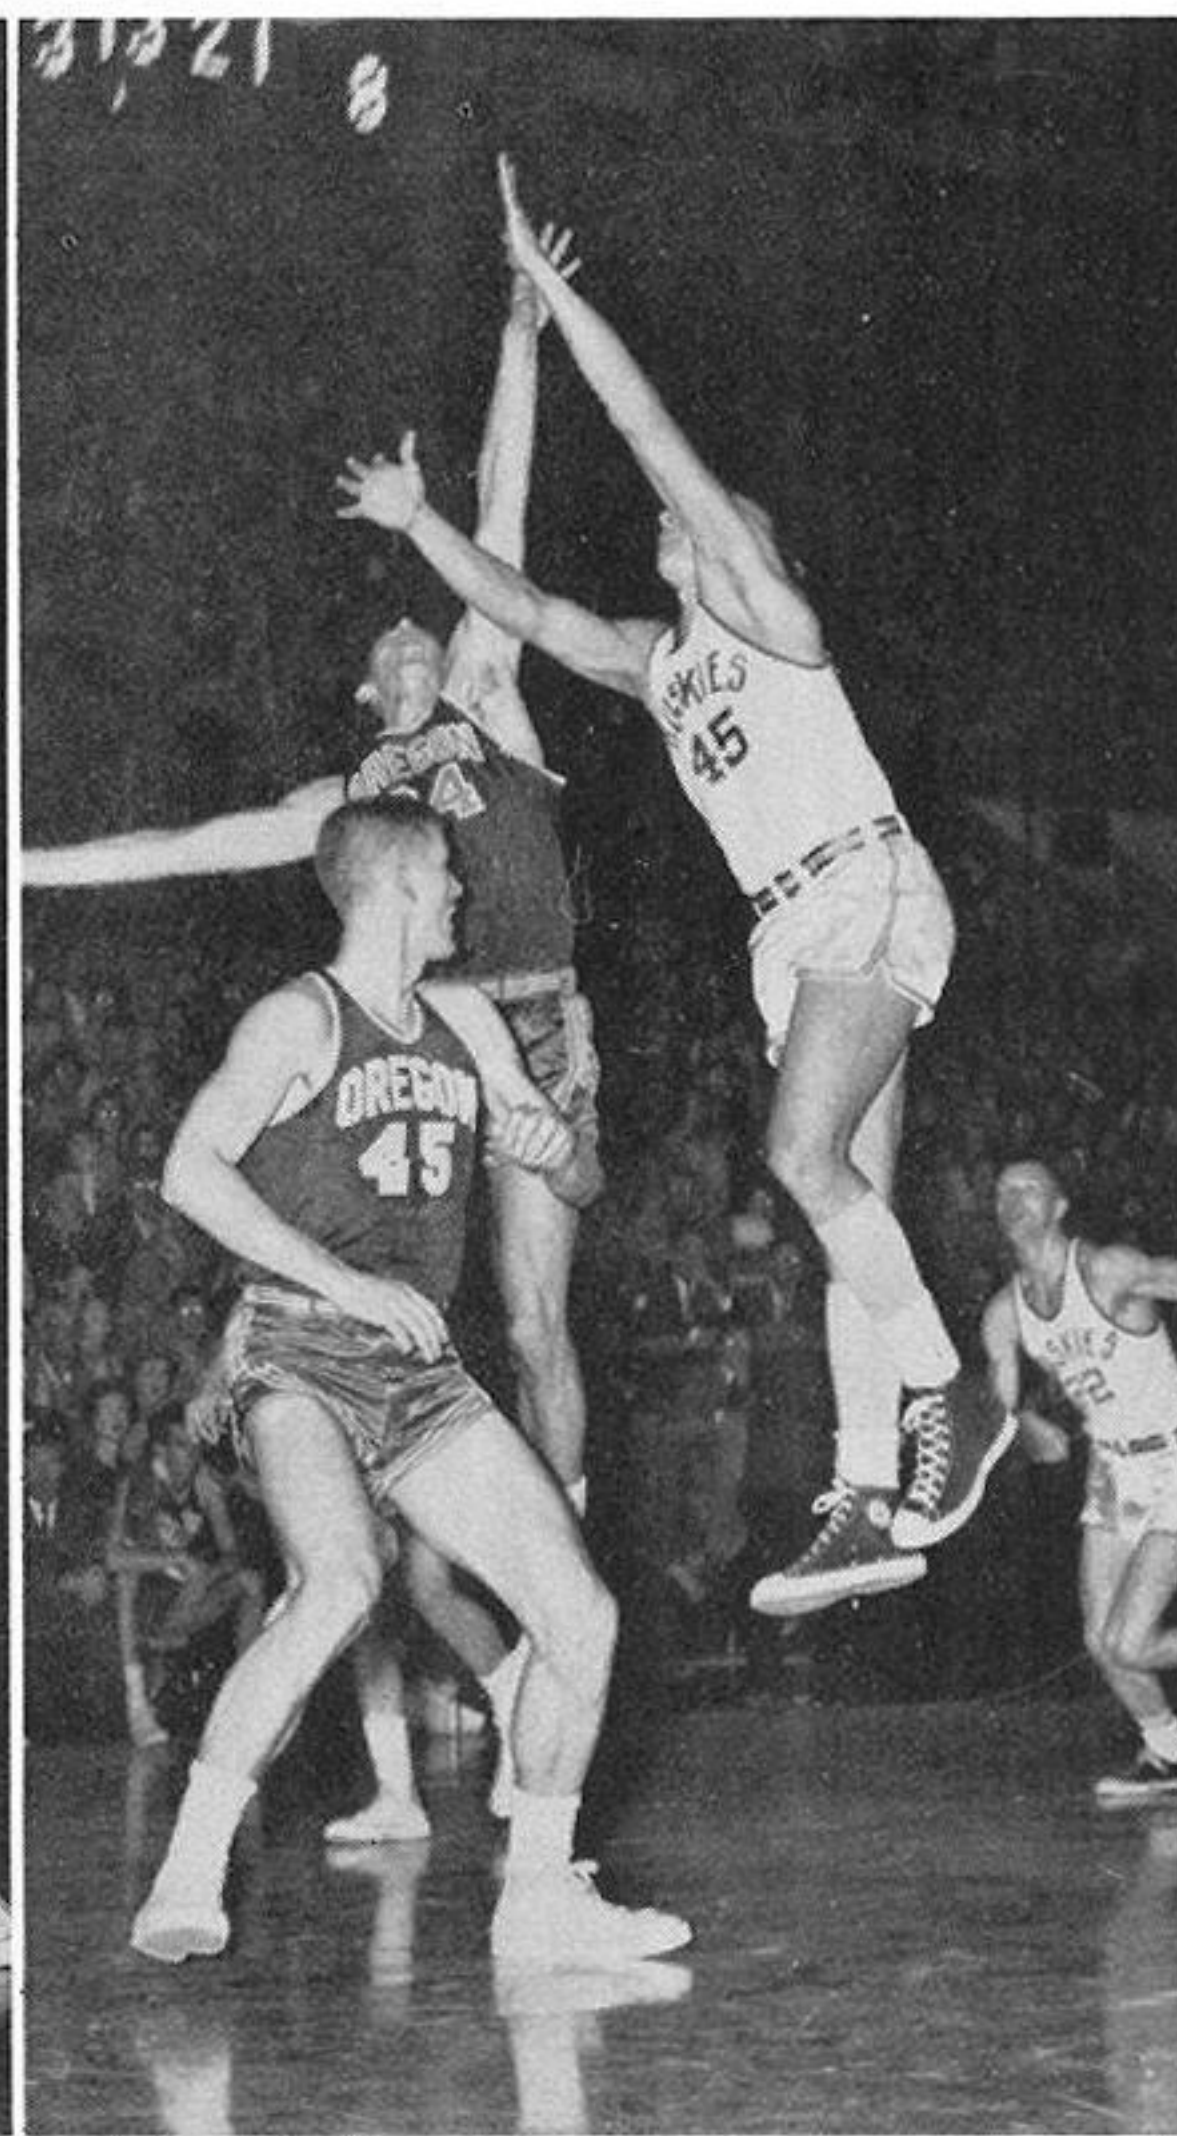

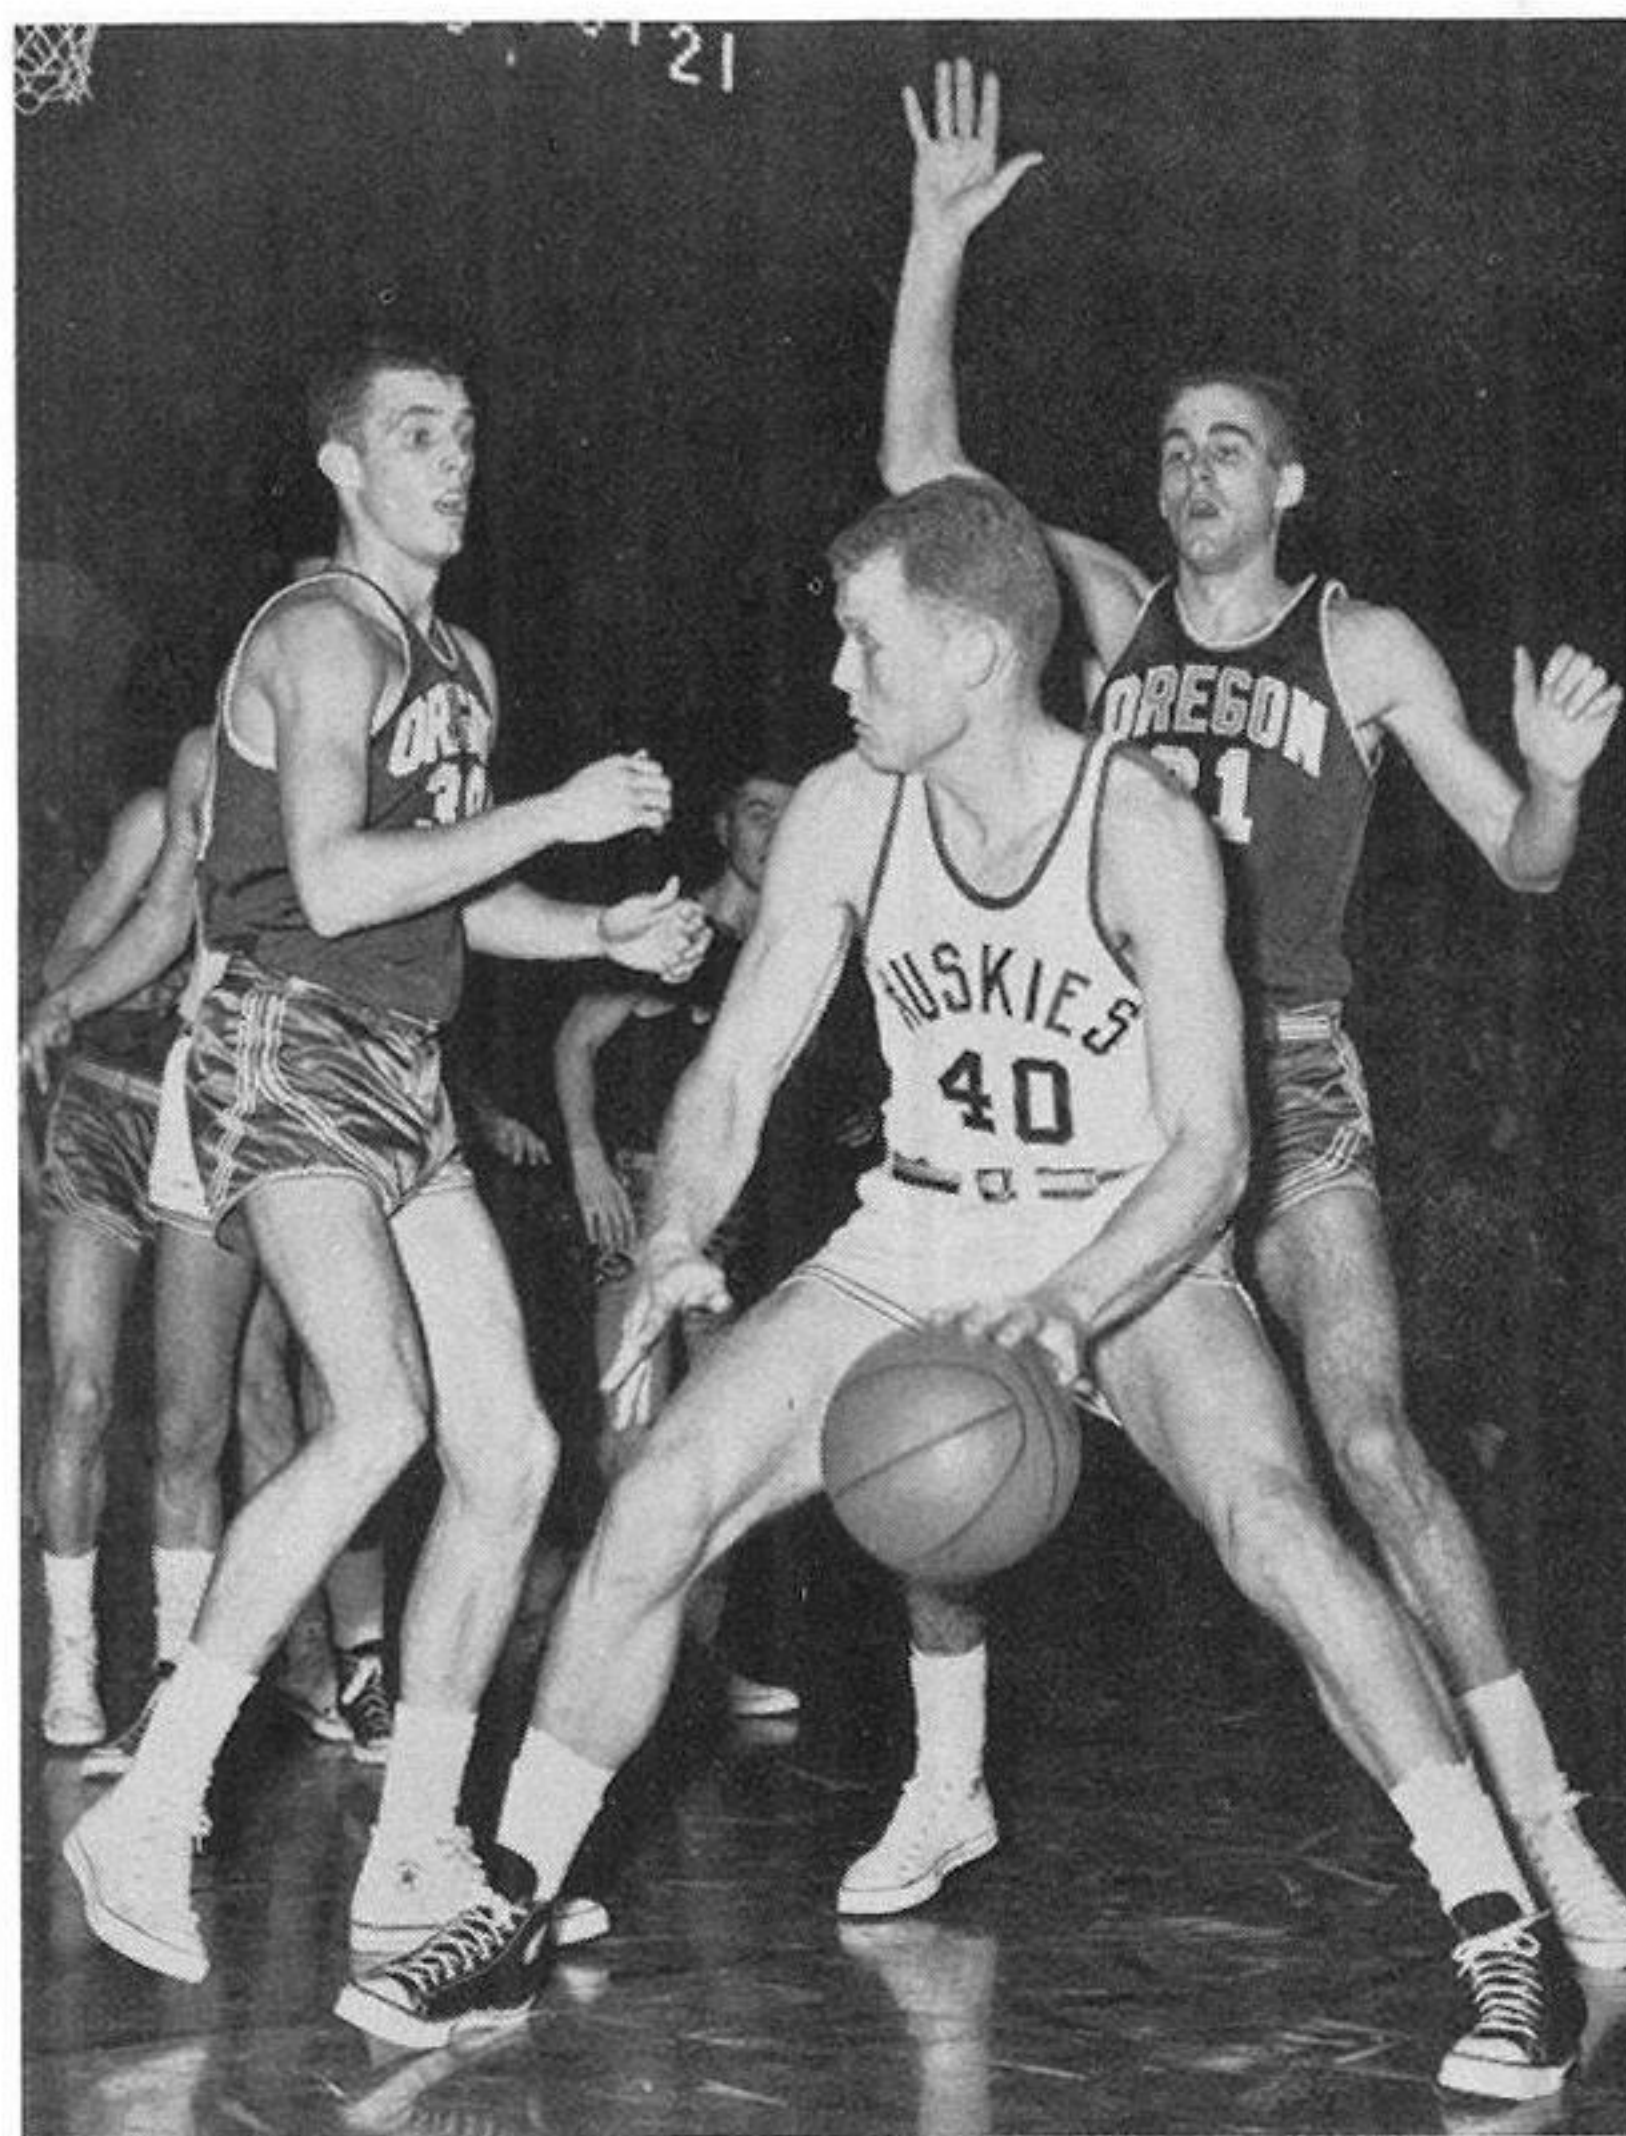

Back in Seattle the story was substantially different. Allowing Stanford only 17 points in the second half, while chalking up 53 points for themselves in the second half, the Huskies increased their conference winning streak to four games. Doug Smart was high point man with 21 points with Boin, Irvine, and Pariseau all scoring in the double figures. Intense efforts by Don Dorland and George Grant held the Indians' top scorer, Paul Neumann to 9 points. Dick Haga took top scoring honors for the loser with 16 points.

The Huskies managed to grab their first encounter with the University of Oregon out of the fire in the last ten minutes. Midway through the game the score stood at 37-28, but the Ducks increased this margin to 45-37 during the first eight minutes of the second half. Doug Smart's consistent scoring, totaling 19, and Bruno Boin's second half effort of 13 along with the fine work of Grant, Dorland, Coaston and Murphy gave the Huskies a 62-57 final decision. Four of the Ducks scored in the double figures with Stu Robertson netting 16 for top honors.

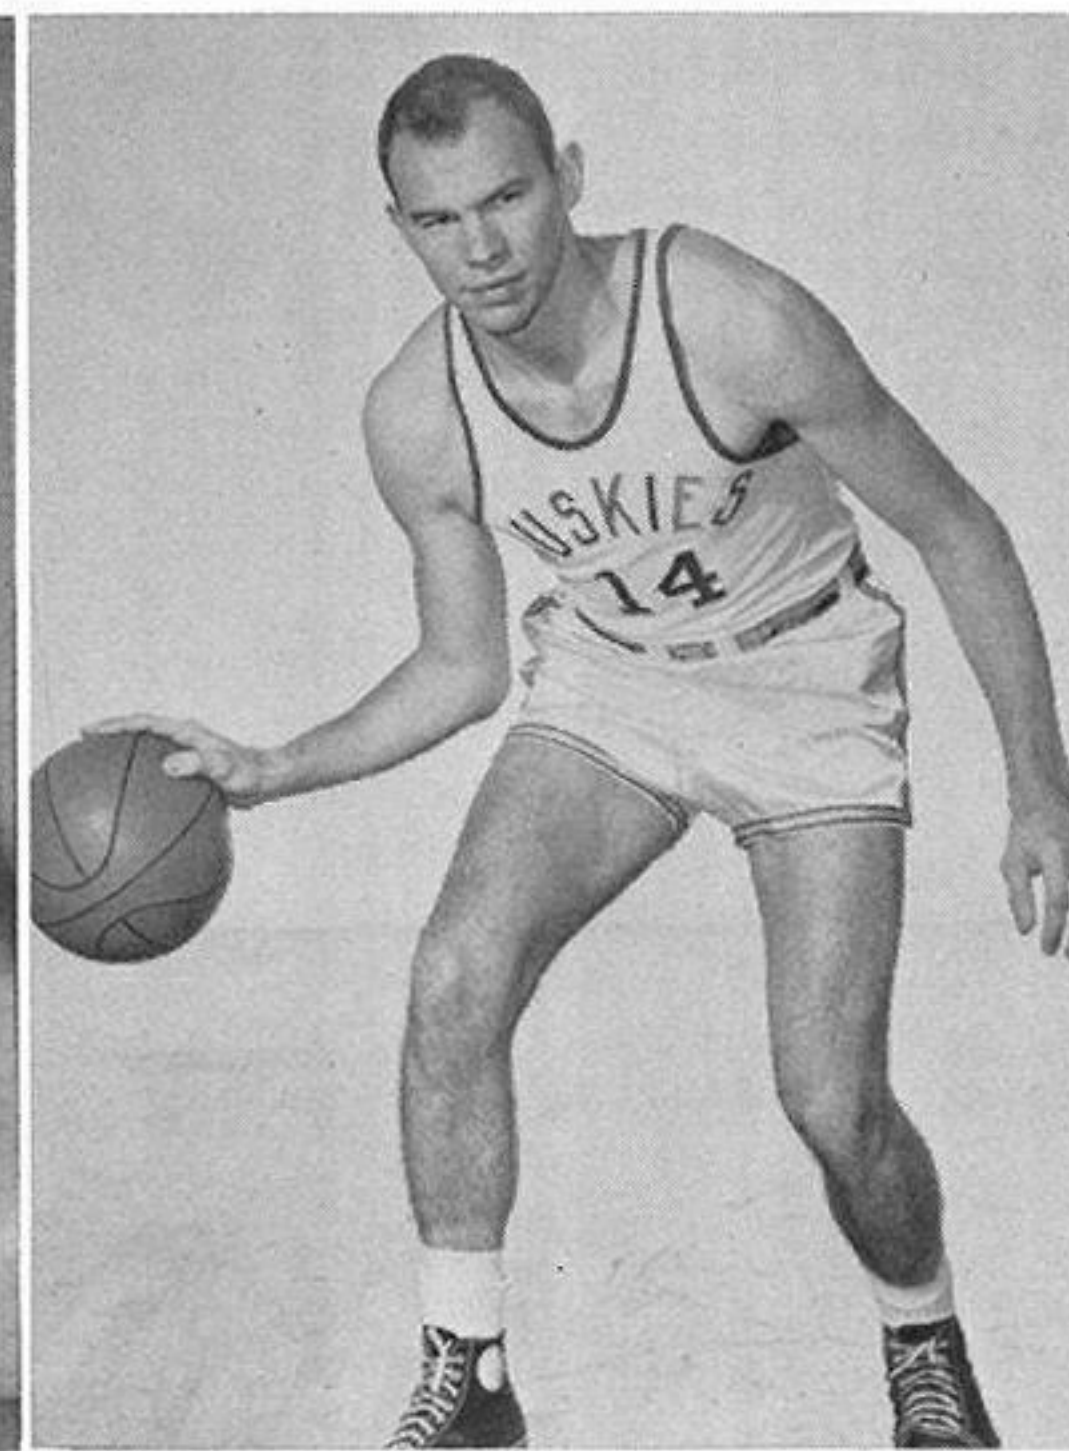

Back on their home court the Huskies had a good evening at the expense of the University of Oregon with a 79-60 victory. Doug Smart and Earle Irvine set the pace scoring 22 points each. Bruno Boin's 14 points with contributions from Coaston, Crowe, Dorland, and Grant helped the result of the one sided affair. Leading at halftime 32-21, the Huskies increased this margin to 23 points twice during the contest. Despite their heavy loss Oregon's Dale Herron put on an impressive show placing 16 points on the new scoreboard and bringing down 19 from the backboards.

In Corvallis the Huskies had to rally despite a nineteen point lead early in the second half to overcome the Oregon State Beavers. Five minutes from the start of the second half the Huskies led 48-29, but paced by guard Jim Anderson, the Beavers whittled the margin down to five points, 57-52, with ten minutes remaining. Oregon State's full-court press soon led to costly fouling. These fouls plus a field goal drought allowed the Huskies to recover and extend their margin to ten points at the finish of the game.

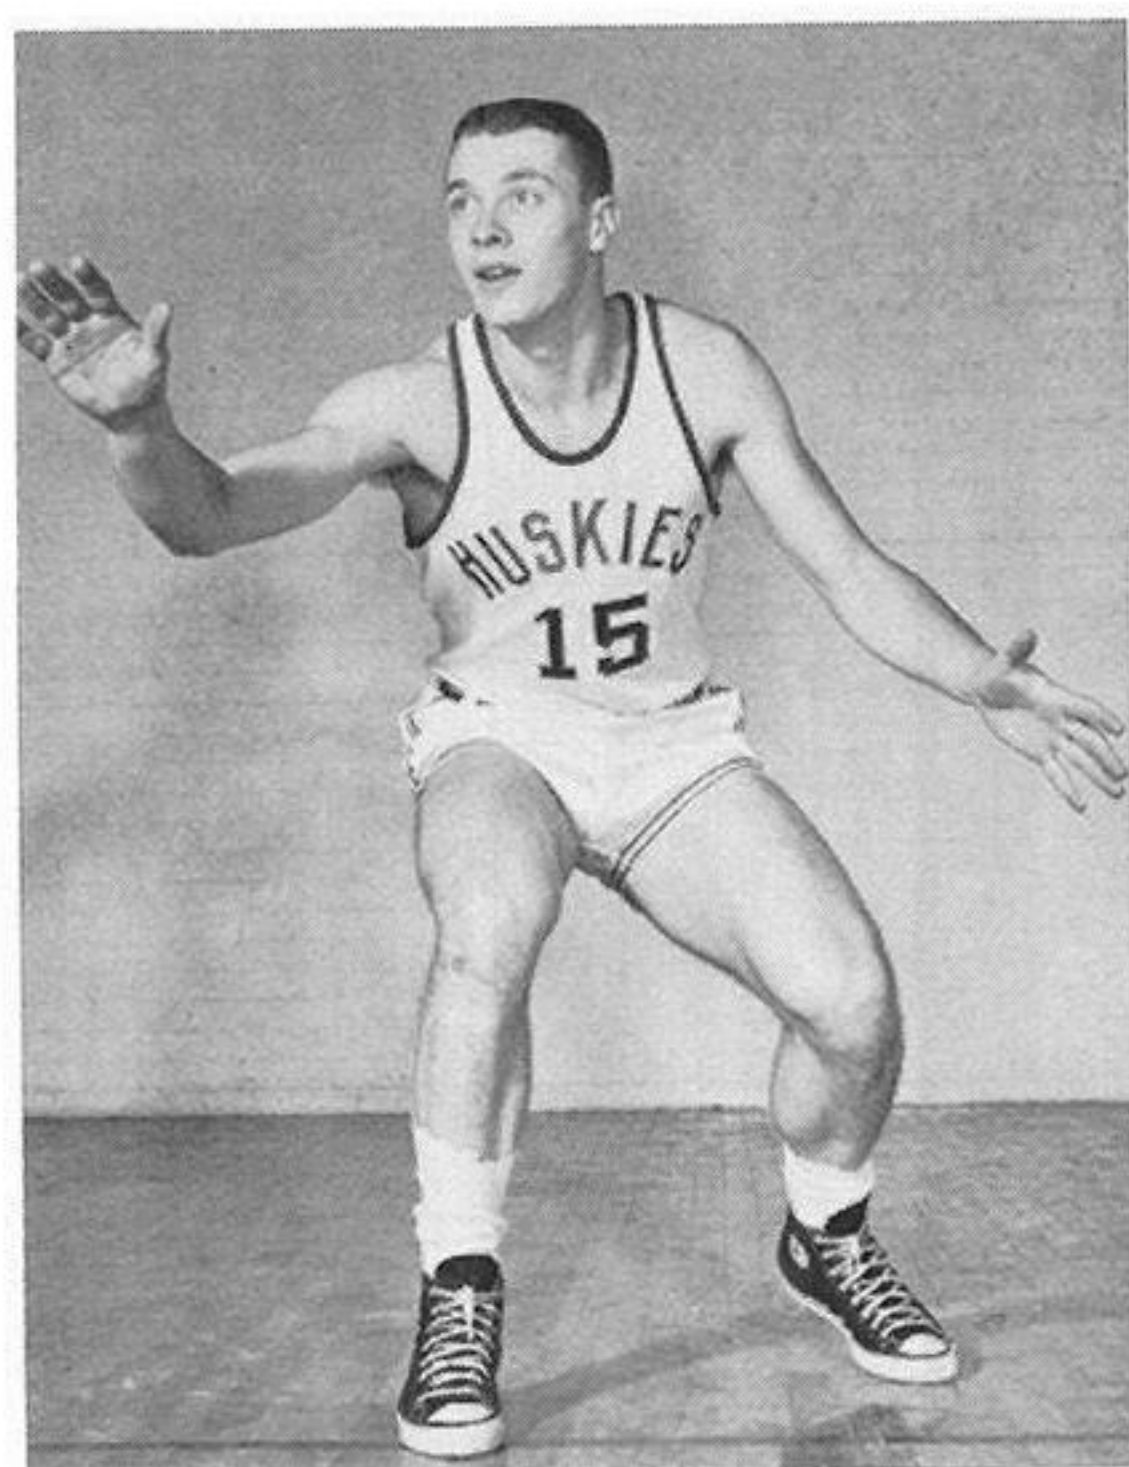

Back in Seattle the Huskies again defeated the Beavers; this time however, with much less effort. Paced by Earle Irvine the Huskies scored ten points before the Beavers collected their first. During the first 16 minutes of play the Washington defense allowed OSC only three field goals. Leading at halftime, 37-26, the Huskies increased their lead to a comfortable 23 points, 63-40, with seven minutes remaining and maintained the greater part of this lead to finish 75-59.

HUSKIES 68, 55

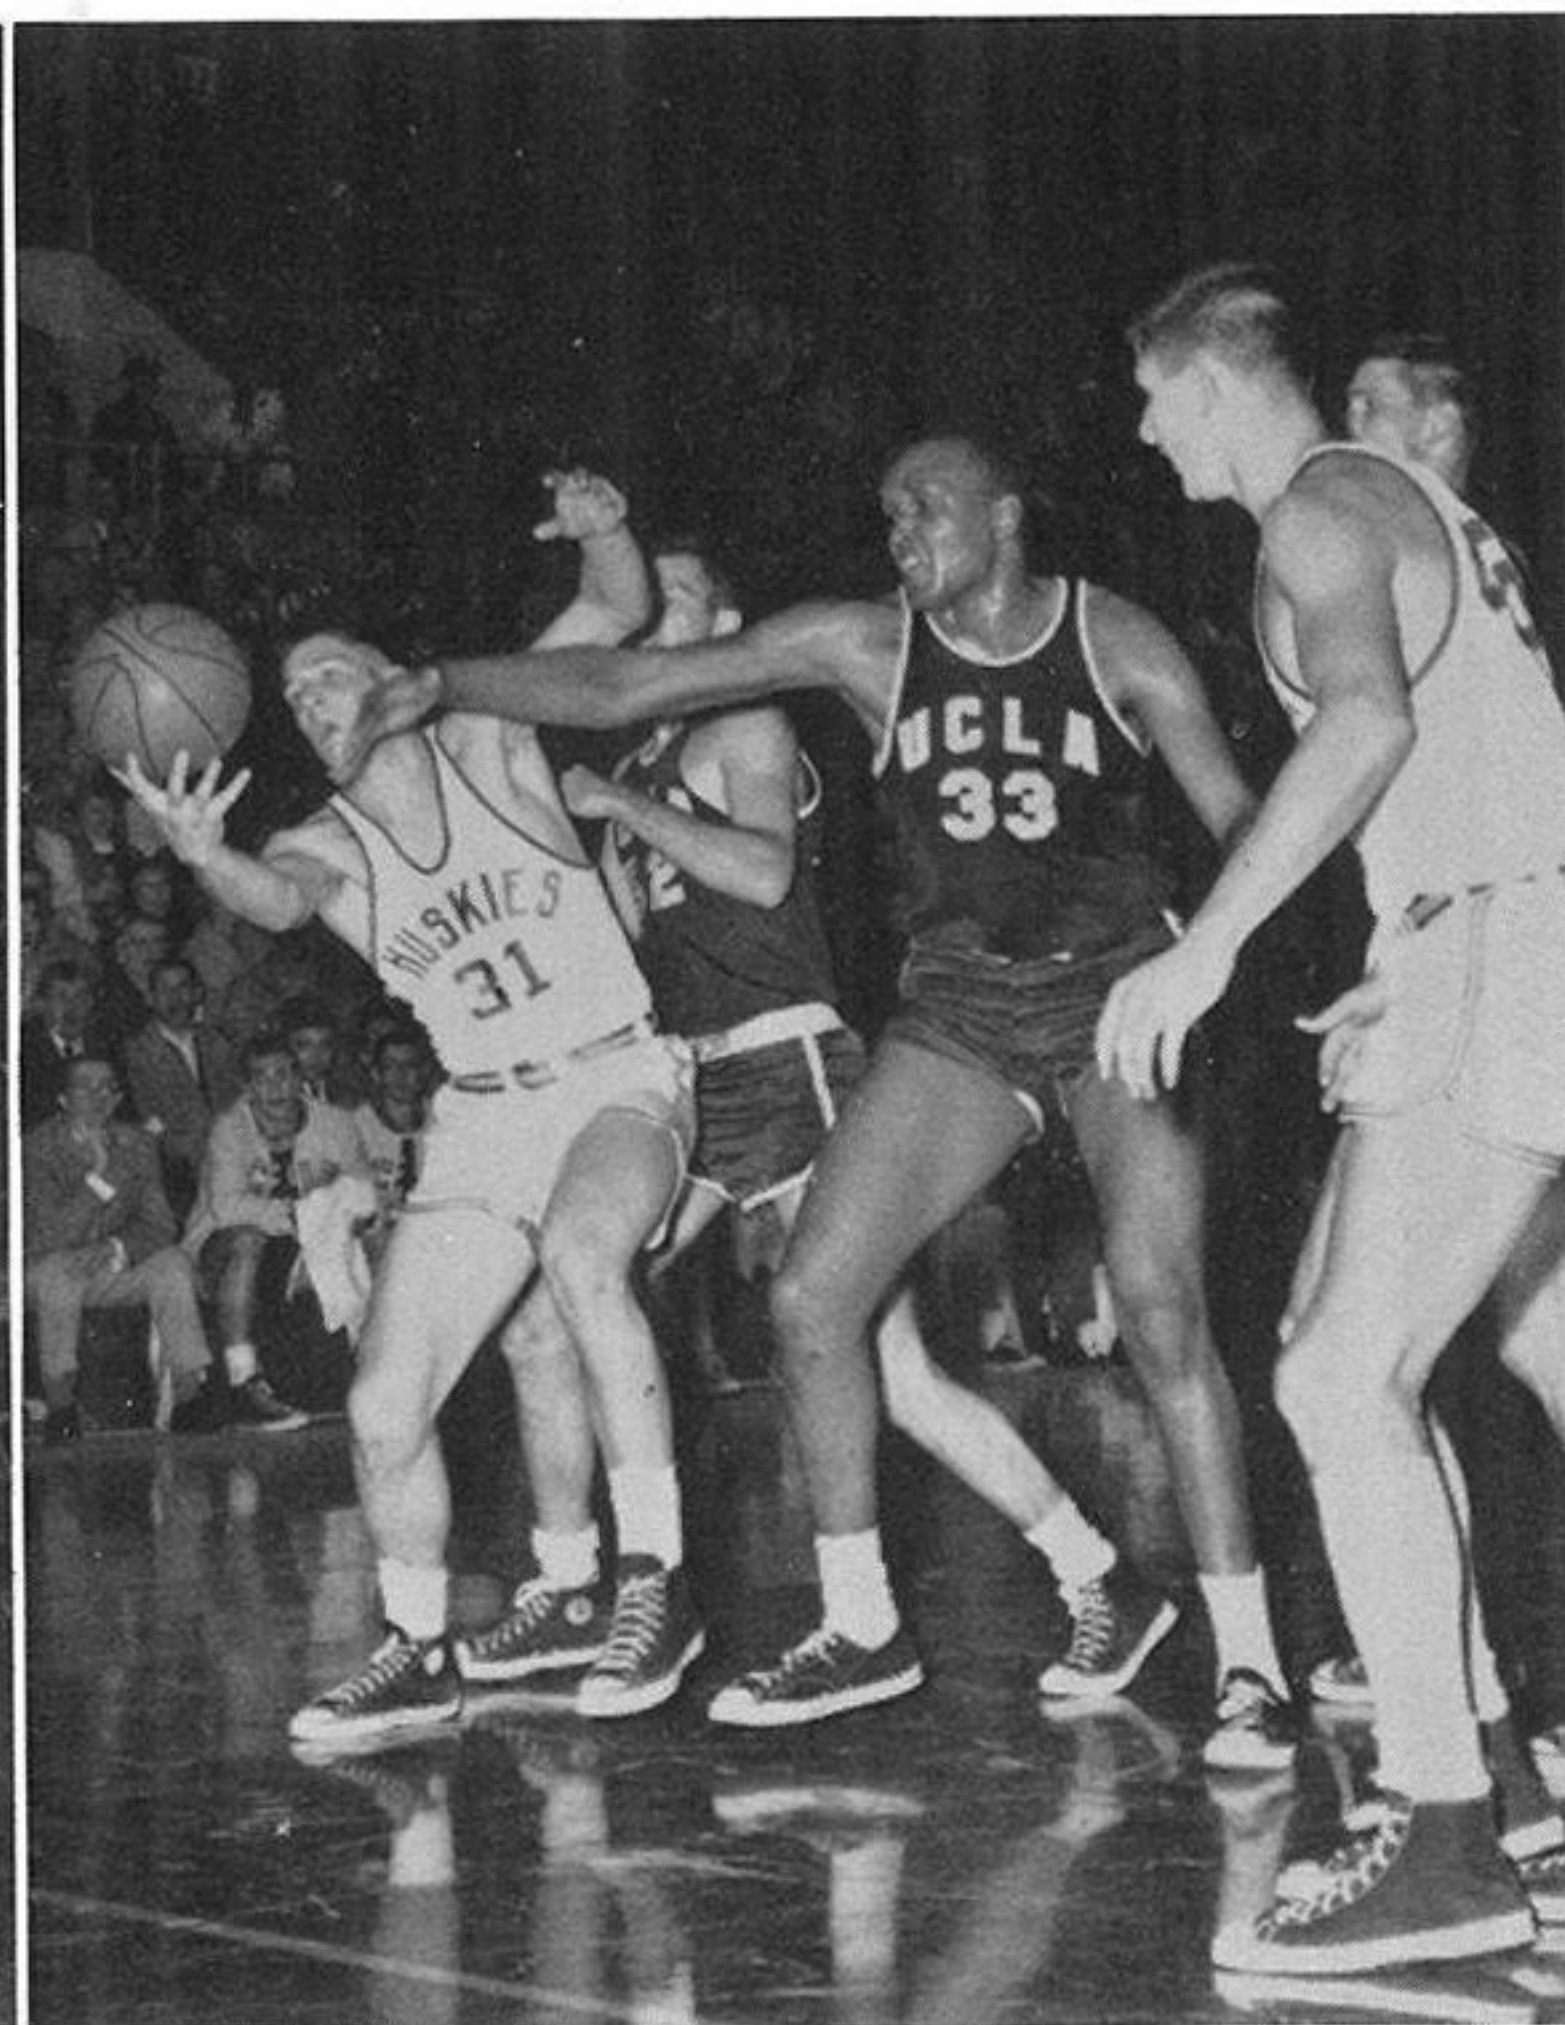

Rallying behind the play of Crowe, Coaston, and Smart, the Huskies handed U.C.L.A. its second loss of the season. The Huskies trailed the Bruins by nine points at halftime and by six points midway through the second half. But Doug Smart's 35 points and the fine performance of the Huskies' two guards, Crowe and Coaston, enabled Washington to win by five. Walt Torrence, U.C.L.A.'s scoring ace, was held to 17 points.

BRUINS 63, 56

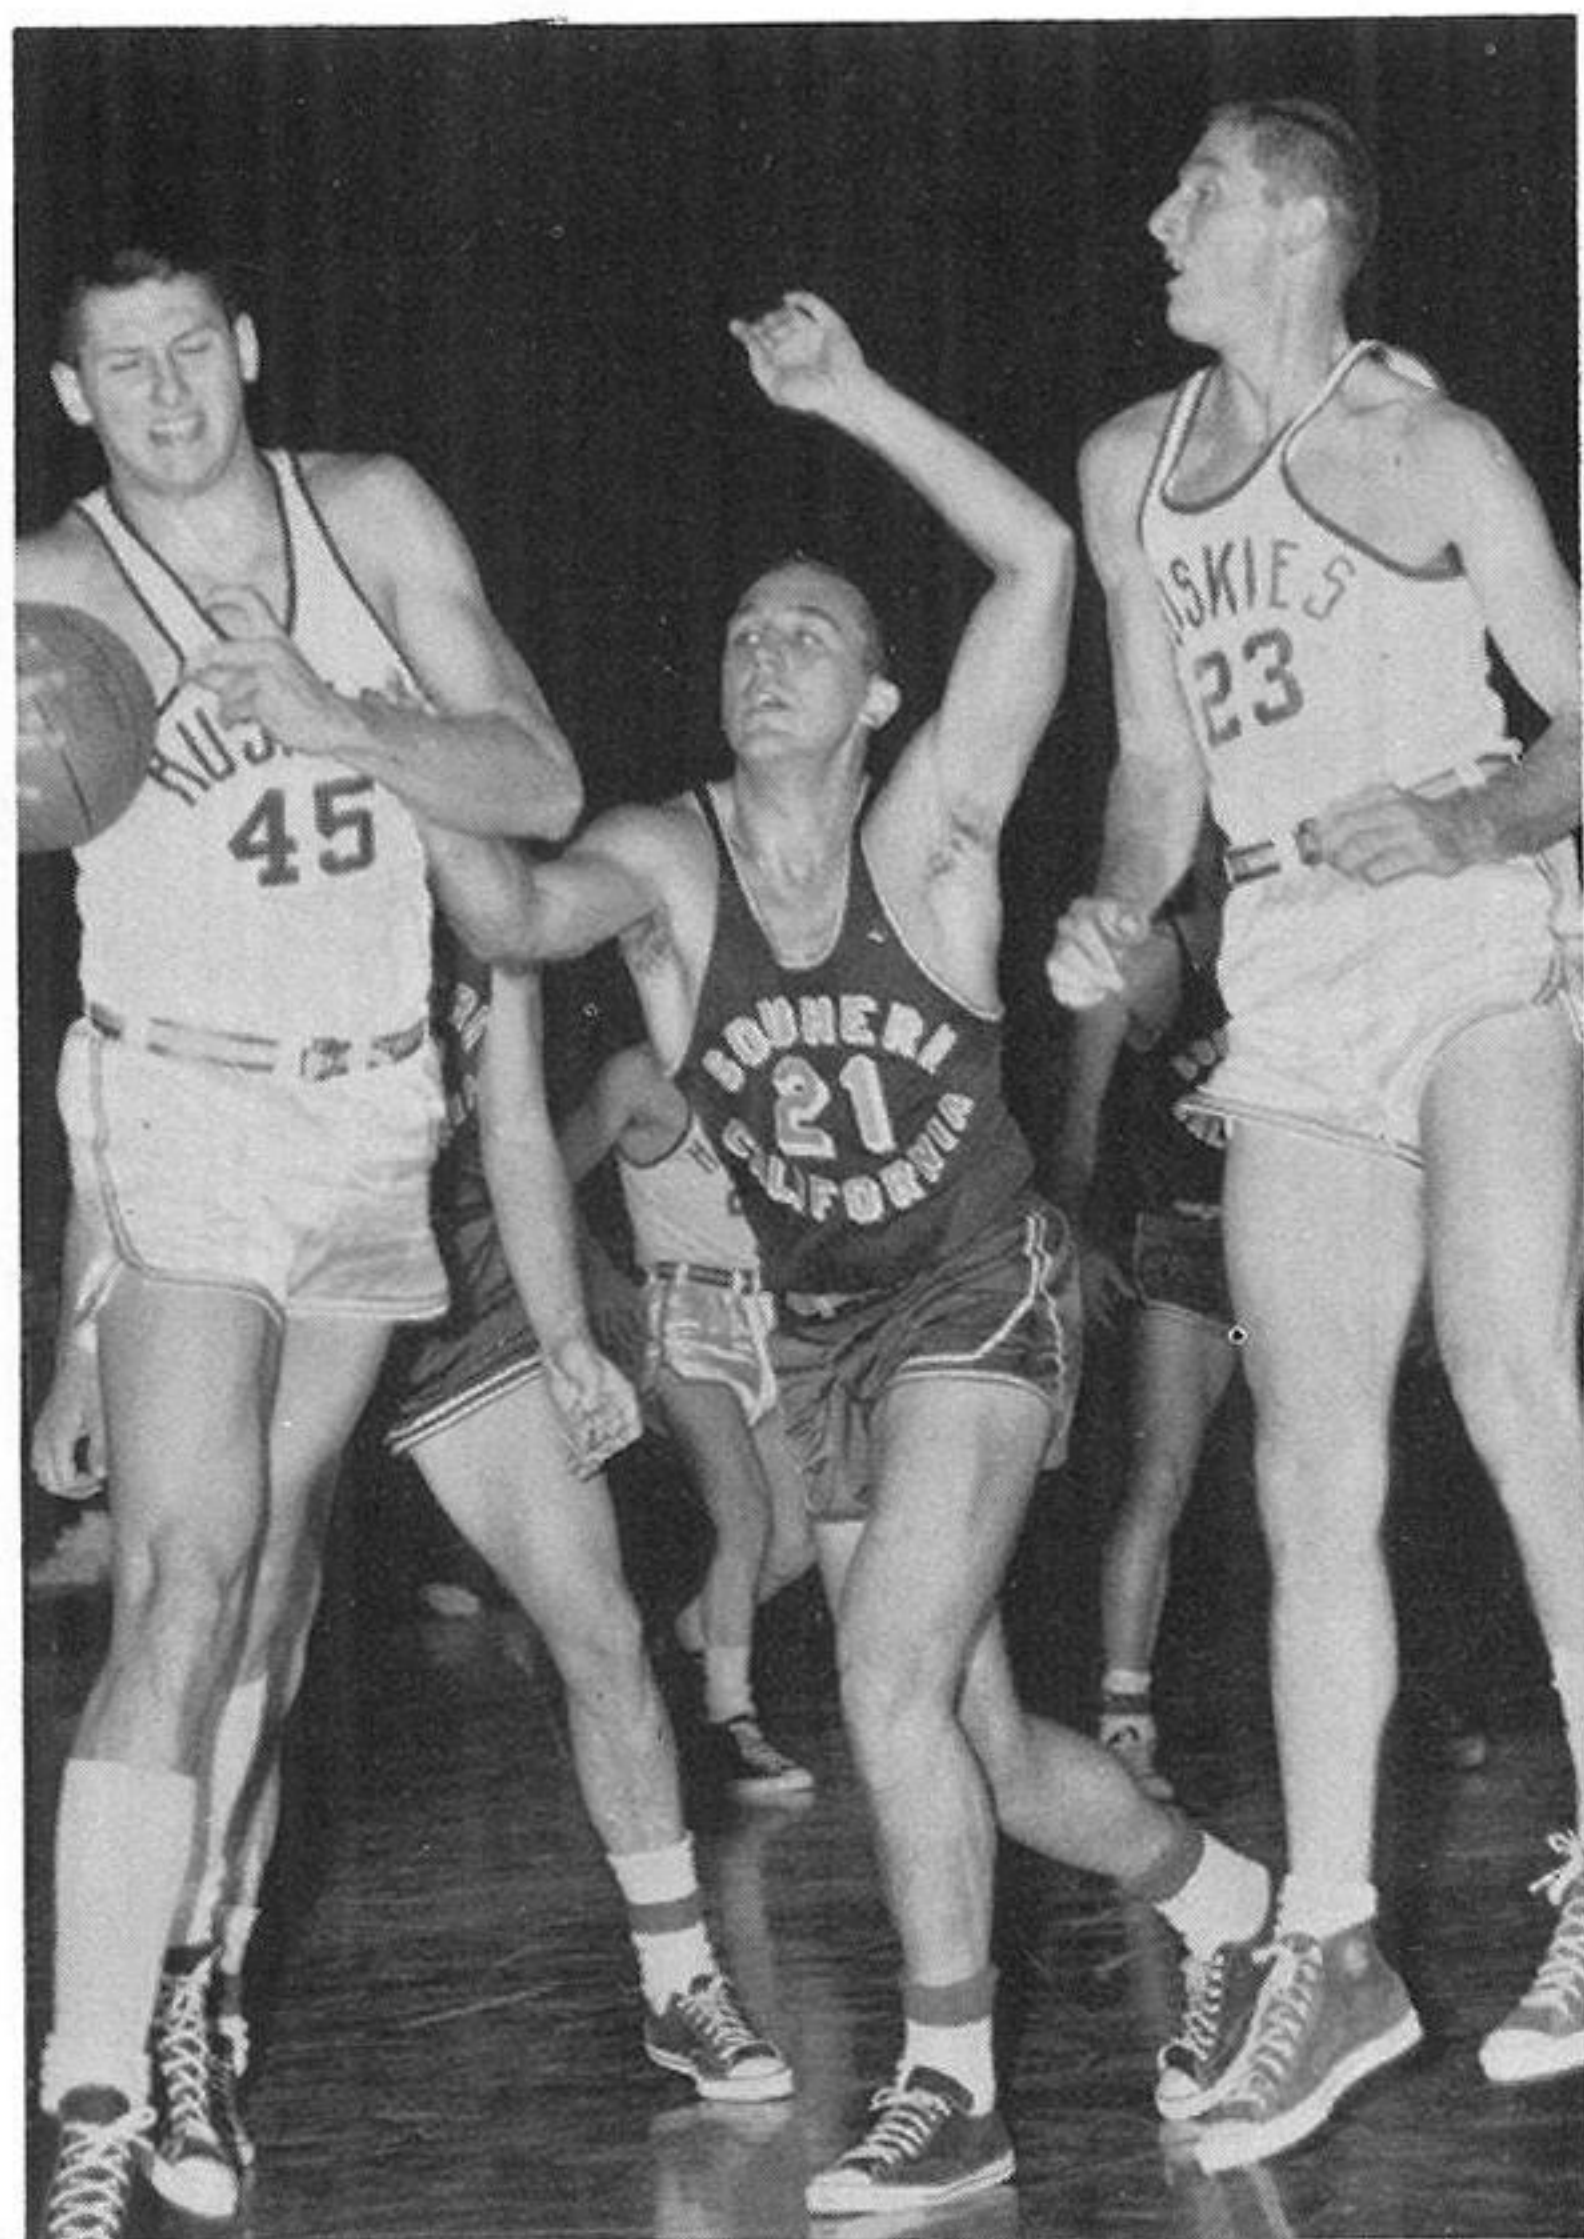

Down in Los Angeles the Bruins nipped the Huskies by one point, 56-55. This defeat insured California of the conference title. Washington led at halftime 29-22. Sparked by Walt Torrence, U.C.L.A. went ahead to stay in the second half. Boin, Smart, Pariseau and Dorland played a fine game as the Huskies nearly overtook the Bruins in the final seconds.

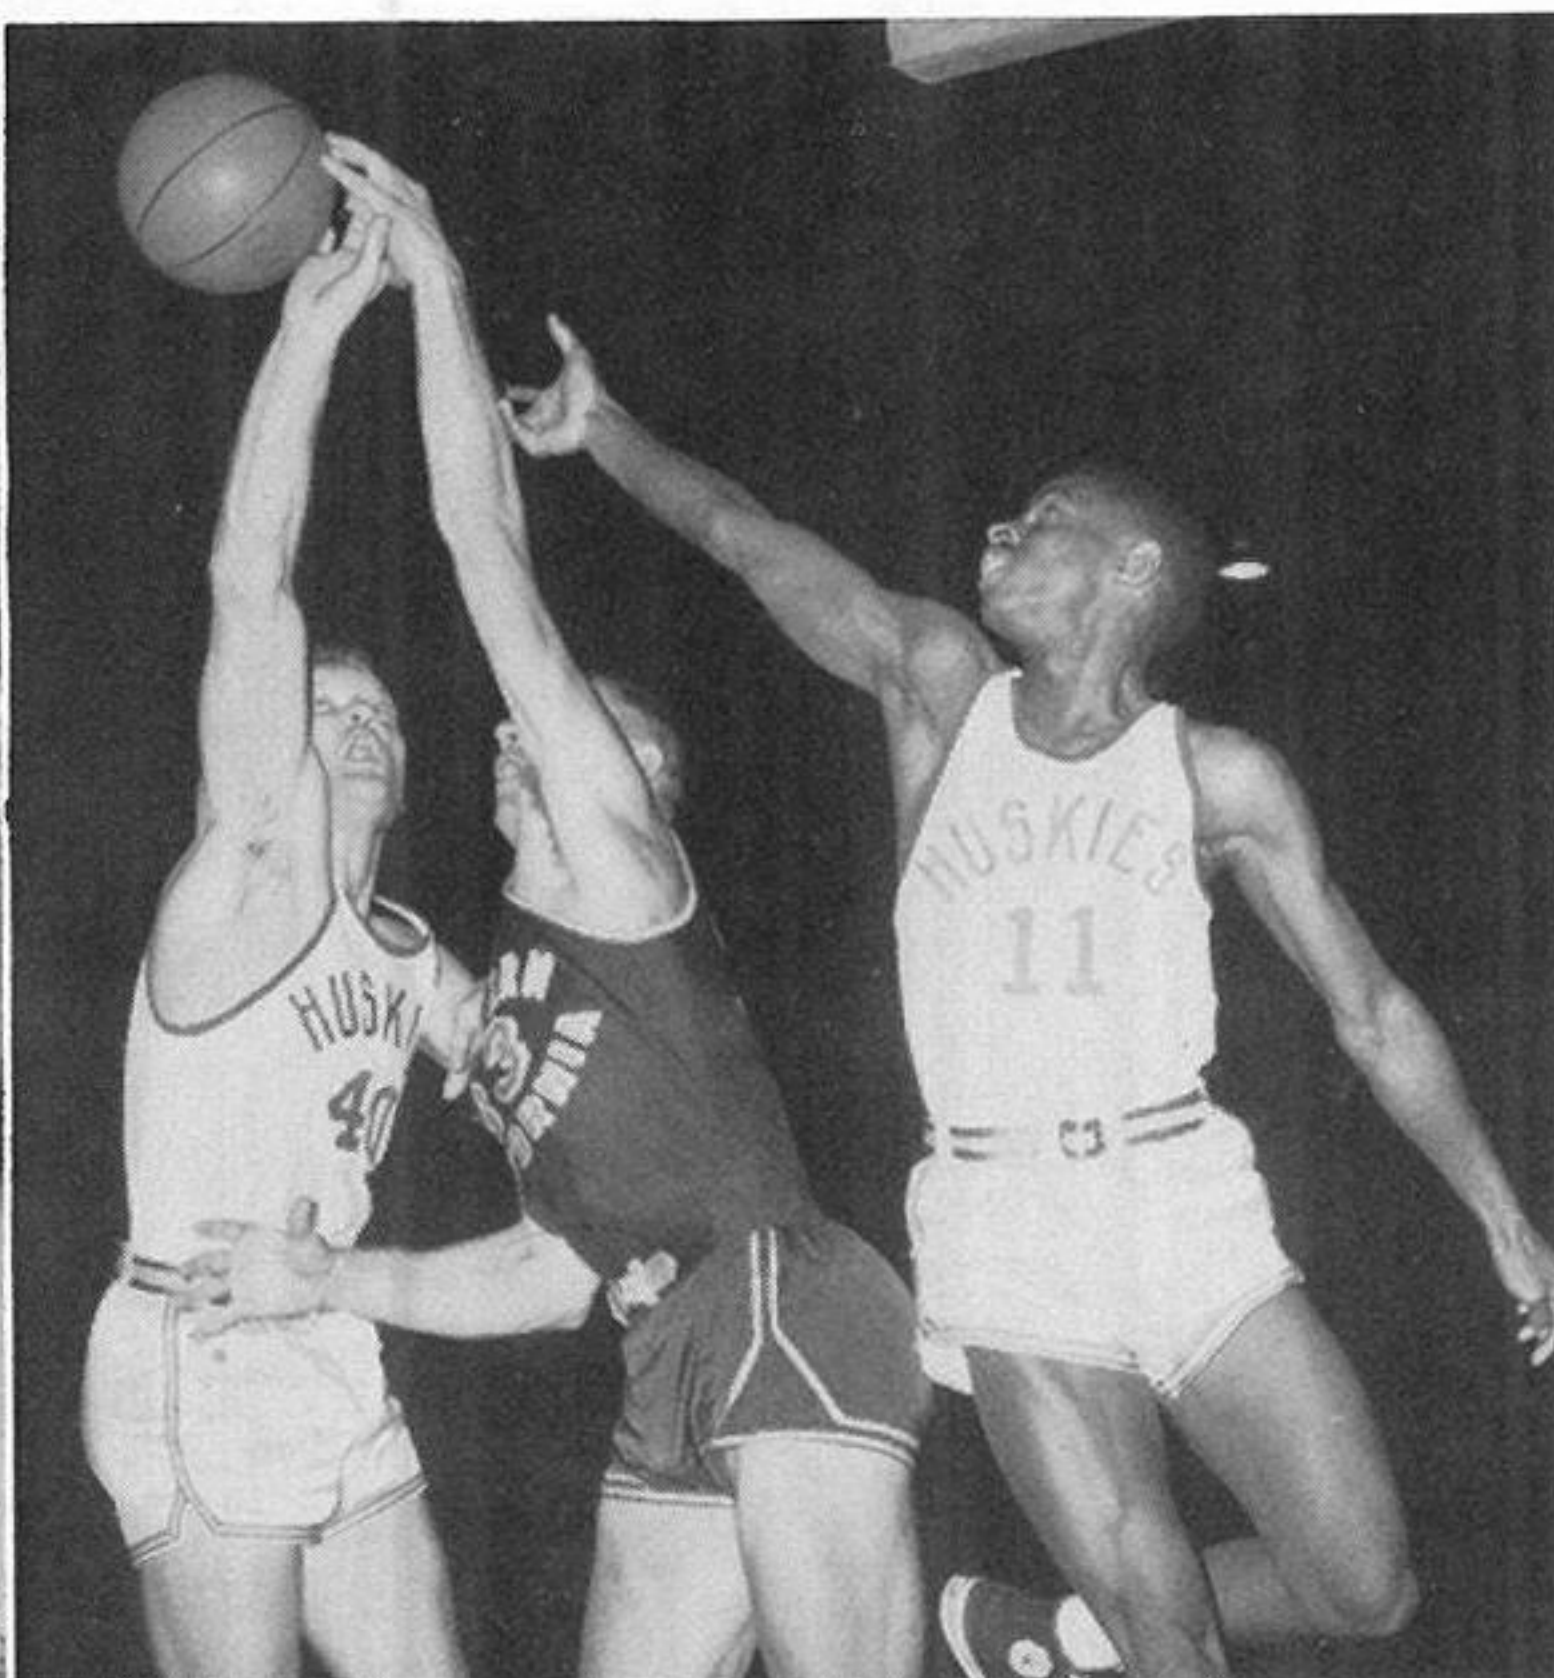

Lou Coaston

HUSKIES 76, 74

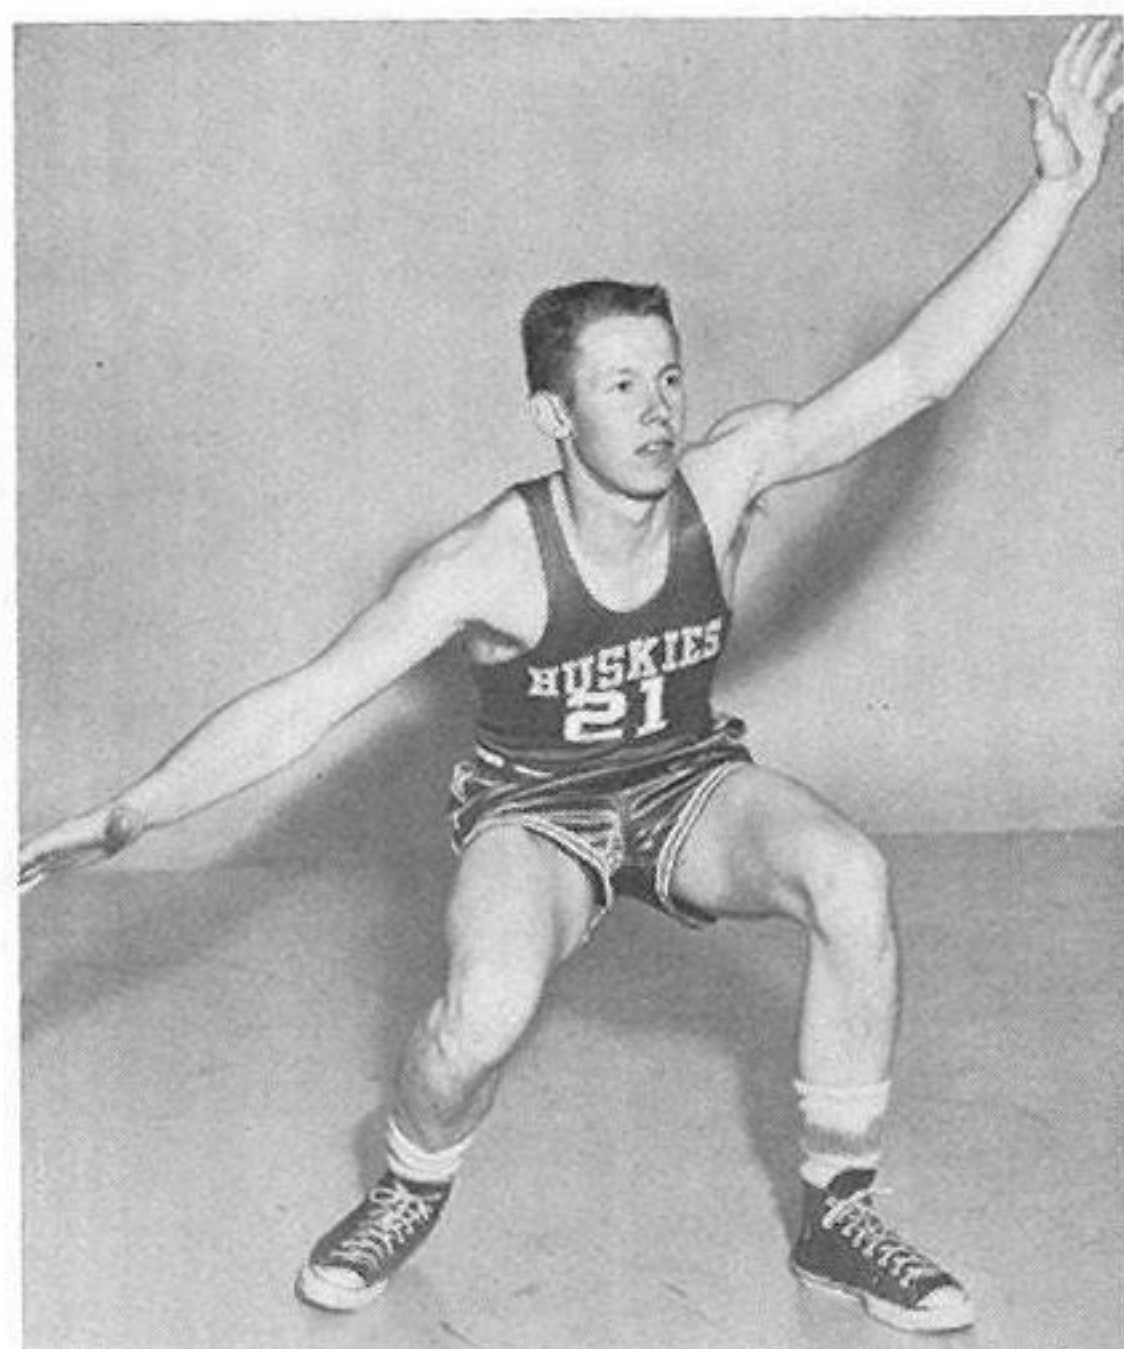

The Huskies' strong defense helped them as they defeated the Southern California Trojans, 76-55. During the first half it was anyone's game, but as the Husky defense stiffened it became evident that Washington was in control of the game. Dorland, Smart, Grant, and Boin aided the offensive picture with excellent shooting. Werhas, White and Bloom scored in the double figures for U.S.C.

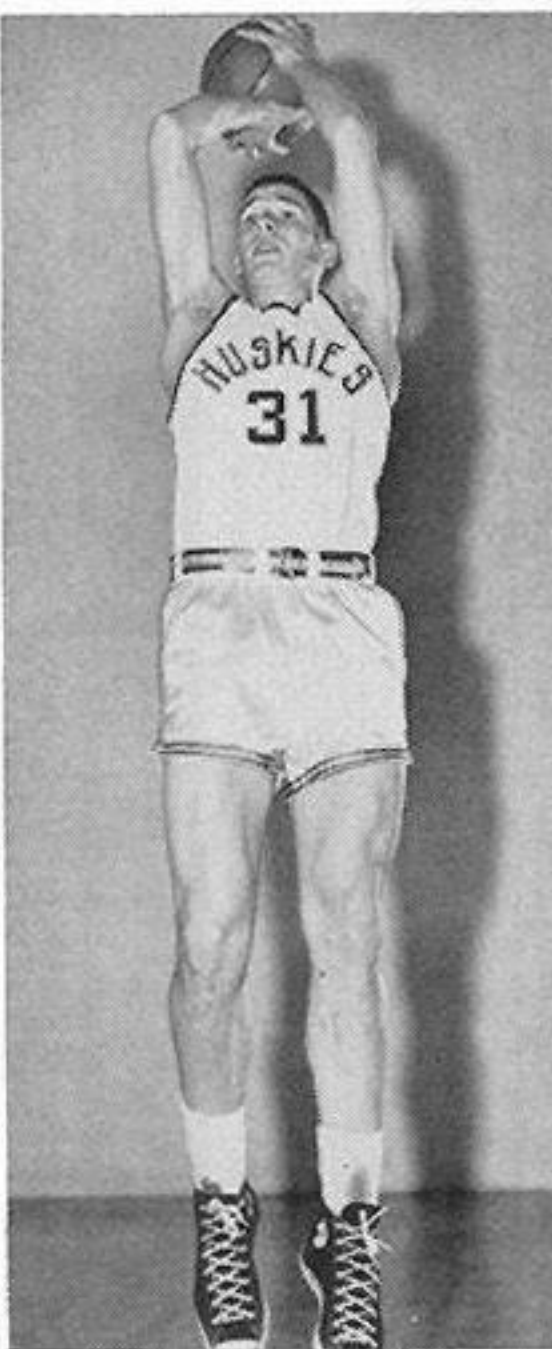

TROJANS 55, 80

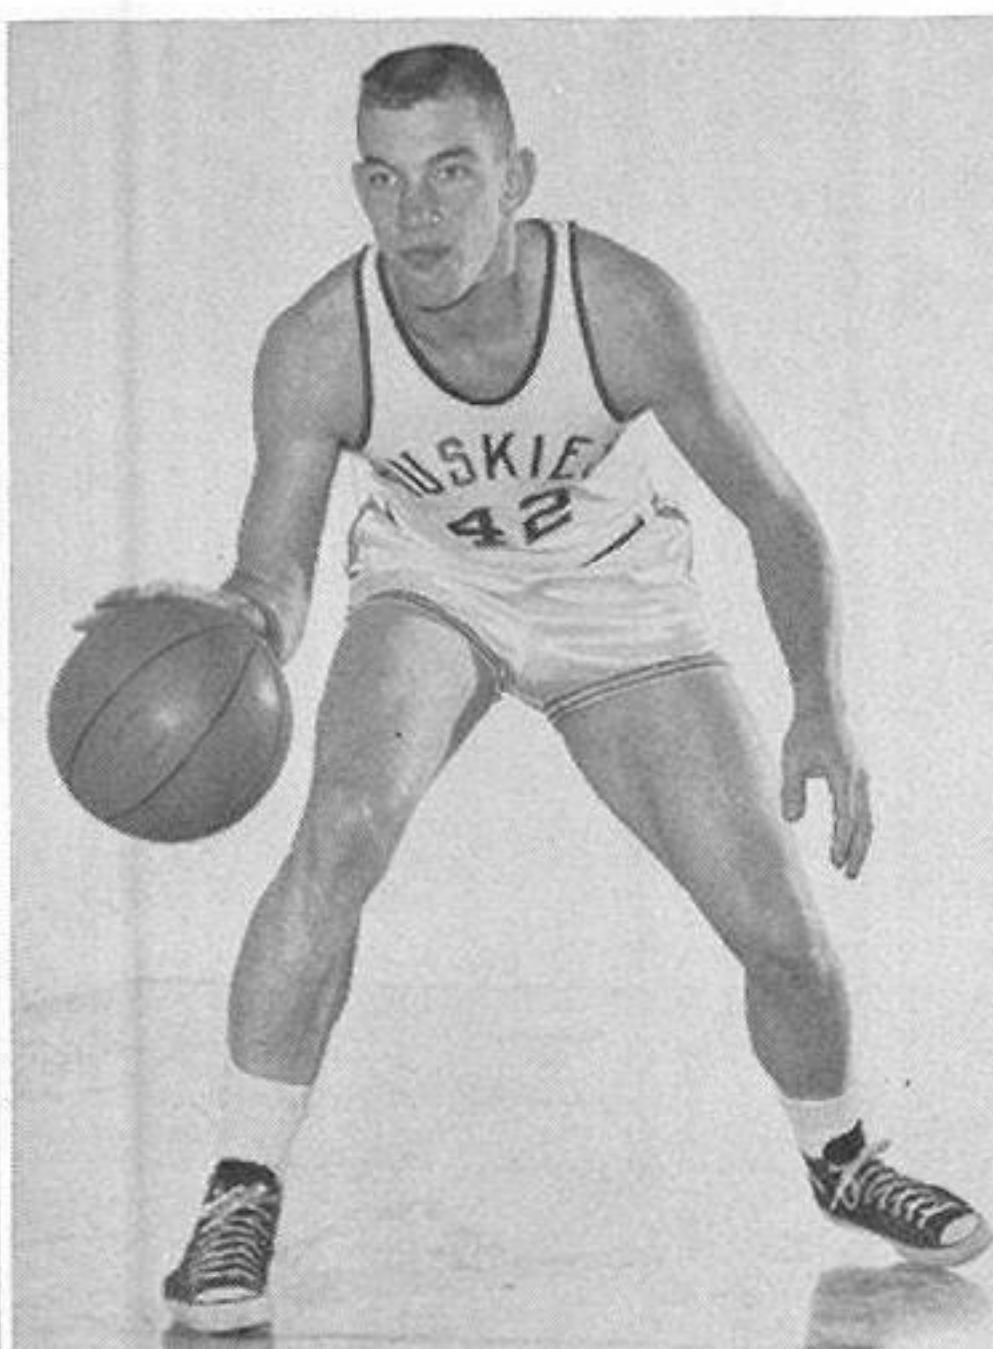

With the overtime free throw shooting of Bob Hampton the Trojans ended the Husky basketball season, winning 80-74. The marksmanship of Boin, Smart and Grant tied but could not overtake the Trojan lead. Washington finished second in the conference with a 11-5 record. Doug Smart set a conference record for cumulative scoring with 956 points, a record which will remain due to the imminent dissolution of the Pacific Coast Conference.

BEARS 54, 55

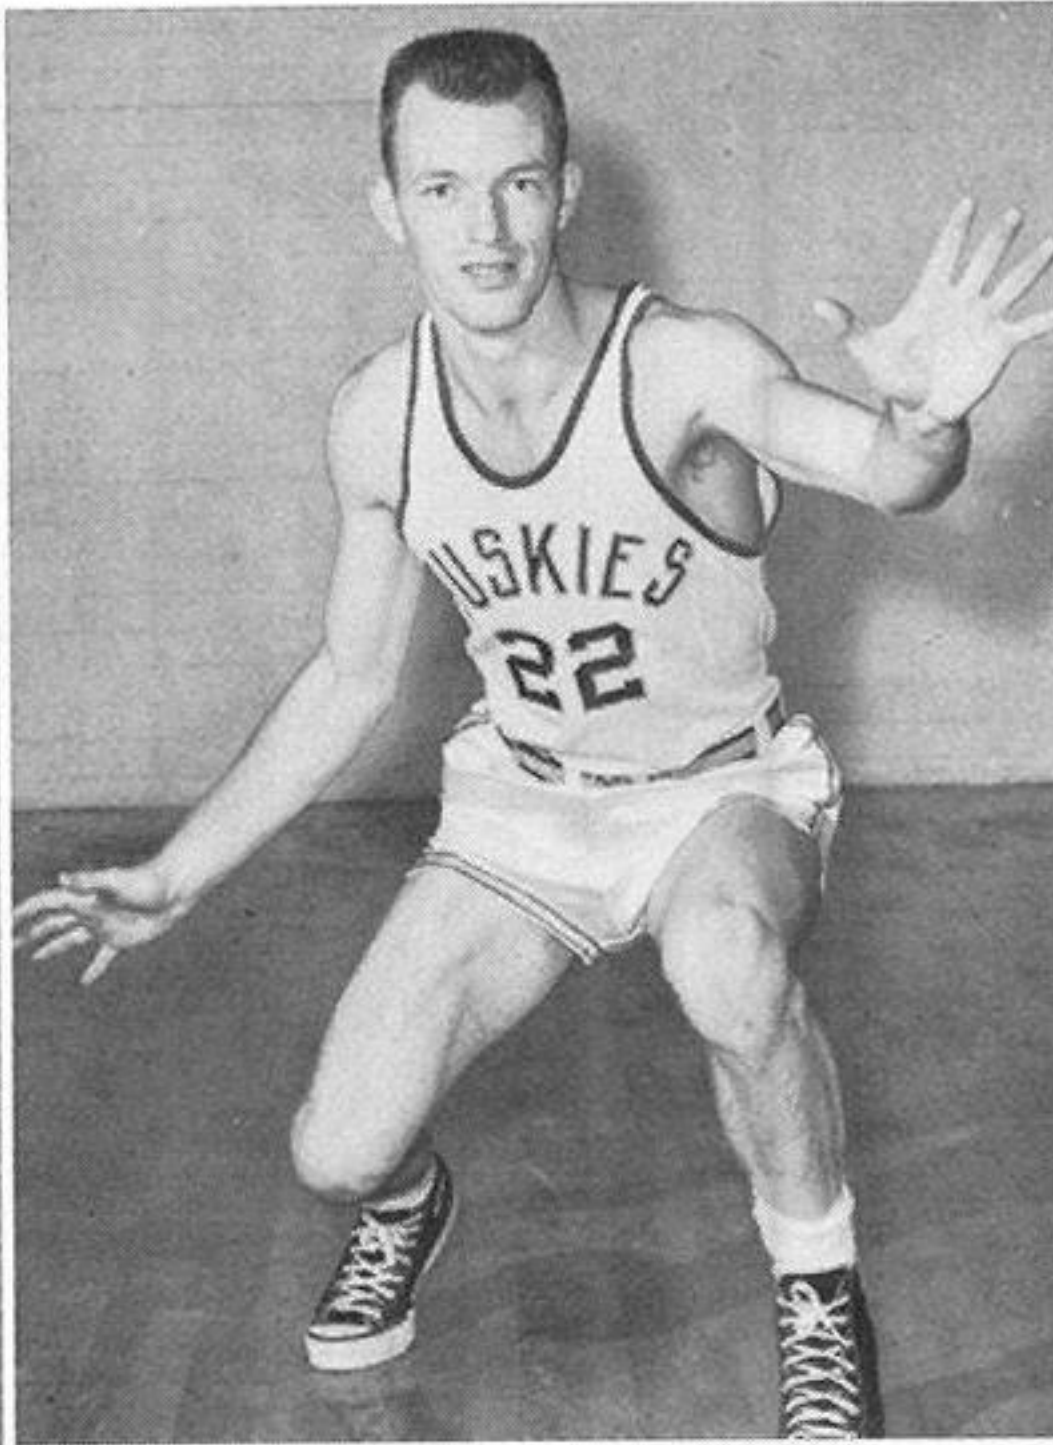

The Huskies got off to a rough start in conference play losing to the University of California, 54-43. Against the Bear's paralyzing full-court press, which they maintained throughout the game, the Huskies scored only 20 points in the first half and were held to zero field goals during the first ten minutes of the second half. Lou Coaston's efforts to ignite the fires of Washington's scoring potential were of no avail. High point man for the game was California's Denny Fitzpatrick with 21 points.

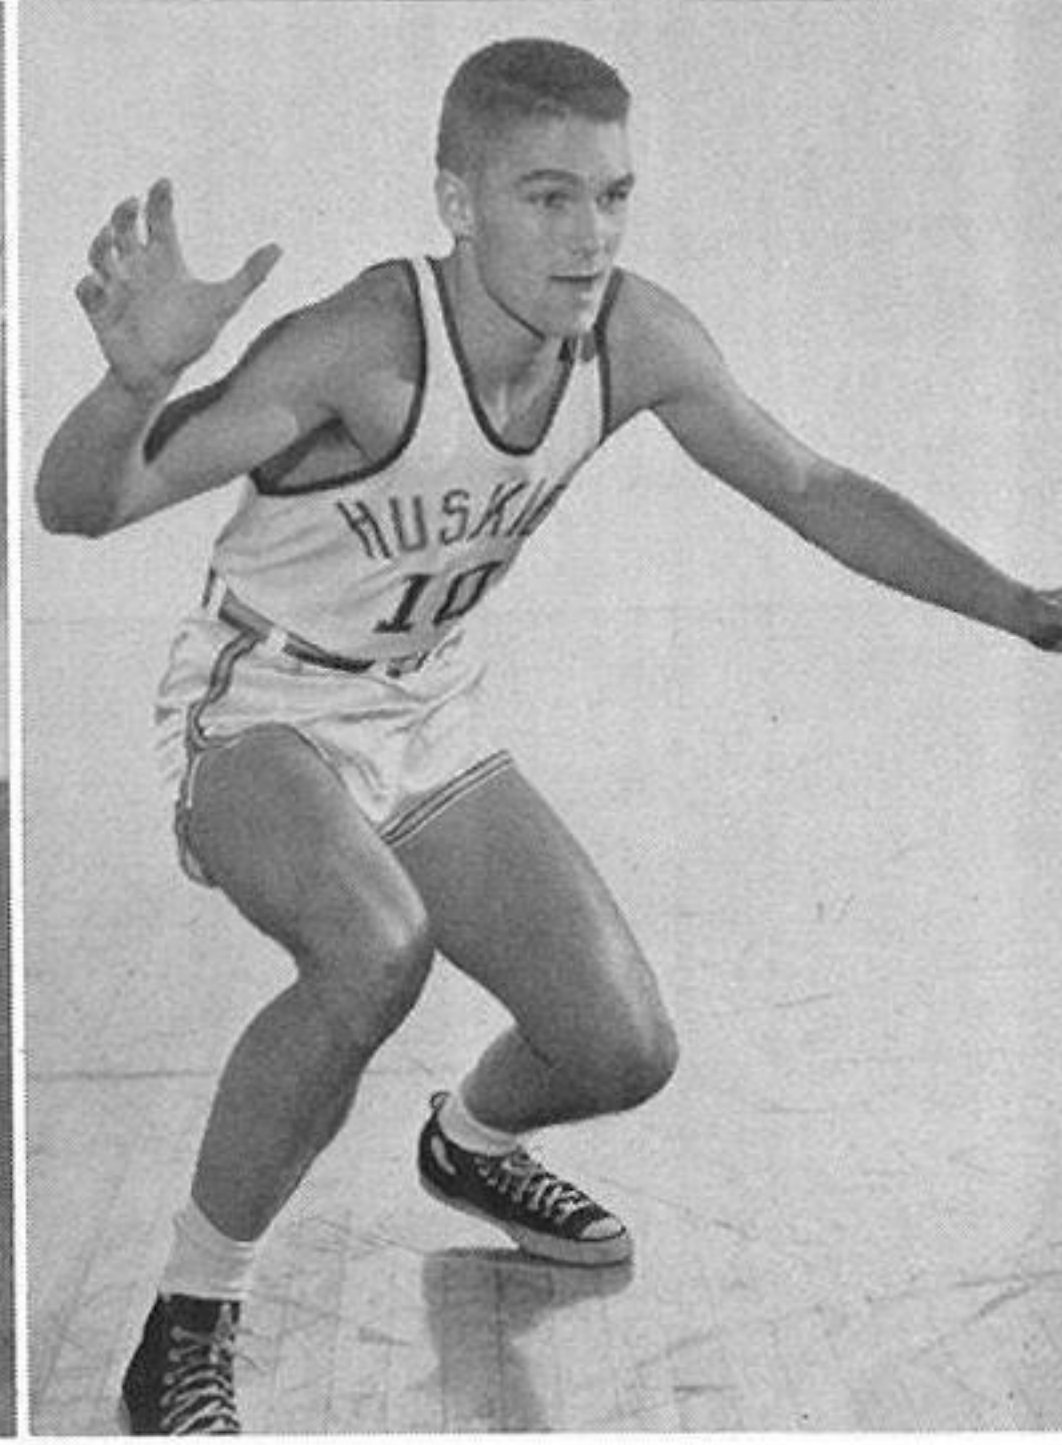

Once again, in their meeting, the Bears succeeded in containing Washington's main point gainers, Boin and Smart, and win by the same margin as before. Although the first half was close, California on the better side of the spread, the Bears increased their lead to ten points within the next eight minutes of the second half. The Huskies then struck back closing the gap to two points but were unable to penetrate beyond that difference. High point men for the game were California's Dalton and Fitzpatrick with 12 points each.

VANDALS 60, 51

With the lead changing drastically twice during the game the Huskies ran the clock down to the last four seconds to beat Idaho, 61-60. Idaho dominated the first half and overtook the Huskies in the second half. Prestell, King, Schaffer, and Coleman stifled the Huskies with a full-court press. Then after an exchange of last minute shots, Bruno Boin threw in the winning basket.

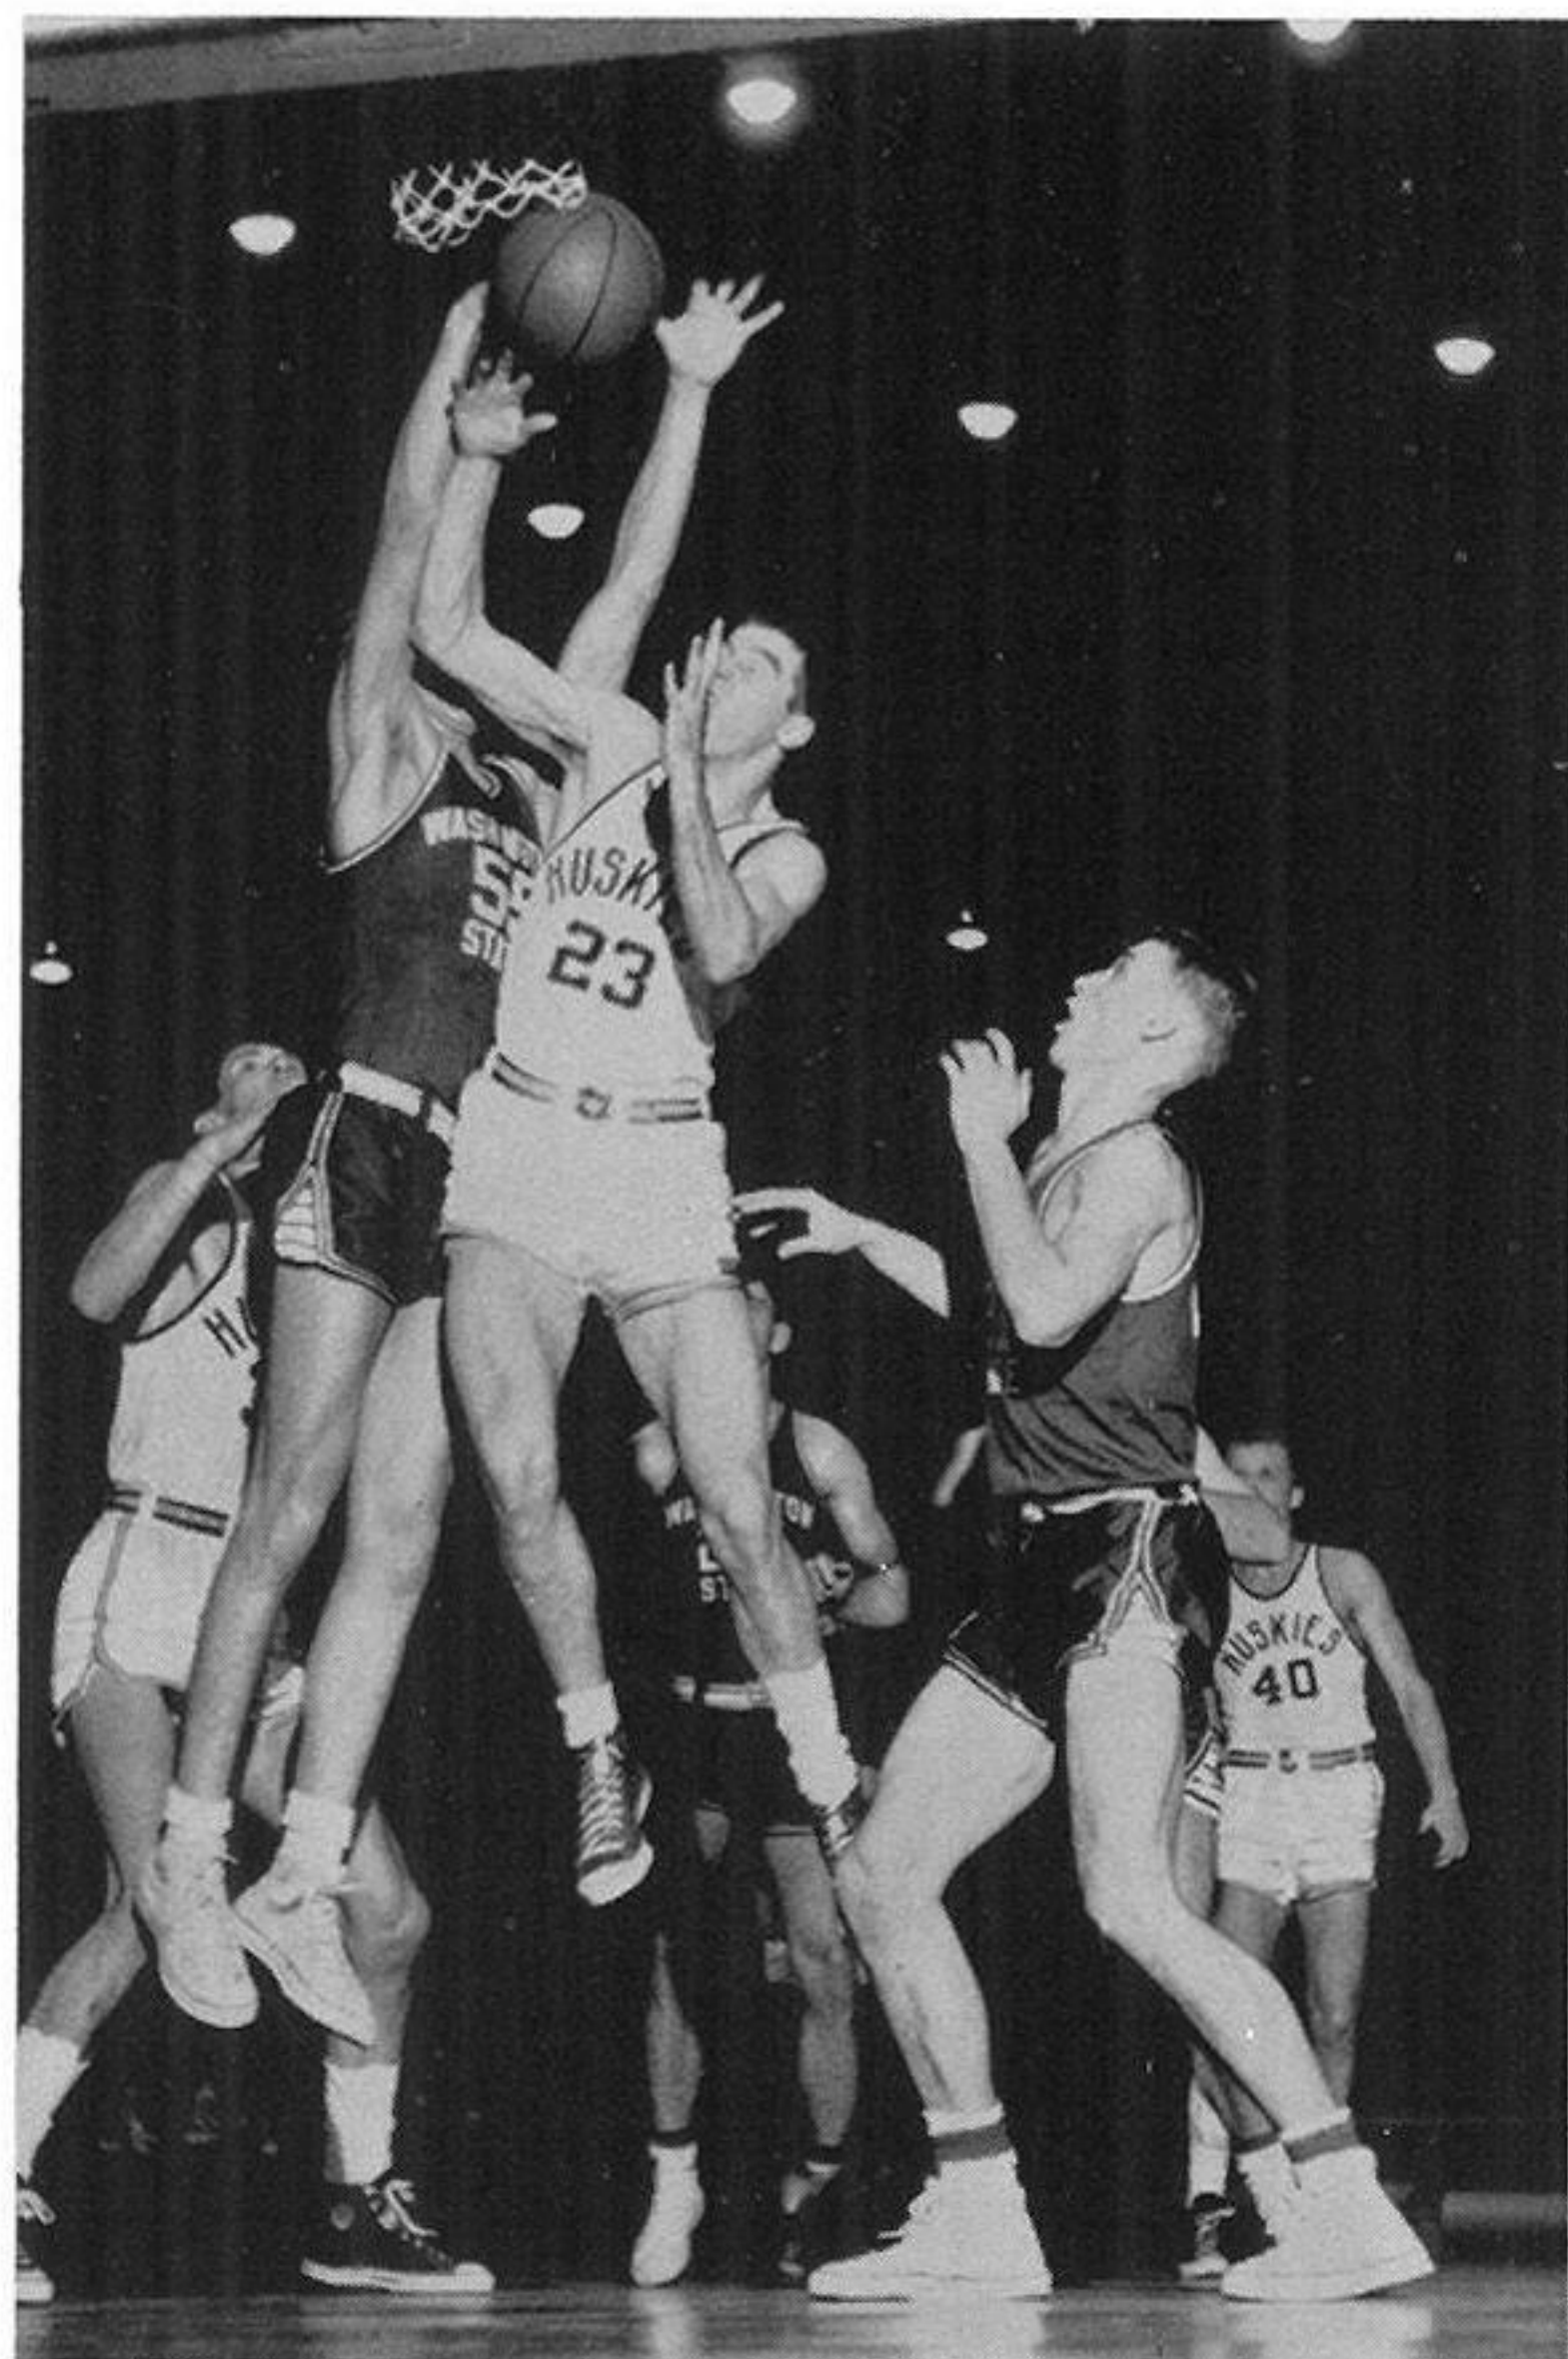

Coach Tippy Dye

In the last home game of the season the Huskies scored their tenth straight win by defeating the Idaho Vandals, 74-51. This was also the home game for Boin, Coaston, Dorland, Pariseau, and Smart. Tippy Dye's seniors played an excellent finale with Boin, Smart, and Pariseau scoring in the double figures.

Sr. Manager Dana Chamness

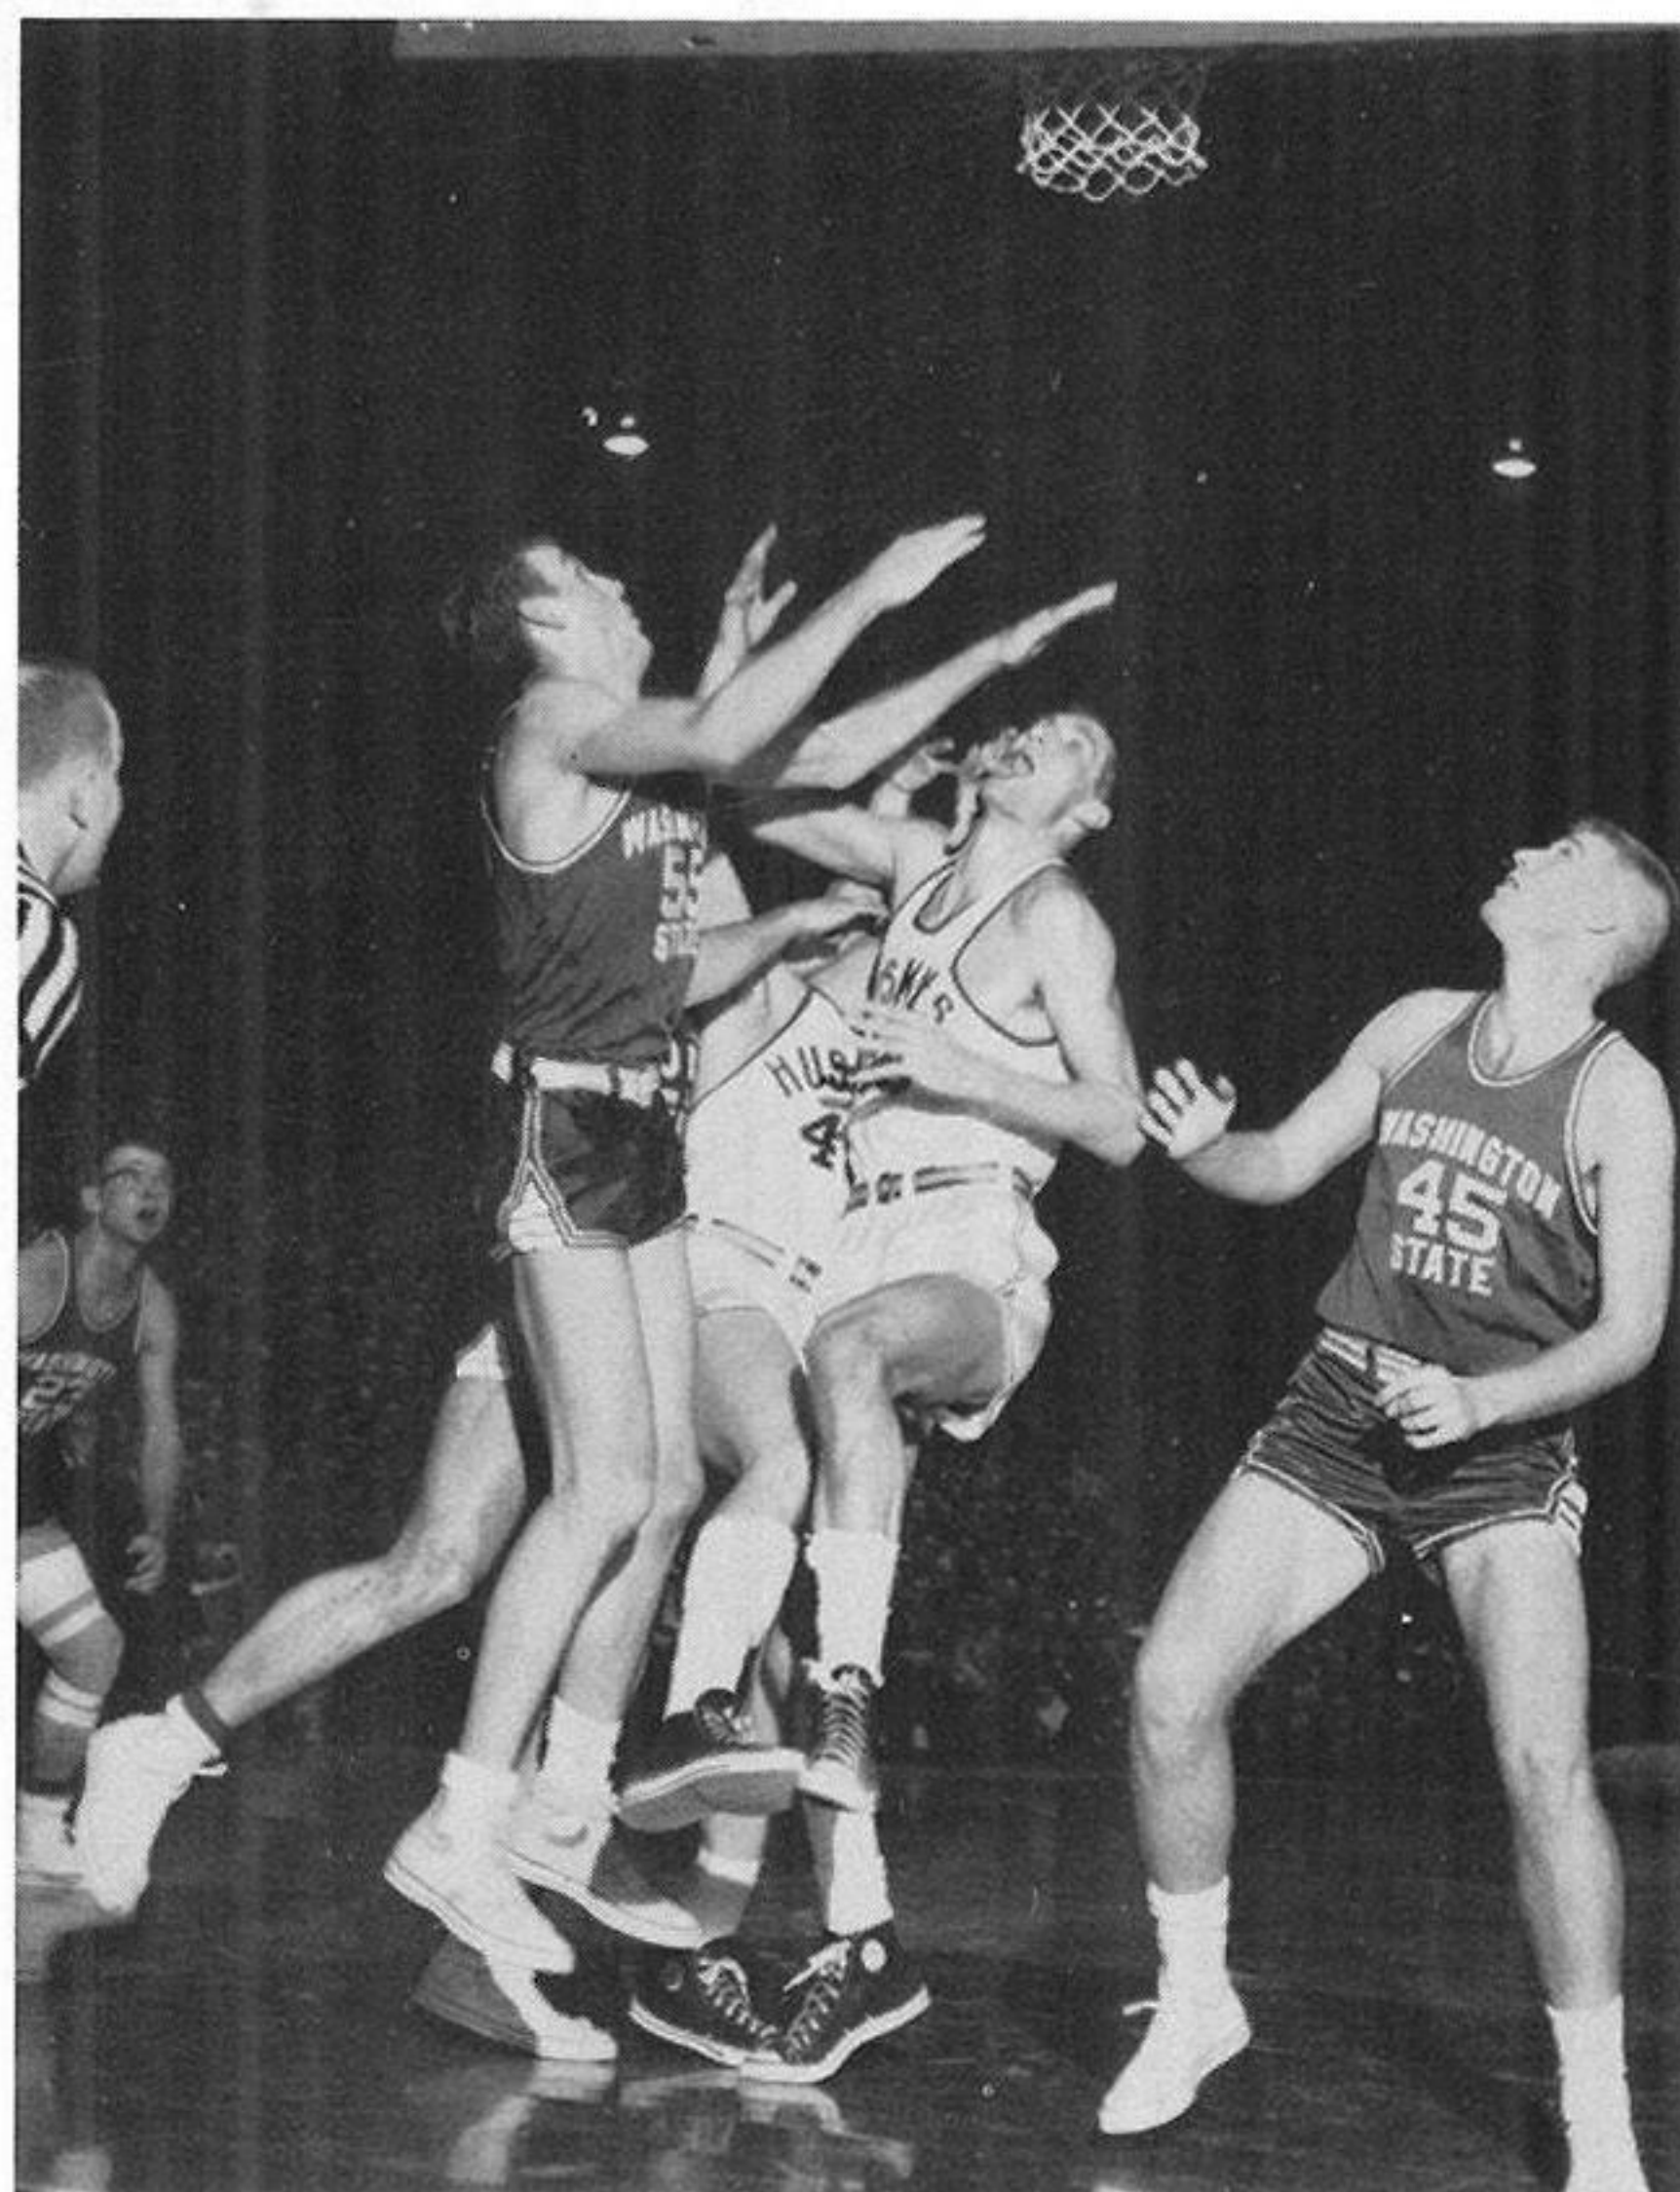

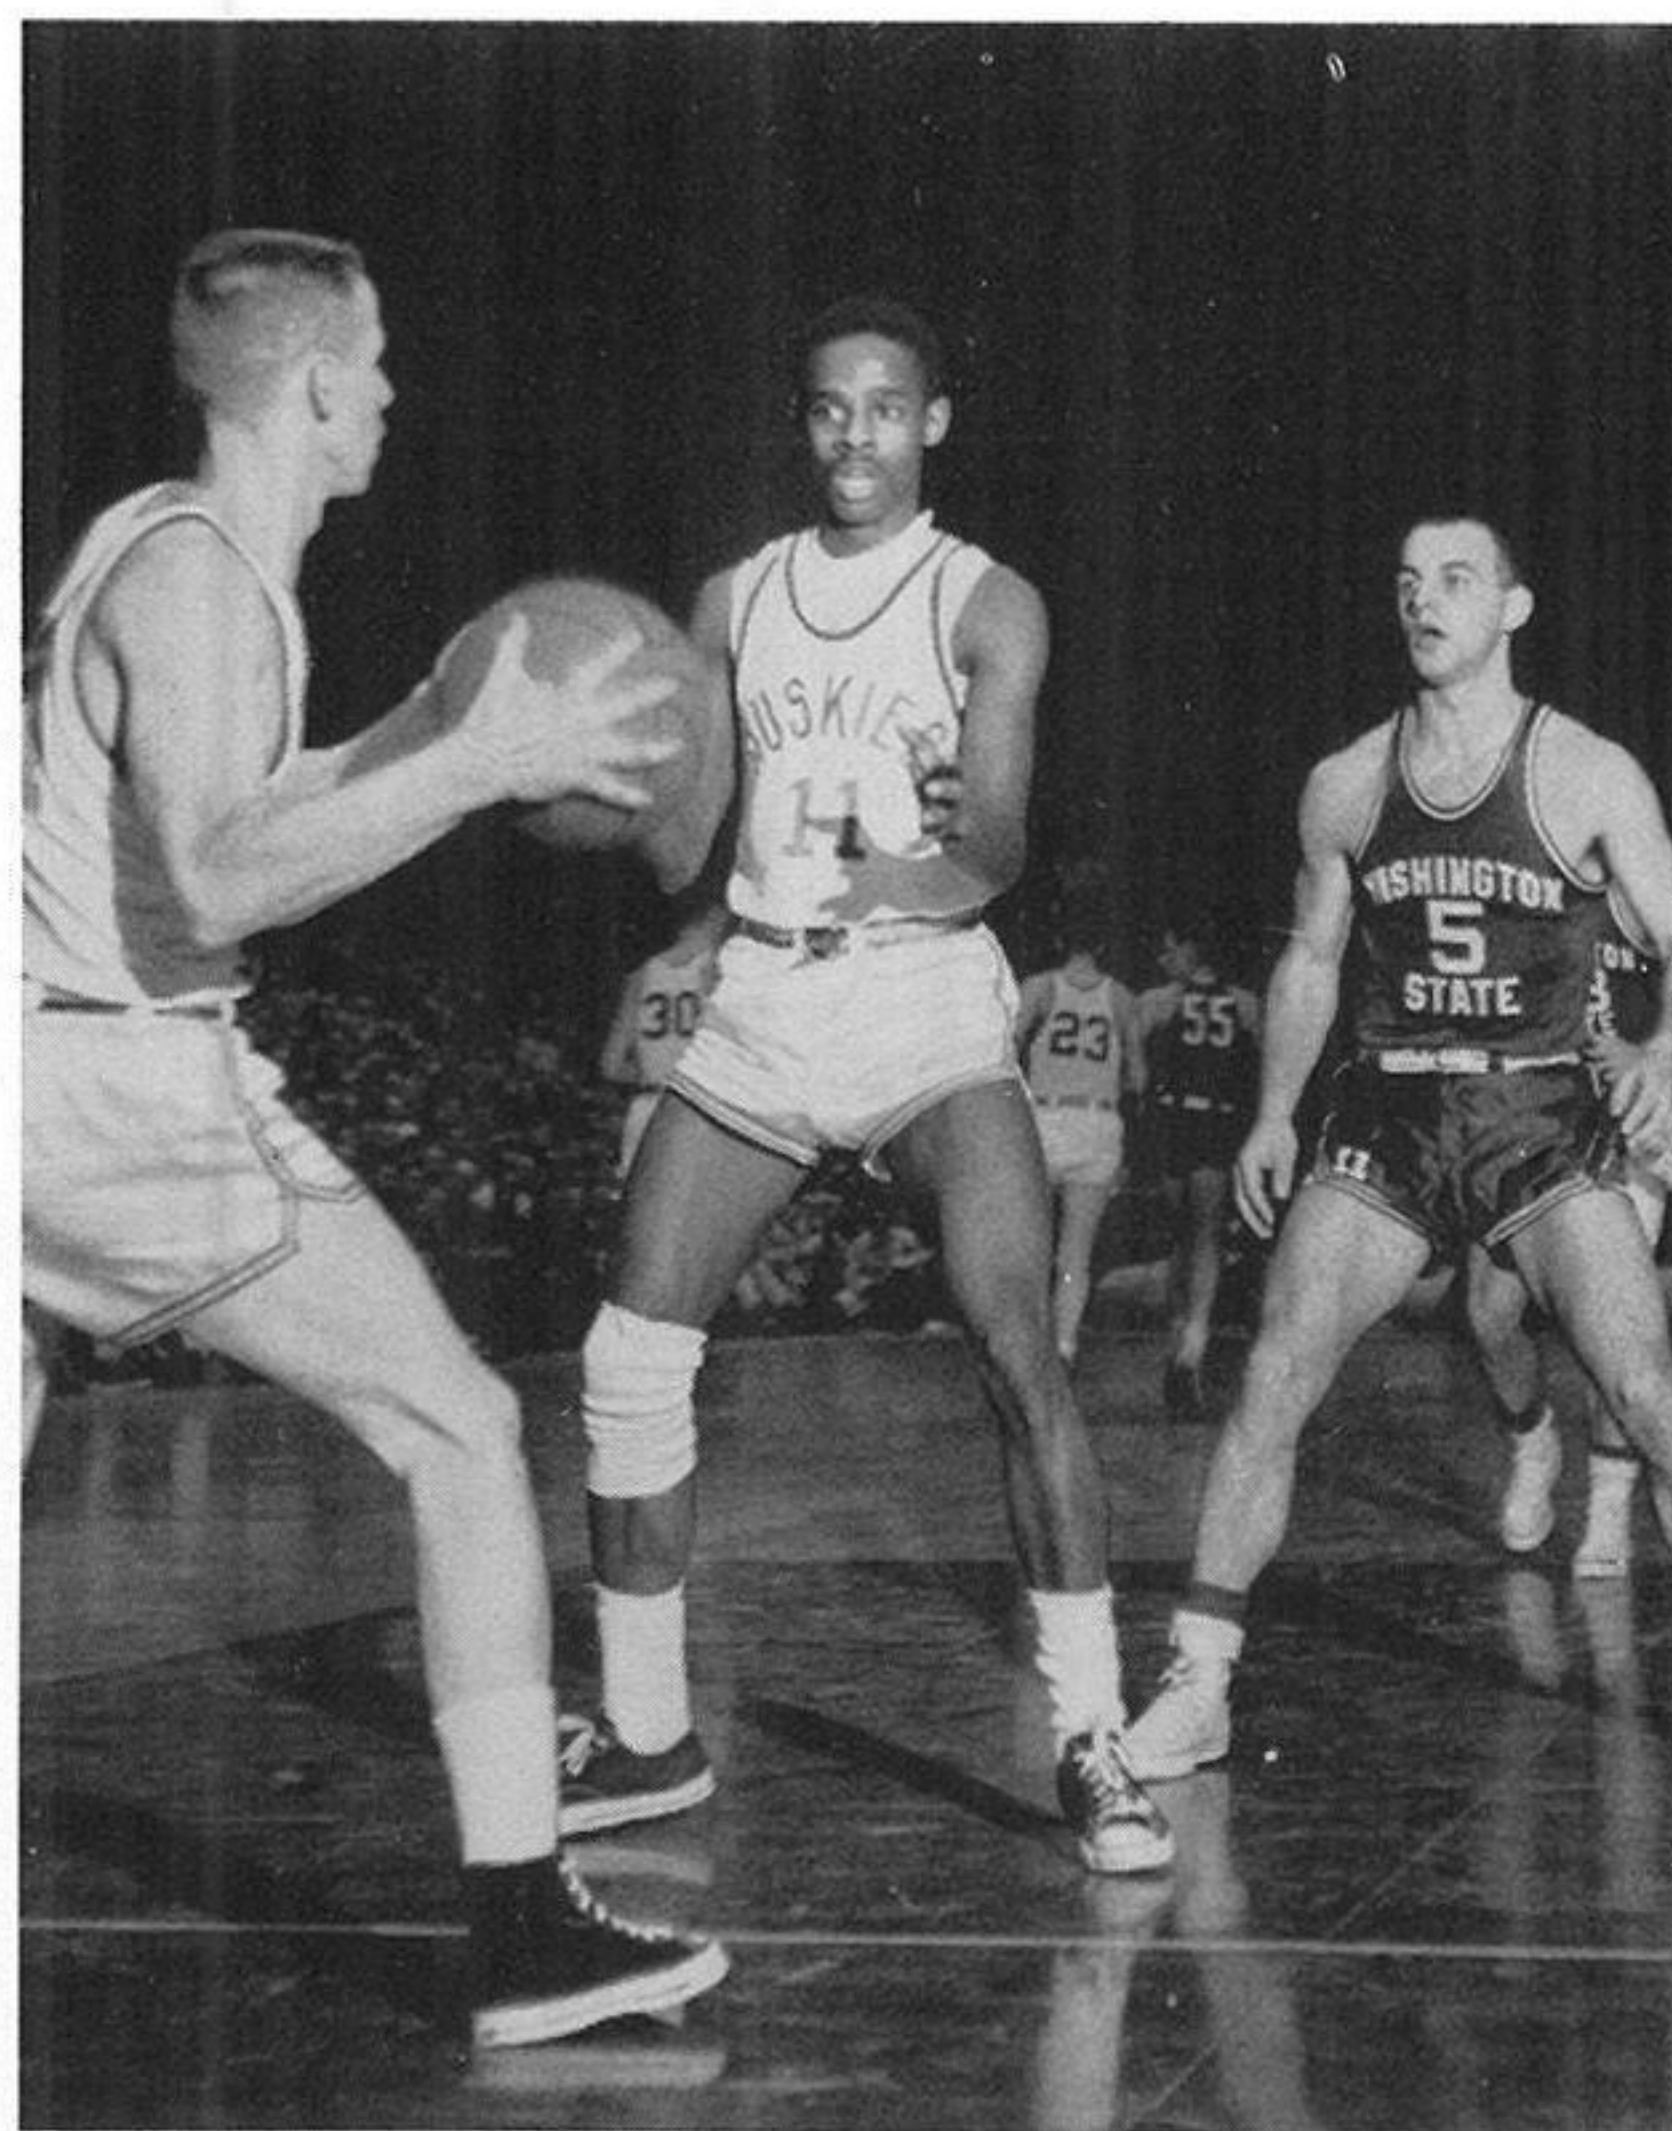

HUSKIES 82, 82

In their first meeting with Washington State the Huskies were never behind but were pushed all the way by the scrappy, aggressive Cougars. Midway through the second half the Huskies had accumulated a 15 point lead, 63-48, and seemed assured of victory. Within the next seven minutes the Cougars closed the gap to a mere two points. The alarmed Huskies then rallied to preserve their advantage, increasing the margin to ten points with 90 seconds remaining. Bruno Boin led both teams in scoring and rebounding with 27 points and 14 rebounds. In another outstanding performance Don Dorland connected with seven field goals, one of the finest displays of outside shooting by a U.W. guard this season. Five Cougars scored in the double figures; Maras was high with 20 points.

Back in Pullman the outcome of the game was not clear until the last two seconds. With 10 seconds remaining the Cougars tied the score, 80-80. Smart threw in the clincher at the two second mark to end the thriller. George Grant was outstanding scoring 8 of his 18 points within the last two minutes of the first half. Smart was high with 19 and Irvine was third with 16. For W.S.C. Ranniger was high with 17 followed by Kennedy and Maras with 16 and 12 respectively.

SWIMMING 1959

The Washington tankmen warmed up for their regular Northern Division competition by winning eight pre-season dual meets. The most unusual was a telephone meet with Long Beach State College, which the Huskies took, 54-32. They also posted two victories each over Western Washington College of Education, the College of Puget Sound, and the University of British Columbia, in home-and-home dual meets. The one meet that the varsity wanted to forget was the Pacific Northwest AAU meet held at the Huskies' pool. There the frosh took the measure of the varsity by a margin of 66 points to 58, the varsity swimmers taking second. Judging from this freshman show of strength, coach Jack Torney can look forward to several prosperous seasons.

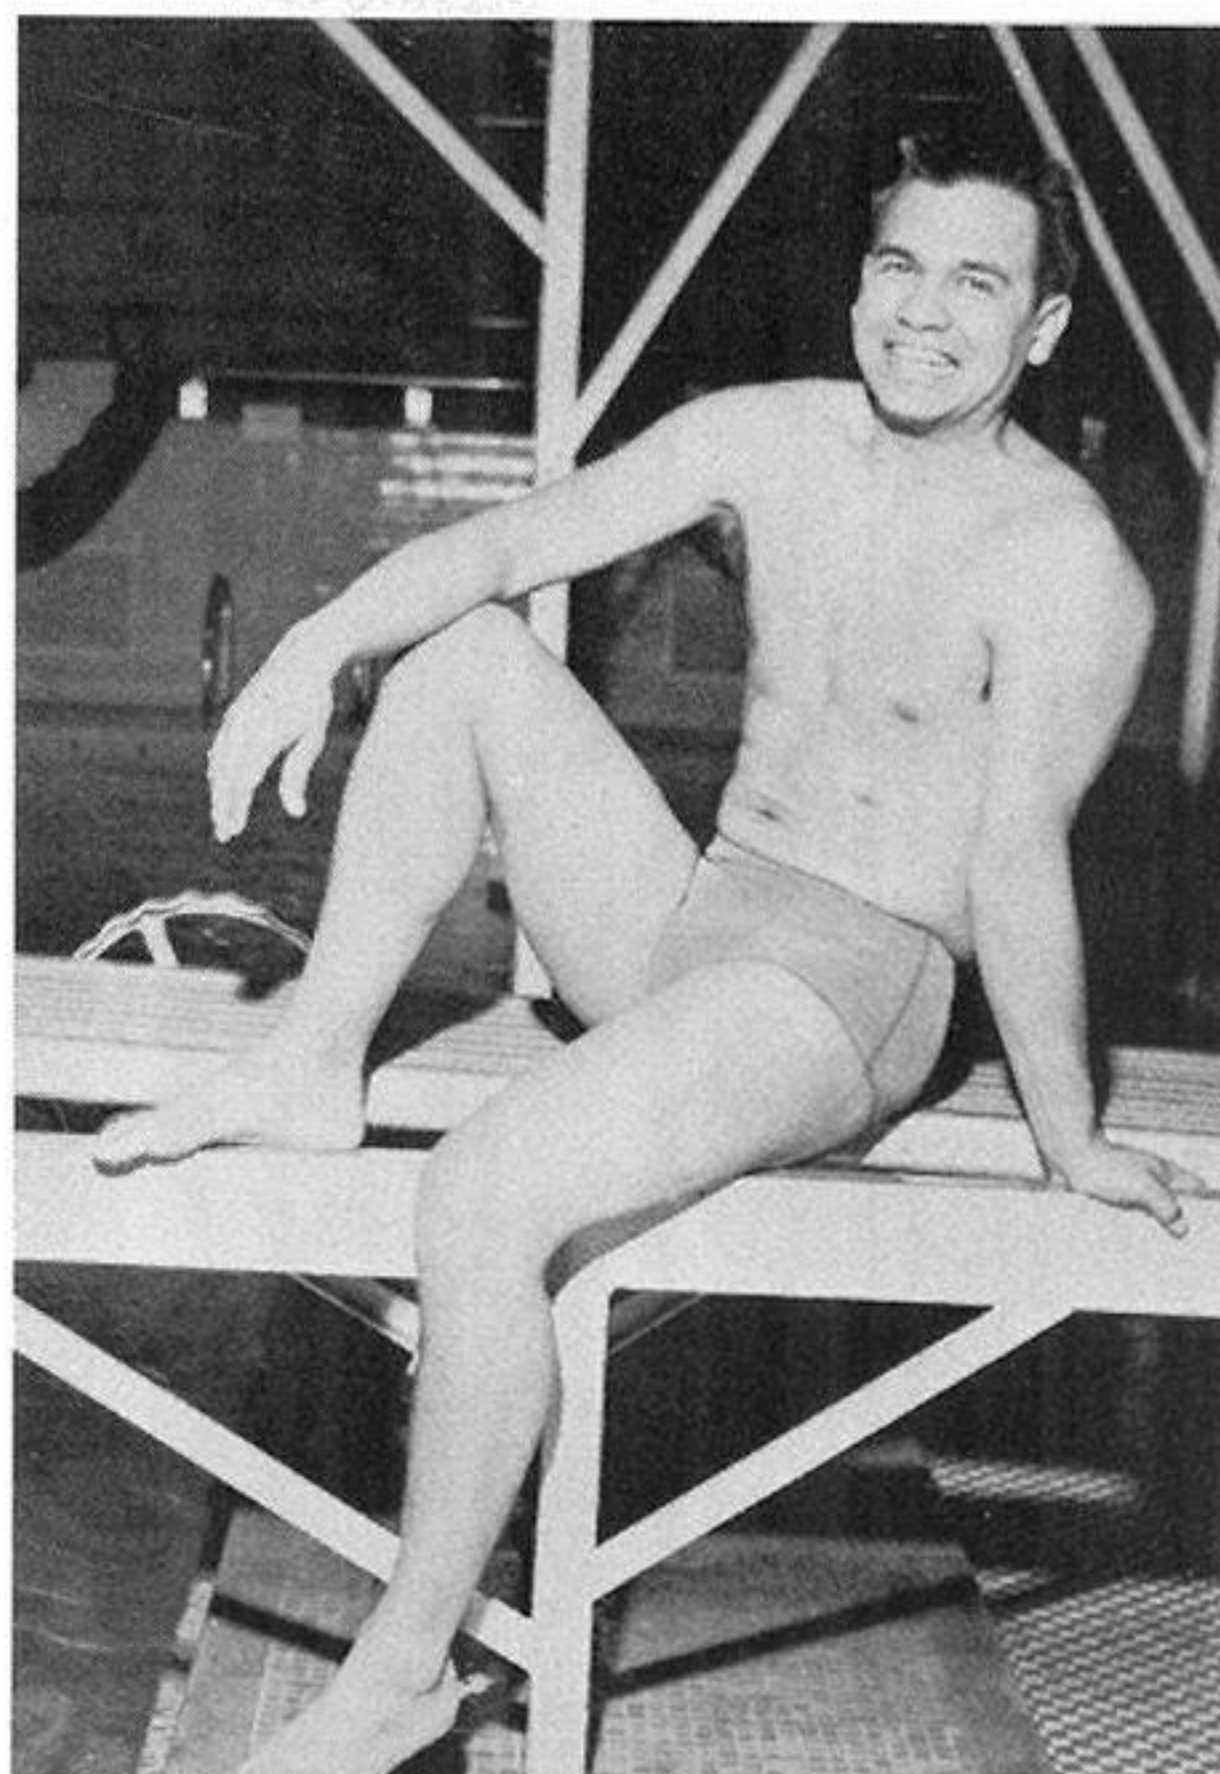

The Northern Division Relays brought together all ND teams for the first time of the season. There the Huskies nudged out Oregon State, 78 to 68, while Idaho and Washington State finished with 24 and 22, respectively. The Relays showed that the team to beat was Washington, and in each of the following three ND dual meets the pressure was on the Huskies.

Washington came through in fine style, successively swamping Oregon State and Idaho, 63-23 and 71-15, and Washington State, 68-18, in preparation for the year's most important meet, the ND championships, held this year at Pullman. The Huskies bagged the big one, again shouldering past OSC, 147½-117½, followed by WSC, Idaho, and Oregon, with 73, 25, and 24 points, respectively. Captain Harold Tauscher captured the 100 yard breaststroke in 1:09.3, and pushed teammate Bob McMahon to a winning time of 2:32.7 in the 200 yard breaststroke. Steve Lindsay left the competition in his wake in taking the 100 yard backstroke in 1:02.8, while sophomore Pat Murata was tied for first in the 100 yard freestyle in :53.8. Both 400 yard relay teams, freestyle and medley, came in as winners, thus automatically naming eight Huskies to the ND All-Star Team. In addition to Tauscher, Lindsay, McMahon, and Murata, six Huskies were named: George Diaz, Dale Griffith, Bill Lawson, Tim Thornton, Jim Watanabe, and Larry Anderson. With the addition of this year's frosh, whose record shattering slowed toward the season's end mainly because most of the records were their own, to an already outstanding varsity, Jack Torney can look forward to a bright future.

WINTER INTRAMURALS

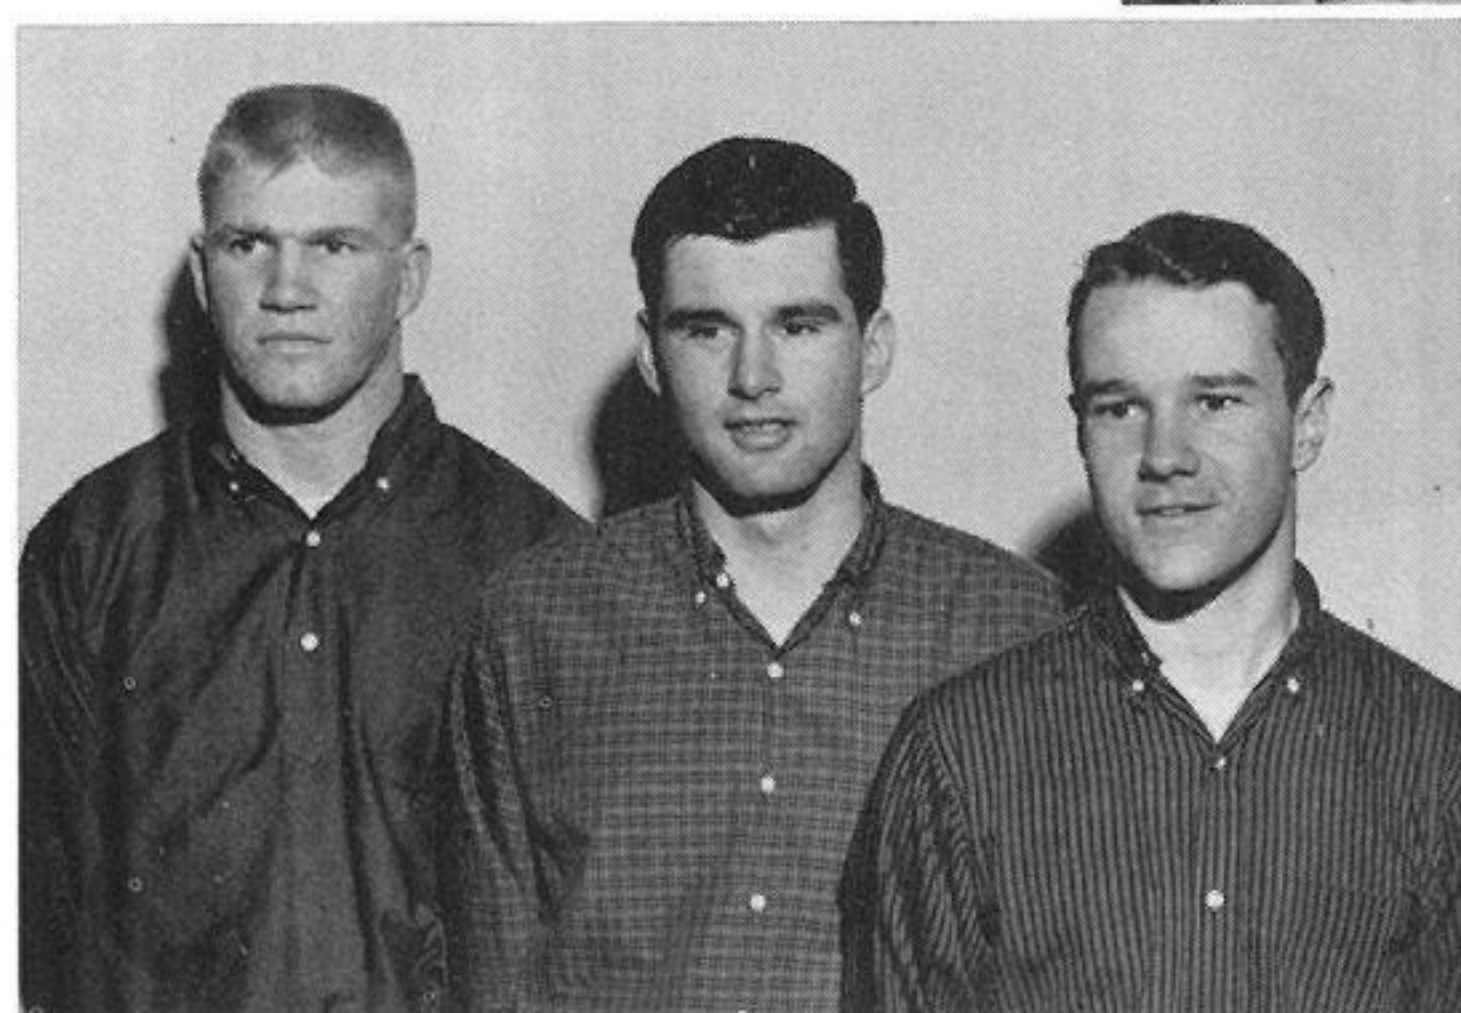

Army R.O.T.C. made use of an all-star squad to walk off with the intramural basketball title, repeating last year's victory.

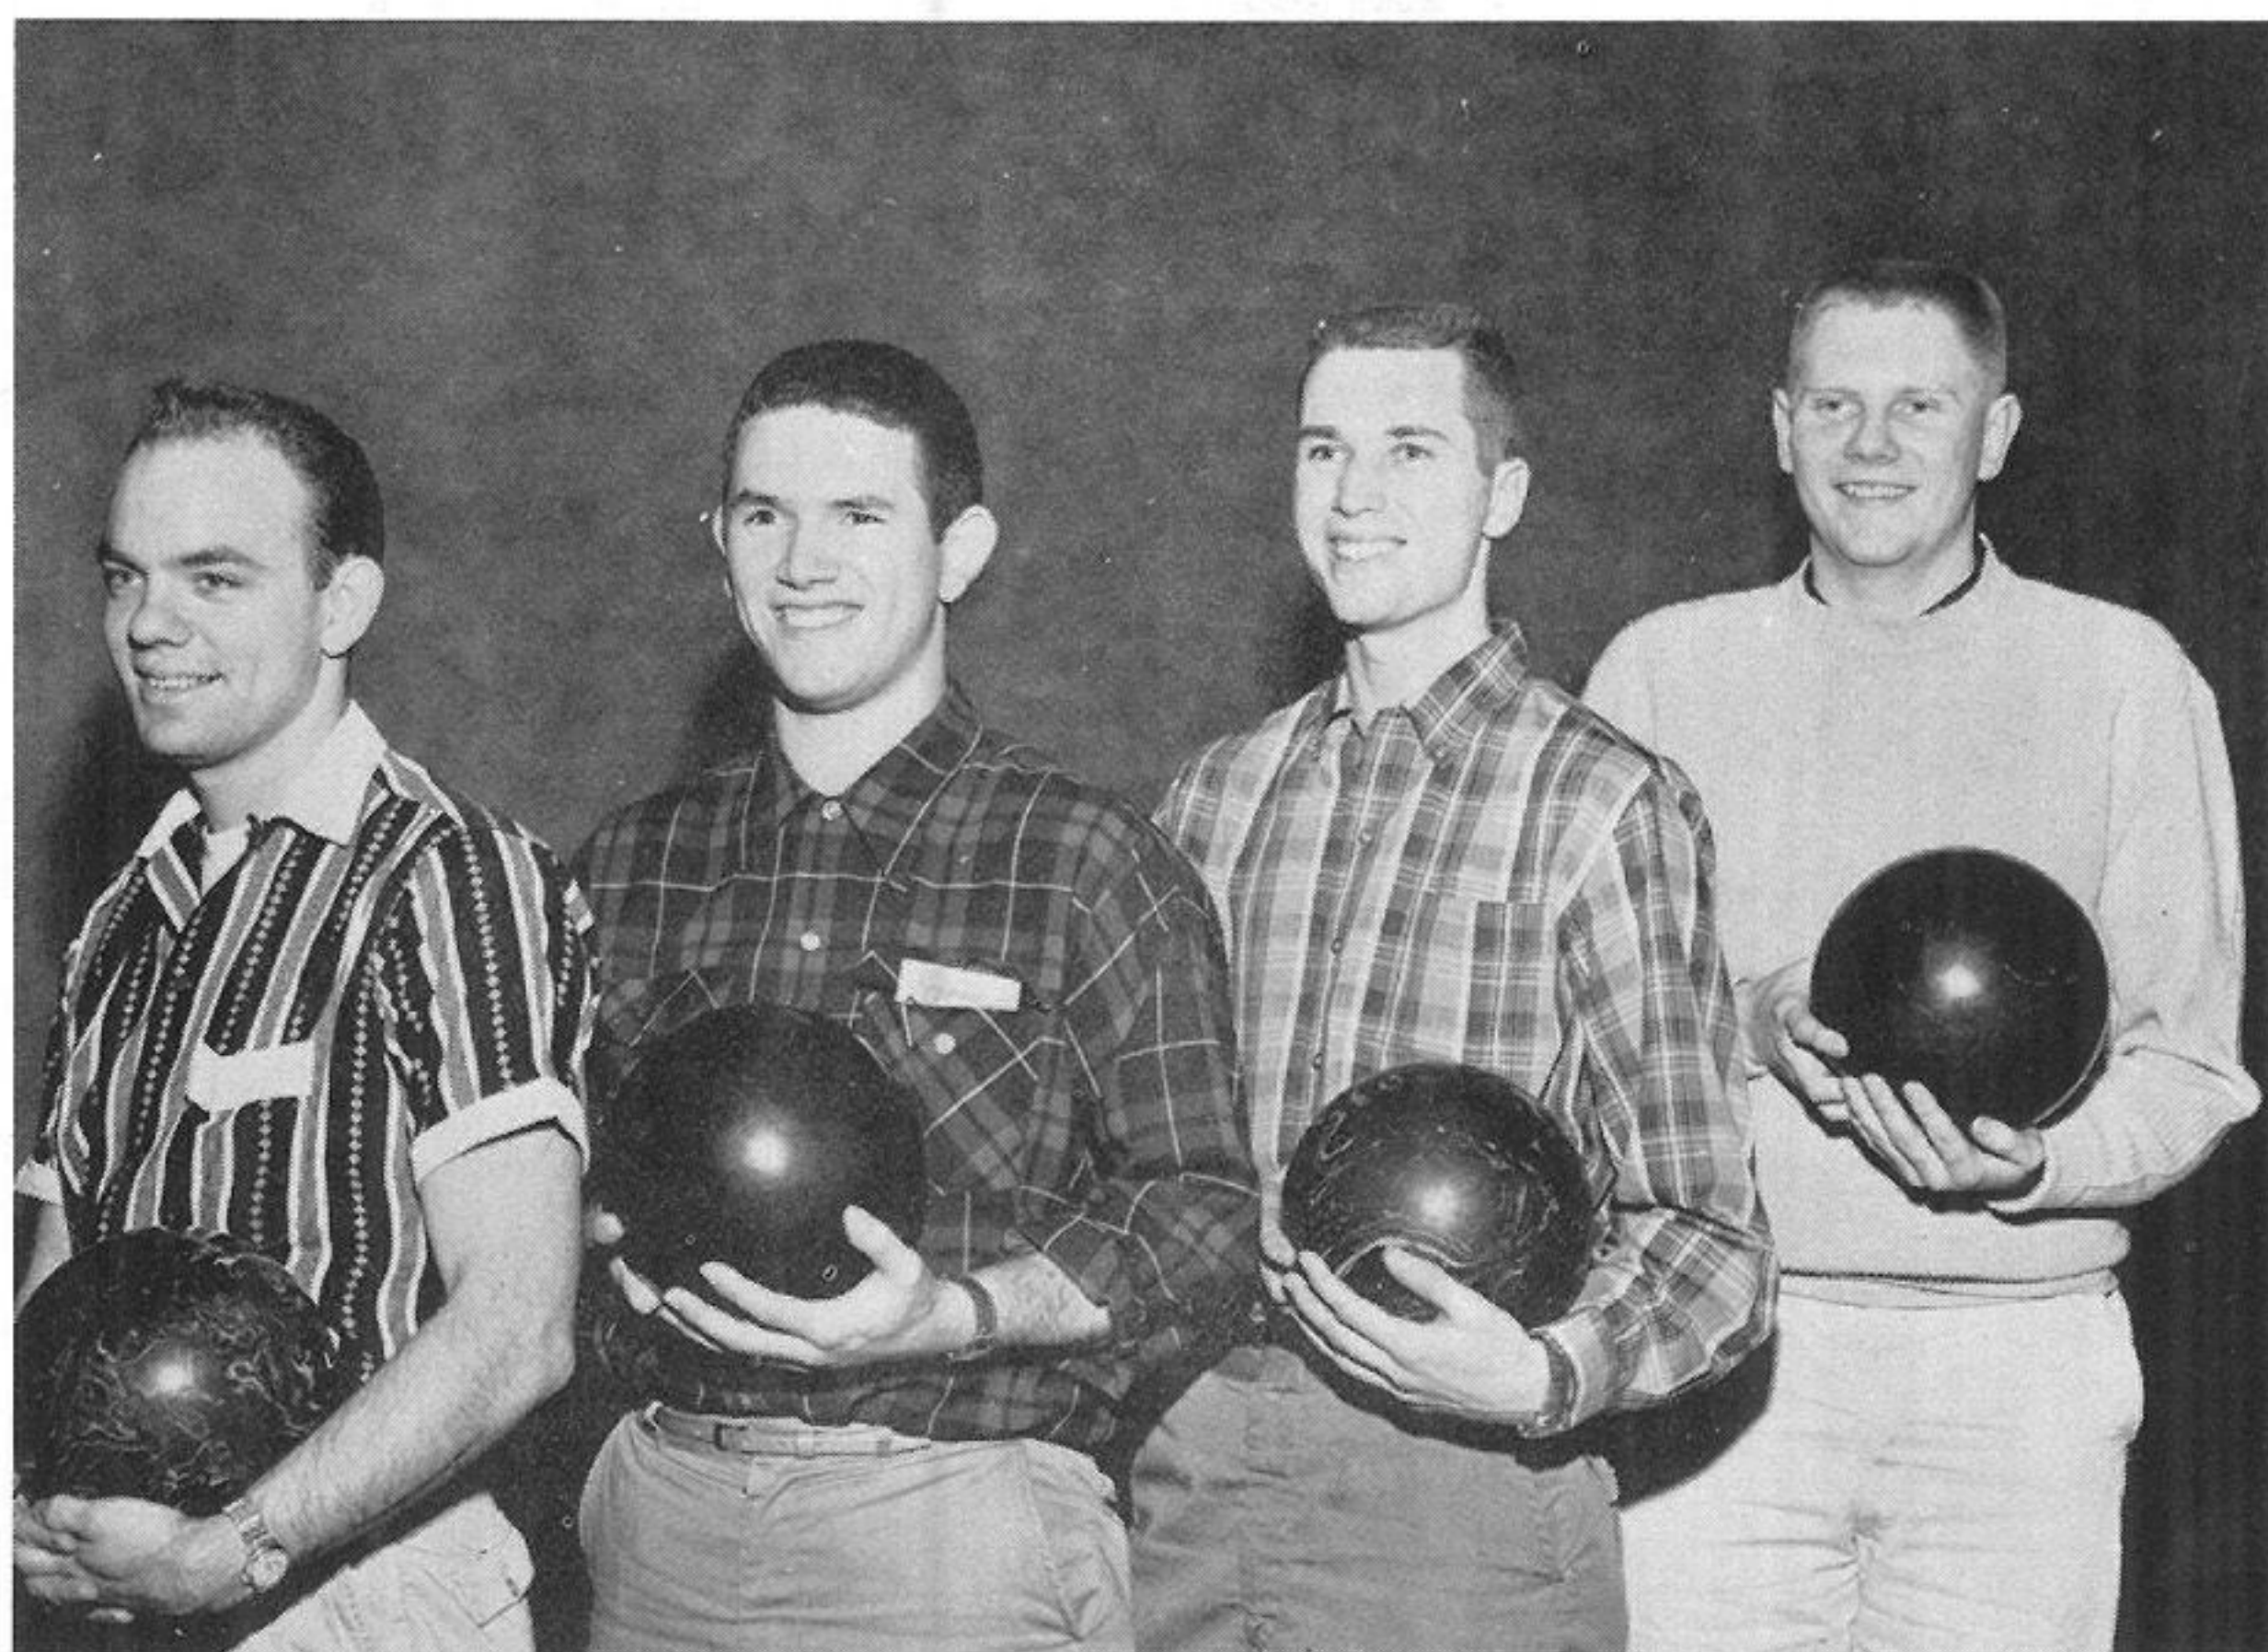

For the second consecutive year, Morgan Brassfield and Von Aikman won the billiards title for Sigma Chi fraternity.

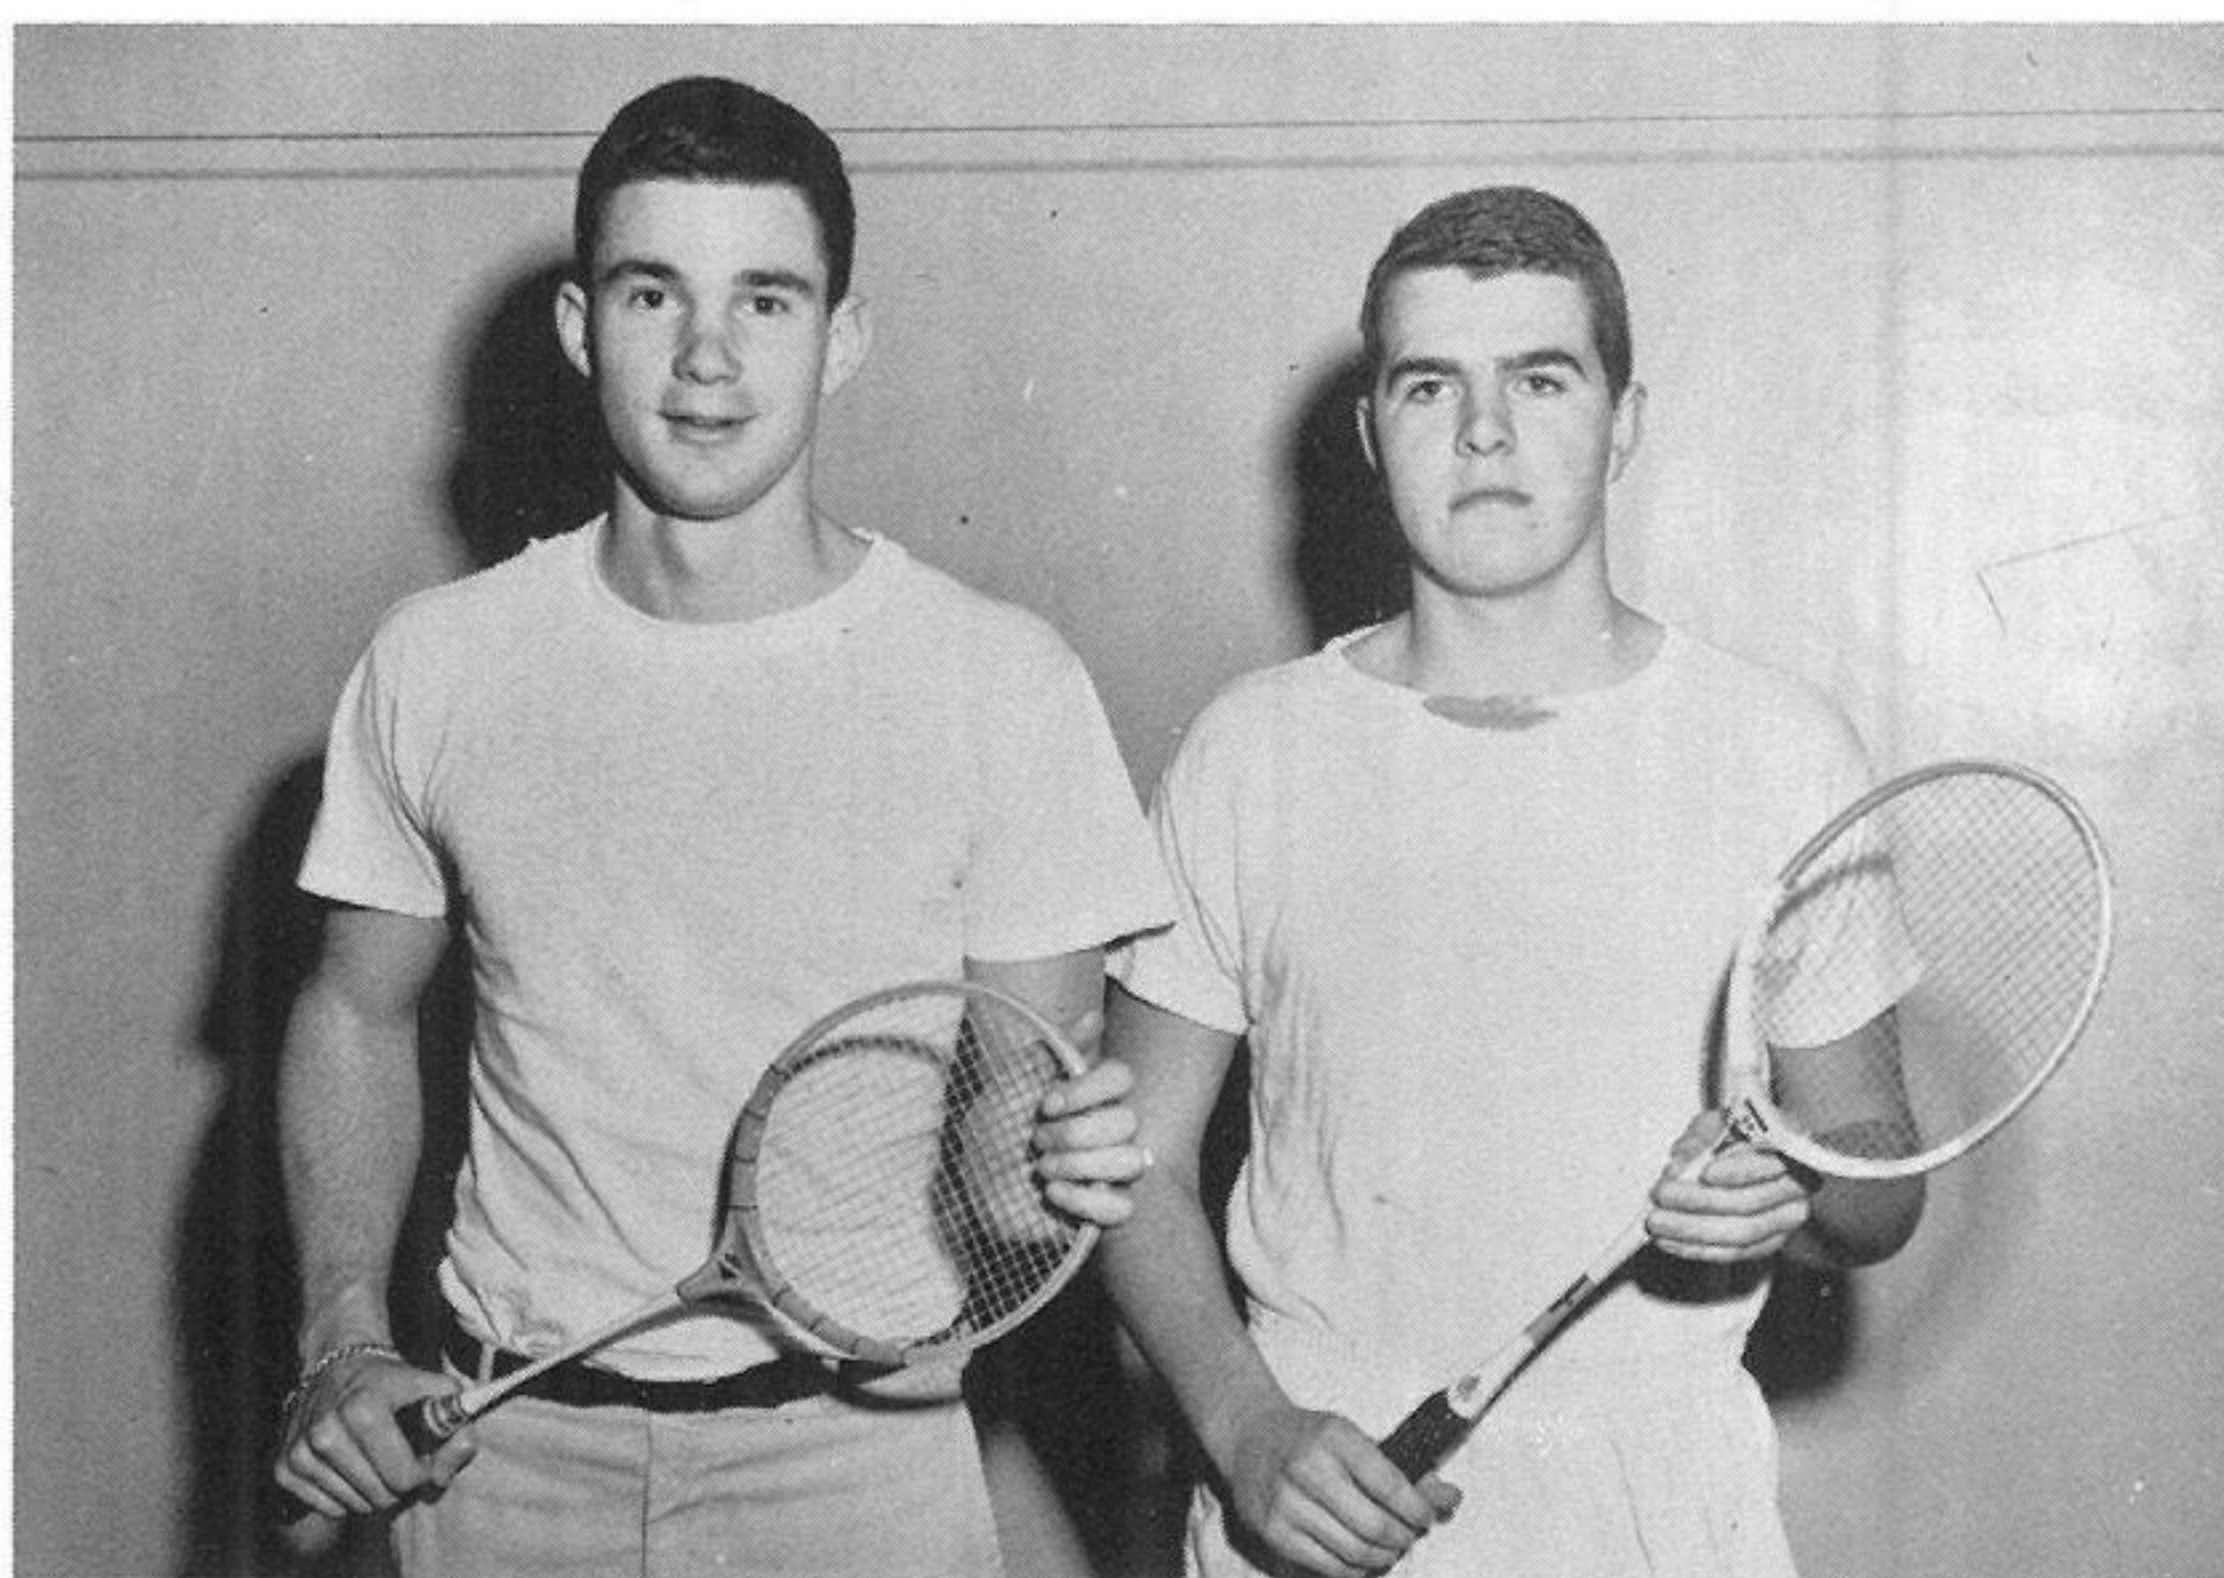

Blake Gallie, Bob Watson, Henry Templeman, Ron Quincy, Bill Treadwell and Bud Norquist were division winners in the boxing competition.

Dave Lombard, Dave Jenson and Scotty McEachern braved the wind and cold to win the intramural ski trophy for Sigma Nu fraternity.

Miles Rene, Morgan Brassfield, Ken Linville and Bill Sparks rolled the Sigma Chi fraternity to the handicap bowling championship for winter quarter intramurals.

Phi Delta Theta fraternity added to their win list with both the singles and doubles trophies in badminton. Dave Lycette and George Martin did the doubles duties while Lycette gained the singles title.

Another Phi Delt winner was Darrell Morton in handball. Gordy Thorne and Ed Jensen of McLean House took the doubles title.

PANHELLENIC

Panhellenic is the coordinating body of the sorority system. Its members are delegates from each of the twenty houses, the executive board committee chairmen and the six officers. The Panhellenic year begins with the annual Training Conference held during spring vacation. The Presidents of AWS, YWCA, Phrateres, and the Independent Women's Association, as well as all of the incoming Panhellenic officers and delegates, attend this Conference. Here policies for the coming year are formulated, valuable ideas are exchanged, and everyone has a lot of fun.

Monthly dinner meetings are held at the sororities on a rotation basis, and the round robin dinners and Inspiration Week are sponsored by Panhellenic. Its primary activity, however, is conducting the sorority rushing program.

Looking back on the previous year, Alpha Chi has had many wonderful times to remember. Following rush, we all worked together to make our fall activities a huge success. We spent many hours of fun working on the Homecoming Sign, Founder's Day, our annual Pledge Dance and Nickel Hop. Most of all we enjoyed our football game with the Lambda Chis, especially since we captured the trophy.

Winter quarter whirled by with the costume dance given by the pledges, our annual Father-Daughter Banquet and plenty of snowball fights.

We will remember the girls who were tapped for W-Key, Totem Club, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Mortar Board, Silver Fish, Rally Girls and other honoraries.

Alpha Chi was also proud of her student leaders: Caryl Jean Smith, president of the AWS, and Bonnie Dinsmore, elected vice president of the YWCA.

Junior Panhellenic is composed of the Pledge Class Presidents of each sorority on campus. The purpose of the group is to foster friendship between the pledge classes, orient freshmen in the Panhellenic system, discuss problems which arise in particular pledge classes, and to raise enough money to give a scholarship to an entering freshman girl.

Among the fund raising projects this year was the Caramelized Apple Sale, which was held during fall quarter. Other projects and monthly meetings completed the yearly plans.

Alpha Theta members of Alpha Delta Pi remember the 1958-1959 school year as a time of fun, friendship, and achievement. Thirty-three new faces were honored with a "Stampede," the annual pledge dance. Sandwiched between exchanges, pre-football games and swimming parties, were our winter formal, the spring dance, and Songfest with the Phi Psis.

ADPis were proud of winning second place in the Homecoming signs with "Tales of the South" presented in the West coast tradition: rain.

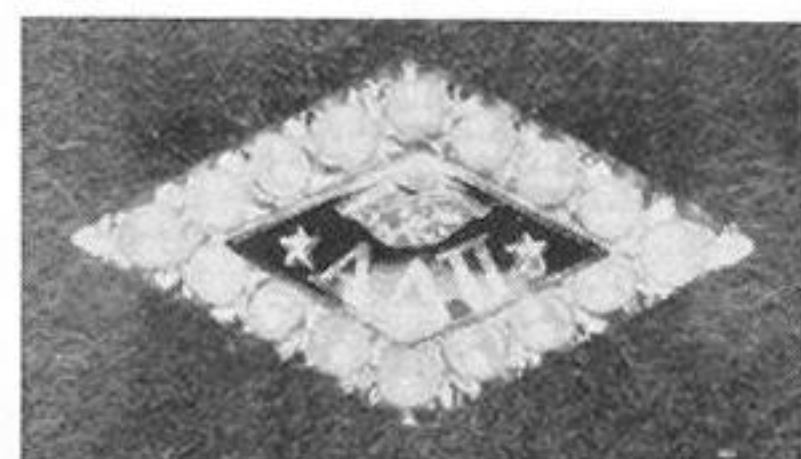

On the fairer side of fall, though, was our Nicky Harrison, chosen the 1958-1959 Timber Queen, and Babs Richards, finalist for Miss Bermuda Day.

Washington Alpha Delts were active in the HUB claiming the AWS Recording Secretary, the Totem Club Veep, Junior Class Secretary, and Rally Girls' Vice President. There were also several members in W-Key, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Mortar Board, and departmental honoraries.

At the close of an eventful year, the members of Alpha Theta chapter look forward to many more of the same.

The Alpha Gams began their golden anniversary year with a rousing pledge class who were successful in their October sneak. The sisters launched into a fall quarter of studies, HUB activities, and exchanges. The football games were made more fun by our own UW cheerleader, Barbara Coles. Our disappointment at losing the homecoming game was alleviated when our dancing bears' sign won first place. House activities continued with Nickel Hop, Fathers' Brunch, and a caramel apple sale for Junior Panhellenic. The high point of the quarter was the November dance honoring the pledges. Christmas caroling with Sigma Chi closed the fall season and gave finals week a much brighter tone.

Winter quarter brought AWS elections, more exchanges, swim meets, and basketball games with our songleaders, Mary Jane Baetz and Pat Elder. With February came the annual house dance for the actives by the pledges. The quarter was rounded out by participation in Song and Stunt Night and University Glee Club. Installation of officers in March brought the quarter to a conclusion.

Much welcome sunshine was present to christen the arrival of spring, new classes and old friends. Although fun was had in Chinese Auction and Songfest, the spring formal will be remembered as a highlight as Alpha Gamma Delta ended their 50th year at Washington.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Another busy year for the Alpha Xis started by welcoming twenty-six enthusiastic pledges to Nu chapter. Homecoming activities, first place in the Village Band contest, and participation in Songfest made this year a memorable one.

The social whirl began with a fabulous pledge dance in the fall, continued with a crazy winter costume dance, and ended with our traditional Rose Formal in the spring. Exchanges and many informal get-togethers were scattered throughout the year.

Seeking to retain our prized Garhart Trophy, we participated enthusiastically in Silver Fish, volleyball, baseball, badminton, and bowling, Mortar Board, Totem Club, W-Key, and Rally Girls found many Alpha Xi members. Besides our many activities, we followed a well-rounded study program which was rewarded by having the greatest percentage of pledges initiated after fall quarter.

As we come to the end of a wonderful year, bidding a fond farewell and best wishes to our seniors, all agree that it is unity, pride, and friendliness that makes Alpha Xi the best place to live.

Fall 1958 found the Alpha Phis opening the door to a year filled with fun, activities, and . . . studies. Fall activities began with ten days of rush followed by a quarter of exchanges, pledge sneak, Homecoming, Nickel Hop, Pledge Dance, and . . . studies. With winter quarter came Frosh elections, Inspiration Week, Song and Stunt Night, and a dance honoring the seniors where they could express their "supressed desires."

The coming of spring found Alpha Phis participating in Song Fest with the S.A.E.s, enjoying the Spring formal at the Olympic Hotel, and the Senior Breakfast . . . and relaxing at the beach.

Well-represented on campus the Alpha Phis claimed members in W-Key, Totem Club, Mortar Board, Rally Girls, Corvettes, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Silver Fish, and other departmental honoraries.

With the promise of another wonderful year, the Alpha Phis said last good-byes to graduating seniors and closed the door on a most successful year.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

The first year in our newly remodeled home draws to a close, and the members of Theta Alpha Chapter of Delta Delta review an exciting and fun-packed nine months.

Fall rushing gave us 29 of the finest pledges on campus. The pledges and actives were soon drawn into whirl of activities. "Stick with McLean" brought Linda McLean the office of Freshman Class Treasurer after a vigorous campaign. Other members represented us in Silver Fish, W-Key, Totem Club, Mortar Board, Rally Girls, class offices and various honoraries. Homecoming, serenades, fraternity exchanges, and a Hawaiian pledge dance polished off the first quarter.

Winter and Spring Quarters found just as many social events crowding our calendar. The pledge-active dance, our Spring Formal, elections, Song and Stunt Night, Song Fest, and Delta Week were all climaxed by our annual Pansy Breakfast which traditionally honors all graduating senior women.

We have had fun and worked hard, but above all, we have learned much during the year of 1958-1959.

Chi Omega's 50th year on the U of W campus began when we welcomed thirty enthusiastic pledges into our midst.

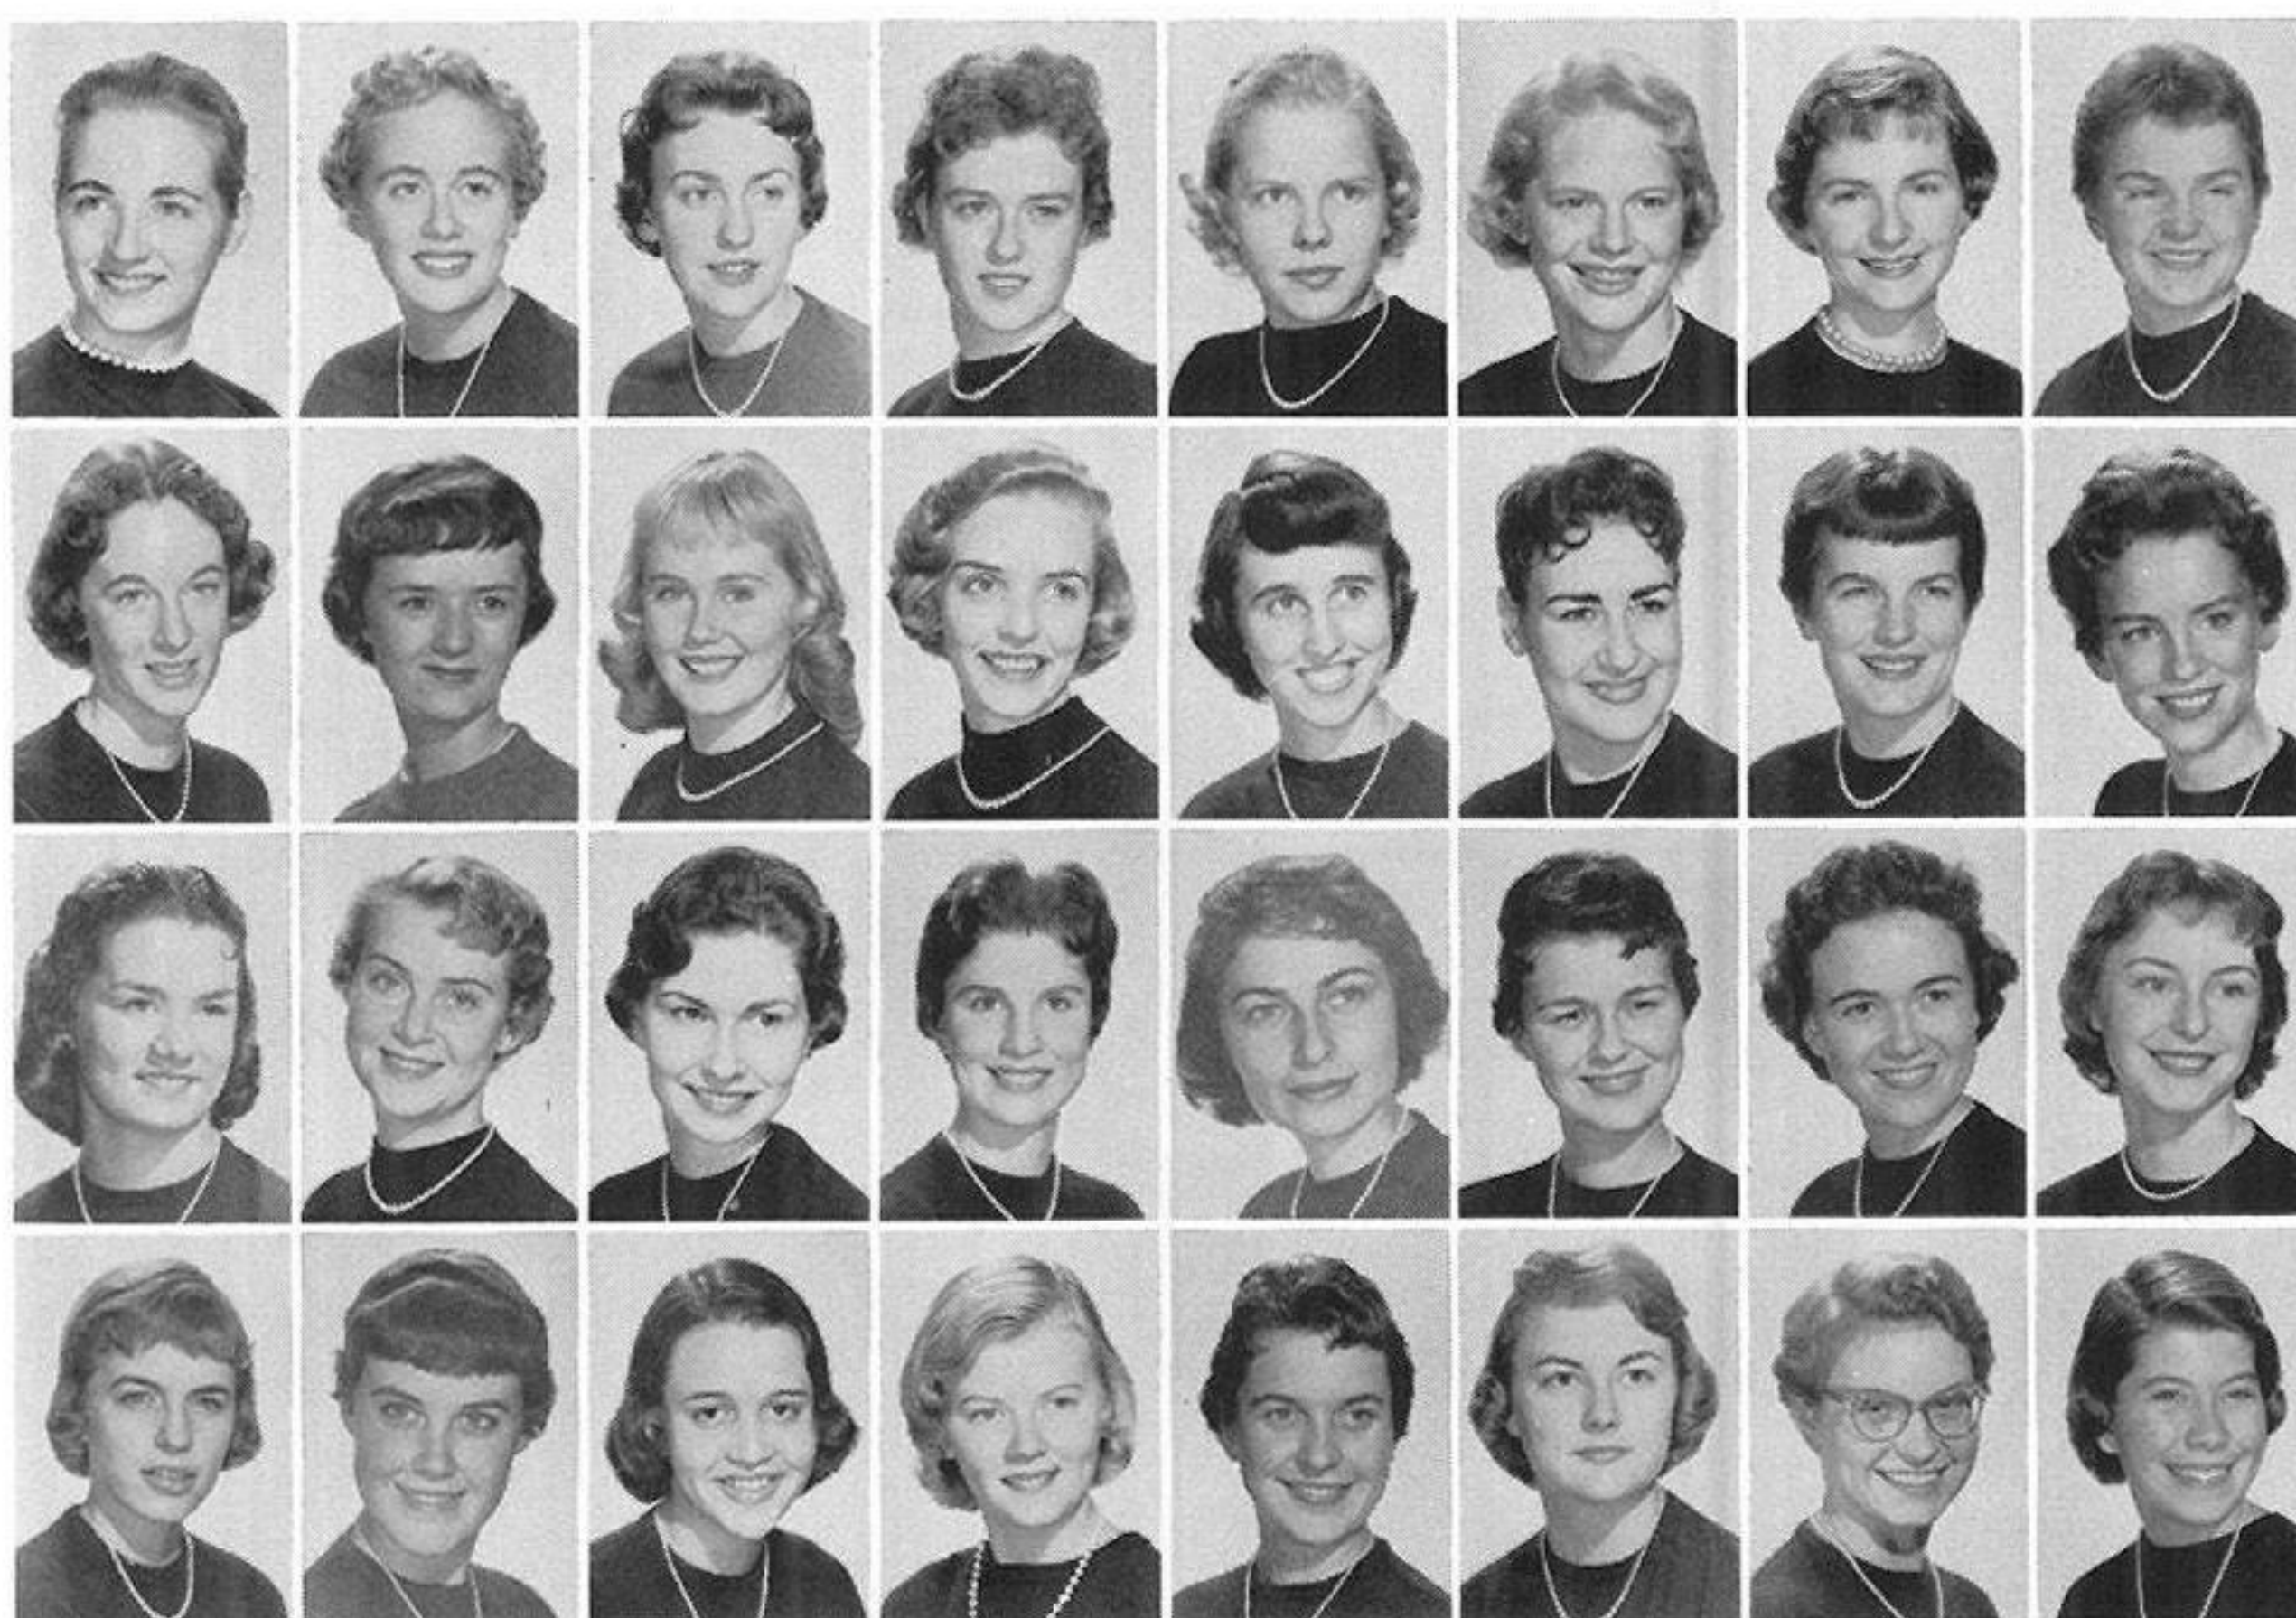

Christina Sander, our Swedish exchange student, helped to plan the pledge dance held at Beaver Lake. We interrupted our pre-final concentration to give the annual Christmas party with the Alpha Delts for the Muscular Dystrophy children. Looking back over our dances, we shall always remember our Winter Formal and the Spring Informal held at the Chapter house.

Not missing out on campus activities, the Chi Omegas were well represented by Sharene Randall, ASUW secretary; Vicki Beaudry, Mortar Board president; and Holly Ring, historian of W-Key. In addition to department honoraries, Chi Os served as members of program panel, Tyee staff, Rally, Silver Fish, AWS, ASUW, and YWCA.

The highlight of spring was the visit of Miss Elizabeth Dyer, national president of Chi Omega in conjunction with Alpha Chapter's 50th anniversary. This occasion brought to light even more fully the purposes for which we were established, the strongest being "friendship through unity."

1958-59 was another outstanding year for Beta of Delta Gamma. Fall brought us the top 28 pledges on campus. These girls immediately caught that "D. G. Spirit" and joined the actives in keeping our good name in University of Washington activities. The Delta Gammas can claim the President for region Eleven of Association of College Unions, Queen of Queens, A.W.S. Council chairmen, members of W-Key, Totem Club, Rally, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa, Silver Fish, Orchesis, Gamma Alpha Chi, R.O.T.C. Sponsors, Pi Lambda Theta, Mu Tau and many other departmental honoraries and clubs.

Other activities which kept the D. G.s busy were coffee dates, house pajama parties, guest dinners, exchanges (ice skating, sack, Bermuda) costume pledge dance, Christmas party and caroling, Winter formal at the Olympic Bowl, Founder's Day Banquet, Spring Informal, pinnings, engagements, serenades, Song Fest, and our national project of Sight Conservation and Aid to the Blind. By reading to blind students on campus and by working with the blind children at the Warren Avenue School, we have been able to extend our program and learn more about sight conservation.

1958-1959 was another full year for Kappa chapter of Delta Zeta. Fall quarter began with a wonderful and enthusiastic pledge class. Selling the most homecoming buttons brought us another trophy to add to our collection. Rocketing-to-space with our Homecoming sign, our Founders Day Brunch at the Seattle Tennis Club, the Loggers Breakfast with Tau Phi Delta fraternity, and our annual Blue and Silver Pledge Dance were some of the many activities that kept us busy.

Winter quarter brought initiation, more exchanges, a novelty dance given by the pledges, and of course more studying. The Spring Formal at Lake Wilderness with the crowning of the new Delta Zeta Dream Man was the highlight of spring quarter. Totem Club, Omicron Nu, Zeta Mu Tau, Zeta Phi Eta, Alpha Epsilon Delta, and Alpha Tau Delta honoraries were attended by Delta Zetas.

With the end of Rush, the Gamma Phis and their 27 pledges looked forward to another memorable year. Fall quarter was highlighted by the Pledge Sneak, a 3rd place Homecoming sign, the pledge barn dance, and a Christmas caroling party with the Dekes.

Winter and Spring quarters were equally busy. Inspiration Week, Song and Stunt Night, banquets, elections, Songfest with the Phi Delts, the Winter Informal and the Spring Formal were some of the events that occupied their spare moments.

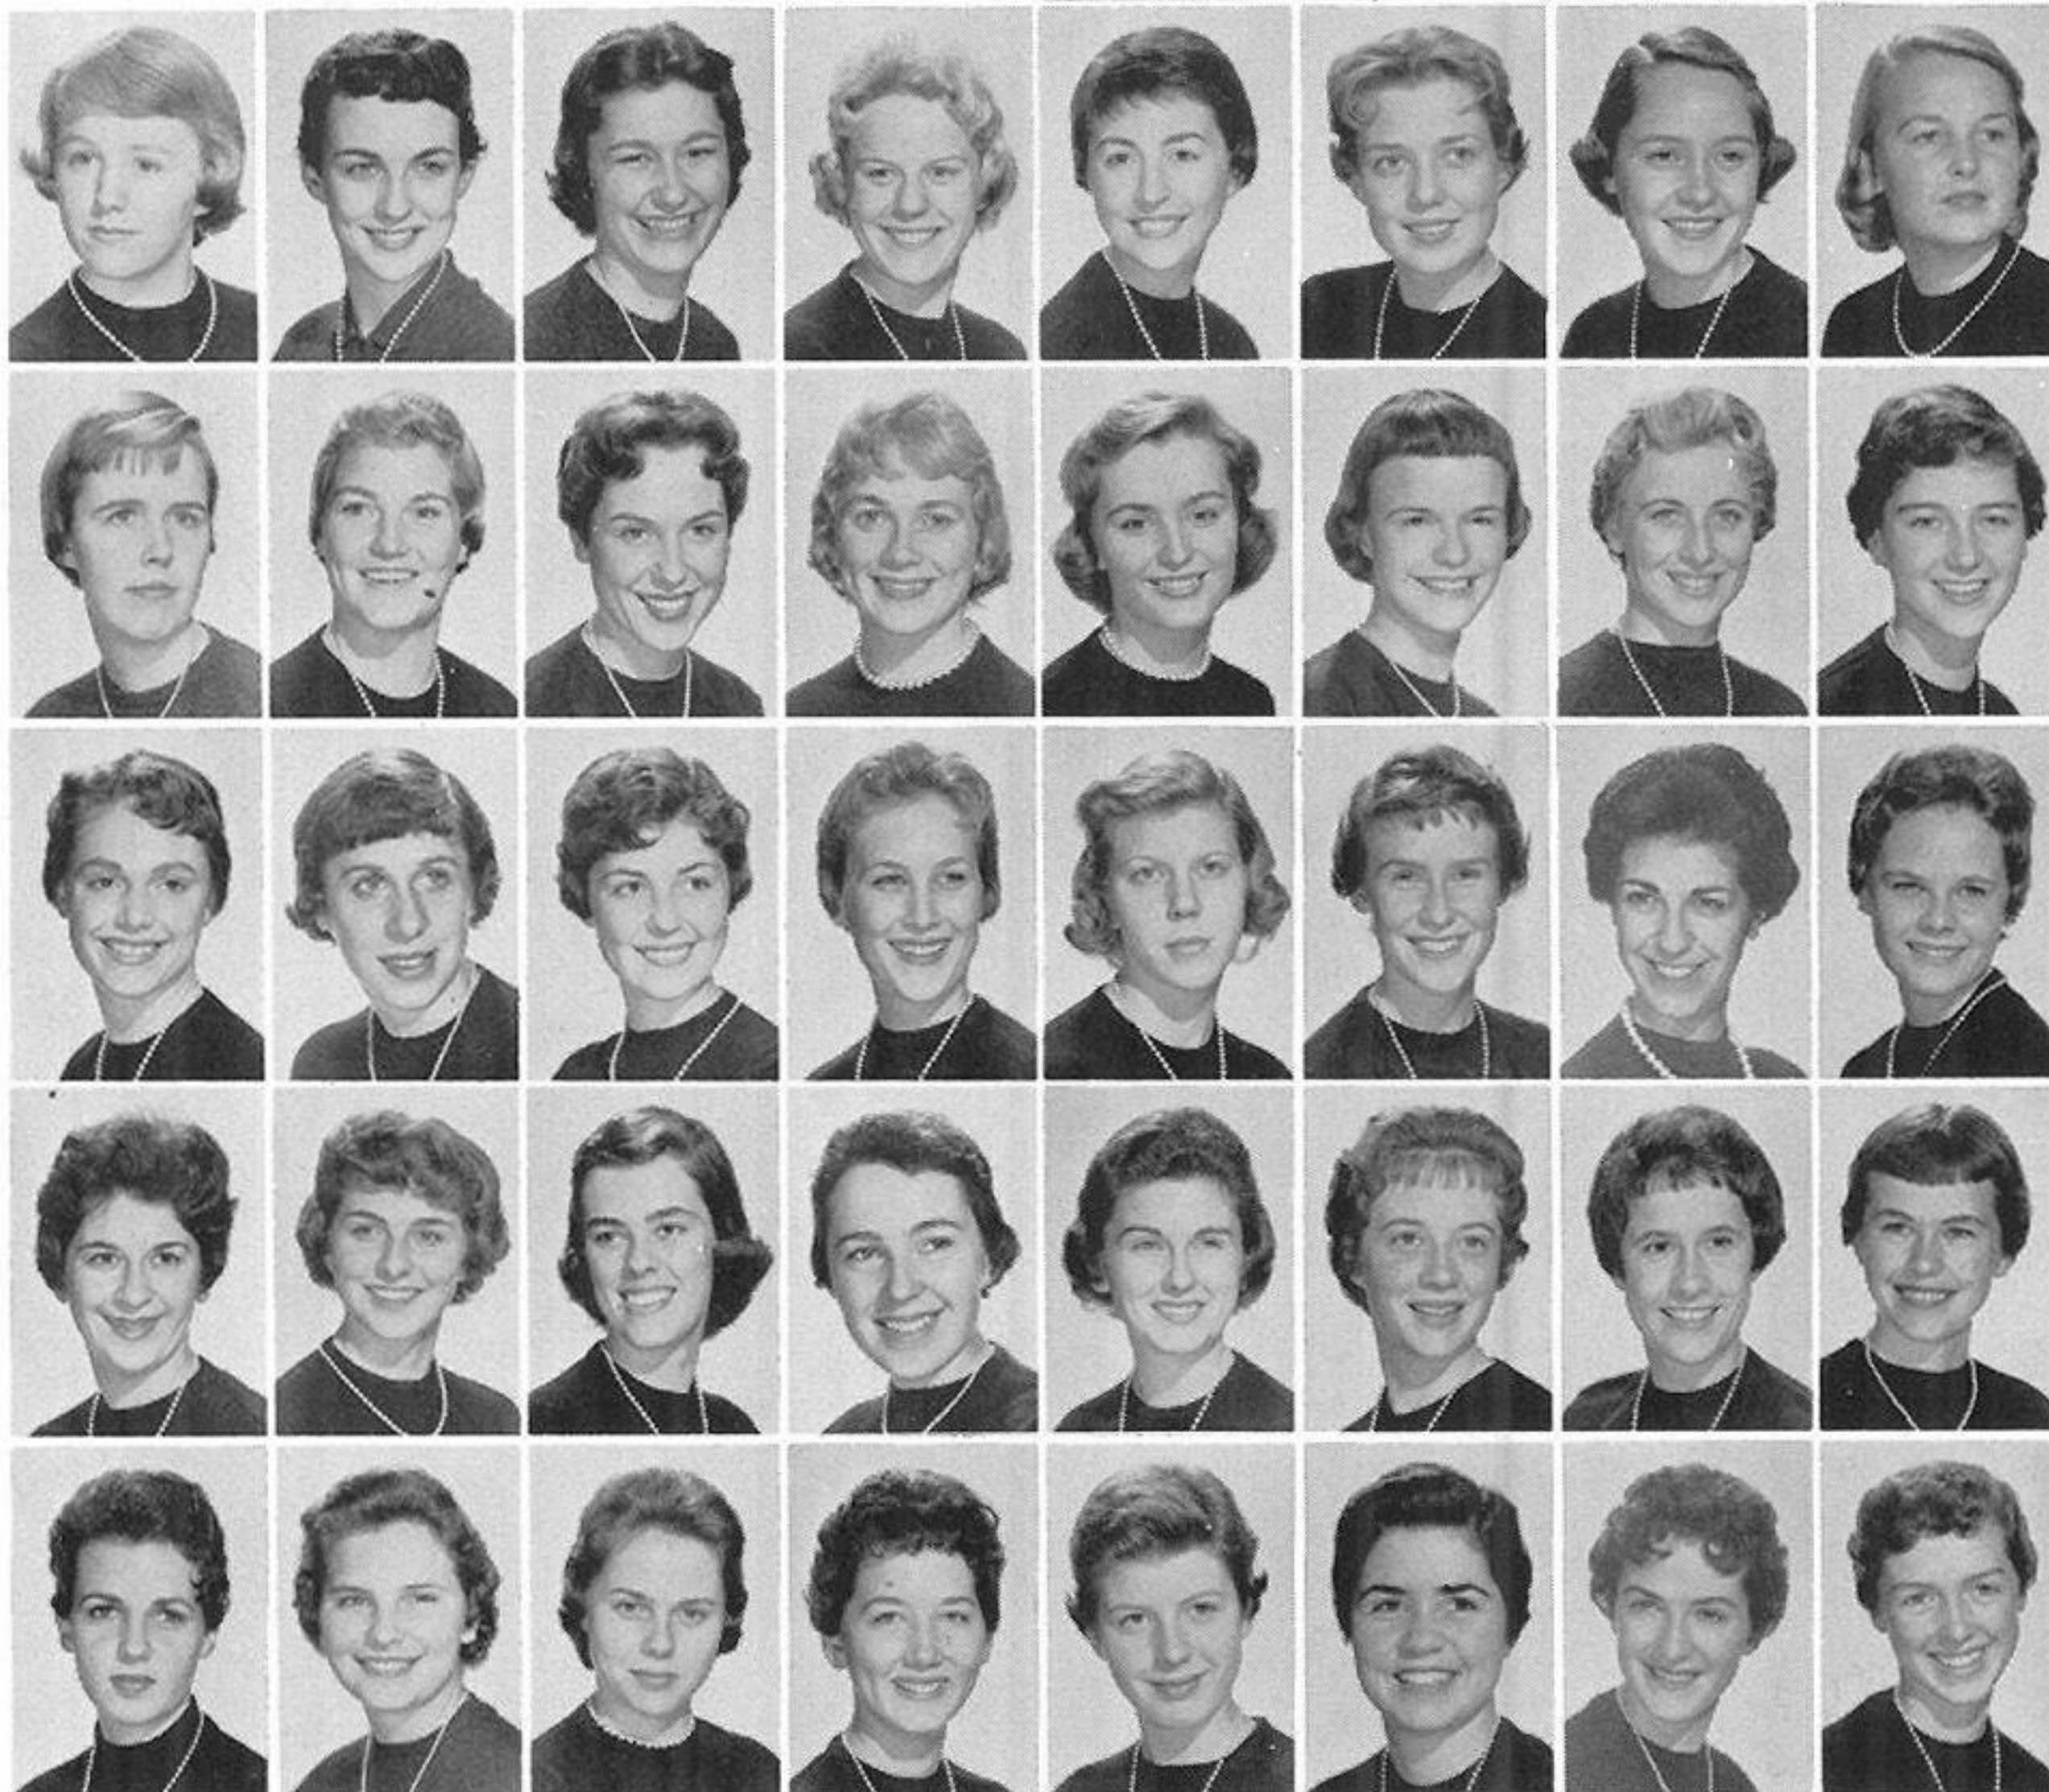

Though the social calendar was full, it still left time for campus activities and scholastic achievement. Gamma Phi was represented in Mortar Board, Totem Club, W-Key, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Rally Girls, Silver Fish, and departmental honoraries. 1958-59 was a most rewarding year for Gamma Phi Beta, one of friendship, spirit and fun that will be long remembered.

During the year 1958-59 Thetas realized more than ever the accomplishments we have made toward our three main goals—friendship, leadership and scholarship.

Enthusiasm and the close friendships all Thetas have was the key to a very successful rush this fall. The pledge dance, informal and spring formal were carried out in the true Theta style of informality and merriment. The Village Band Contest, Homecoming, second place in Sophomore Carnival with the DUs, Christmas caroling with the Phi Delts, exchanges and parties have helped to strengthen our bonds of friendship.

We boast leaders in all major activities on campus. Our freshmen represent us in Guppies, as songleaders, in Rally, as Prominents, and as committee chairmen. We have upperclassmen in Silver Fish, Rally, W-Key, and Totem Club, as a class officer, class Prominents, and committee chairmen.

Although we do not consider ourselves "jocs" we find two Olympic Team members in our midst. Nancy Ramey holds the world butterfly-stroke record and Bev Anderson will be on the 1960 Olympic ski team.

Scholastically we ranked second among the sororities. We have girls in many departmental honoraries, and in Sigma Epsilon Sigma and Phi Beta Kappa.

All in all we have had a tremendous year. We are proud to be Thetas and happy that we are able to share such wonderful experiences.

KAPPA DELTA

Another year gone already? Why rush was barely over and we were still busy introducing twenty-nine KD pledges to fall activities like Homecoming and our pledge dance before we realized it was time for Christmas caroling and snow balling. Our house ski party was a real event—forty lovely snow bunnies—but fun for all! Our time was well sprinkled with studying, exchanges, coffee dates and seminars.

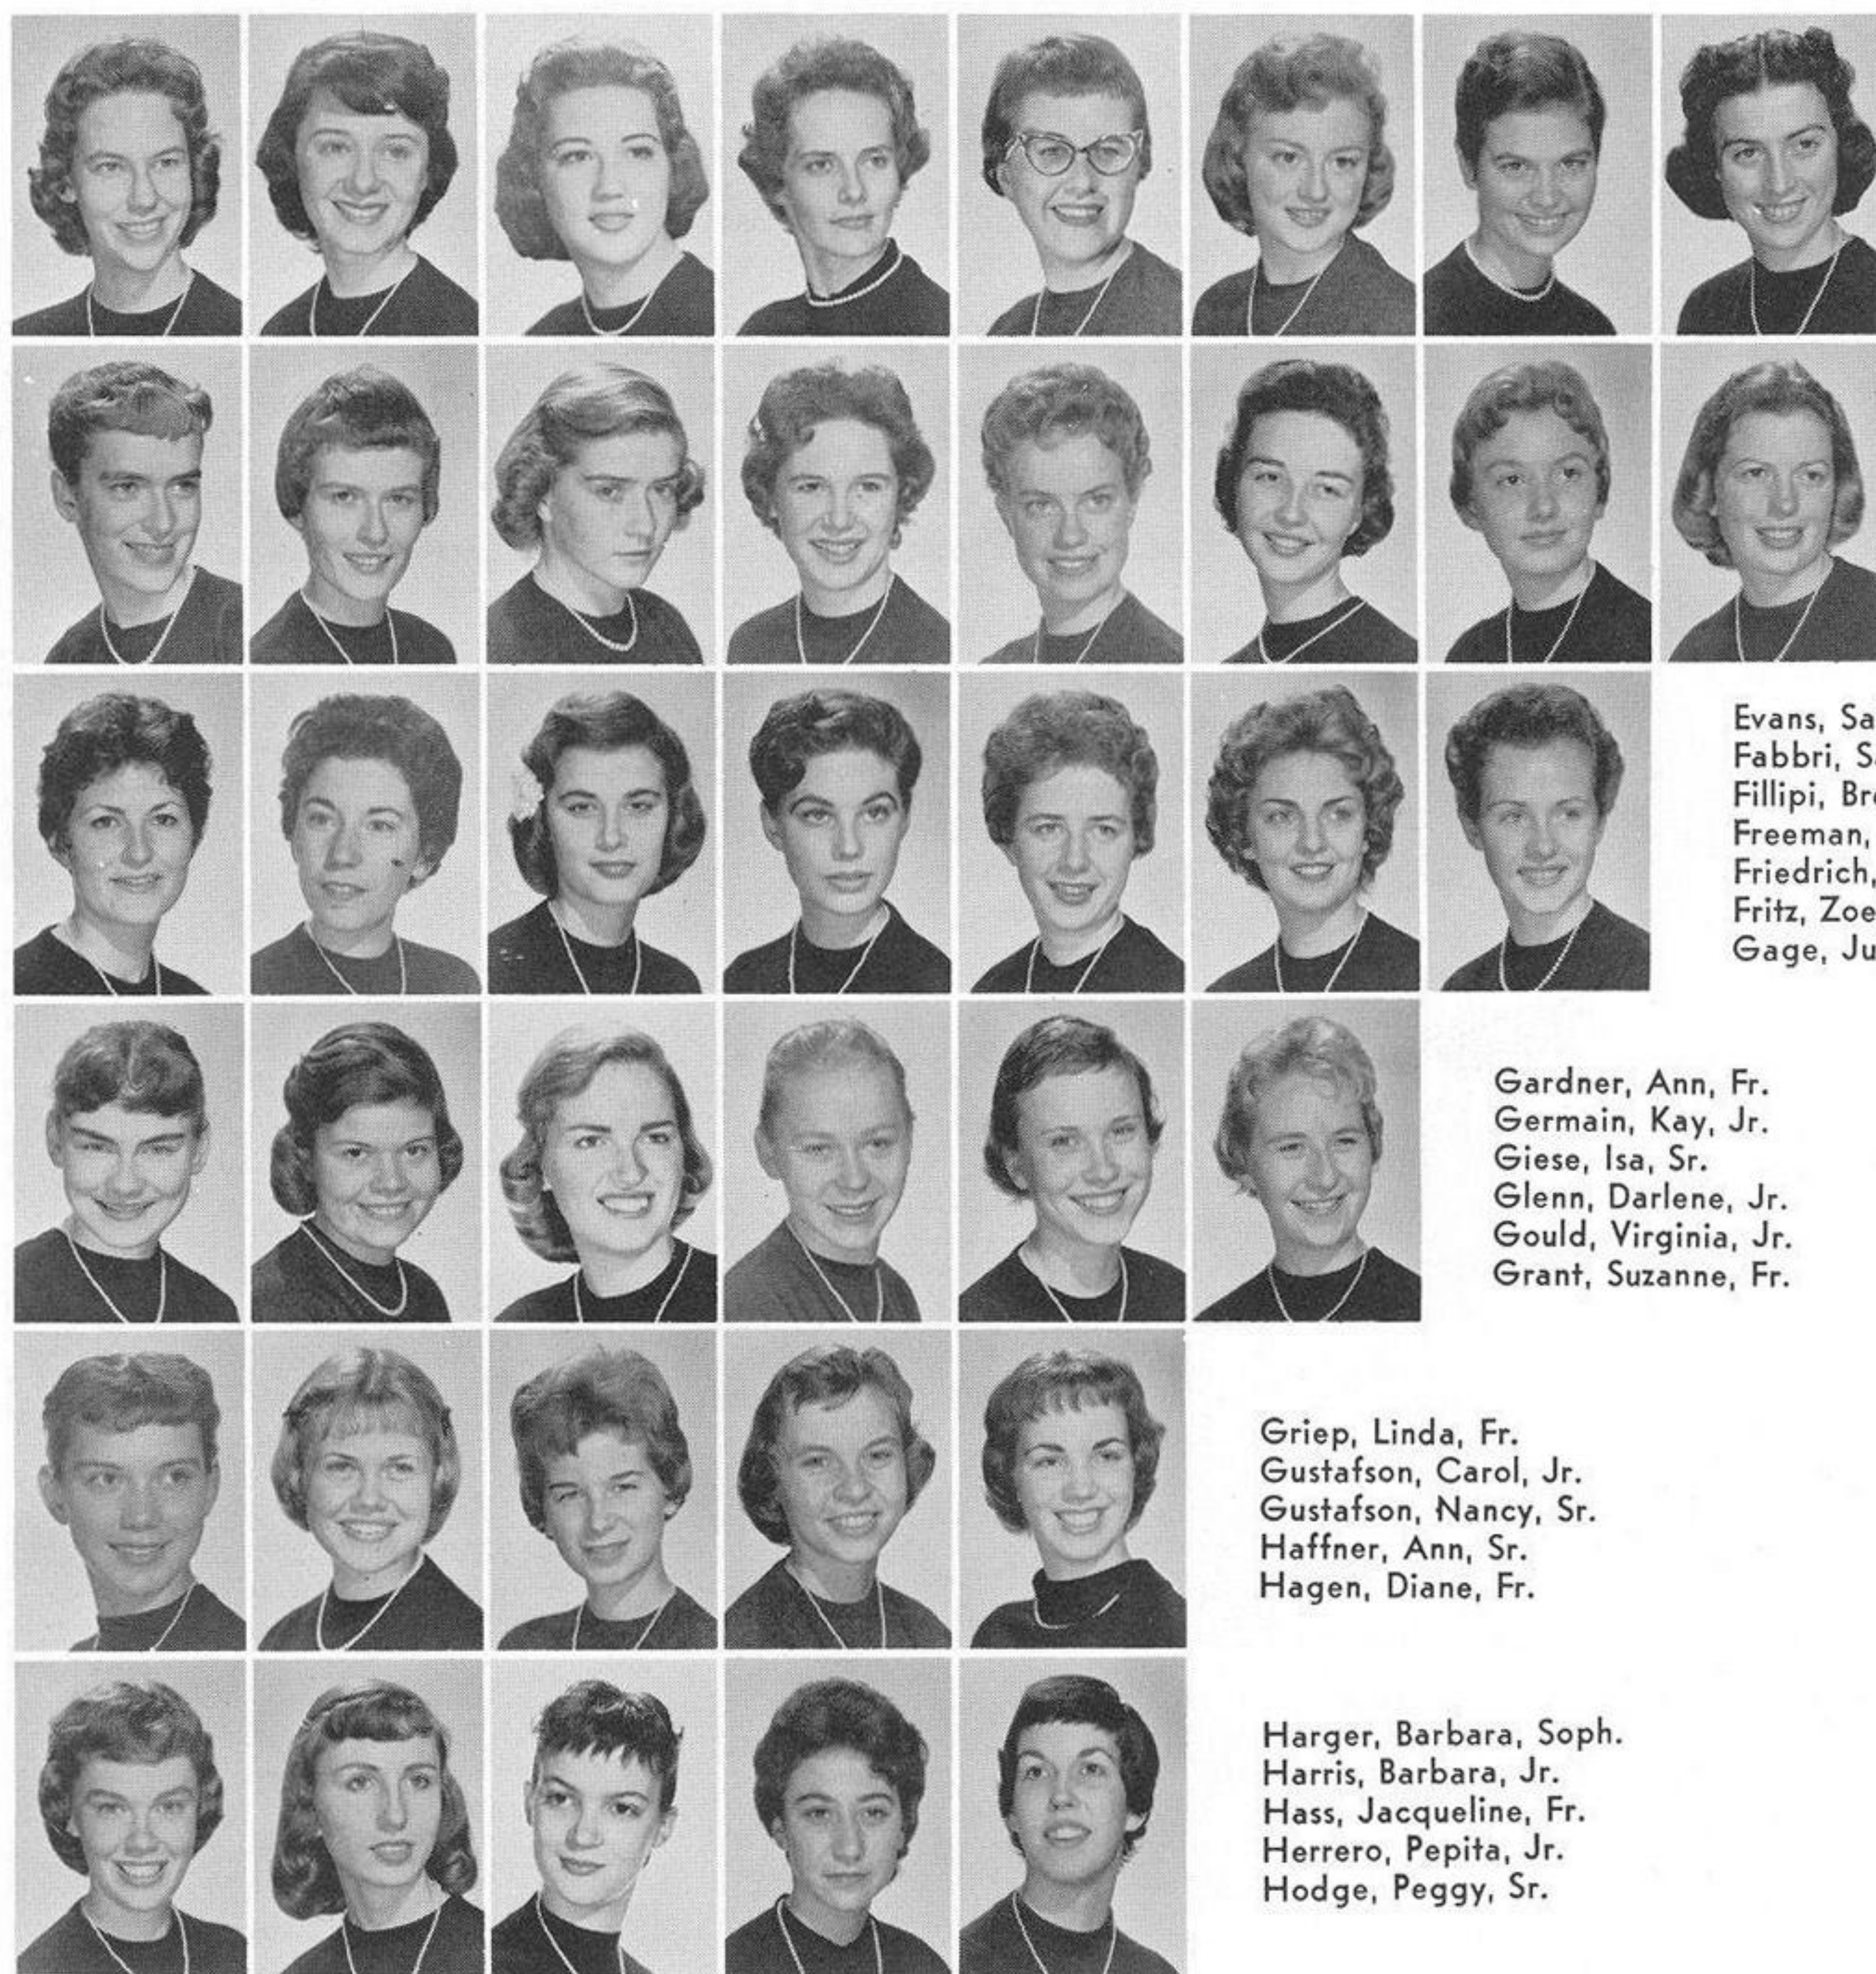

Winter quarter began with such never-to-be-forgotten occasions as Inspiration Week, Initiation, our Dad-Daughter Banquet, Sweetheart Dinner and Winter Costume Dance.

Then the sun decided to shine and it was time for Songfest. Taking time from sun tanning and studying, we practiced faithfully with the Sigma Phi Epsilons. Not to be forgotten are those girls tapped throughout the year for Rally, Angel Wing, W-Key, Totem Club, Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, and ASUW and AWS committees and offices.

We suddenly found with the Spring Formal and Senior Breakfast that another rewarding year in the KD house was over. It was a year that strengthened the bonds of Kappa Delta—a time of fun, friendship and sisterly love.

A first place on campus scholastically for 1958 spurred Beta Pi chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma into the fifty-fourth year on the University of Washington campus. Twenty-nine pledges added more enthusiasm after an exciting rush.

Girls were active in every phase of campus life. The organizations on campus found chairmen, members, and officers in ASUW, AWS, YWCA, Mortar Board, Totem Club, Panhellenic, W-Key, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Omicron Nu and others. A car 'tootin' 'beep, beep' campaign elected Linda Christensen Freshman class vice president.

"Shalet Shindig" was the theme for the ice-melting pledge dance. The February formal glittered with "Fantasies in Pink."

They joined the SAEs at Christmas for caroling. In the spring the Kappas and the Sigma Chis entered Songfest to defend their two-year first place title.

Fun, achievements, and lasting friendships are the memories that have bound the girls of the blue and blue closer together in 1958-59.

The pages of Phi Mu's 1958-1959 calendar were filled to the brim. September started with a bang as we enthusiastically entered rush. As soon as school started in October we began crossing the days off until Homecoming. The pledges wholeheartedly threw themselves into the project and danced the entire Homecoming Eve in our sign which asked the Huskies to "Pan da Bruins." We turned the page of our calendar to November and the day for the pledge dance entitled Pink Champagne. The quarter was now drawing to a close and we flipped our calendar to December and the Mother-Daughter Christmas Party.

The new year saw us planning for Inspiration Week and then we turned our attention to the next month. February brought us Valentine's Day when we honored our fathers at the Father-Daughter Banquet. The climax of the month was the end of February dinner-dance . . . the Carnation Ball. We had one last fling before we said good-bye to winter quarter and that was our traditional ceremony the 4th of March—our Founder's Day when we celebrated our 107th birthday.

Spring quarter was quickly upon us and as we looked at our calendar we found we had Song-Fest and our spring dance. Before we tore off the page for June, we circled the day on which we had honored our seniors at our annual Senior Breakfast. Our girls had also checked off the days when they had participated in their individual activities and honoraries: Corvettes, Madrigal Singers, Orchesis, Rally Girls, Silver Fish, Tyee, and W-Key. Our calendar had indeed been full.

As our campus tour continues along Greek Row, we stop in front of an attractive house characterized by four white pillars. Our guide tells us that this is the gracious home of the Pi Phis, girls who are proud to wear the golden arrow and chain. We learn that as students, the Pi Phis work hard to maintain their high scholastic rating, but still find time to actively participate in innumerable house, campus, and community activities. Pi Phis hold such positions as Bachelors Club Queen, three class offices, members of Mortar Board, Totem Club, W-Key, Frosh Council President, Class promicients, Panhellenic officer, YWCA officer, Frosh Songleaders, Silver Fish, Tyee Staff, Fashion Board and departmental honoraries.

Encouraged by the impressed look on our faces, the guide takes a deep breath and assures us that that is not all! Last year they somehow found time to go caroling with the Betas, enjoy a cruise around Mercer Island, hold three house dances during the year, take part in Songfest, and devote hours on the balcony to serenades or sunbaths. We reluctantly continue our tour, convinced that the guide's ap-

The Sigma Kappas climaxed an enthusiastic rush this year by adding twenty-four more friendly smiles to the house.

When all at once we found ourselves busy with Homecoming and a full fall schedule. We were enjoying the serenades, exchanges, classes and coffee dates—with those afternoons at the library or the HUB.

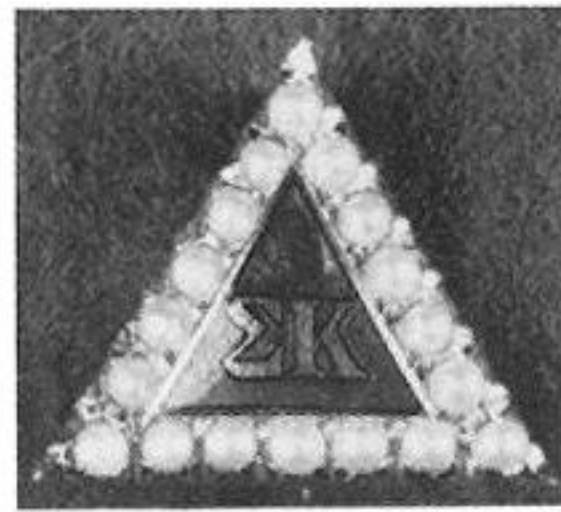

Sigma Kappa claims girls in many activities including junior class treasurer, president of Angel Wing, chairman of the MUN delegation, chairman of ASUW Activities Bureau, and president of Rho Chi, pharmacy honorary. We are also proud of our members in Totem Club, W-Key, Silver Fish, Phi Beta Kappa, and other activities and honoraries.

Inspiration Week was another highlight, especially, of course, to the new initiates.

Winter quarter also brought an evening of fun at our annual pledge dance.

With the first hint of spring, we began to anticipate the fun of Songfest, Parents' Weekend, and our spring formal to round out a successful year for the Sigma Ks.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

1958-59 turned out to be another wonderful year for Zeta. After fall rush, our wonderful pledge class was feted at luncheons and a pizza party. Then came Homecoming, and the sound of drums could be heard for blocks as the Huskies learned to "Whip the Bruins." Shortly after was the pledge sneak, which was unsuccessful, but provided a merry chase for all.

Before we knew it, the Christmas season was upon us, with the traditional Christmas Party and caroling at an old folks' home.

Winter quarter opened with the Senior Sneak on the first night of school. After a successful evening, the seniors joined everyone else in working on Frosh Elections. For a week we painted signs, chanted slogans, and sang in the Quad at the top of our lungs. February brought the Winter Formal, the traditional White Violet Ball.

With Spring came Parents' Weekend and Songfest, as well as the spring dance sponsored by the pledge class. The Awards Banquet and the spring cruise through the San Juan Islands concluded the social year.

Zetas were found in all areas of campus activities, with members in AWS, ASUW, YWCA, Rally Girls, Silver Fish, Totem Club, and various honoraries. We look back with satisfaction and forward with anticipation to what the next year will bring.

And from Rush, our year was brimful of fun and surprises. Our wonderful pledges took a successful and original sneak and they made us so proud of them as they worked together on their pledge projects, studied hard, and participated with us in activities.

Phi Sig was represented on Campus in Angel Wing, Rally, AWS and ASUW Committees, Arena, and the Dean's List.

It was a thrill for all of us to learn that we had been awarded the Scholarship Improvement Trophy by the Intercollegiate Mothers Club. The trophy gleamed on the mantel of our newly redecorated living room, reminding us of the importance of scholarship and effort. The success of our many philanthropic projects was also rewarding. Some of our favorite ones were our National Heart Fund and our candidate in the "Ugly Man" Contest.

We created a "Bohemian Paradise" for our "Beatnik" costume dance early in the fall. Some of the other highlights on our social calendar were our Winter Formal Pledge Dance, and spring moonlight cruise dance on Puget Sound. We celebrated Founders Day, feted our folks on Parents Night, and enjoyed a weekend retreat in the country.

And as Spring Quarter ended, we finished our Senior Breakfast singing a lovely song . . . "life lies ahead, same sweet surprise that shines before our eyes While We're Young."

DELTA TAU DELTA

Rob Thomason, President

Gamma Mu chapter of Delta Tau Delta had another successful year in 1958-1959. Taking in a top pledge class started out the year. Scholastically the Delts maintained their position in the top ten by ranking third on campus. Scholarship, however, is only one area in which Washington Delts are active. In sports the Delt football squad took second place. The basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, and waterpolo teams also did well.

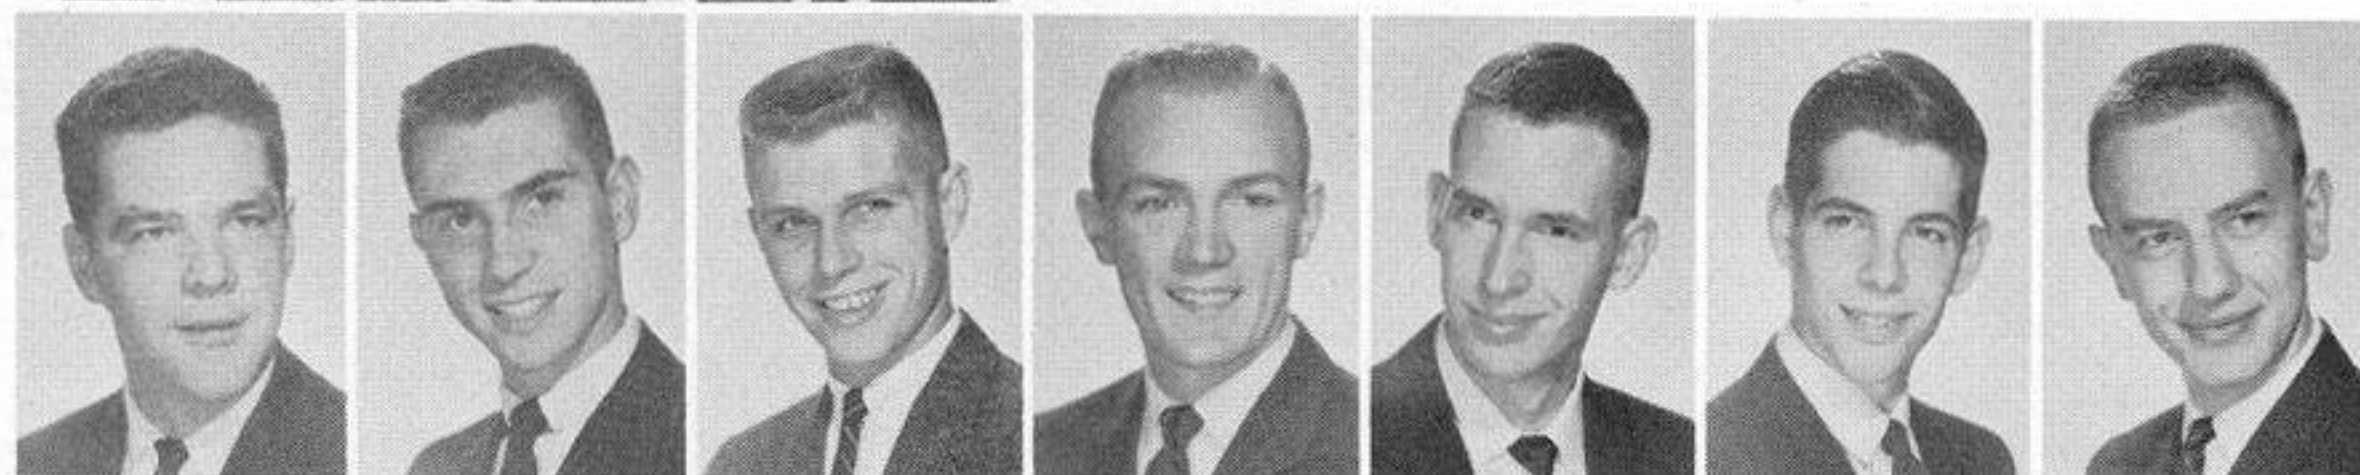

Socially this year was unsurpassed. Such functions as the Pledge Dance, Active Dance, Spring Formal, House Party, exchanges, firesides, and serenades highlighted the year. At Christmas the Alpha Phis joined the Delts to carol for hospitalized children. Spring saw the Delts and Thetas harmonize for Song Fest.

Delts were well represented in such organizations as Oval Club, Bachelors' Club, Scabbard and Blade, and Purple Shield. Many Delts held prominent positions in ASUW and other extracurricular activities.

With these and other lasting memories the year came to a close. Delta Tau Delts look back on 1958-1959 with pride and anxiously await another outstanding year.

The Interfraternity Council is composed of the presidents of the 38 fraternities on the University of Washington campus and the officers elected by the presidents. It acts as an administrative body for the fraternities in matters of joint action, represents the fraternities in student government, and strives to promote higher fraternity ideals—scholarship in particular. The I.F.C. has the power to discipline fraternities and individuals violating the codes set by the house presidents. The I.F.C. has an important scholarship committee which carries out numerous worthwhile projects. The

I.F.C. administers Help Week, when all fraternities engage in charity work for many institutions throughout the city. Promoting standards of conduct in the fraternities and their living areas, along with organizing and directing both formal and informal rushing is part of I.F.C. duties. Wide participation in activities, athletics, and other phases of campus life is encouraged by the I.F.C. It also seeks to educate fraternity men for citizenship, social competence, and successful human relations.

DELTA UPSILON

1818 E. 45th

Founded at Williams College, Williamstown, Massachusetts, in 1834.

Washington chapter established in 1910.

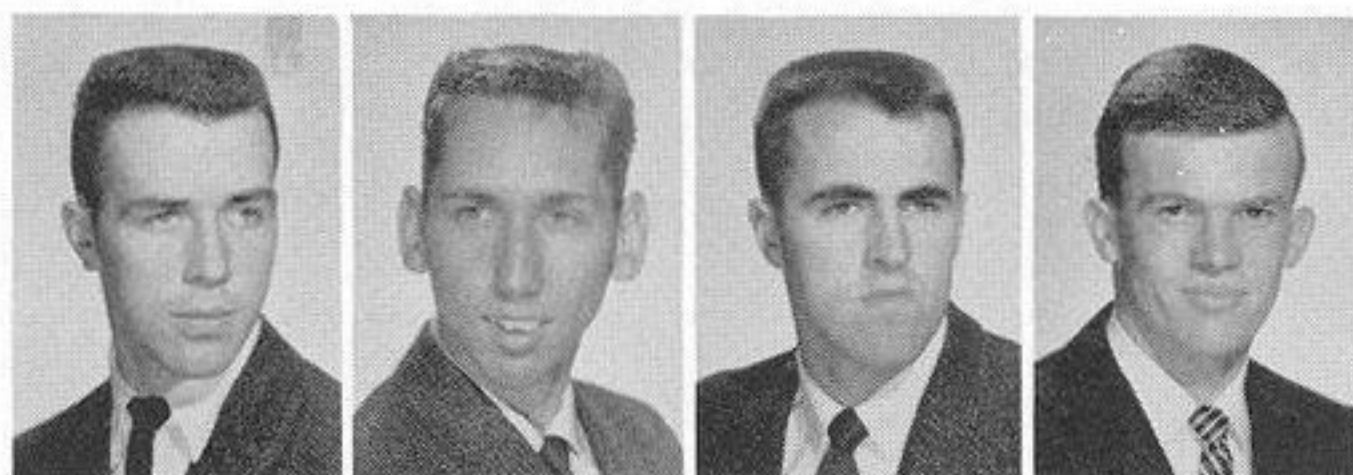

79 national chapters.

Delta Upsilon, the "friendly fraternity," completed another year of mature leadership with the chapter and in campus participation. The fraternity's activity was triggered by the mechanism of unity, resulting from the combined efforts of a quick-learning pledge class, an amazing group of sophomores, and enough campus-wise upperclassmen to pave the way.

DU had all its members in campus activities, claiming the Junior Class President, officers of Oval Club, Purple Shield, and Varsity Boat Club and numerous committee chairmen, including those of OA Steering committee and High School Leadership Conference.

We are proud of our brothers who represented the school in varsity athletics—DU's played starring roles in all the major sports and many of the minor sports. The members who failed to earn ink-stained t-shirts gained satisfaction from a spirited and rewarding intramural program.

Our scholarship record rose to new heights, in keeping with the intellectual standards of our national. A DU received this year's IFC scholarship award. Socially, six major functions were held throughout the year to provide us with well earned study breaks. A fitting climax to the season was the incomparable "Big Weekend," a DU first. Traditional exchanges, firesides, and serenades supplemented the schedule. We also found time to keep our annual football date with the Gamma Phi's (losing 12-6) and defend our Sophomore Carnival trophy with the Theta's.

ALPHA EPSILON PI

Officers Harold Jaffe, Irv Israel, Al DeJaen, Cal King and Jerry Green.

Chi Deuteron of Alpha Epsilon Pi experienced another successful year with loads of study, fun and activity. The chapter's close brotherhood enabled the men to make many large strides in the direction of growth.

A well rounded activity program including social and athletic events highlighted the year. The many theme parties, the New Year's Eve dance, the Winter Formal and the Hawaiian Spring Formal provided a colorful variety of events. Swimming and bowling headed up the athletic program, with other activities also included. An active participation in the Junior Interfraternity Council, Interfraternity Council, Organizations Assembly and the Hillel Foundation have served to round out the full program of the chapter.

A unique sidelight of the social program is the annual Pretty Baby Contest, which is held for sorority girls. This provides a lot of fun in the form of something out of the ordinary.

Alpha Epsilon Pi has had a year of steady advance in all programs, and the men are looking forward to an even more successful year to come.

The scene: Lambda Chi house

The year: 1959

Three memorable quarters, the brothers doing fine.
Three quarters of quizzes, textbooks, term papers.
Not to mention the spirited Lambda Chi capers.

The Prison Dance, with its suave, sophisticated air,
Making one feel giddy, and reach for a chair.
The wild beat of the jazz band filled everyone's soul,
To conquer Bridge: each Lambda Chi's goal.

Pajama Dance, Pledge Dance, exchanges, the Formal.
The following day spent returning to normal.
Singing a serenade, our voices sublime,
Though the sound of rehearsals was always a crime.

Finals week filled with its grinds and frustrations,
The arrival of grades, the heart's palpitations,
The house grade point posted, to be read with a rush,
Those above dined on steak, the peons ate mush.

It was a real crazy year, on that we concur.
We'll do it again if the draft boards defer.
Here is the way we Lambda Chis feel:
About fifty-nine they all say, "It was real . . ."

Your Move: Herman VanLoo, Chuck Husted, Jerry Jensen, Harry Achenbach, Bill Carmichael and Thomas King are engrossed in a game of chess between George Shin and Albert Ayres.

The Chi Phi Fraternity was founded on friendship, and stands for liberty, truth, honesty, and personal purity. During the middle of the nineteenth century, there were three brotherhoods in the United States, each bearing the name Chi Phi. In 1873 the three orders combined to form the brotherhood we have today under the name the Chi Phi fraternity.

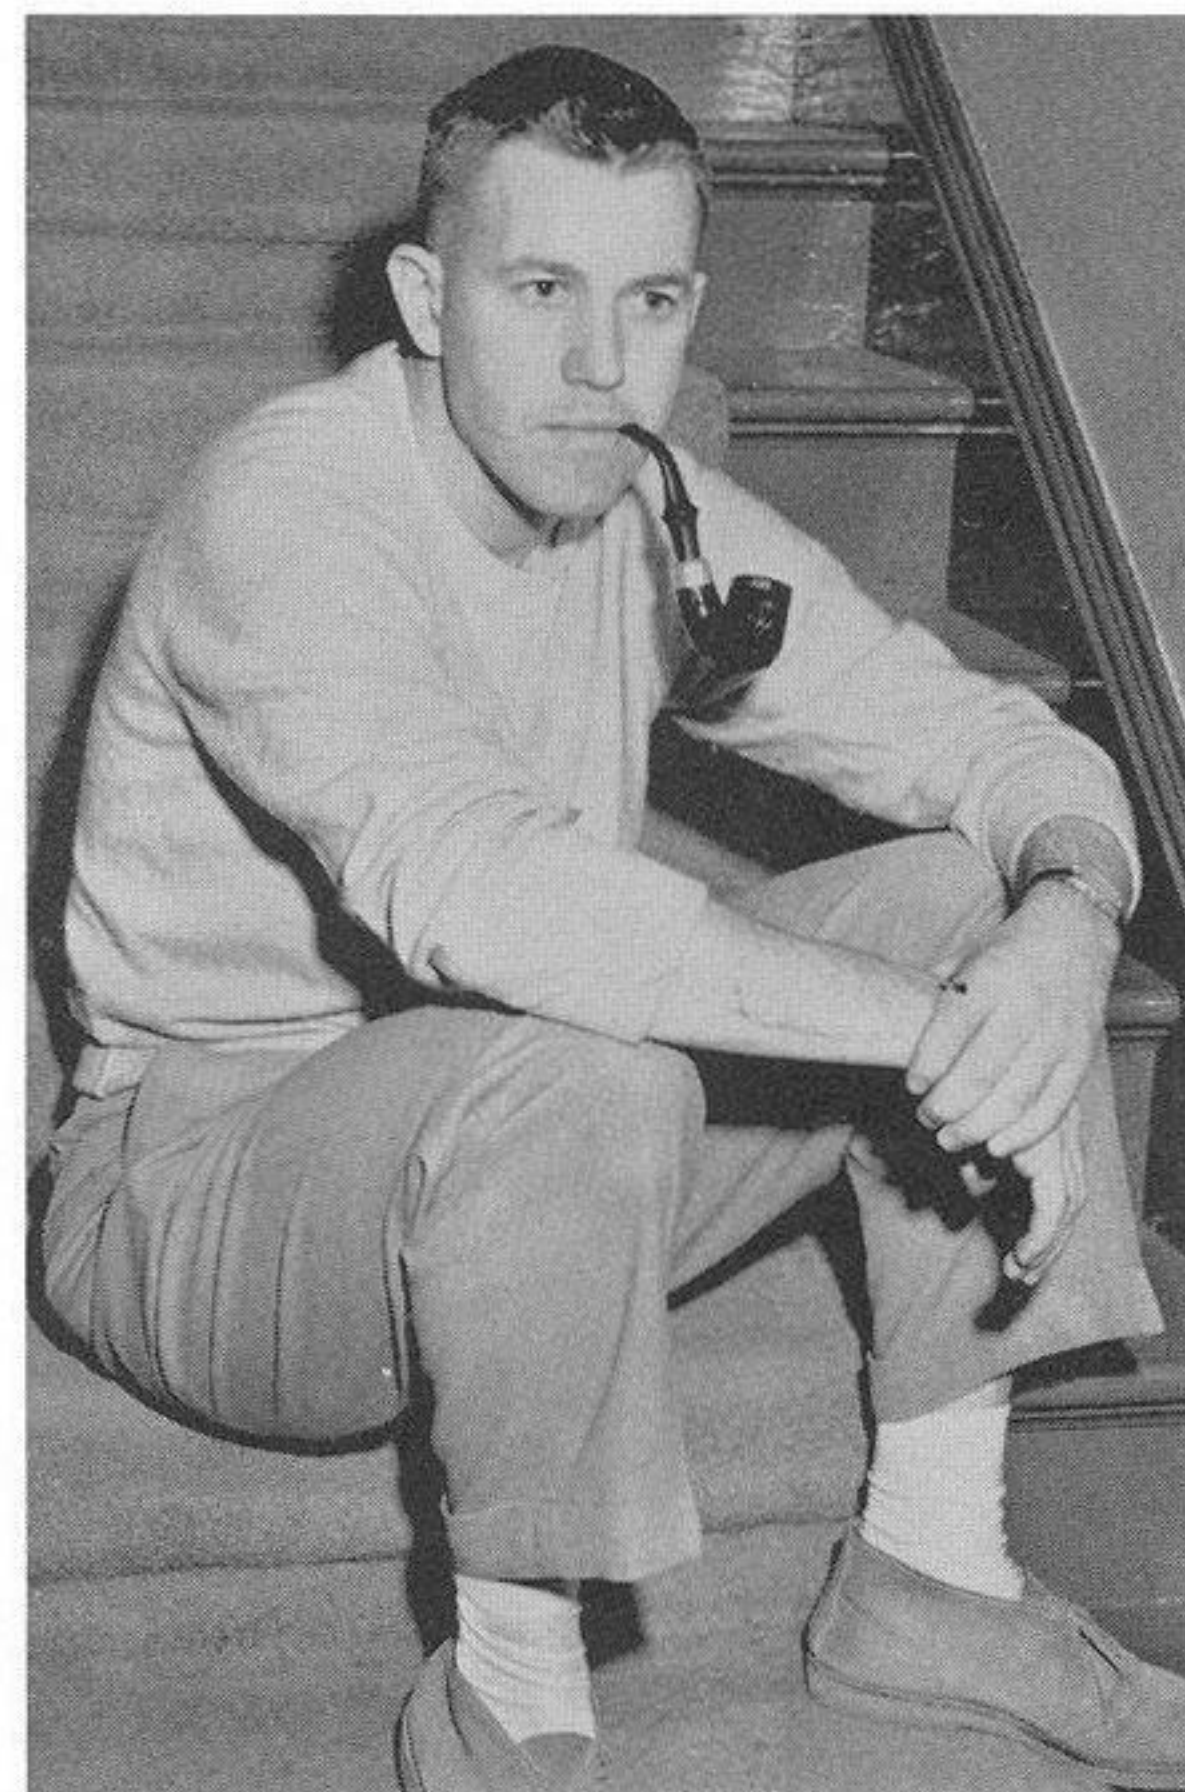

During World War II, due to the lack of manpower on campus, the house became inoperative, as did many others here. Reactivated in 1946, the house was going strong until the outbreak of the Korean "police action," when the same thing happened, because we had no men in school.

In 1952, with one member in school, the alumni association rented a house and went on a recruiting drive. Our growth since then required our moving into a bigger house in a better location. Already we are anticipating our next move.

Our social calendar for this year was filled with a variety of events, such as our Toga Party, Hard Times Party, Spring Formal, and several exchanges each quarter. Homecoming night we held open house for the alumni. The house also entered teams in golf, basketball, and bowling competition. And lastly, our pledges indulged in a sneak to Mercer Island.

PHI DELTA THETA

2111 E. 47th

Founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, 1848.
Washington Alpha established in 1900.
120 national chapters.

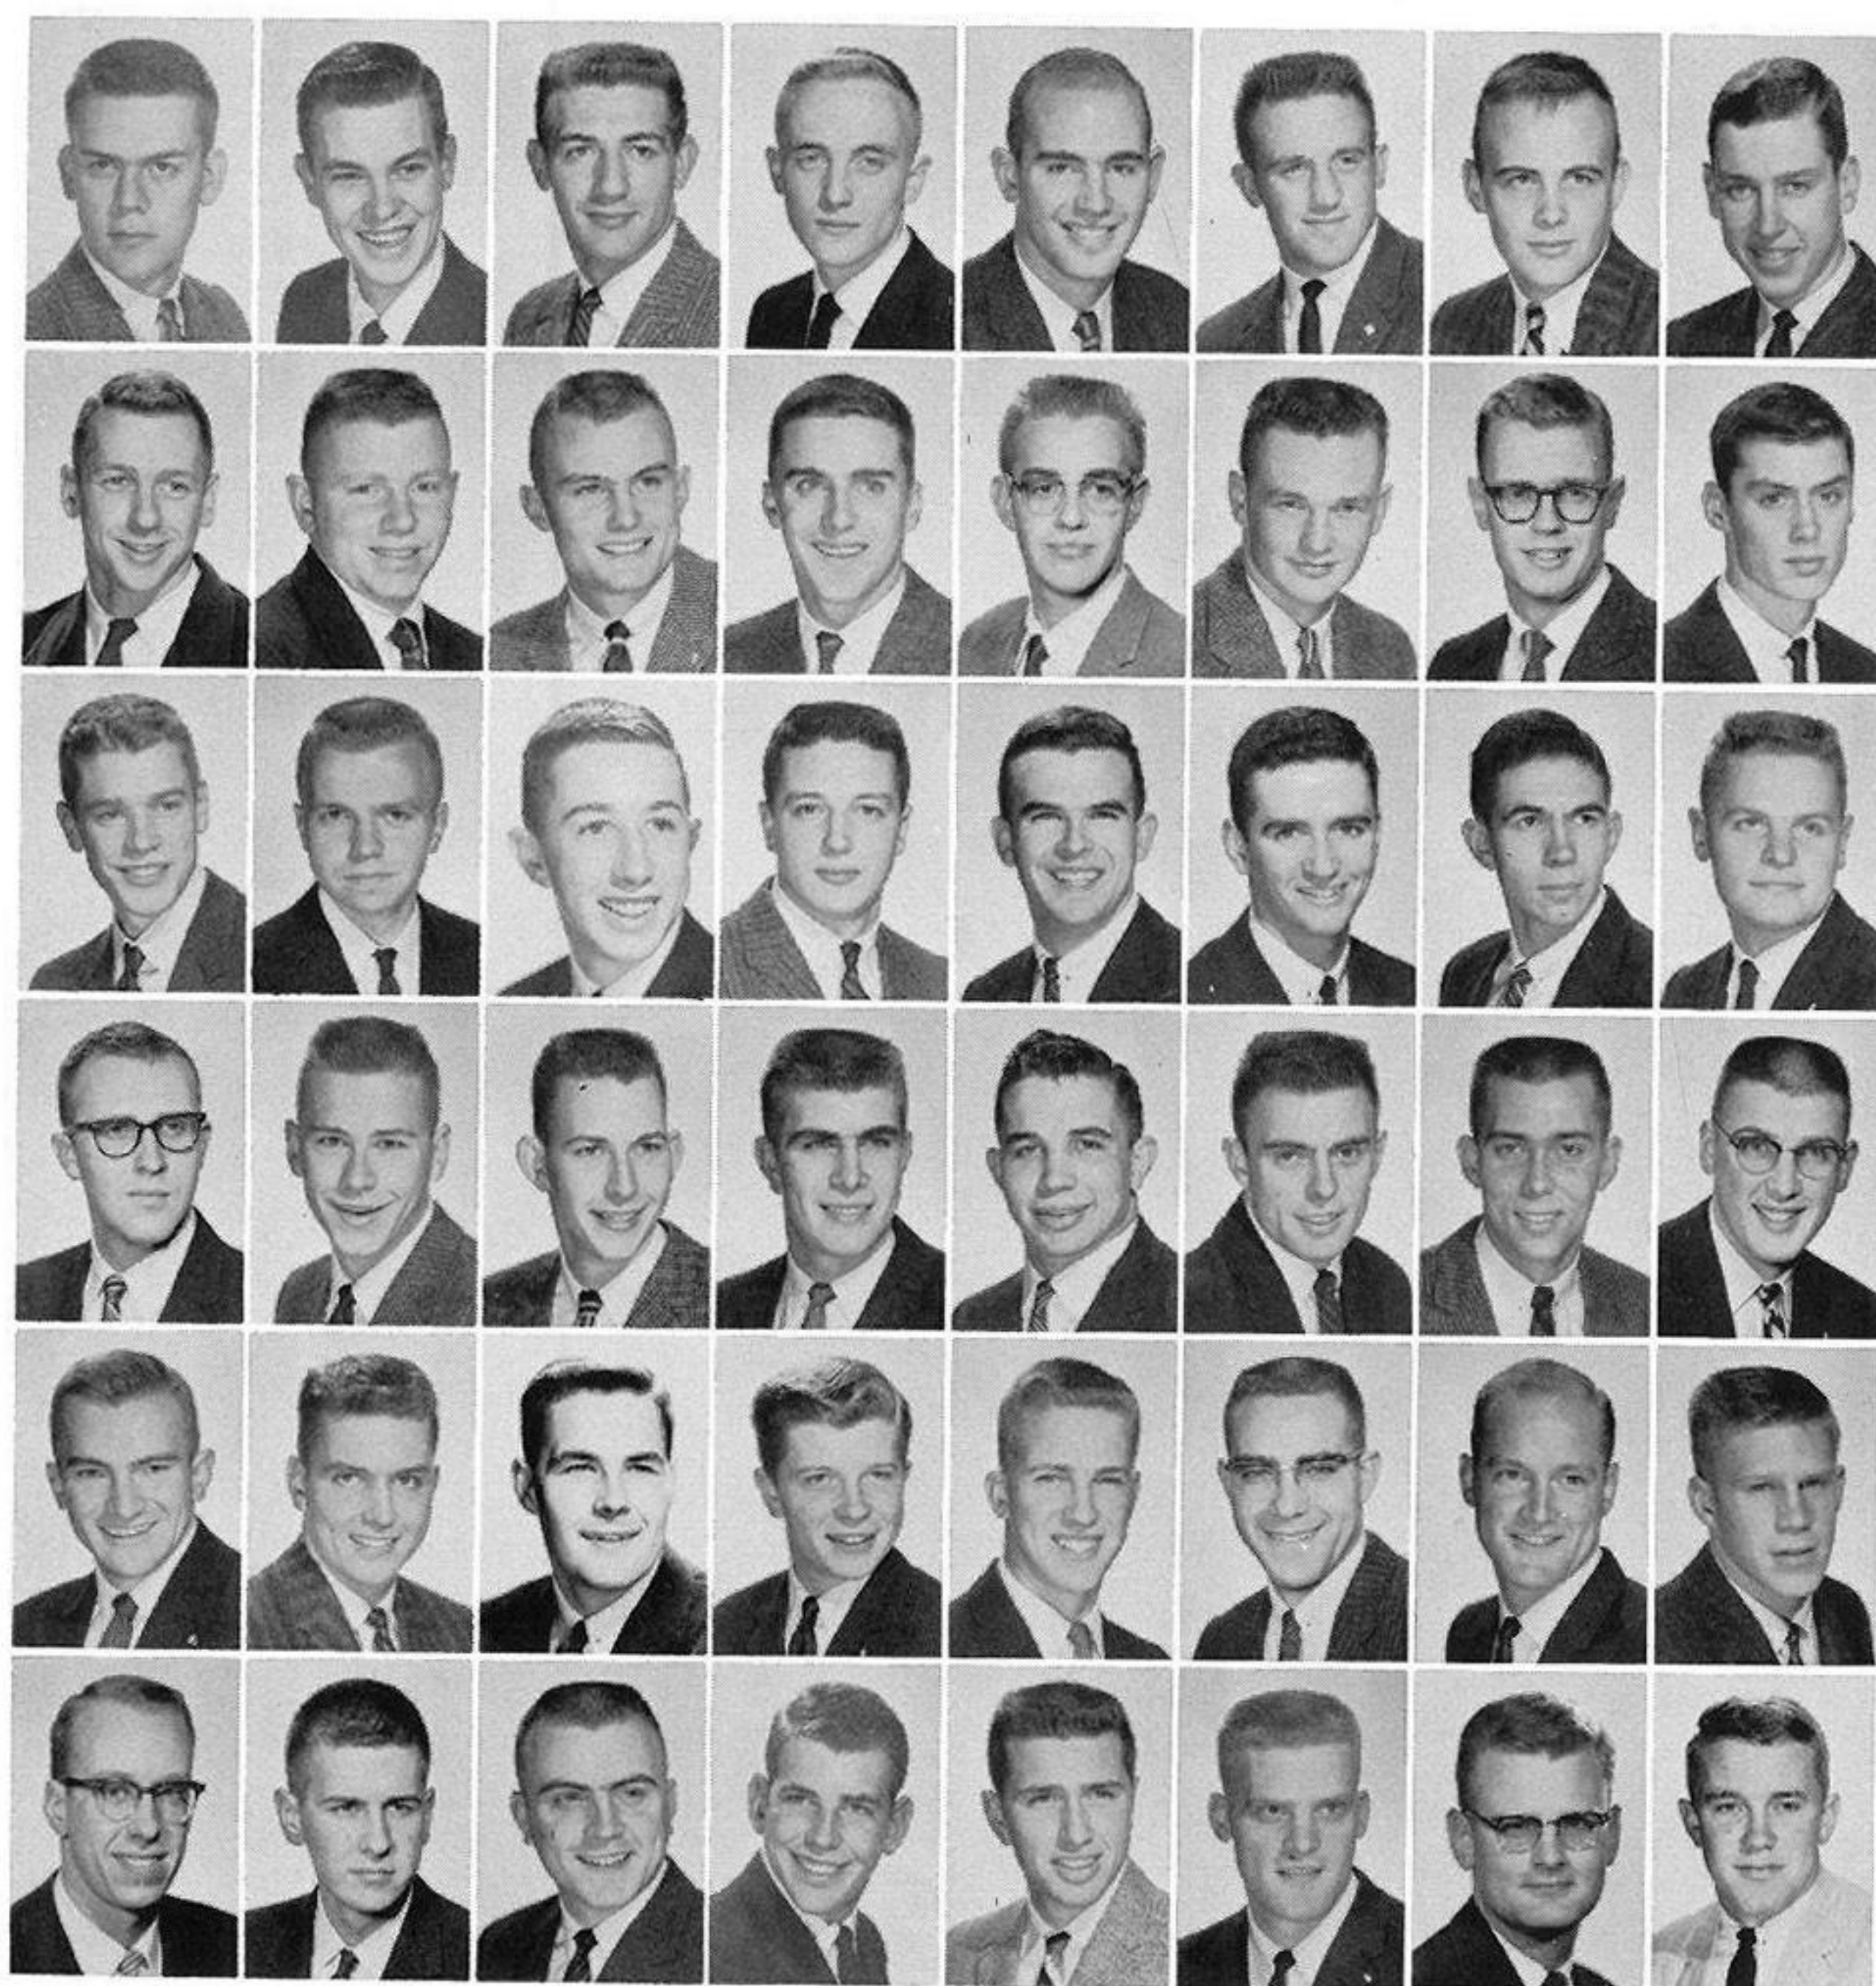

Washington Alpha of Phi Delta Theta has again compiled a record of outstanding achievements and honors during the past year. Scholastically, we placed among the top five fraternities and were awarded the Sigma Chi Scholarship trophy.

Phi Delta Theta provided many leaders on campus which included the ASUW president, AMS treasurer, Purple Shield vice president and treasurer and Engineering Council president. Many brothers were members of Oval Club, Bachelors' Club and activity and scholastic honoraries.

Athletically, this were well represented in both freshman and varsity sports. Our very active intramural program netted us many intramural trophies.

The Winter Formal highlighted our social program which included exchanges, firesides, the Pajama Dance, the Miami Triad, the Bowery Brawl and the Week-End House Party.

The combination of high scholarship, an active sports program, and an active social program helped to make this an outstanding and well-rounded year for Phi Delta Theta.

Again this year Phi Kappa Psi came through with outstanding activities, social functions, and maintained exceptional brotherhood—the goal in fraternity life. Phi Psis sang with the Alpha Delta Pis in Songfest for which we received many plaudits.

Activity wise there were Phi Psis in Sun Dodgers, Phi Omicron Sigma, Purple Shield, Oval Club, Program Panel and many others, not excluding athletics.

Of course our outstanding pledge class speaks for itself. Social wise the Pledge Dance, Hawaiian Party, Winter Informal, and Spring Formal, to name a few, liberally sprinkled with the many exchanges, pinnings and engagements, all served to maintain Phi Psi's position as a top ranking house on campus.

ATO's Tom Bonsquet, Dick Pederson, Orv Stickel, John Horn, Bill Edgar, and Larry Wilhelmsen relax in the chapter house.

The school year at Tau Temple began with the usual influx of neophyte "hairy-chested-men." Regardless of mental torture, house work, and other physical stresses, the ATO pledges soon found themselves going the way of all brothers. They participated in HUB activities and Husky sports, enjoyed social life, displayed scholastic endeavor, joined in traditions—factors which make Gamma Pi the well-rounded chapter it is.

The house won and participated in many campus activities; including Homecoming, a first place in Sophomore Carnival, a third place in the Mr. Formal contest, parties with Kappa and Theta sororities for Chinese Auction, and first place in the Ugliest Man contest—with some welcome help from the Tri-Delts.

Well represented in Husky sports, Taus played football, volleyball, baseball, ran track, rowed on crew, swam, skied, wrestled, bowled, and participated in all phases of the intramural program. We are also found in Purple Shield, Sun Dodgers, Oval Club, Bachelors' Club, and various scholastic honoraries.

As the 1958-1959 school year became history here at Washington, so, too, did the fifty-eighth year of Beta on the Husky campus. Into the chapter album went some great memories along with enviable records in all areas of college life.

Scholastic achievement is the highest aim of the Fraternity, but by no means the only one. The year was marked with many enjoyable social activities, including the pledge dance, pajama dance, winter formal, thug dance, Miami Triad, and numerous firesides, serenades, and exchanges. Campus activities found the Betas in both scholastic and activity honoraries, as well as on the Daily staff and on many ASUW and AMS committees. Betas also performed on nearly every varsity team, and various intramural teams helped defend past championships and capture new "hardware" for the den.

No matter how diversified their interests may be, the men of Beta Omega are strongly bound together by the cardinal principal of the fraternity—unity.

Beta officers Marc Raichle, Bob McDonald, Jay Smalling, Darryl Botten, Lee Walker and Ben Pearson jumped on the "bandwagon" for their successful freshman class president candidate.

ACACIA

Founded at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, in 1904.

Washington chapter established in 1910.

46 national chapters.

5004 17th N.E.

The "Men of Acacia" bid farewell to another successful year of activities and fun. Operating on the fundamentals of Freemasonry we have made good use of our motto, "human service," to guide our steps in these endeavors.

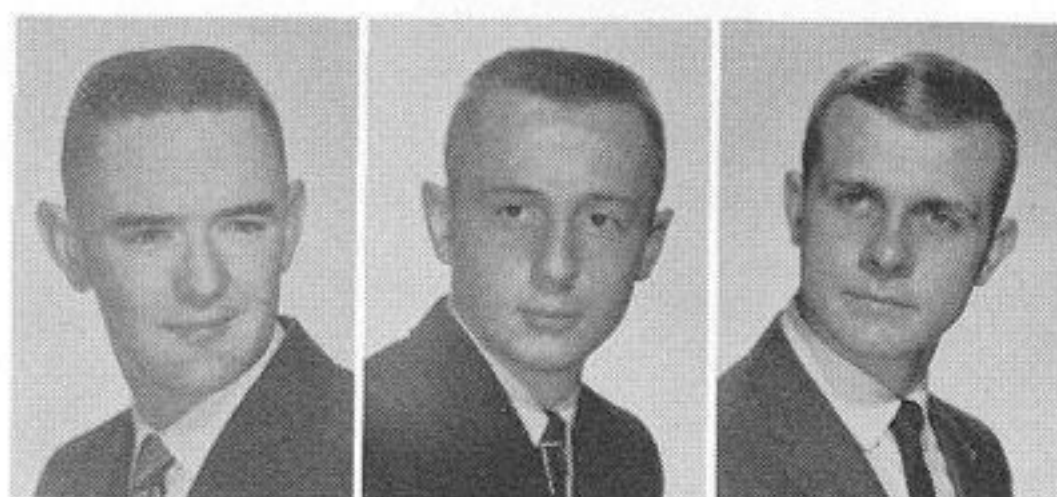

To round out college life, we have taken part in many activities. Socially we had our share of exchanges, firesides, and stag parties. There were the big dances each quarter: the Pledge Dance, the "Nite on the Nile," and the Spring Formal.

On campus we had representation on HUB, IFC and YMCA committees, honoraries, frosh sports, and intramural sports.

Inter-chapter and national fraternity functions provided Washington Chapter of Acacia an opportunity to become better acquainted with Acacians throughout the United States. Our traditional inter-chapter football game with WSC allowed the roving trophy to travel to Pullman. The national conclave gave us a chance to help formulate national policies and to let everybody know that Washington is now "next" to the largest state in the Union.

A finish in the top ten in scholarship did a fine job of rounding out the successful year of 1958-1959.

ALPHA KAPPA LAMBDA

1804 E. 50th

AKL is unique among the fraternities on this campus in that it seeks to be a brotherhood of men vitally interested in the principles of Christianity.

The fall quarter of 1958 started off with a bang. Formal Rush and Work Week kept us busy right up to the start of classes. It netted us a fine pledge class which was a source of much enthusiasm.

Our social activities were well planned during the school year with many exchanges, firesides, and parties. The fall quarter Ball was sponsored by the fall pledge class, while the spring quarter was climaxed with a spring Formal.

Intramural sports gained great favor with active participation in nearly all the events for the whole year. Snow and water skiing in their appropriate season were also popular.

In all, this year was one of great progress and much fun and we expect next year to be better.

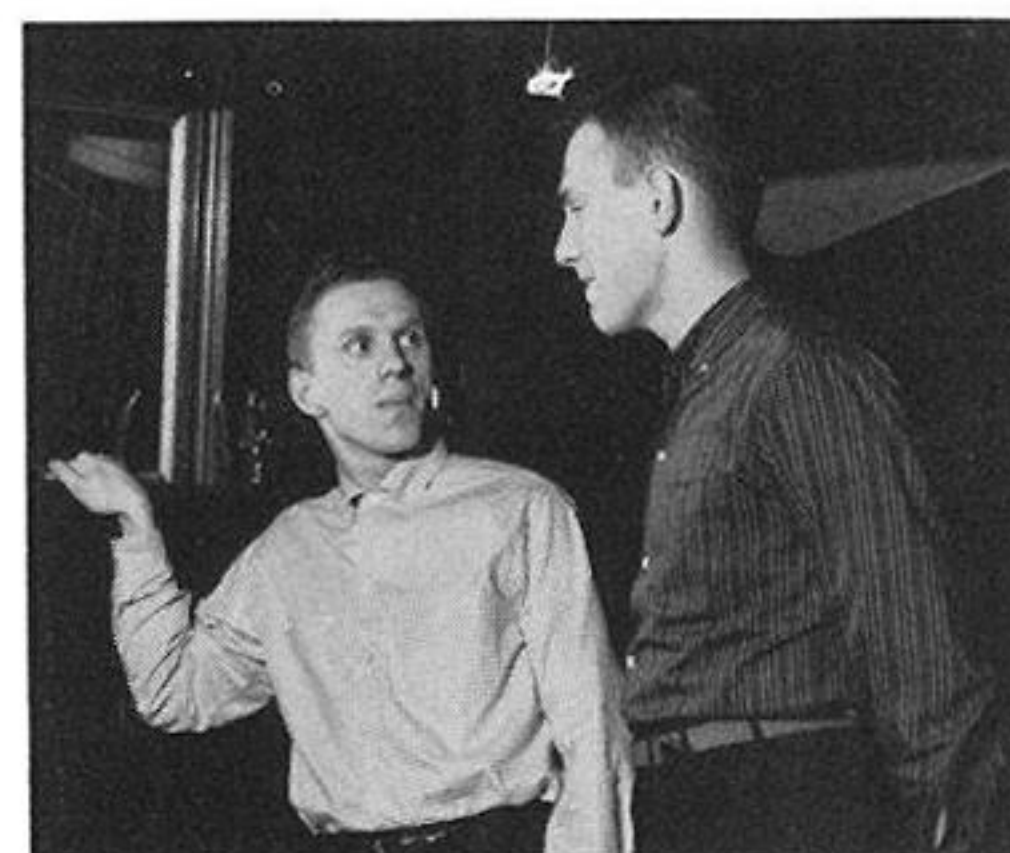

Founded at the University of California, Berkeley, California, in 1914.

Theta chapter established in 1929.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

2106 E. 47th

Founded at Hamilton College, New York, in 1832.

Washington chapter established in 1921.

35 national chapters.

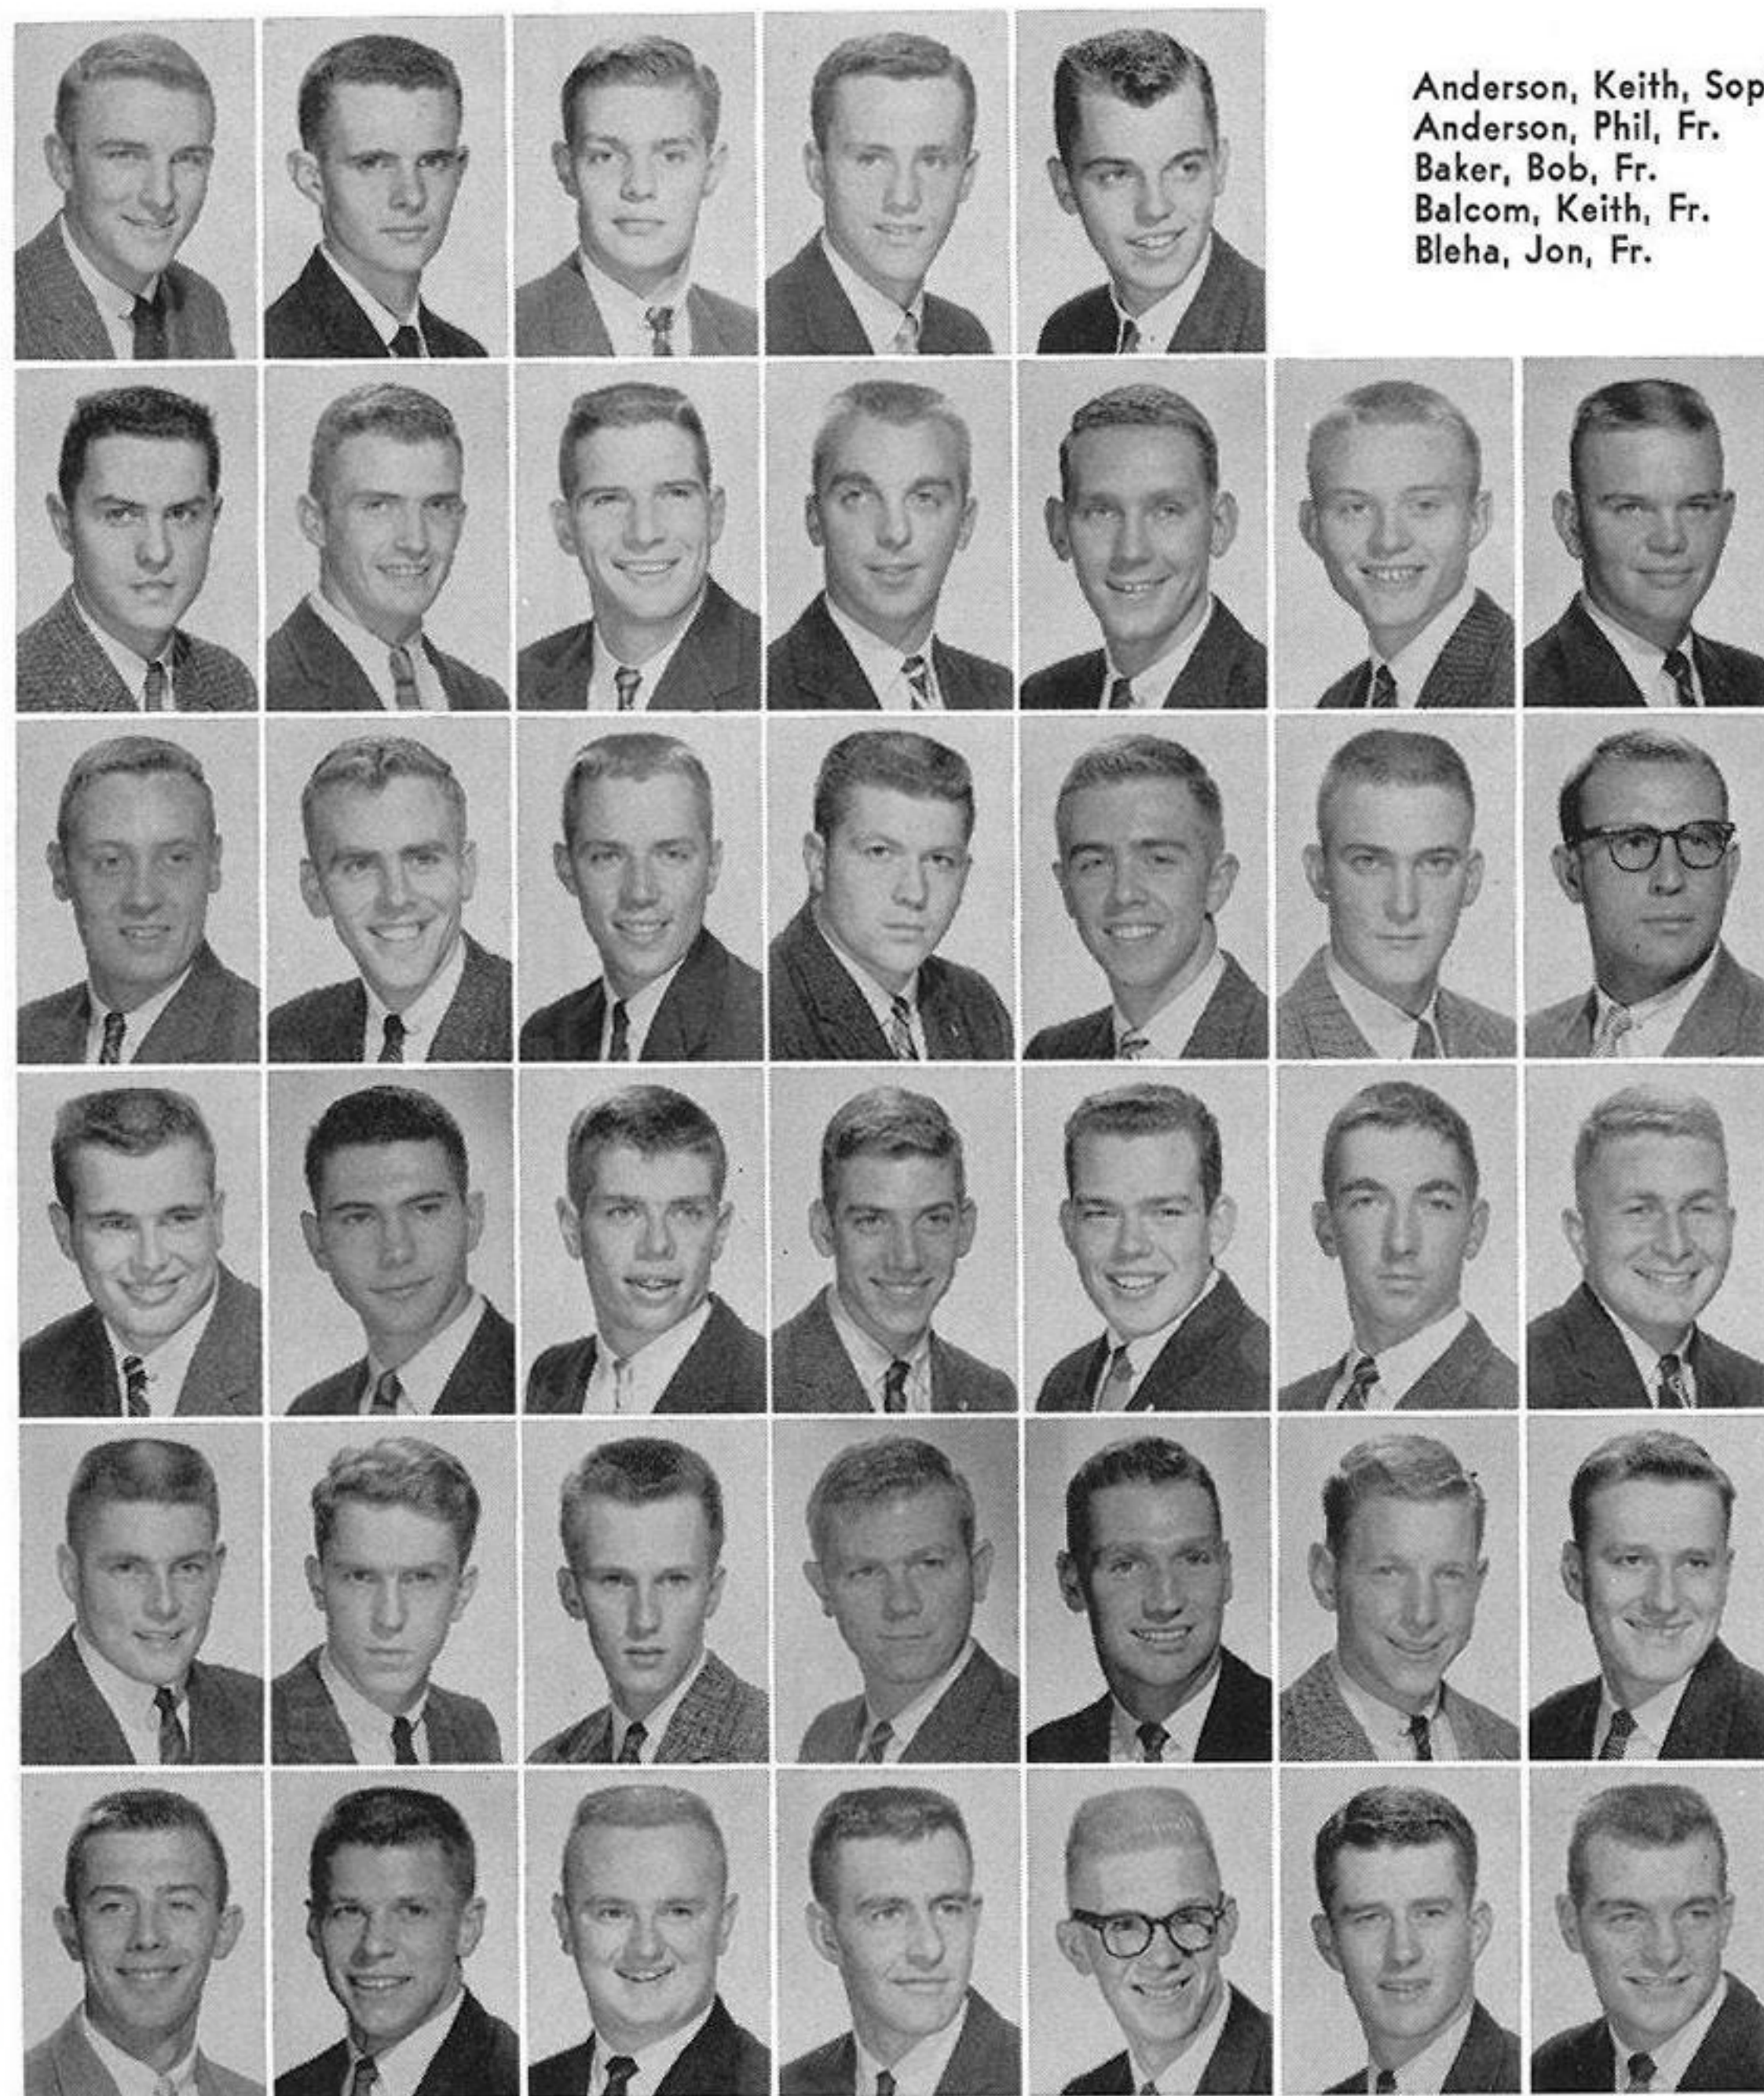

As the year 1958-1959 comes to an end the Alpha Deltas of the Washington Chapter have established another successful year in University activities. Maintaining our outstanding record of scholastic achievement, the house grade point average again rated high among that of the top ten fraternities.

The Alpha Deltas also carried on a first-class social program. Fall quarter was highlighted by the pledge dance and traditional weekend exchange with the British Columbia chapter, winter quarter by the Formal and the Winter Houseparty up on Snoqualmie Pass. Spring quarter we ended the year with the Spring Houseparty on the Oregon coast.

Representatives on Purple Shield, Oval Club, and Fir Tree were evidence of Alpha Deltas' participation in ASUW and AMS activities. The AMS vice president and Fir Tree president and numerous club officers were Alpha Deltas.

Several ADs won their Big W's in football, as well as varsity letters in crew, track, skiing, and swimming. The freshman class had many numeral winners.

Again this year, Alpha Delta Phi lived up to its motto: "Manus Multae Cor Unum"—Many Hands, One Heart.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI

The men of the friendliest fraternity at Washington smiled proudly as their "Old Plantation" filled with one of the largest and best pledge classes on campus, then they went forth through the big white columns to uphold their name in all parts of University life.

They ran, rowed, and skied to frosh and varsity letters. They headed Nickel Hop, worked on Model U.N. and several other school activities. They made scholastic honoraries and spent long nights pulling grades up. They mass migrated to the Homecoming Dance, feted the pledges at the Tennis Club, bailed their friends out after the famous Barn Dance, wore red silk jackets to the Formal, and had so many other great times.

Now they look back on their happy, hectic year and wish that autumn would come sooner so that they might again be back with their 75 brothers at Alpha Sigma Phi.

Kappa Sigma officers Lee Baxton, John Engerson, Walt Vaux and Dave Hendrickson relive the year's activities with the aid of the chapter scrapbook.

Beta Psi chapter of Kappa Sigma started off the year 1958-1959 with a bang! We had an exchange with a Sorority. Also included in our social calendar was our Miss America judged Stardust Queen Contest, Firesides, Pledge Dance, Costume Dance, Tavern Dance, Week-End House Party, and numerous little blasts. Winter quarter we studied and brought our scholastic standing up to 38th on campus.

Representation in IFC, honoraries too numerous to mention, Scabbard and Blade, Sun Dodgers, OA, ROTC, Quad Bod Gazers Society, and The Mickey Mouse Fan

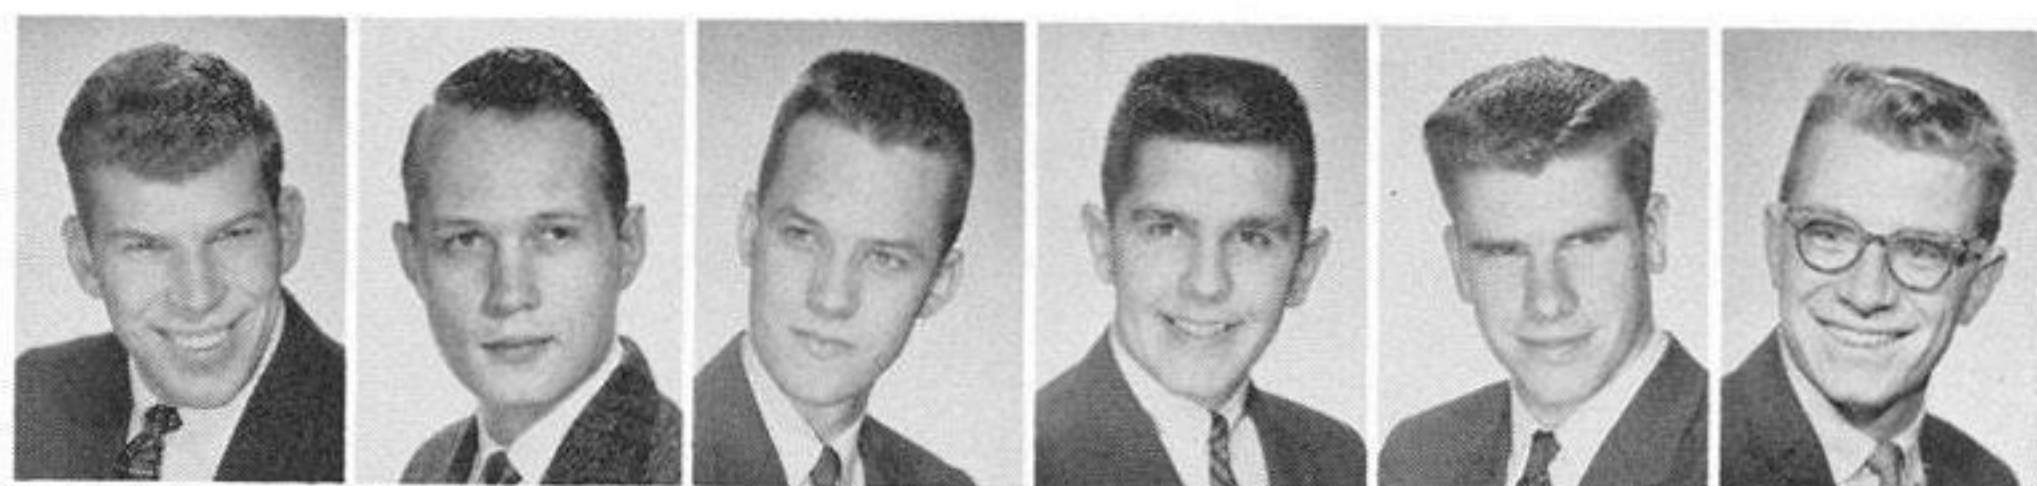

Club, show the K Sigs participation in ASUW activities.

Strap-wise we had men in Varsity tennis, golf, track, crew, ping-pong, billiards, not to mention our keg rolling champ.

In intramurals we took second in volleyball, wrestling, and boxing, due to the fact that the other teams showed up.

Seriously speaking, enthusiasm at the Kappa Sigma Club is at an all time high—Social, Scholastic, and Athletic-wise, along with the prospect of a new chapter house. So there truly exists a spirit of brotherhood here, our home away from home.

The Washington Chapter of Delta Chi celebrated half a century on the University campus this year, determined to make the 1958-1959 school year the best in the chapter's outstanding history. Rush was the first item on the chapter's crowded agenda. Rush was successful with Delta Chi welcoming 25 new pledges.

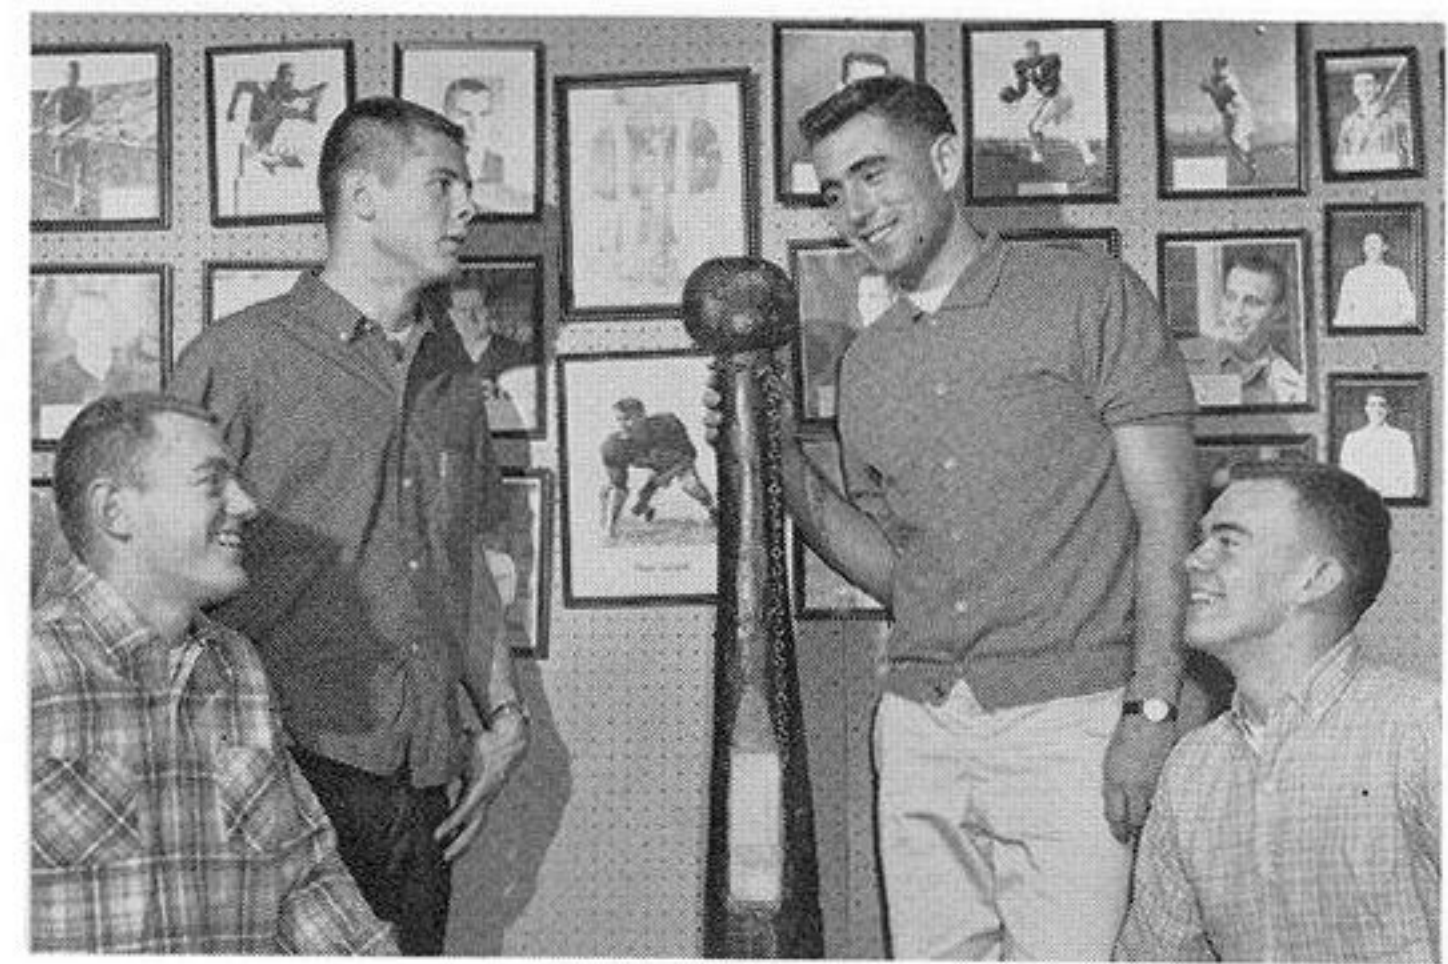

With the pledges providing much of the spirit, the chapter girded for the challenge of the new year. First came Homecoming, and the Delta Chi sign was good for a trophy. Intramurals, exchanges, parties, dances, studies . . . the year went by rapidly. During the year Delta Chi was represented in athletics, campus politics, and all the facets of campus life with a great deal of success. As spring came on, the chapter warmed up its collective vocal chords and joined with the Tri Delts to defend last year's Songfest trophy. And with spring came the completion of the plans for the chapter's new swimming pool . . . slated to be the first on campus. And, oh yes . . . the parties! The Winter Formal, the hilarious Delta She, the Spring Houseparty, and all the informal get-togethers served to break the study routine. But the studies didn't take a back seat. The year ended with the chapter ranking well above the all-fraternity scholastic average. As the year drew to a close the members' only wish was that the next fifty years should be as great as the last fifty.

Fijis are leaders. This year's outstanding list of Phi Gam accomplishments reveals our intent as University students to fulfill an obligation of service to Washington.

Fijimen are found in every phase of University activity. In scholarship, Phi Gamma Delta remained second highest among the larger houses, fourth among all fraternities. For the third consecutive year Fijis have retained the coveted "Big Stick," the award presented for having the greatest number of varsity letter-winners.

Student activities were equally well-saturated with a host of Phi Gams. Fijis were officers of: Sundodgers, Oval Club, AMS, Business honorary, Journalism honorary, Big "W" Club, Management Club, Scabbard and Blade, English Club, and Husky Swim Club. In addition, Phi Gams were members of Purple Shield, a multitude of ASUW and class committees, Managerial Council, Bachelors Club, Daily staff, KUOW and KCTS-TV staffs, and Pershing Rifles. Oval Club named five Fijis as new members.

An agenda of firesides, the Formal, the Grass Skirt, and several "unique" functions built an unsurpassed social program. Socially too, the Mark V Quartet entertained throughout Seattle on radio and TV, at night clubs and banquets. A busy year of hard work, of fun, of serious and casual moments has produced a group of men respected, as they are at every year's end, as fine individuals. Yes, Fijis are leaders!

DELTA KAPPA EPSILON

For the 51st year at the University of Washington, the DEKES have collected a full year of scholastic, athletic and social activities. The freshman class, 32 inspired young men, again packed the "White House" on 21st; all contributing even more to the DEKE scene. All are working hard to maintain the DEKE's position of 2nd on campus scholastically—for which we received the Sigma Chi scholarship award, along with the IFC Mother's Club award. DEKES, highly active in HUB activities, held offices in ASUW and AMS. The usual participation in committees was bolstered even more by the pledge class of '62. Along with the president of Purple Shield, a DEKE, our men were represented in Bachelors' Club and Sun Dodgers. The house again had men in virtually every phase of athletics, both varsity and intramural. In addition to other letter and Big "W" winners, DEKE John Sayre stroked the crew at Henley and Moscow.

Socially, the DEKE calendar was unsurpassed. The "Farmer's Fling," our informal, was a well plowed success. The annual Christmas sing with the Gamma Phis at a local hospital, plus the Pledge dance, Eternal Triad, weekend houseparty, and formal in spring quarter, all kept spirit moon high. Added thrust was amply supplied by dollar parties and exchanges.

Phi Kappa Tau's Loren Gilbertson, Ned Lumpkin, Dick LeMaster and Don Ruckman take the pause that refreshes at the chapter house bar.

For the Alpha Pi Chapter of Phi Kappa Tau, the year 1958-1959 was one of the outstanding achievements. Socially, the year was a very enjoyable one, accentuated with a Casino Party, a New Year's Eve Party, two Pajama Dances, and of course, many exchanges. The highlight of the year was the Red Carnation Ball, our annual spring formal.

Phi Taus were active as usual on campus this year. We were represented in numerous campus organizations and honoraries including Phi Beta Kappa, Compass and Chart, Scabbard and Blade, Pershing Rifles, and the Big "W." Phi Tau won the Nickel Hop trophy for having the best participation among the organized houses.

Scholastically, Phi Tau retained its coveted niche (6th among all fraternities in G.P.A.) in the all-fraternity rating by encouraging every active and pledge to do his very best academically. A Phi Tau realizes that he is at the University essentially to study.

For the thirty-sixth time in as many years on campus, the Phi Sigs of Lambda Deuteron bounced back from a short summer and a long Work Week to hit the hub of the social wheel again, on which rides the annual array of festivities here at "The Friendliest House on Campus."

A championship on the intramural league gridiron and a delegate of keggers to the bowling semi-finals wrote the initial lines to our role on the sporting scene, while a roaring Pledge Dance, Pajama Dance, successful campus-renowned Moonlight Girl Contest and Formal, and Spring cruise took up the slack on the fun front.

Our men placed high in scholarship, on the lists of seven campus honoraries, and in HUB activities.

The loss of the custodianship of "Ski, the Husky mascot," through the old boy's death was tough to take, but behind the inspiration of Gail O'Hearn, our "sweet-heart" from Alpha Chi Omega, spirits improved and we went on to make fraternity life at the old corner quarters just about the best around.

Fraternity is brotherhood. On this principle the members of Beta Beta of Pi Kappa Alpha have built a strong, lasting organization which strives for the advancement of the group and the individuals it contains.

We feel that a mature, well-rounded citizen can only be developed in an atmosphere which combines scholarship, social activity, and athletic participation together with the quality of brotherhood which makes us a fraternity.

Our fall quarter activities were highlighted by the Frontier Days Party, an annual costume event, and Jam Session, an all-campus event which attracted 800 jazz lovers, as well as numerous informal parties and exchanges.

Winter quarter included the Pledge Dance, a Casino Party, parties and exchanges and, of course, Inspiration Week.

The Dream Girl Contest and Formal occupied most of the social spotlight during Spring Quarter and an Underworld Party and a House Party completed the year.

The year was a successful one for Beta Beta—we can look back on the cooperative effort we have put forth over the past year and say, "This is brotherhood—this is a Fraternity."

As the only professional-social forestry fraternity operating on a national basis, Tau Phi Delta affords a unique opportunity for fellowship among foresters. Alumni who wear the gold spruce tree are to be found in all phases of both public and private forestry. On campus, Tau Phi Delts are leaders in the College of Forestry and the Forest Club.

This year began with the addition of one of our largest and most active pledge classes in recent times. Fall quarter was highlighted by our Homecoming dinner-dance at the Beau Brummel and the annual "Logger's Breakfast." The big event of winter quarter was the winter dance put on by our pledge class. Sunny spring found Tau Phi Delts and their dates enjoying our annual picnic. The year was rounded out by several exchanges and house parties. As always, all Forest Club events were strongly supported by Tau Phi Delts.

Social activities did not interfere with our stepped-up scholarship program however. We continued our good improvement of last year and finished well up in scholarship standings.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, founded in humble surroundings on March 9, 1856, has risen to become the greatest national fraternity in existence today, both in numbers and quality. SAE has a total of 142 national chapters, with more than 100,000 initiated members.

Washington Alpha has upheld the fraternity's traditions of strength and quality by its endeavors in many fields. SAEs can be found participating in all sports at the U. Many others have been in the various honoraries: Purple Shield, Oval Club, Fir Tree, Scabbard and Blade, Alpha Epsilon Delta, and Alpha Kappa Psi. In the way of strength, thirty-five "first-class" boys comprised this year's pledge class.

Social life was not a thing neglected by SAEs this year. Our Pajama Dance, Barn Dance, and the wonderful Winter Formal, were supplemented by exchanges, firesides, swim parties, and, of course, a house party in the Spring.

The Little Sisters of Minerva, our co-ed spirit group, worked hard to add that special woman's touch. These girls, selected for their beauty, activities, and interest in SAE, have done much to promote our fraternity and maintain its spirit. Baking cookies, washing cars, sending cards and gifts to SAEs and throwing parties for us were typical activities.

In all, 1958-1959 was a terrific year for Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and we look forward to an even better one next year.

SIGMA ALPHA MU

The 1958-1959 year saw Sigma Alpha Mu reach greater heights in campus leadership and activities.

A full calendar of events kept the fratres busy throughout the year—house dances, smokers and exchanges, topped off by our quarterly formals and spring weekend comprised the year's social program.

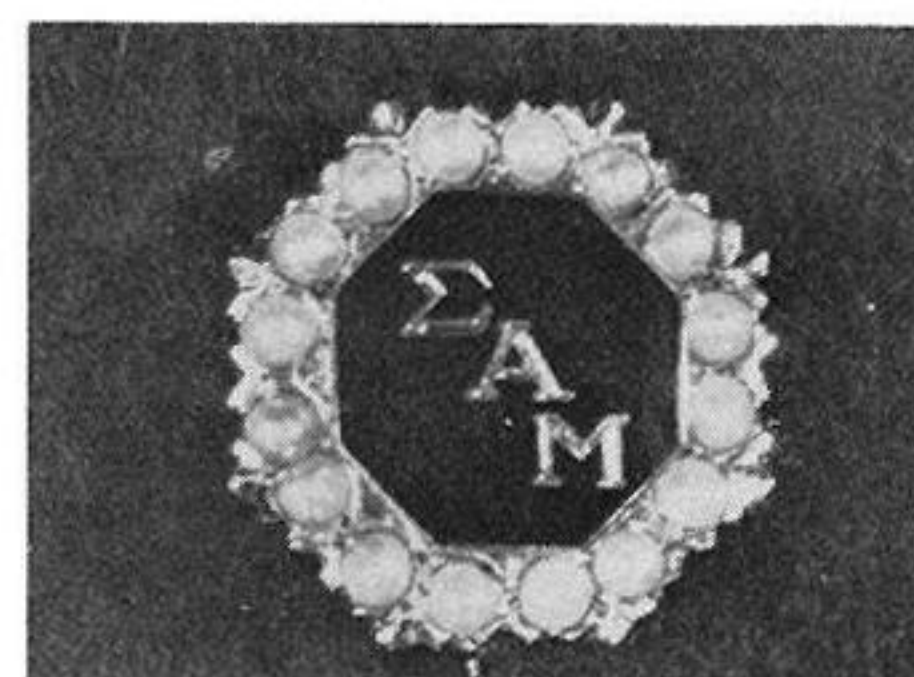

Highlight of the year was the gigantic bi-regional conclave we hosted to Sigma Alpha Mu chapter delegates from the Western States and Canada. As usual all Sammies did their best to maintain the house's high G.P.A. which has constantly placed SAM in the upper ten on campus.

Campus activities and organizations had a large representation of Sammies participating. Lenny Gross was elected to a post on the Engineering Council and Stan Israel returned to again head the class of '61's Song and Stunt act. Besides Sophomore Song and Stunt, our house was represented in Purple Shield, Oval Club, Sun Dodger, Alpha Phi Omega, Freshman Song and Stunt, varsity and frosh athletics, and various professional honoraries and campus committees.

In intramurals the Sammy teams placed high in victory and sportsmanship in all their respective leagues, spearheaded by a third place all-intramural finish in softball.

SIGMA CHI

1716 E. 45th

Upsilon Upsilon chapter of Sigma Chi had one of the best years in its 55 year history on campus. The Sigs were proud of their scholastic achievements, a top pledge class, notable campus leadership, a full social life, active participation in frosh and varsity athletics, and strong intramural teams.

Offices held by Sigs in campus activities were the freshman class vice presidency, and the IFC presidency. Along with this we had several committee chairmen and many committee members.

As usual Sigma Chis won letters and numerals in varsity and freshman sports. Our football, volleyball, and swimming teams reached the intramural finals, marking the end of a successful year in athletics.

The traditional Sweetheart Ball held at beautiful Harrison Hot Springs Resort Hotel, B. C., was the talk of the campus. The Pledge Dance, All-Sig Dance, Miami Triad Dance, and numerous exchanges, firesides, and dollar parties filled the remainder of the social calendar.

With the books, in the HUB, at parties, or on the athletic field the members of Sigma Chi by their spirit and participation have proven that their fraternity's position of prominence in the fraternity world is well deserved.

SIGMA NU

1616 E. 47th

Alexander, Thomas M., Jr.

Proud of its name and heritage, Gamma Chi of Sigma Nu, the oldest fraternity at Washington, marked its 63rd year of top position on the U. of W. campus.

Sigma Nu contributed more than its share to student government. Organization officers were: the AMS president; Junior IFC president; Big "W" Club president and secretary; Sun Dodgers president, and Bachelor's Club president.

Athletically Sigma Nu contributed Big "W" winners in all major sports, with our outstanding pledge class picking up many frosh numerals. A well rounded intramural program closed a fine year in athletics.

The Pig Dinner highlighted the 1958-1959 social life. Other top functions included the Pledge Dance, Pajama Dance, French Prom, exchanges, dollar parties and the incomparable house party.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

2003 E. 47th

Σ Φ Ε

Founded in Richmond College, Richmond, Virginia, 1901.

Washington Beta chapter established in 1922.

145 national chapters.

Washington Beta of Sigma Phi Epsilon is constantly working to maintain the chapter as a strong, well-rounded, and progressive fraternity. Our goal: To continue filling our membership with top calibre men that represent a wide range of interests, talents, and ideas.

We started out the 1958-1959 school year with this goal in mind. An energetic rush week netted 31 top pledges, the largest number in our chapter history and one of the largest on campus. This brought our membership well into the 90s, a sufficient number to permit Sig Ep participation in practically every area of college activity.

Sig Eps had a seat on Board of Control, and men active in Frosh and Varsity sports, IFC, class offices, YMCA, Daily staff, ASUW committees, religious organizations, and a large number of honoraries.

Trophy-wise, we took second place in Homecoming sign competition and won our intramural football league for the eighth straight year, as well as winning our volleyball league.

Our social calendar included a terrific Pledge Dance, the unique Fire-dance, the Black and White Dance, Winter Formal, Spring Picnic, a top exchange schedule, and numerous informal firesides.

Amidst the social whirl, our studies were not forgotten.

Sigma Phi Epsilon has made a tremendous growth over the past few years. We are looking forward to another year of the same progress that gave us the name we had during 1958-1959.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

4547 19th N.E.

This year was fantastic! Our pledge class of 25 proceeded to get into ours and everyone else's hair. They roared through the house and sororities like wounded tigers until their sneak at the Cascade Plaza. We finally funneled them into a group and set out to put "Playboy" to shame.

Our five main goals of the year were: to top the Dean's scholarship list; to win more intramural league titles and trophies; to practice a little togetherness with the local sororities; at last to occupy our new house; and in all achieve new prominence in the fraternity world.

Per usual we wasted no time—winning Homecoming Village Band; sweeping bowling and swimming titles; holding our own in ASUW, AMS, and IFC with the usual in Oval Club, Sun Dodgers, Phi Beta Kappa and other assorted activities.

Founded at Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Illinois, 1899.

Chi chapter established 1926.

TKE

The brothers stormed the Governor's Banquet to initiate the new house; and uttered various blasphemies, keeping the Seattle newspapers in news, when we lost, recovered, lost, and recovered our infamous TKE Victory Bell. The peacefulness was shattered when the troops decided to bankrupt the social fund with the Teke Totaler, Pledge Dance, Spring Formal, Sailor's Cruise, firesides, exchanges, etc., etc.

Well, group, in all it's been hectic but great! Besides having to string wires from wall to wall to hold our Teke Freak together for our last year of occupancy, we were paddled by the IFC, scorned by Panhellenic, ostracized by Charlie our cook, and still came out on top.

After a successful rush week the men of Theta Delta Chi started the year off with a "bang" by copping the first place trophy in Homecoming sign competition with their presentation of "Hubsmoke."

The social calendar, filled with numerous parties, firesides, and the annual "Singapore Sling," was highlighted by the Playboy Fall Formal and the Weekend Houseparty at Lake Chelan in the spring.

Theta Delts were also kept busy in the HUB, taking an active part in IFC, NSA, and Purple Shield. John Collins, besides being chairman of International Area, was selected, along with Chuck Anderson, as a delegate to the Model United Nations Conference at Stanford University. Two of the brothers, Art Hall and Dan Langland, were presidents of Oval Club and Alpha Phi Omega respectively.

Art Hall also received the AMS "Senior of the Year" award and was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa.

Theta Delts took an active part in intramurals, the high spot being the winning of the All-University Softball Championship.

The year of 1958 opened with a solid rushing program bringing 22 pledges into the fold of Theta Xi. The new men were immediately put to work on our Homecoming sign contraption which netted fourth place in the Men's Division. This was followed by the tootling of our "Cherman" village band. No one will ever forget their rendition of "Hilee, Hilo."

TX is not what you'd call a party house. There were no parties on finals weekends. There was a Pledge Dance in the Smith Tower, the Pajama Dance a 'la mattress, the Formal at Kianna Lodge, the Hawaiian Dance (with leis) and the Logger's Brawl to name a few. In the spring we also had a successful 6294, where the old Grads helped us to whoop it up.

Besides elbow-bending, the TX guys entered into intramural activities ranging from ping pong and football to basketball, crew, bowling and pocket-pool. When grade sheets were passed around not too many of us were like the Frenchman who had his chance and muffed it. All in all, the TX rounder was in his glory in 1959.

ZETA BETA TAU

4626 21st N.E.

Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity had another great year in 1958-1959. Members of the ZBT house were active in many campus activities and the fraternity athletic teams showed well in intramural sports.

Socially Zeta Beta Tau's calendar was loaded with the usual dance a month, numerous class parties in the homes of members, and the annual stag affair put on by the Alumni Club. The social event of the year was the annual Orchid Formal at the Olympic Hotel which featured the announcement of Zeta Beta Tau's Sweetheart for the next year.

Zeta Beta Tau took in a fine pledge class of 15 in the fall and another group of returnees from the Six Month Army program in January.

Scholastically Zeta Beta Tau improved on its already fine scholarship standing. Many ZBT's became members of honoraries in several fields.

Officers for the year were: Lee Copeland, president; Marv Levinson, vice president; Ken Katz, secretary; Jerry Mesher, treasurer, and Dave Stern, historian.

During the past year the officers and members of the Board of Trustees and Alumni Club discussed plans for expanding or building to meet the present and future needs of the growing Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity.

ZETA PSI

4703 21st N.E.

While the year 1958-1959 is washed away into the stream of time, the Phi Lambda chapter of Zeta Psi can look back on it with much satisfaction. Per usual, it was a big year, full of studies, parties, athletics, and most of all—brotherhood!

As it should be, studies were first and foremost with the Zetes. Making like junior Einsteins, the brothers racked up the grade points. However, from this noble endeavor sufficient time was taken for the raising of a few roofs. The annual Homecoming Dance started off the proceedings, followed by the Pledge Dance, the Christmas Party, the Suki-yaki Dinner, the Winter Formal, and climaxed by the hill-leveling House Party on Lake Chelan. Also included were numerous firesides and exchanges, giving deserving sorority girls the chance to meet the brothers.

The Zetes also have their share of jocks, both on the field and in the HUB. Besides those of us who captured letters in such varsity sports as baseball, basketball, and crew, everyone did his best in the intramural brawls. And numerous committees on campus were honored with a Zete among its members.

All this and much more succeeded in making this a big year, and the spirit and brotherhood so prevalent in the Zete house will make possible an even greater performance in 1959-1960.

The I.W.A. is composed of representatives from each of the four residence halls and one from Wesley House. Interhall Council is the governing body of this association.

The goal of the council is to unify some of the activities of the four halls—Spring Formal, County Fair, and Parents'

Tea, during Parents' Weekend.

Through the council independent women are kept informed about campus policies and are able to voice their opinions on such policies. The council also strives to promote good relations with other campus living groups.

In September of 1958, one hundred and twenty-five girls filled Austin Hall—ready to begin a new year. Fall quarter was ushered in with our big-little sister party, birthday party dinners, and a whirl of exchanges ranging from a slave dance to ice skating. What a sight to see a hydrogen atom, space cadets, flapper girls, and clowns, on the night of our successful Halloween costume party. Then came Thanksgiving, and a time to be very proud of our freshman girls—for they won second place in the Thanksgiving basket contest for needy families. Finals came all too soon, but before the quarter ended we all enjoyed Pixie Week and our annual Christmas party.

During Winter quarter our thoughts turned to County Fair, and that long awaited Winter Formal. Spring quarter found us working enthusiastically on Parents' Weekend, Song Fest, and the Interhall Spring Formal.

Activities were not all the girls worked for, as scholastic achievement rated high in their goals. We are very proud of our girls active in HUB and "Y" activities, and those in Sigma Epsilon Sigma, W-Key, Omicron Nu, Silver Fish, Rally Girls, Mu Phi Epsilon, and Angel Wings.

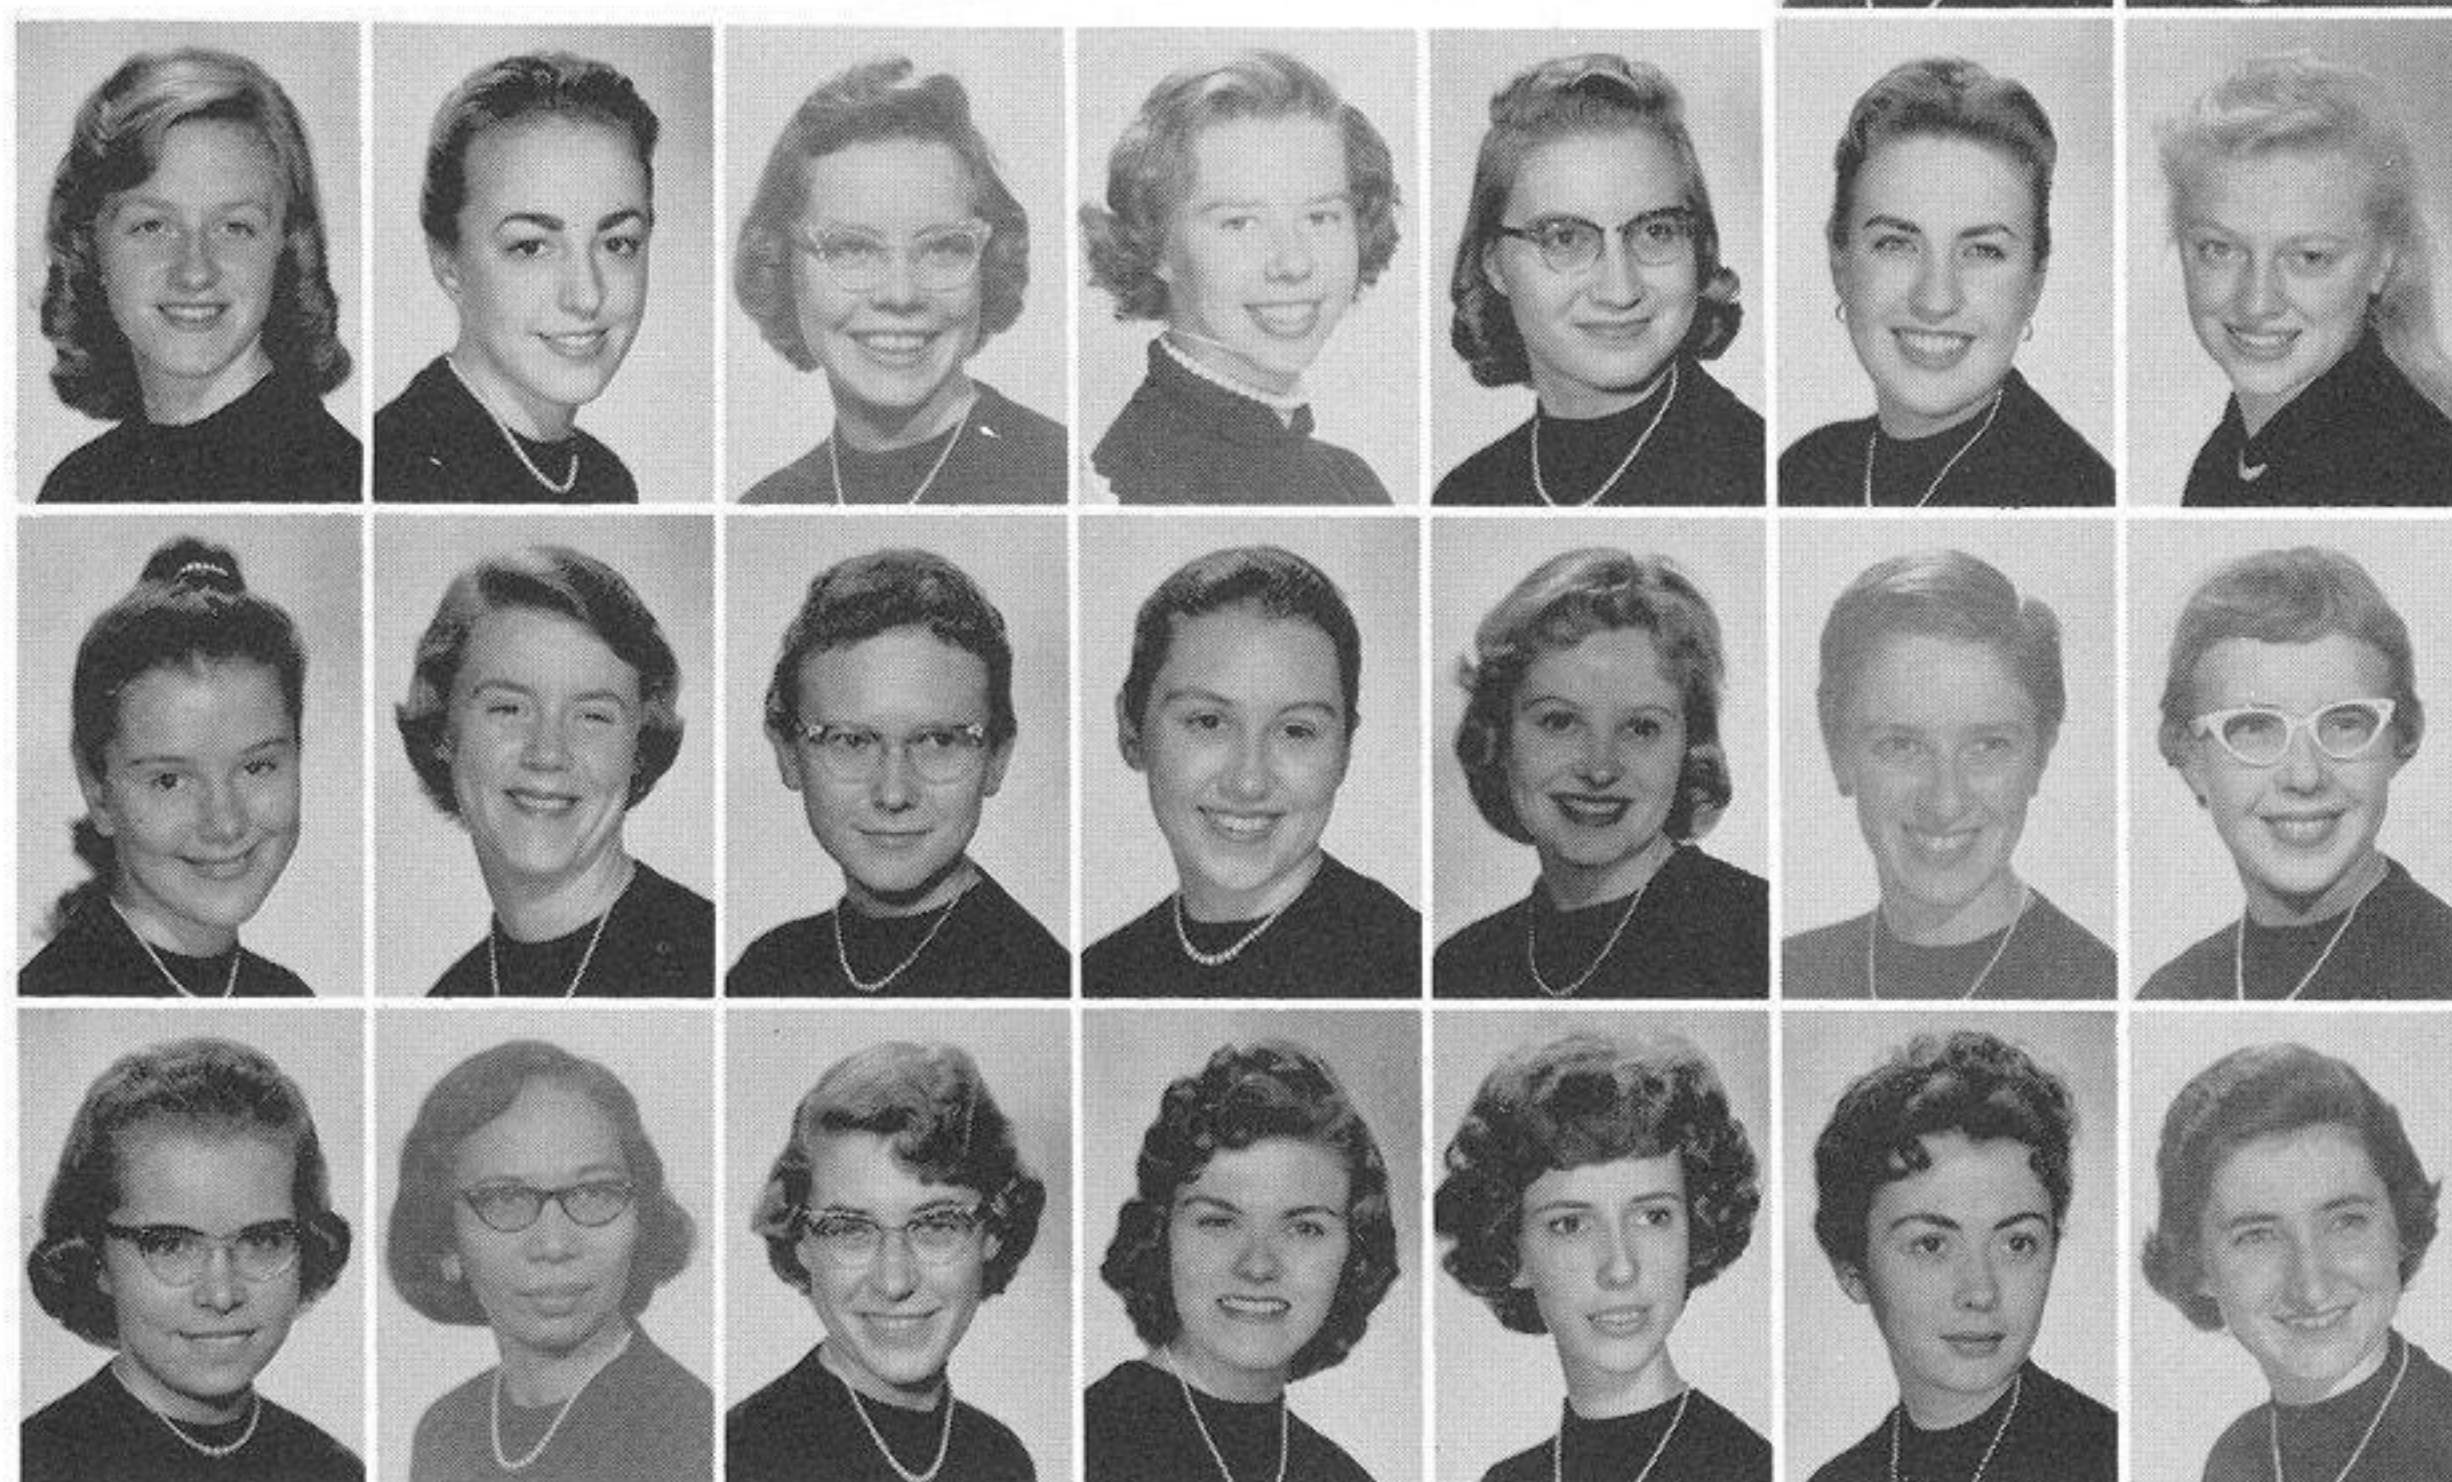

As the year closes, we all look back on the many wonderful friendships made, and agree that this year has been THE BEST EVER!

BLAINE HALL

Not a corner was bare in Blaine Hall this year with 125 girls entering in the fall. Setting the pace for an active and eventful school year, the Orientations Chairman welcomed 75 new girls as well as 50 returning from the previous year.

Among the flurry of activities in which the girls participated were the Homecoming Sign, Thanksgiving Basket, County Fair, and last, but certainly not least, Songfest. Throughout the year, the girls of Blaine combined their work with distinctions both scholastic and otherwise. Several were represented in Sigma Epsilon Sigma (Underclasswomen's honorary), Silver Fish, the AMS-AWS Scholarship Banquet, as well as many departmental honoraries.

The crowning highlight of the social year, in addition to many exchanges and pajama parties, was the enthusiastic participation in the Interhall Spring Formal and Parents' Weekend. With the advent of summer, Blaine girls look back on a year filled with both fun and fellowship.

LEARY HALL

All through the year, Leary girls held exchanges with the men's dorms—mixers, skating, pajama dances, dinners. In addition to the many house and campus activities, we were represented in Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Angel Wing, Silver Fish, Corvettes, Rally Girls, W-Key, Daily and Tyee, and in other AWS, ASUW and YWCA activities. Leary girls held the positions of Tyee editor-in-chief and 1959 IWA president.

A first-night slumber party united the hall as we prepared for the Homecoming with the Bruins and the Nickel Hop. The freshmen also started off well by taking third place in the campus Thanksgiving Basket Contest. Pixie Week preceded finals with our Christmas Banquet and tree-decorating party. Installation of new officers closed the quarter.

Winter quarter started out with County Fair—a big success. The Winter Formal followed late in February. Spring quarter was filled with our Spring Formal, Parents' Weekend and Songfest.

All the Leary girls were active this year in many functions, yet blended their independence together in harmony.

McKEE HALL

With the perennial PJ party kicking off the lineup of '58-'59 social events, the girls of McKee faced another busy year. Exchanges, campus activities, serenades, sports and, naturally, studies helped fill the collegiate calendar.

Top scholarship gained the Women's Residence Halls' scholarship tray for McKee—a third-year standing honor. McKee is represented in Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Nu, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Zeta Mu Tau, Mu Phi Epsilon and Arena.

Angel Wing, Corvettes, ASUW and YWCA committees also claimed McKee girls. The sports-minded among us tackled women's intramurals with spirit, placing second in bowling competition.

McKee provided a president and social chairman for Interhall Council and a chairman for the WRH 1958 Homecoming Sign. Climaxing a wonderful year, McKee girls enjoyed Jester's Jubilee, Sophomore Carnival, Songfest and Parents' Weekend.

Scoring high in fun and friendship, McKee bestowed the added sparkle of college life upon all its members.

The M.O.H.C. is a representative student government council to coordinate the activities of the residents of the Men's Residence Halls. Its primary purpose is to make Terry and Lander Halls more than just places to eat, sleep, and study. For a young organization in its second year of existence as such, the M.O.H.C. continued to grow in stature and become a larger portion of the all-university scene.

At the beginning of the Fall Quarter a very successful orientation banquet was held for freshmen and new students. Also during Fall Quarter the Mens' Residence Halls displayed the largest Homecoming Sign in the U.S. During Winter Quarter a Jazz Concert was held featuring some of the well known jazz bands on campus. The big event of the year was again the Winter Formal with its elaborate decorations and dancing on two levels.

Throughout the year the M.O.H.C. provides additional services to the residents such as the two television sets owned and maintained by the Council, some athletic equipment, and various items of use to each of the twelve houses for social affairs.

BAKER HOUSE

Baker, a name synonymous with top house in the dorms, came through nicely again this year with an unusual variety of activities, including sports, a Christmas Ball, the introduction of the CHAOS, a new house humor mag, and finished off with an impressive Spring cruise.

In sports, men of Baker came forth with a veritable army of championship-type teams in such sports as volleyball, bowling, basketball, softball, etc.

In the social vein, along with exchanges and firesides, the Spring cruise and the Christmas Ball were our two major functions. The Spring Cruise, held in May, rambled all over Puget Sound, stopping in the San Juans for dinner before the return trip to Lake Washington. The Christmas Ball, while not as long, was just as impressive. Bringing in half of Mercer Island for decorations, Baker men and their dates danced to the music of the "Miller's Men."

Anyway, the past year in the hallowed halls of Baker has been a complete ball; next year promises to be nothing less.

Cascade House is one of the twelve houses which make up the Men's Residence Halls of the University of Washington.

As in past years, Cascade House was again represented in the Men's Organized House Council and the Organizations Assembly. We also have had several excellent teams participating in the Intramural Sports program during the last year.

Other activities for the year included work on the homecoming sign, several exchanges, and the annual Cascade House picnic.

We, the members of Cascade House, take pride in belonging to the Men's Residence Halls.

Occupying the fourth and fifth floors of Terry Hall, Chelan House concluded one of its most active years when the classroom doors closed on the 1958-59 year. Activities for the 115 house members during the year ranged from the pleasures of social exchanges to the anxieties of donating to the annual blood drives held on campus.

Athletics also were held in high regard by house members. Chelan's football team won the Terry Hall championship for the second straight year. The house also presented strong representation in basketball, volleyball, swimming, softball, track and crew.

Among the social functions held during the year were exchanges with Blaine Hall, Leary Hall, Austin Hall and the downtown YWCA. During spring quarter, the house sponsored its annual cruise around Puget Sound, a fitting climax to the year's activities.

Despite this schedule of activities, Chelan again finished the year near the top of the house grade point ladder.

Chelan's leadership in providing many extras to its house members again made it the finest all-around living organization on campus during 1958-59.

DOTSON HOUSE

With the advent of a new school year, Dotson House was once again immersed in the activities and problems of maintaining a living group designed to offer independence, fellowship, and an environment which engendered academic growth and assimilation. The social functions of Dotson House enjoyed unusual prestige among the independent living groups. Elaborately decorated dances, skating parties, drama exchanges all contributed to this prestige. There was active participation in the intramural sports program with outstanding individuals competing in the various departments. Student government was reflected in chairmanships and committee appointments to MOHC and campus groups.

With a moment's reflection upon the achievements of Dotson House from its inception a year ago, it is easy to see advancement and a more mature understanding of the problems of group living. It makes one proud to be a member of Dotson House.

Comprising the officers of Dotson House are: standing, Larry Cox, Tom Maricich, Charlie Scanlan, Bill Wilson, Marvin Rogneby, and seated, Gerald Webberley, Byron Kolts, Tom Mehl, Dick Wells, and Rod Olsen.

The year 1958-59 was another great one for the men of Honderich—socially, athletically and scholastically. A few of the varied social events included a pajama dance, slave dance, canoeing party, skating party and a spring picnic. Members participated in intramural football, volleyball, basketball, pingpong, bowling and other sports. Competition was centered in the bridge table, chess and checker boards, and pingpong tables within the house. Studying wasn't completely forgotten. Honderich ranked above the all-University average and was represented at the annual Scholarship Banquet. With all these activities the men still found time to publish a house paper.

MacGREGOR HOUSE

MacGregor House was formed on the fifth floor of Lander Hall in 1957. It is named after a student cooperative which was in turn named after Mrs. Nell MacGregor, a past housemother. Anyone living on the fifth floor except the resident advisor is eligible for membership. The organization operates through its elected officers, committee chairmen and other members of the house who wish to participate.

Our activities during the past year included a number of exchanges, intramural sports, a singing group and the homecoming sign.

Tracing our heritage back to the McLean clan of Scotland, McLean house strove to uphold the sterling reputation of our namesake, Hector "Angus" McLean. We were honored with having 9 plaid grads and "airman" Johnson for advisor. The first men of McLean, through a house contest (first prize $1.98), chose a coat of arms and decided upon the Scotty as our mascot.

The house calendar was dotted with extracurricular activities: post-Maverick coffee and doughnut hours, a swimming party, a Halloween Pajama party, and exchanges with the lassies.

MARVICK HOUSE

Marvick House is one of the 12 houses making up the Organized Houses of the Men's Residence Halls at the University.

House meetings are held twice a month, and a house paper is published twice a month, supplementing the meetings.

During the year, 1958-1959, Marvick House took part in the MRH football competition. The House was also active in social affairs, holding a number of exchange dinners, dances, and parties each quarter. During the Blood Donation drive autumn quarter, Marvick tied Chelan House for first place among living groups in number of donations.

Marvick officers are: Jeff Graham, Alan Cain, Ben Peters, and Bing Chen.

Olympus had one of the most successful years ever in 1958-1959. The members were active in intramural athletics, scholarship, M.O.H.C. and Hub committees, and the social program.

We began the year with 133 members, our highest membership ever. The Olympuses also ranked high scholastically, with the highest average in the All-University Men's Living Group average.

The intramural program was the most active ever, with several Olympus members in every sport offered.

The social program kept our members busy meeting people. The Fall and Winter quarter informal dances were successful, as was our spring quarter picnic.

All in all it was one of the most active, enjoyable and successful years in the six year history of the House of the Gods.

RAINIER HOUSE

As another year closes, Rainier House remains, literally, the TOP independent house. Rainier's 115 members, occupying the top two floors of Terry Hall, spent the year active in many fields ranging from a diversified intramural program to swims in Frosh Pond. Rainier's social year was highlighted by its spectacular "Winter Dance" and brought to the perfect conclusion with its annual "Moonlight Cruise" on Lake Washington.

ROFCRE HOUSE

Rofcre House encompasses the seventh floor of Lander Hall. It was named after a former student co-operative house, and several members of the old co-op are living in Rofcre.

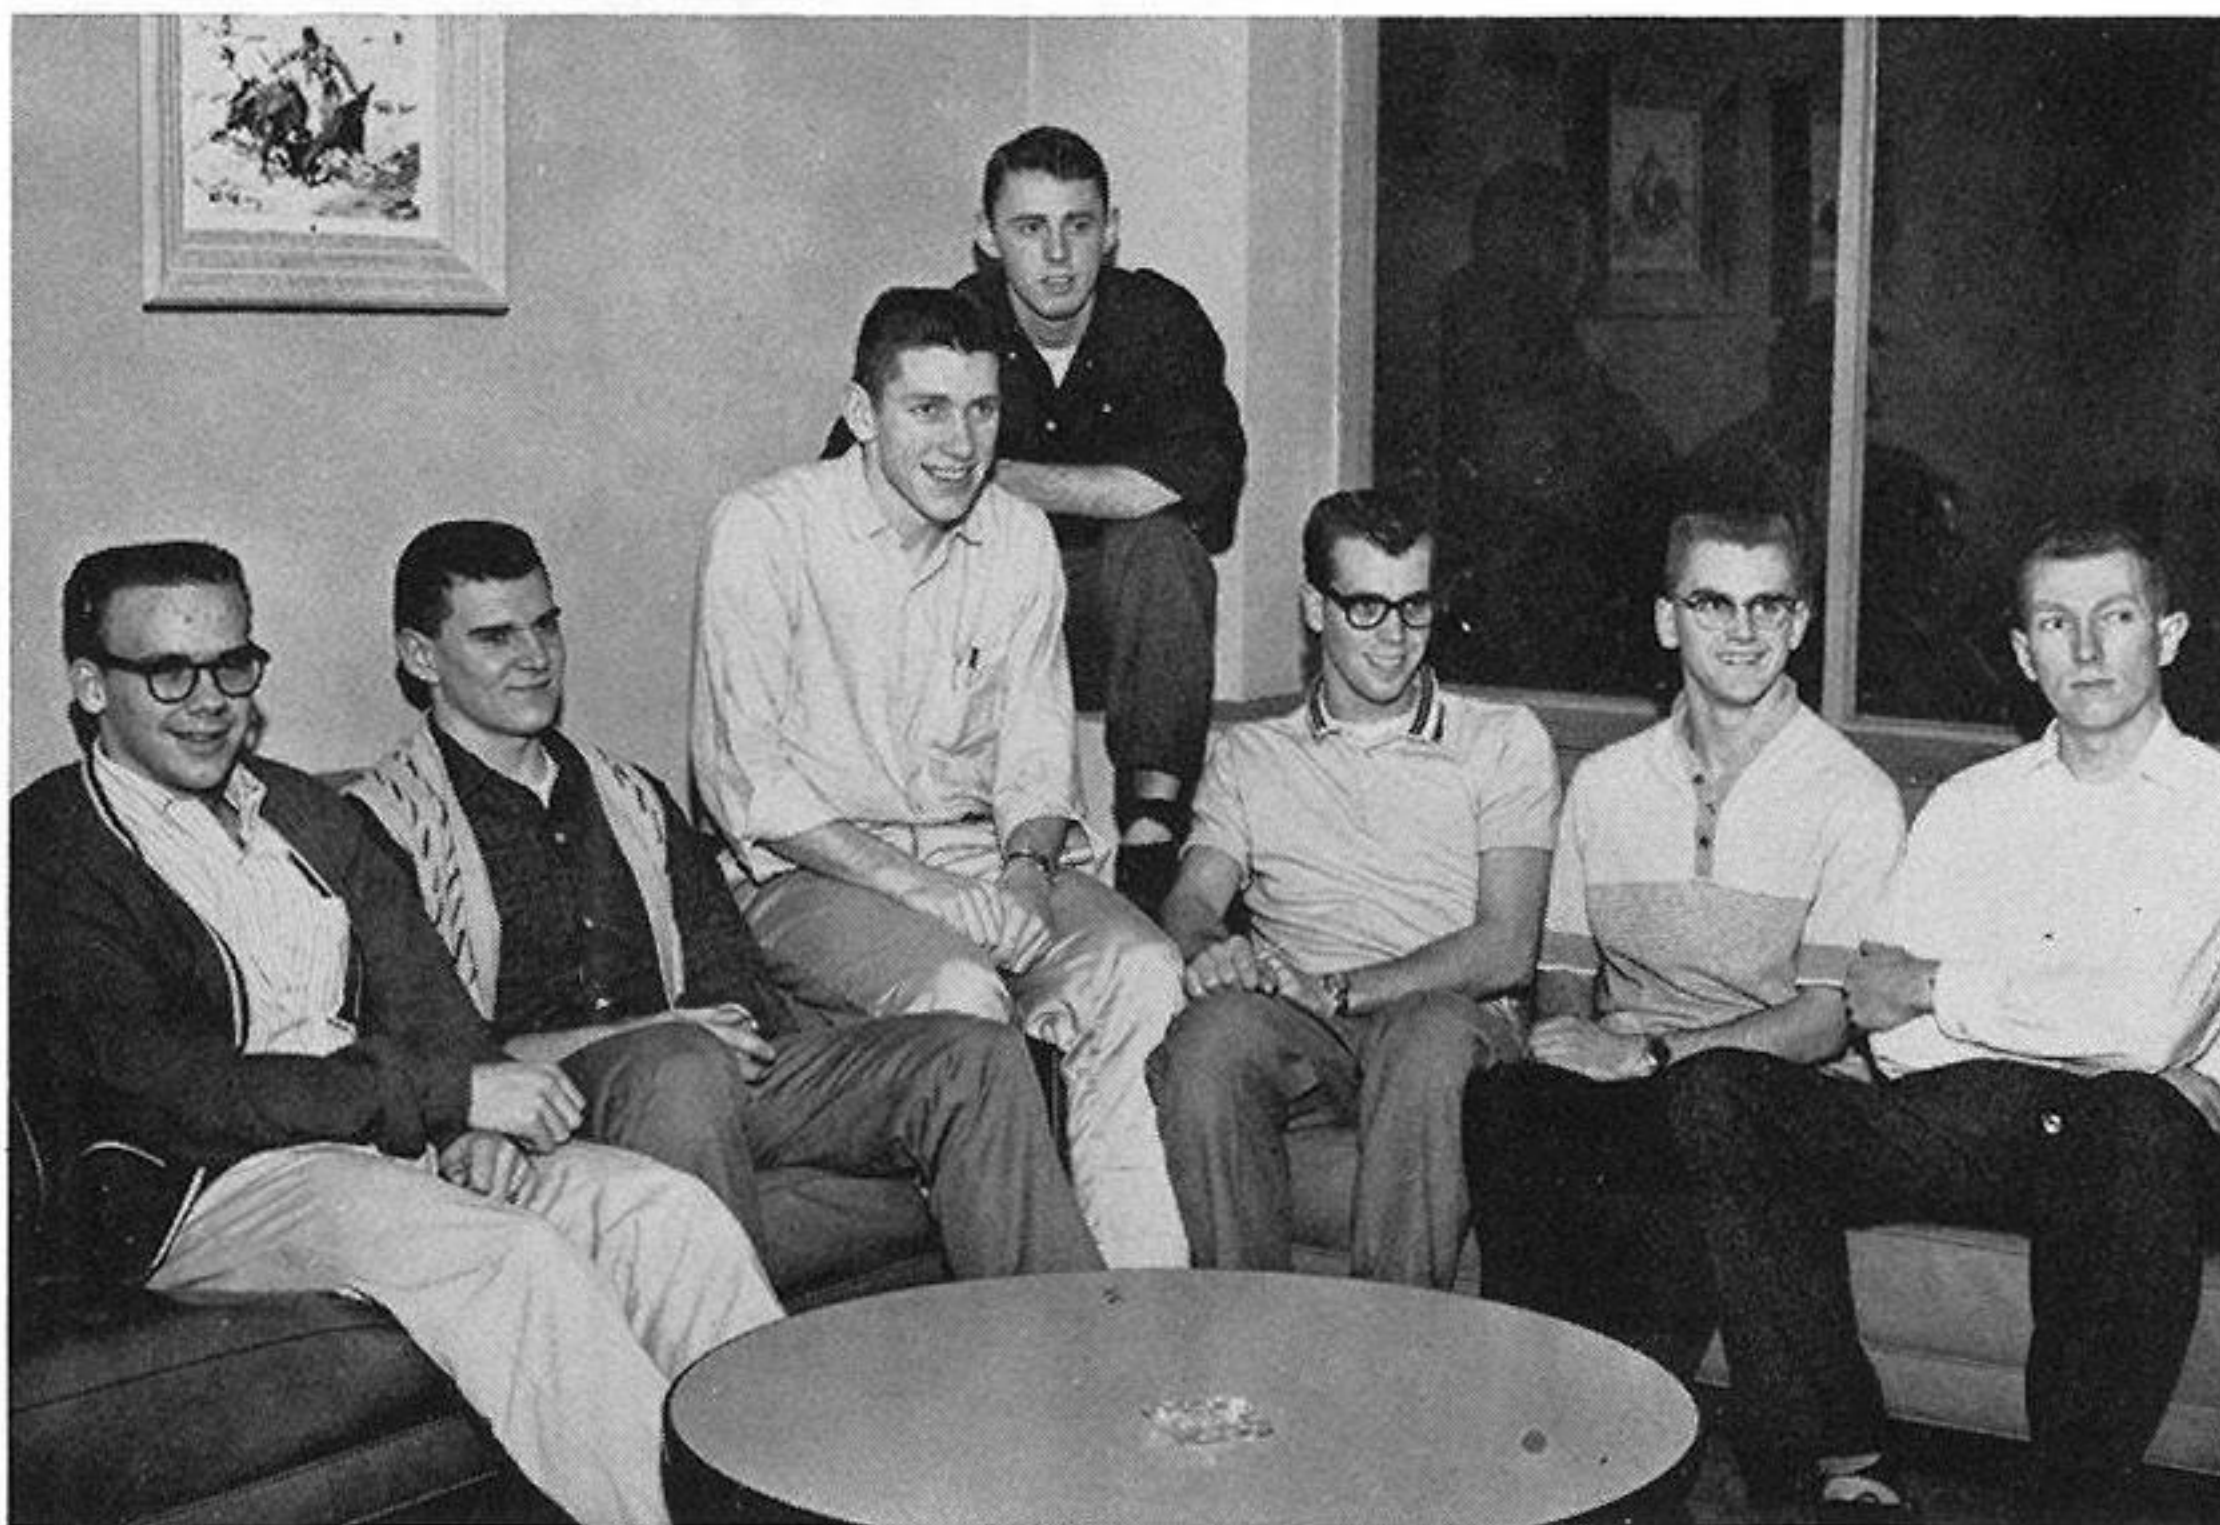

Rofcre maintained its reputation as the social activities leader of the men's dorms this year. The house participated in numerous exchanges, dances, swimming and theater parties. In addition, an exchange with University of British Columbia women was planned for Winter Quarter. House members also made a ski trip to Snoqualmie Pass and sponsored the all-dorm Spring Swing.

Rofcre's intramural volleyball team reached the quarter-finals of the all-University championships, and the flag football team finished second in its league. Strong teams also were entered in basketball, softball and several other sports.

The house this year adopted a design to be put on mugs and pins for present and future members.

SHERWOOD HOUSE

From Sherwood House, first in Lander Hall, comes the "Song of Robin Hood," as another impromptu party in the lounge celebrates another job well done—such as setting things up for the Jazz Concert and the annual Winter Formal. Internal conflict was resolved; high spirits and cooperation were established—much to the chagrin of the other living groups in the regions above.

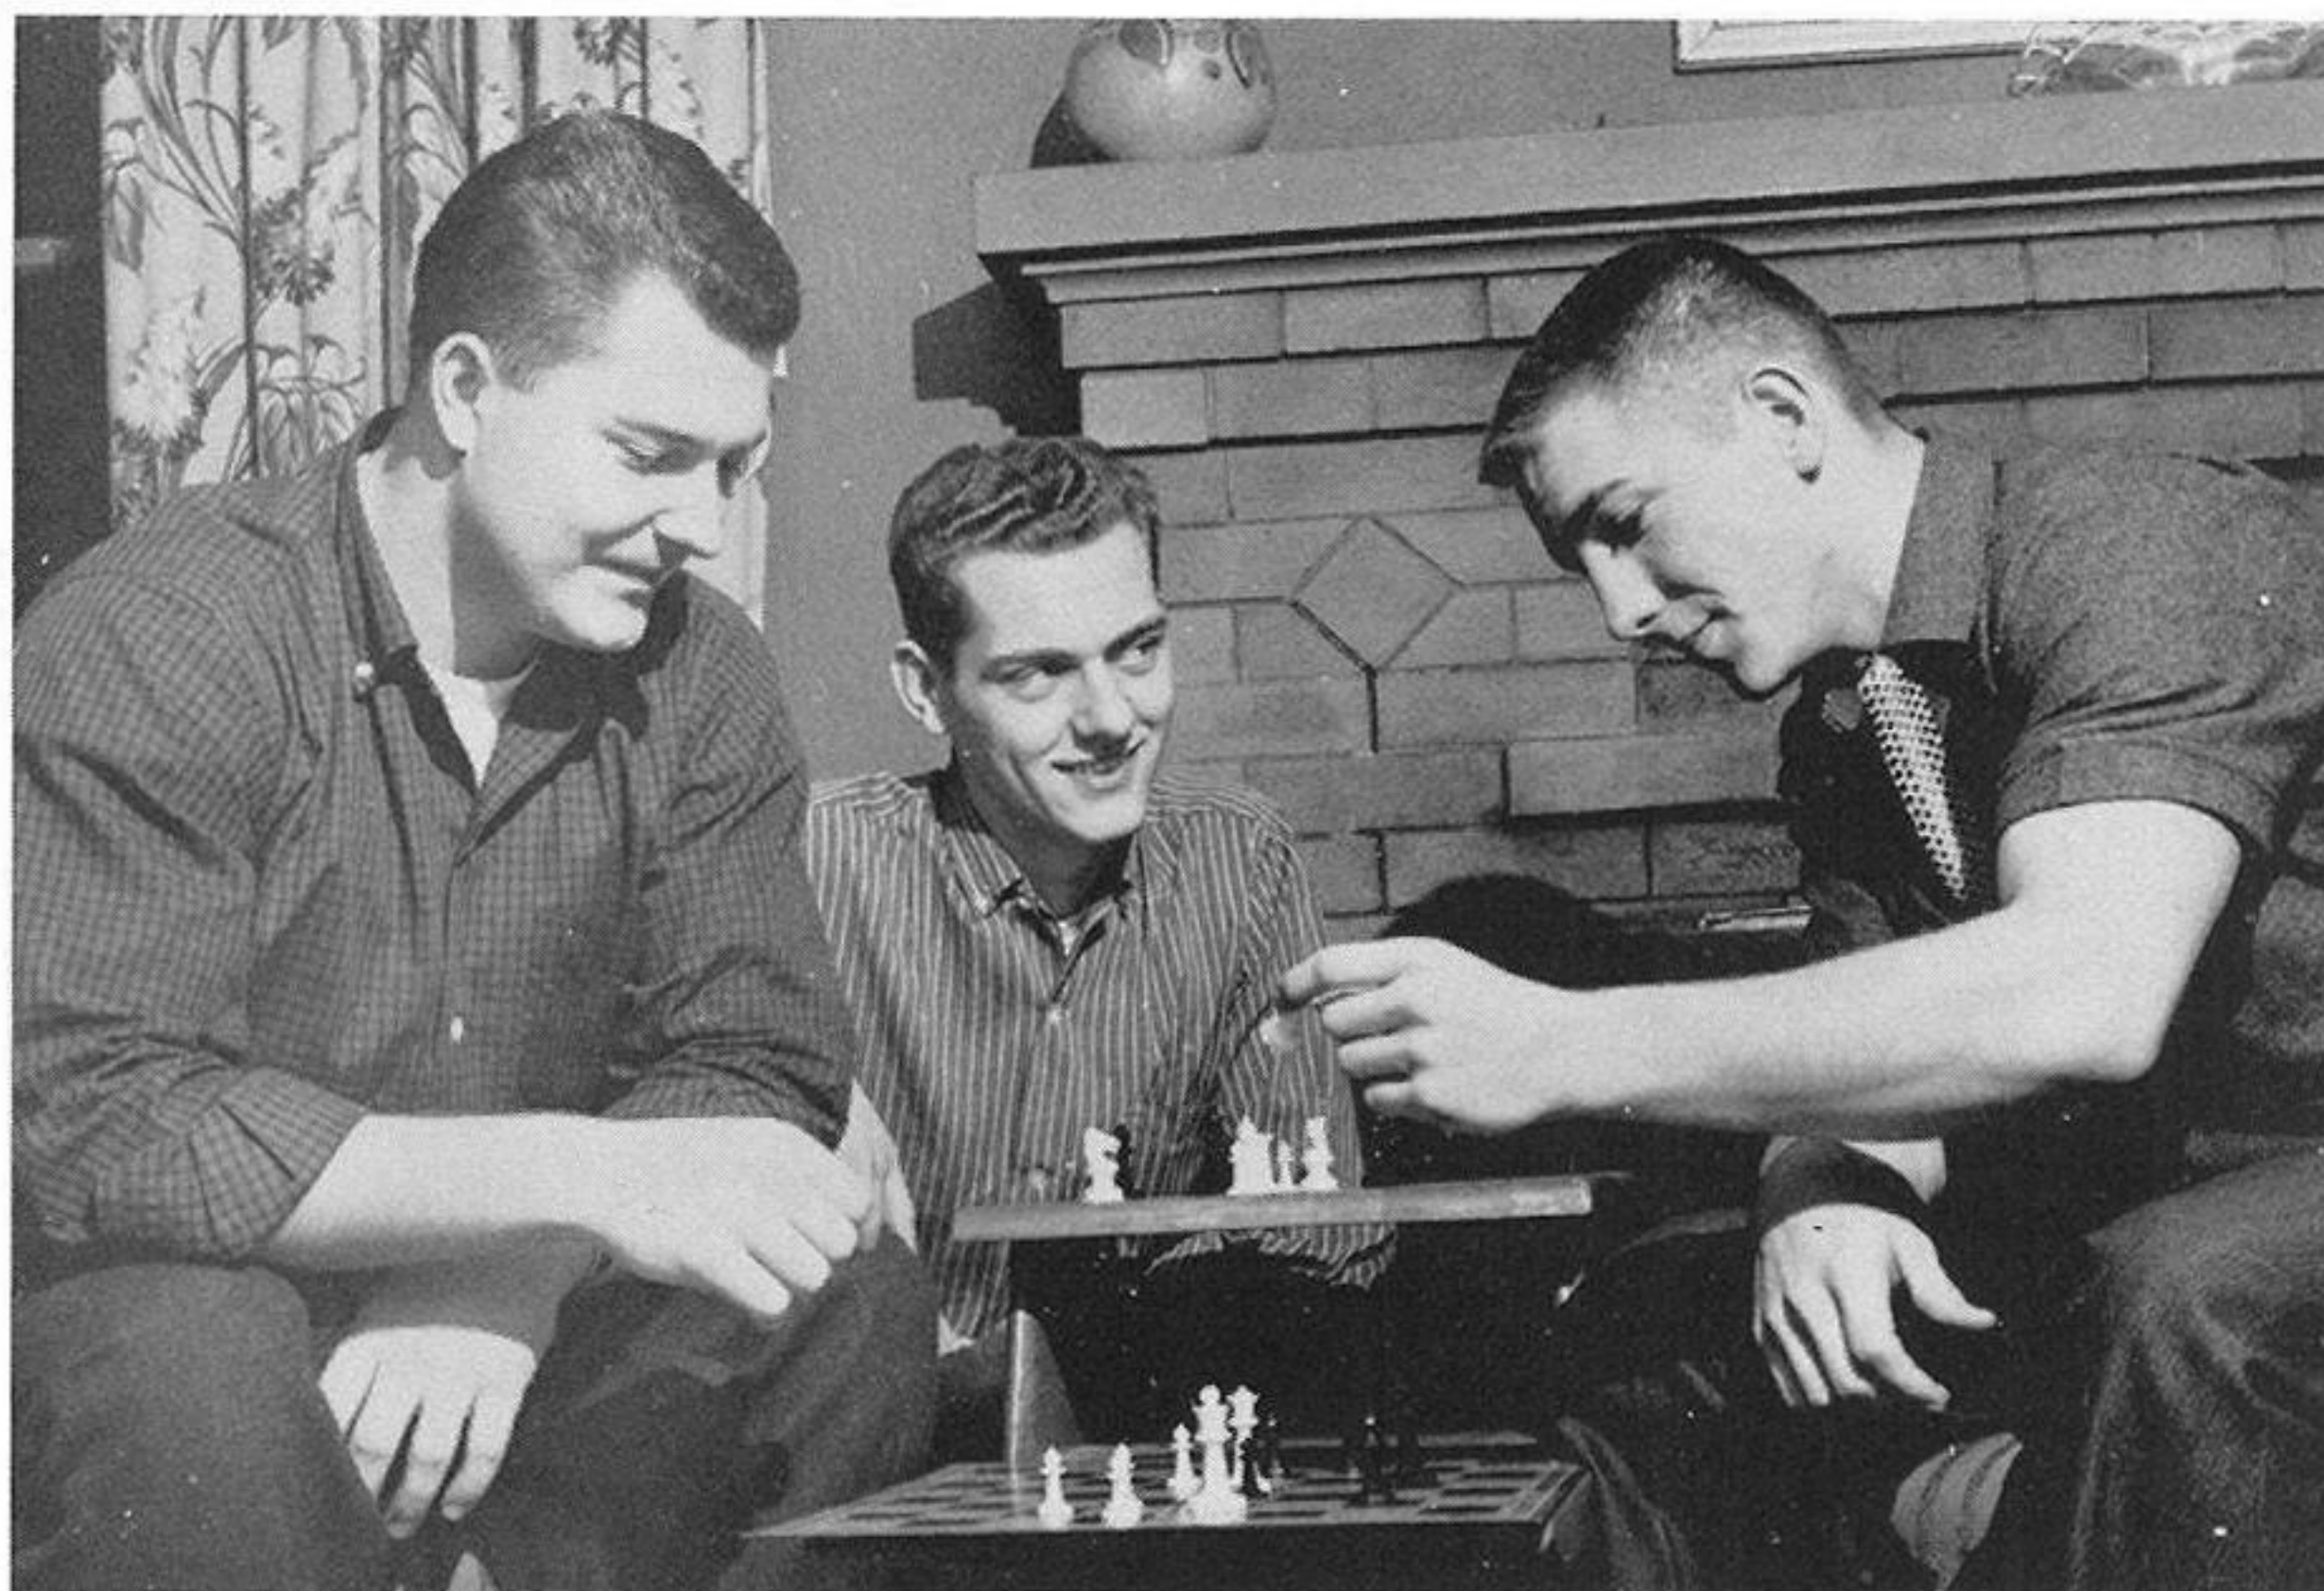

Yes, the Merry Men of Sherwood—both old and new—worked together with a high rate of participation in the traditions established by the original Men—in protecting young women from oppression by the opinionated higher-archy with exchanges and social functions—in maintaining their athletic prowess through championship participation in intramural activities—and in general lending a helping hand wherever it was needed. This 1958-59 Tye marks the close of another successful year of Sherwood House participation and competition in University activities.

The officers are Jim Miller, Gary Ostheller, Milton Jones, Charles Pancerzewski, and Pat Rundle.

Playing a friendly game of chess are the Allerlei officers, Sam Vasks, Ray Lufkin, and Jim Blankenbaker.

Allerlei House is an informal, independent, non-discriminatory student group with no entangling affiliations, local or national, except membership in the ASUW. Its members enjoy a high degree of freedom, are well fed, and enjoy the most economical housing to be found in this area. ($160 per quarter.)

The house is operated by the board of trustees of Sherwood Cooperative Association, a legally recognized non-profit organization. House officers are elected at the end of each quarter and members of the corporation board of trustees, who are elected from the ranks of the house members, are elected at the end of winter quarter.

The organization participated in intramural flag football, bowling, basketball, and gymnastics. Social functions included five dances and a beach party which, though not exactly a full social schedule, made up in quality what was lacking in quantity, barely giving members who participated whole-heartedly time for complete recovery in the interim. We here express our heartfelt thanks and loving remembrance to Major Kelso and his Evangeline girls.

The University Christian Union is an interdenominational organized men's house where the true meaning of fraternity is developed. Besides participation in many University activities, personal Christian growth is emphasized.

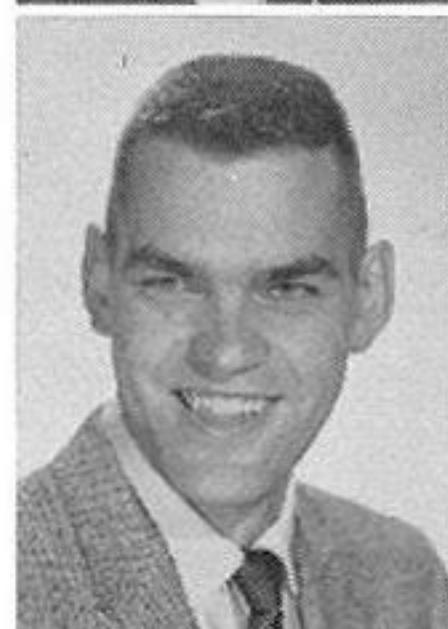

UCU's twenty-fourth year on campus was highlighted by activity in intramural volleyball, bowling, ping pong, basketball, and softball. Our annual formal Spring Initiation Banquet climaxed a truly successful year.

The men of UCU can look back with pleasure on the twenty-fourth year of activity, achievement and Christian fellowship on campus.

WESLEY HOUSE

The 32 girls living at Wesley House are just a small segment of the students taking part in the activities sponsored by Wesley Foundation. A modernized reception area greeted the girls last fall.

The round of curricular and extracurricular activities got under way with a dinner and party. A special guest dinner with the Milton Katims for Wesley House's winning efforts in the Symphony ticket drive topped quarterly guest dinners. Spur-of-the-moment and planned popcorn and birthday parties offered occasional escapes from study routines. Roller skating and coffee exchanges were a further diversion. Pinnings and engagements offered another chance for fun. The Christmas season was celebrated with decorations and caroling. Pixie Week sent the girls on many impish missions.

Wesley House girls participated in many campus activities ranging from music through intramural sports. The basketball team figured significantly in the tournament.

Studies weren't forgotten in the tangle of activities. Several girls earned places on the quarterly honor rolls.

The girls of Wesley House feel they have moved closer to their goal of the ultimate in integrated Christian living in the past year.

The class graduating this year is the last group included in the Basic Nursing Research Program at Virginia Mason Hospital. This has been a three year interrupted-degree program, with the student either working as an R.N. at the end of her training or returning to the University for a fourth year to obtain her Bachelor of Science degree.

This summer begins a new four year degree curriculum for the School of Nursing. The remainder of the students at Virginia Mason will continue in the new program, and will graduate with degrees in the spring of 1961.

An old-fashioned Barn Dance began the past year of social activities at Blackford Hall. The Christmas Candle Sale for the benefit of blind children and a Christmas party at which the students sang carols for the patients on each floor of the hospital. A doctor dressed as Santa Claus presented gifts to all and the seniors carried on the tradition of playing "pixie" for their class father, Dr. Lawrence. The junior class sponsored a spring formal and the year was concluded with a hubbub of graduation activities.

EKLIND HALL

With the completion of two years of campus life, the student nurse reaches a new plateau. After receiving the white cap which is symbolic of her chosen profession, she now begins her clinical experience. This includes functioning as a team composed of doctors, nurses, x-ray and laboratory technicians, and physical and occupational therapists. This provides for the welfare of patients and enables her to gain knowledge from the various departments of the hospital. With classes, study, duty experience on medical, surgical, and obstetrical floors, she is soon off on affiliations at Children's Orthopedic Hospital for pediatric nursing, Northern State Hospital for psychiatric nursing, Firland Sanitarium for tuberculosis nursing, and the King County Public Health Department.

Living at Eklind enables her to participate in student government. During off duty hours, many other opportunities are also available to her—such as Nurses' Christian Fellowship, state nursing conventions, Christmas caroling in the hospital, student-intern basketball game, and various informal parties and picnics.

For four years the life of a student nurse is filled with many valuable experiences. She develops good communication and a feeling of responsibility. Her education not only enables her to be a good nurse of today; but also helps her to be a good citizen of tomorrow. At the end of this time, the dream of every student nurse comes true. She now receives the University of Washington, Swedish Division, pin, wears the black velvet band on her white cap, and is called a graduate nurse.

HARBORVIEW HALL

We student nurses residing at Harborview Hall have managed to keep ourselves quite busy throughout the year. We are members of an organized student-body which has provided the opportunity for many of our activities. A basketball tournament, our choir, exchanges, money-making projects and our Variety Show are some of the projects with which we have dealt.

Being conscious of the patients' and our own welfare, we have participated actively in the student nurse district, state, and national organization. We are proud to report that two girls from Harborview held state offices with Marjorie Milliken as president and Frances Langen as director.

Extracurricular activities are, of course, only one phase of student nurse life. Throughout the year, students clad in our green dresses, caps, and white aprons have been a familiar sight in nearly every hospital situation as we gradually accumulated knowledge and progressed in the performance of the various nursing skills.

This year we have also had the privilege of seeing the beginning of the new University of Washington School of Nursing program. It has been interesting to observe and take an actual part in some of the planning of this new shortened curriculum.

Reassuring the patient is part of the operating room experience.

Learning about the iron lung is necessary, but fortunately it is no longer frequently needed.

ADELPHI

Established in 1930, Adelphi is an association for independent men which provides an opportunity for these men to take an active part in University life. Adelphi offers outlets for efforts in the fields of social, service, athletics, and activities. The endeavors of Adelphi are determined by the interests of the members; the club's facilities are available to any independent man.

The past year has seen a wide variety of events fill the Adelphi calendar. The social calendar featured many exchanges and dances, with the outstanding function being the initiation banquet and ball at the Hotel Edmond Meany. Another highlight of the year was the annual exchange with Phrateres at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

The club also assists the high schools of Seattle in their March of Dimes drive by providing "truck" service for potato chips. This service enables the members to take an active part in community affairs.

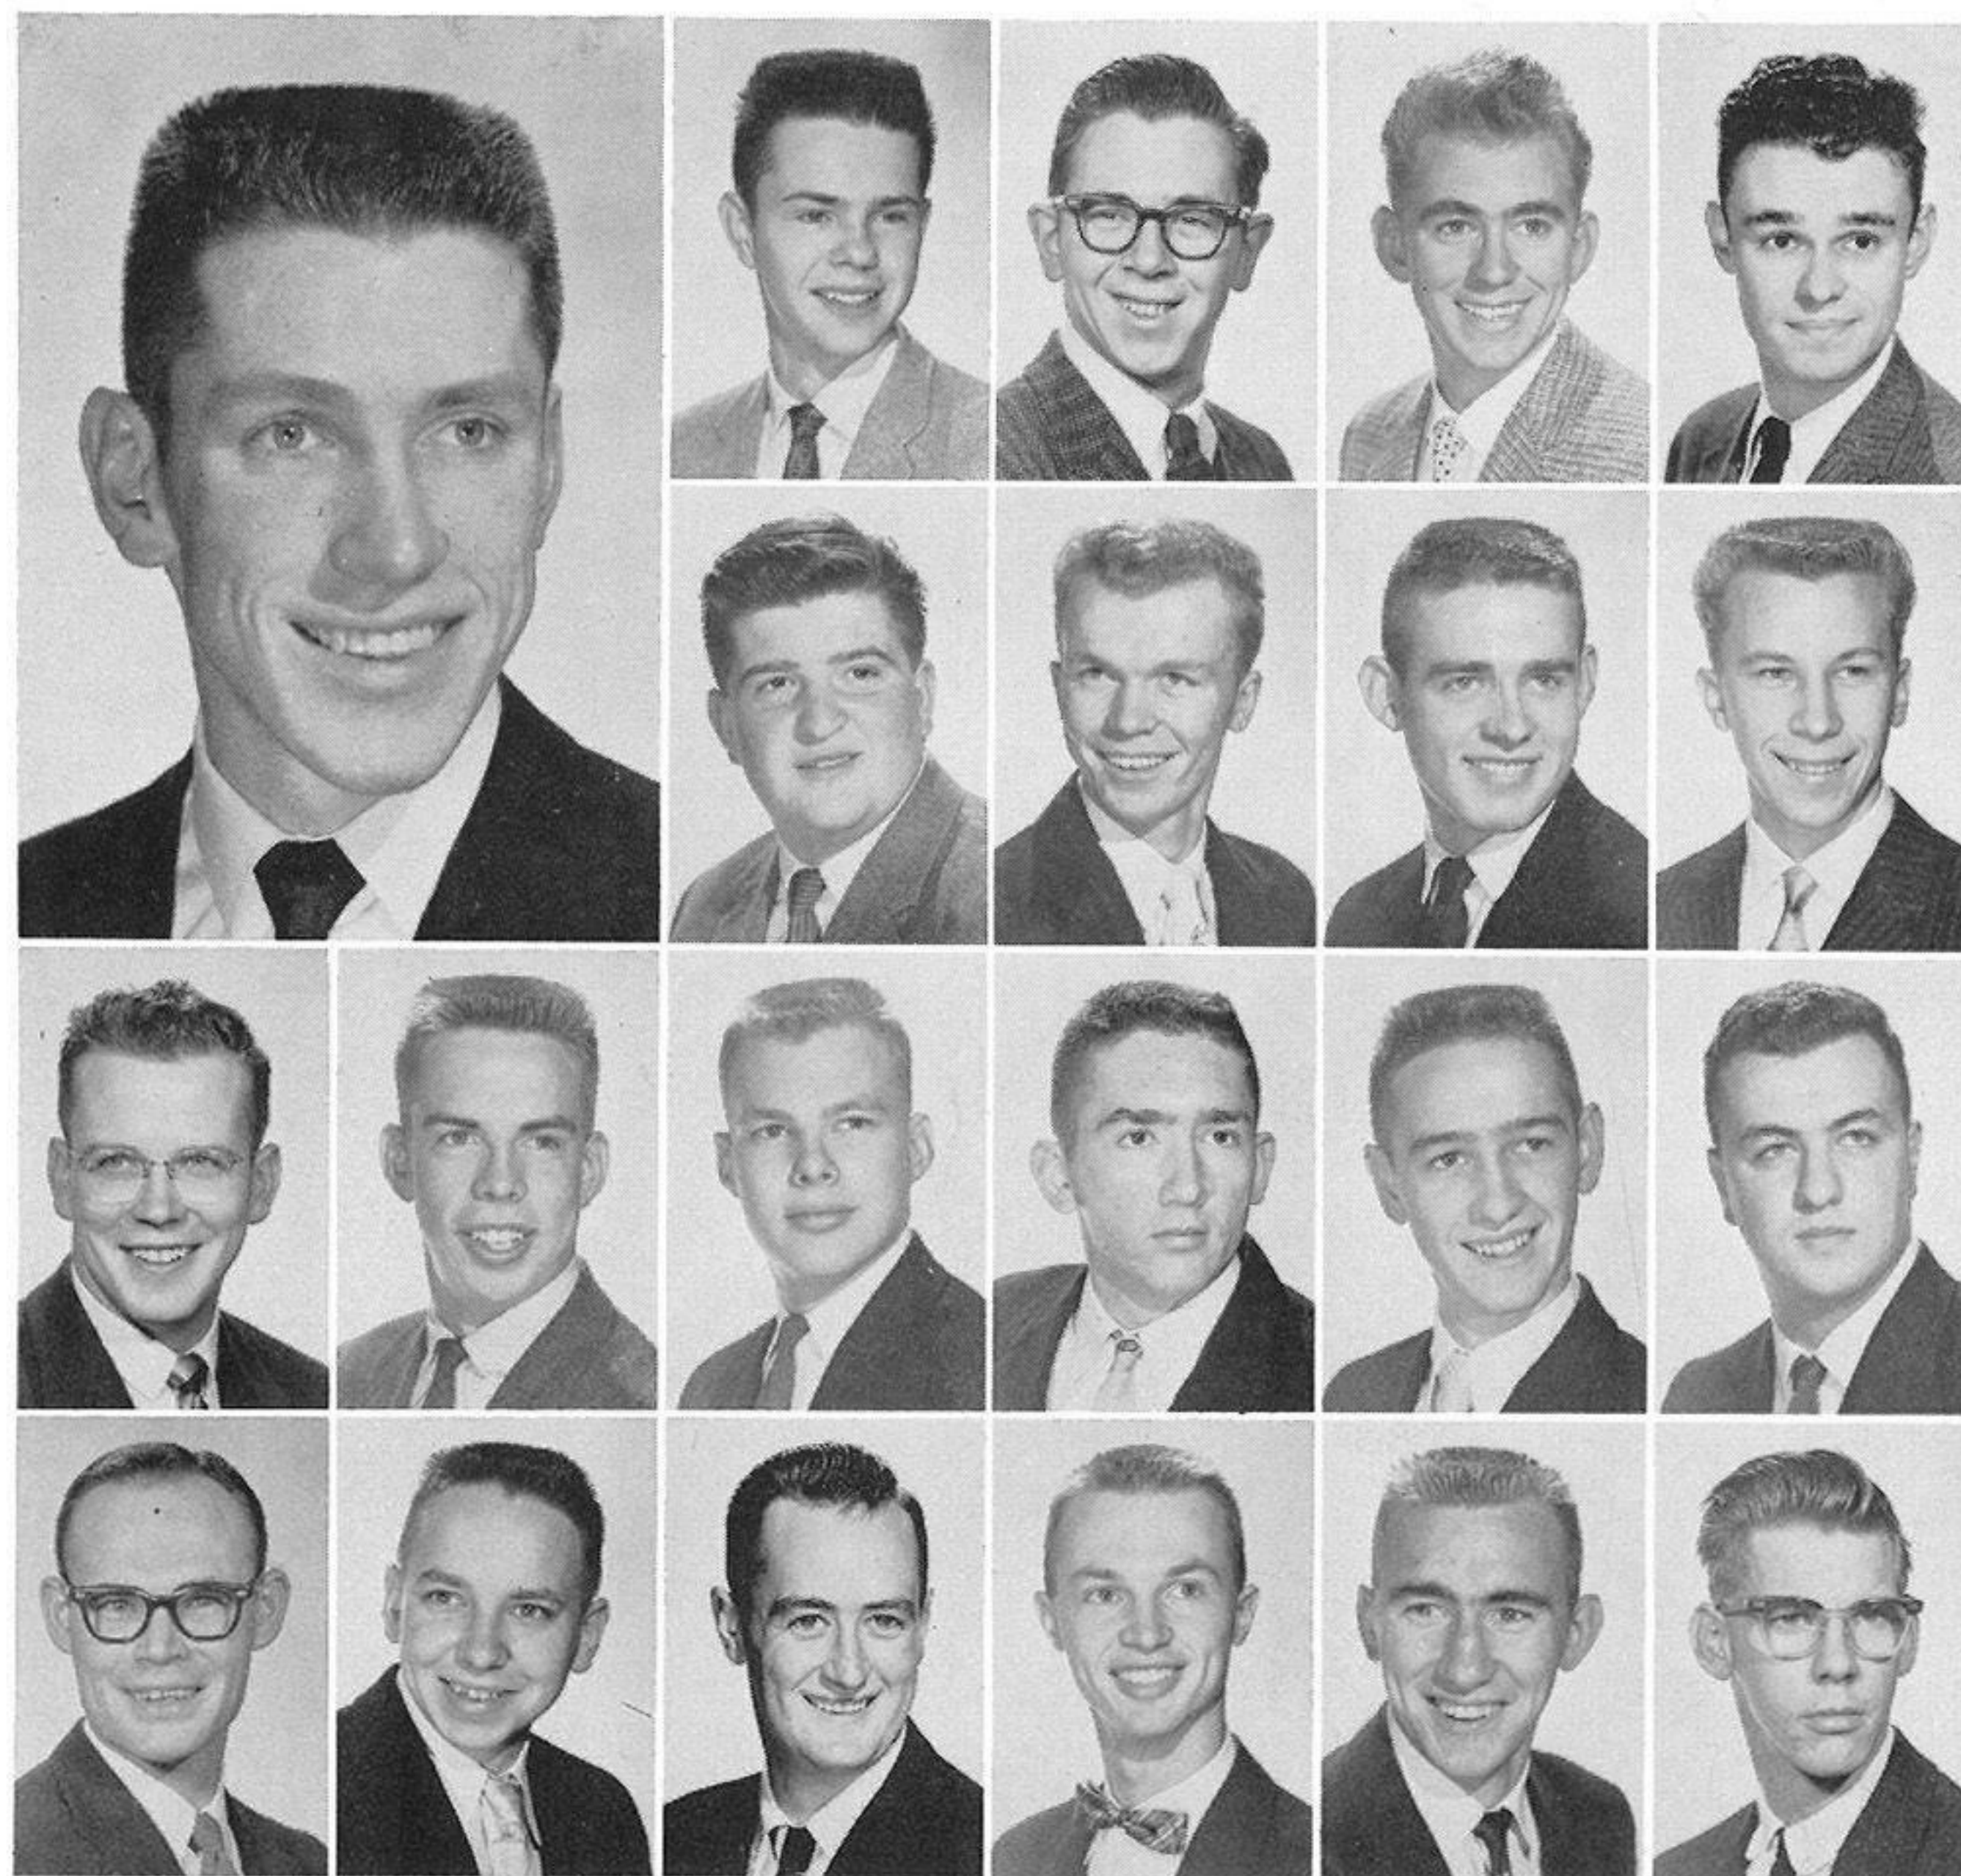

Always alert to the needs of its members, Adelphi has become a force binding independent men together on a campus which by nature harbors diverse interests.

The University of Washington Air Force ROTC Drill Team, representing the University and the U. S. Air Force, had an active and successful program during the 1958-1959 year. Under the direction of Commander Richard J. Tonelli and his staff, the unit participated in drill competitions and parades throughout the state.

Teams from the College of Puget Sound and Western Washington College of Education were among those with which the local unit competed. Also, competitions were held with Navy ROTC and Army ROTC units from this campus. The team participated in the Veterans Day Parade at Centralia, the Daffodil Parade at Tacoma and the Memorial Day Parade in Seattle.

Highlight of the season was the invitational meet at Santa Rosa, Calif., where teams from throughout the U.S. competed in the Luther Burbank Rose Festival Parade.

Meetings were held twice weekly in the campus armory, at which times the unit practiced and developed maneuvers.

The parent chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers was established in 1908, and the student chapter at the University of Washington obtained its charter in 1940.

Advancement and maintenance of high professional standards of its members and furtherance of chemical engineering in theory and practice are the ultimate goals of this institute.

Various activities which are beneficial to the student include out of town field trips, regional student chapter convention, biennial Engineering open house, and other Engineering Council activities.

AIEE-IRE

The joint student branch of the AIEE and the IRE is an organization to help the electrical engineering student become better acquainted with all phases of electrical engineering and other allied fields. It is intended that through membership and participation in the society the student will become a better individual and engineer and will become better oriented toward post-graduate membership in one or both of the national organizations.

The American Rocket Society's student chapter at the University of Washington had a very successful 1958-59 year. Monthly meetings featured speakers from leading companies involved in rocketry work. Speakers discussed such topics as, "Advanced Propulsion Systems," "Martian Exploration Vehicle," "Guidance Systems for Space," and other interesting topics. A number of student members helped to construct the Mechanical Engineering static rocket test stand at Sand Point Naval Air Station.

A safety and educational program for high school students interested in rocketry was put into effect in conjunction with the Pacific Northwest section of ARS. The student chapter exhibited rocket motors and missiles at the Seattle Space Forum in February, as well as at Engineering Open House and Parents' Weekend. The latter exhibits featured the Air Force Falcon Missile and a model of the Explorer Satellite.

BAPTIST-DISCIPLE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Baptist-Disciple Student Association (BDSA) is a fellowship of students seeking through worship, study and action, to make the Christian faith real in all of University life. This year the group carried out a regular weekly program of classes, firesides and dinners, and also was active in parties, retreats, conferences and work projects. Outstanding events were the Salmon Bake at the beach in October, the Thanksgiving Dinner, quarterly retreats at Preston, Mt. Rainier and Copalis Beach, Spring Vacation work camp, and the Annual Installation Banquet in March.

BDSA life and Fellowship House go together. The House, located at the corner of 15th N.E. and East 45th, is sponsored by the Christian and Baptist churches of Washington, with a close relationship to the University Baptist and University Christian churches. BDSA is affiliated nationally with the Baptist Student Movement and the Disciples Student Fellowship. Interested students are cordially invited to drop in at the House.

AMERICAN CERAMIC SOCIETY

The student branch of the American Ceramic Society is an organization composed of Ceramic Engineering students. Among the activities of the Society were bi-weekly meetings featuring guest speakers, participation in intramural sports and social events such as the Christmas party and Spring picnic.

Two outstanding events of the past year were the winning of second place in the Engineering Open House and the annual field trip to the Pacific Coast Regional meeting of the ACS in Los Angeles.

The society's officers for the year were: Marvin Specker—President; Paul Kavadas—Vice President; Alan King—Secretary; Ashok Savant—Treasurer.

Keramos is the campus affiliate of the national professional Ceramic Engineering fraternity. The principal goals of the fraternity are to promote the scholarship and character of Ceramic students and to promote interest in Ceramic Engineering.

In line with these objectives, the local chapter sponsors an open house for freshman engineering students each quarter. The chapter also sponsors high school visitation programs which consist of a speaker and demonstration given by Ceramic Engineering students.

The chapter officers for the year were: Alan King—President; Frank Wagstaff—Vice President; Dave Larin—Secretary; Paul Kavadas—Treasurer; Larry Johnson—Herald.

The purpose of the Student Chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers is to help the student prepare himself for entry into the profession and the Society. To do this the chapter must be an educational as well as a social organization. The first is realized by program meetings that feature talks by practicing engineers, field trips to various construction works, and movies pertaining to civil engineering. It is also accomplished by sponsoring students who want to compete in student paper competitions. To be a social organization, the chapter must provide for social get-togethers of various natures.

For the 1958-59 school year, the chapter co-sponsored a short course in traffic engineering with the Department of Civil Engineering. It sent a member to Los Angeles in February to present a student paper at the A.S.C.E. convention and represented itself well at the Pacific Northwest Conference in Montana.

Once again the organization made itself well-known in intramural sports competition. Everyone had fun in basketball, water polo, and track. Then, of course, there was the Ladies' Auxiliary theater party, winter dance, and spring picnic. With additional program meetings of speakers and movies, the student chapter closed another year of well-rounded activities.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

John Janus
President

The purpose of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers is to create an atmosphere in which the mechanical engineering student may become acquainted with his profession. The student, upon graduation, joins a local branch of the ASME to keep in contact with fellow mechanical engineers and to keep up with the latest developments in his profession.

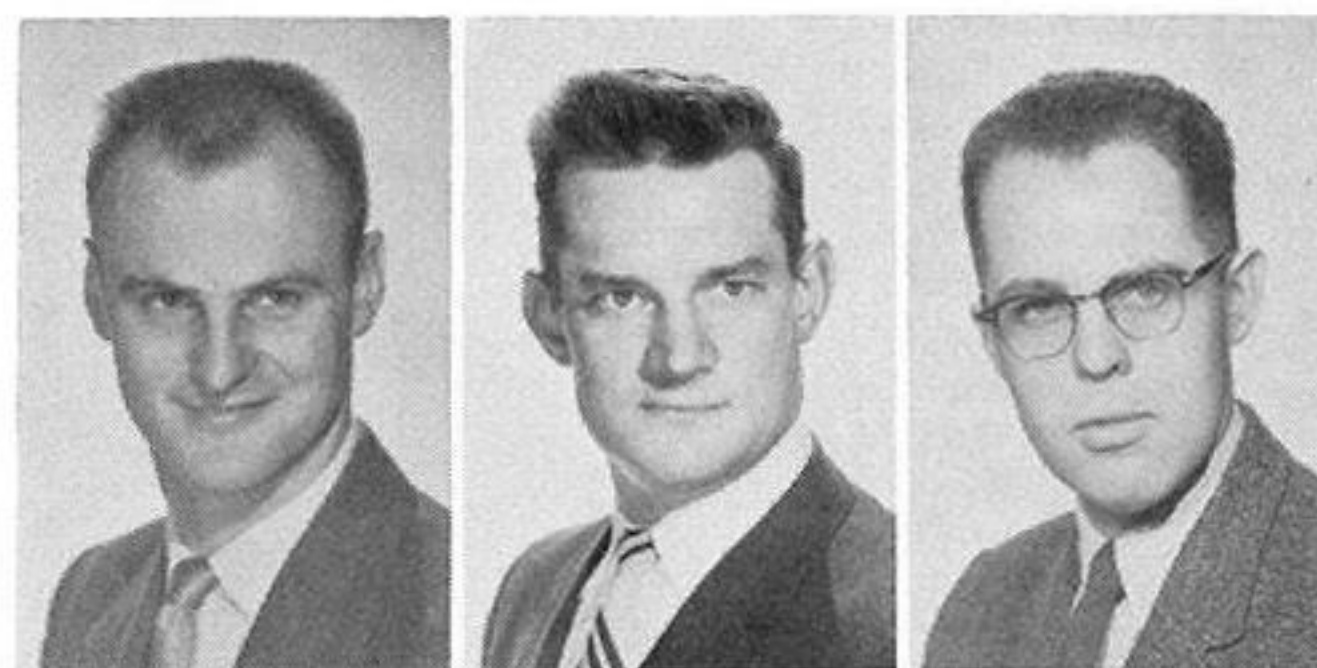

During the year the student organization holds a Student-Day-In-Industry in which the member spends a day in a Seattle firm to learn first-hand what his future work will be. ASME members also compete with members in several other schools in a student paper contest.

The high point of ASME activity is the Engineering Open House which is held every two years. Members are already planning 1960 displays and projects.

ANGEL WING

Angel Wing, the oldest of the ROTC co-ed sponsor groups on this campus, had another exciting year of service and fun. The girls regularly did clerical work for the ROTC and Arnold Air Society and were hostesses for such special events as Parents' Night and Governor's Day. The coeds gave a Christmas party for the Air Force staff and cadets and held an inspection for the drill team. To raise money, members of Angel Wing sold special knots for the cadets' ties. During the year they sailed with Arnold Air Society in competition with Army and Navy teams and took several field trips including ventures to Boeing and McChord.

The purpose of Bachelors' Club is to support and promote school spirit on the campus of the University of Washington and to encourage active participation from the older male students. Only single, unengaged males, 21 years old or over with the proper attitude concerning the opposite sex are eligible for membership.

Along with several stag parties with dates required to foot their own bills and wear white shirts and levis, the club also had its regular Tuesday night meetings.

CALVIN CLUB

Calvin Club is sponsored by the University Presbyterian Church to provide Christian fellowship and education for college-age young people.

The program presents the Christian hope and challenge through talks from Rev. Earl Palmer, student discussions, Bible study, sings, Spring and Fall conferences, Spring ski retreat, leadership banquet, and summer excursions.

The welcome is warm at 15th North East and East 47th.

Pictured in the center is Calvin Club president, Bob Sankey. To the left is Gordon Fall, treasurer. On the right is Ron Stan, vice president. Not pictured is Marilyn Haugen, secretary.

Chi Alpha is a fellowship group representing the Assembly of God Churches. The group met at noon during the week, in the HUB, to study and meet with local pastors for discussion.

The social calendar of the year included the annual Homecoming dinner, meeting with other chapters of local colleges, and many group functions. Chi Alpha is open to all students interested in fellowship and a chance to get acquainted with other students in a Christian atmosphere.

CAMPUS RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

Campus Religious Council is an inter-faith body composed of the presidents of the University religious organizations. It strives to promote cooperation and understanding among member groups and provide information concerning religious activities to new University students.

Outstanding among the year's CRC activities was the fall Leadership Conference, a training program for presidents and program chairmen of religious organizations.

The Frosh Prevue and Open House in September and the World University Service Drive in February were cooperatively conducted by the YMCA-YWCA and Campus Religious Council.

Looking over President Karen Edler's shoulder are Gay Compton, secretary-treasurer, John Qualley, Bob Sankey, and Ruth Maslan.

Members this year were:
Gay Compton—Calvin Club
Dan Duncan—Channing Club
Karen Edler—Canterbury
Ruth Harnish—Pilgrim Club
Don Hebard—Chi Alpha
Ruth Maslan—Hillel
Galen Mell—B.D.S.A.
John Qualley—Wesley

Through discussions, speakers, and study groups, Episcopal students seek to grow in the richness of the Christian Faith.

CANTERBURY CLUB

Christ Church Parish, located at 47th and Brooklyn, is the focal point of the life of Canterbury.

Canterbury Association provides the Episcopal student with the spiritual guidance he may seek during academic life at the University. Holy Communion services are held daily at 7 a.m. and Evening Prayer at 5:10 p.m. in St. Aidan's Chapel.

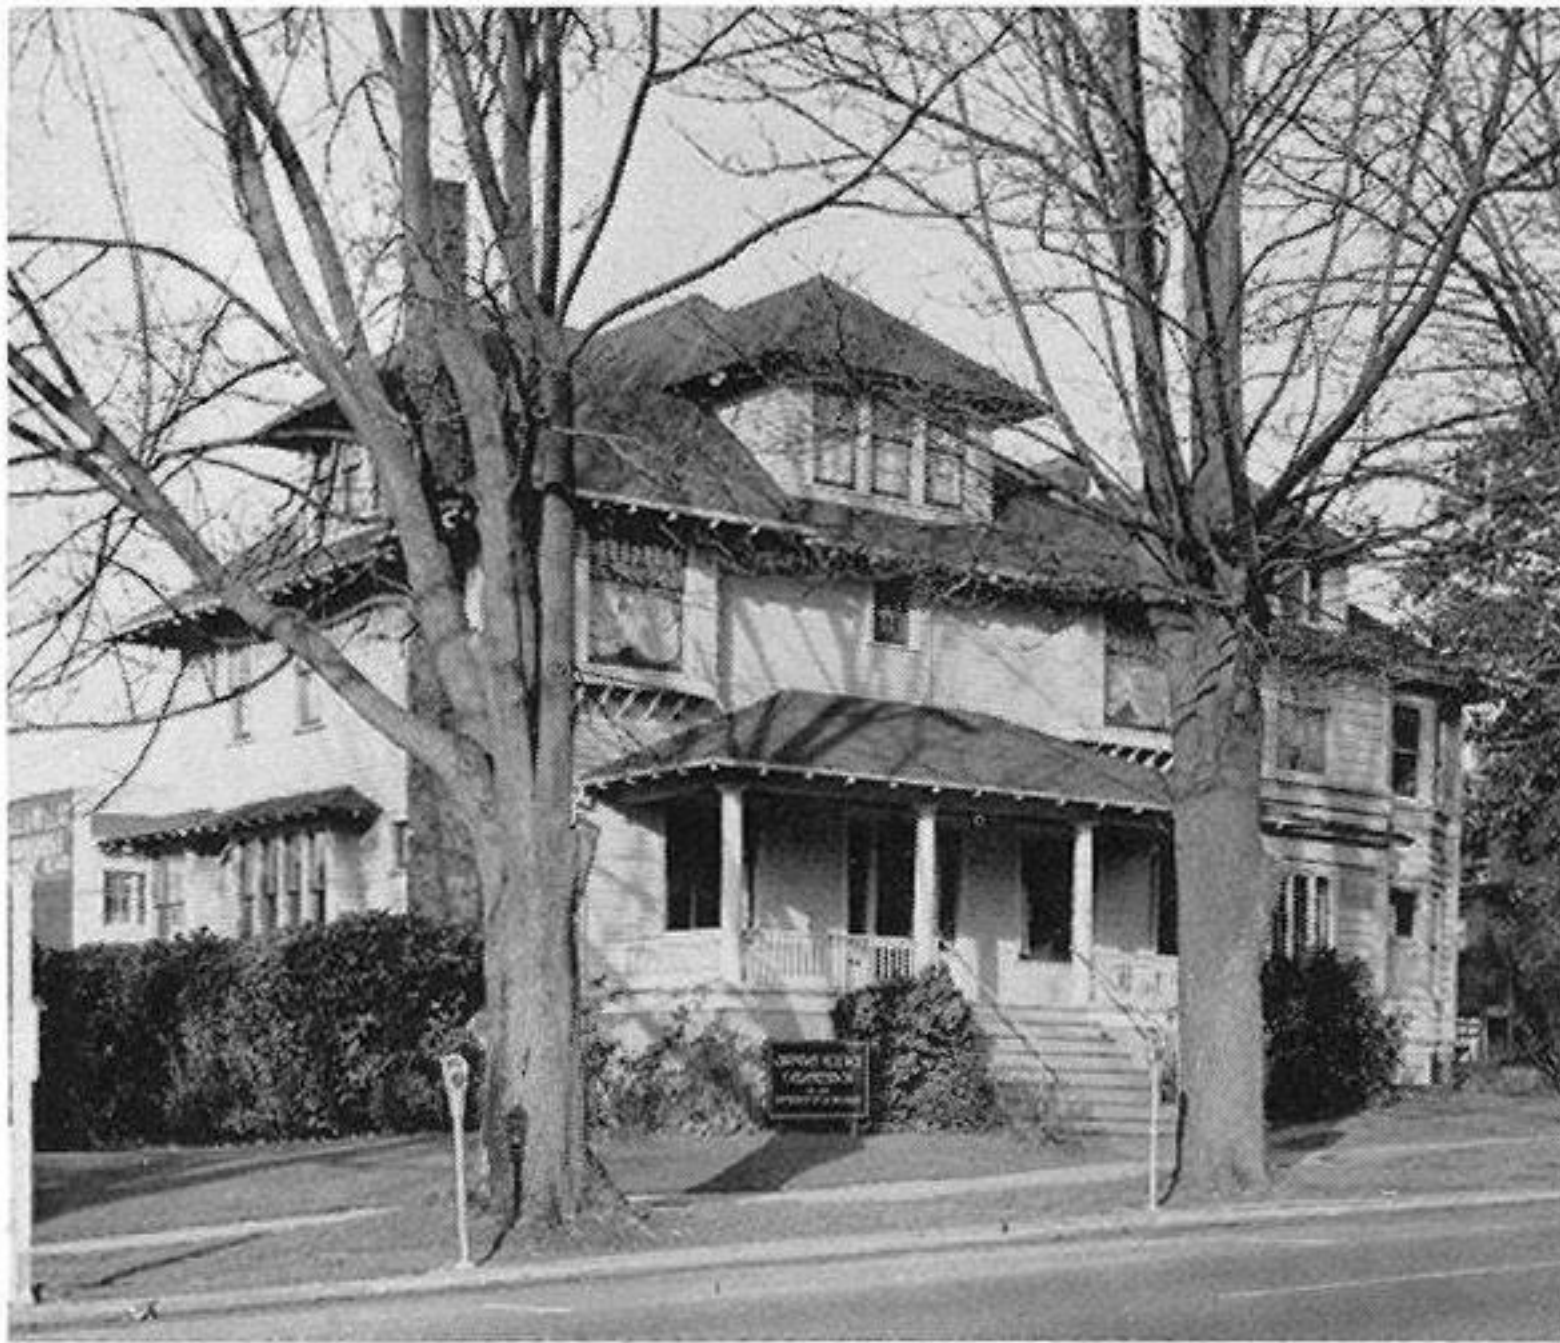

Canterbury carries on two programs a week discussing various topics concerning Christian responsibility in the world today. A varied program gives the student maximum participation in everything from social service projects to social comradeship. There is also a graduate group, open to both graduate students and alumni, which meets every other week at the chaplain's home.

All of these activities are under the direction of Rev. Charles A. Forbes, chaplain.

Worship is the keynote of Canterbury's life. Daily the Holy Communion is celebrated and the Offices of Morning and Evening Prayer are read.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION

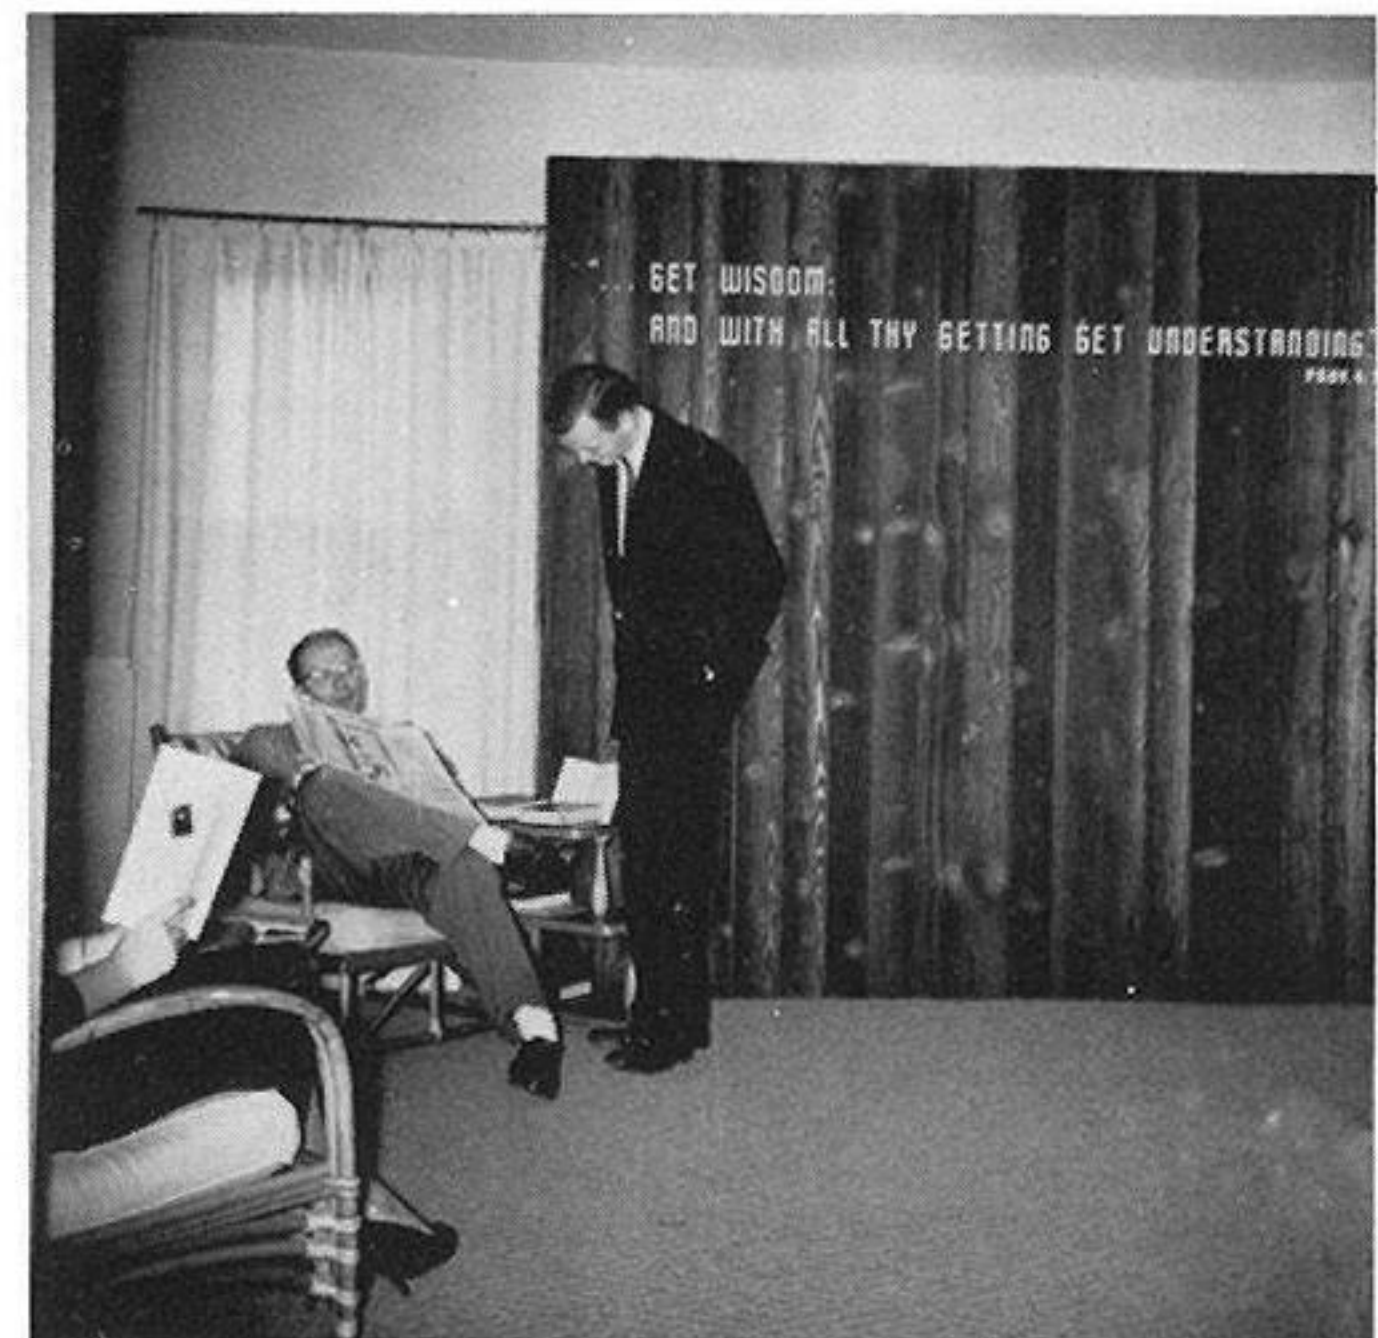

The Organization Building, located across the street from campus at 15th N.E. and E. 43rd, is open daily 7:45 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.

Christian Science Organization is open to all students and faculty interested in the study of Christian Science. Members of the Organization plan and carry out activities through an Executive Board and various committees. Executive Board members were: President, Bob Shipp; Vice President, Ann Johnson; Recording Secretary, Caryl Smith; Clerk, Wendy DeLacy; and Treasurer, Glenn Linden.

The main activity of the Organization was a weekly meeting of Christian Science students. They shared testimonies of healing which came through the application of Christian Science.

Quiet rooms are available every school day for study of the Bible and college work.

Students read "The Christian Science Monitor" and other Christian Science literature.

An "open house" was held during Frosh Preview Week, and the annual Fall Reception was held several weeks later. In January the Organization sponsored a free public lecture on Christian Science. It was given by Mary Wellington Gale, Member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Organization held its annual Spring Reception during Spring Quarter.

CORVETTES

A Navy Corvette is an auxiliary ship that supports and assists the larger ships. Corvettes, a girls' auxiliary, similarly supports and assists the NROTC.

The year's activities began as we planned our fall membership drive and helped Compass and Chart with their membership drive. The going was smooth as we helped with teas, dances, editing of the Binnacle (the Navy newspaper), running the canteen and, of course, sailing.

Winter quarter, the members banded together to launch the Ring dance by working on the queen contest and dance decorations. As spring quarter drew near, the new officers entered into Governor's Day with much enthusiasm. The last activity of the year was NROTC commissioning where we bade farewell to the graduating seniors. As we looked into the horizon, we saw a ship approach bringing new midshipmen to the Unit and a promise of another good year ahead.

COMPASS AND CHART

Compass and Chart is a fraternity of future Navy and Marine Corps officers. Compass and Chart is the social organization which serves the NROTC battalion on campus. Its purpose is to unite members socially, promote esprit de corps, and to advance interest in the Naval Service.

Fall Quarter saw the establishment of the first informal "hops" held by the NROTC on campus. Several of these were held throughout the school year.

The Fall informal or freshman initiation dance was held in late November to welcome the new frosh initiates into the fraternity. Winter Quarter was highlighted by the annual junior class ring dance modeled after the one held at the U.S. Naval Academy.

In addition to its many social activities, Compass and Chart sponsors a unit newspaper, an amateur radio station, a sailing club, an annual yearbook, and teams for intramural sports.

Engineering Students' Council consists of representatives elected by each of the nine student professional societies, Tau Beta Pi, General Engineering Club, and the "Washington Engineer."

The Engineering Council aids the students of the College of Engineering by promoting their educational welfare and helping to develop their vocational, cultural and social life at the University.

The activities of the Council include publishing the "Washington Engineer," EIT lectures, Engineers' Informal Dance, the annual Council-Washington Engineer Banquet and the tremendous bi-annual Engineering Open House which is run on even numbered years. This year the Council started sponsoring the appearance of well-known off campus speakers.

"WASHINGTON ENGINEER" STAFF

"Washington Engineer" magazine is a technical publication written and published entirely by engineering students. The magazine provides the means for the expression of the ideas and activities of engineering students. It offers a diversion from the toil of the classroom as well.

The magazine also features news of scientific and engineering interest so that students may keep abreast of technological advances in the engineering profession.

B'NAI B'RITH HILLEL FOUNDATION

STUDENT COUNCIL

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at the University of Washington is a unit of the national organization at colleges and universities devoted to religious, educational, cultural, and personal service among Jewish students.

The program includes weekly Sabbath services on Friday at 4 p.m., forums and discussion groups, brunches, classes and mixers.

B'nai B'rith has sponsored Hillel since 1923. Today it maintains foundations and counselorships at over 200 colleges and universities in the United States, Canada, Cuba and Israel. It was organized at the University of Washington as a full foundation in March 1941.

The Home Economics Club, with its purpose to encourage friendship among its members and to further interest in the home economics movement, is a professional as well as department organization affiliated with the American Home Economics Association. Membership is extended to all those interested in the home economics program. With an afternoon tea to unite its 115 members, the Home Economics Club initiated its first activity of fall quarter. In December the annual Home Economics Christmas Bazaar was held as a means of raising money which is given to foreign and American home ec students in the form of scholarships. Meetings held bi-weekly feature guest speakers, demonstrations and films. Other activities such as a Christmas party, participation in the Washington State Home Economics Convention and a Spring Banquet honoring all seniors in the department are part of the year's program. The club also started a new project of making and renting aprons to the foods classes.

HUI O' HAWAII

Aloha!
Functioning as a social and service organization, Hui O'Hawaii fostered another year of fun and fellowship among its members. As good-will ambassadors of the 50th state they showed a colorful display of spirit at the basketball game with the University of Hawaii. Slides and movies of their exotic homeland were shown at bi-monthly meetings. Besides sponsoring other activities they presented an authentic luau (feast) spring quarter, complete with food flown in from the islands. Many of the members have never been to Hawaii, but each has vowed to get there some day.

HUSKY SWIM CLUB

"Look Out Below"—one of the comic diving acts of the Silver Fish and Husky Swim Club Annual Show.

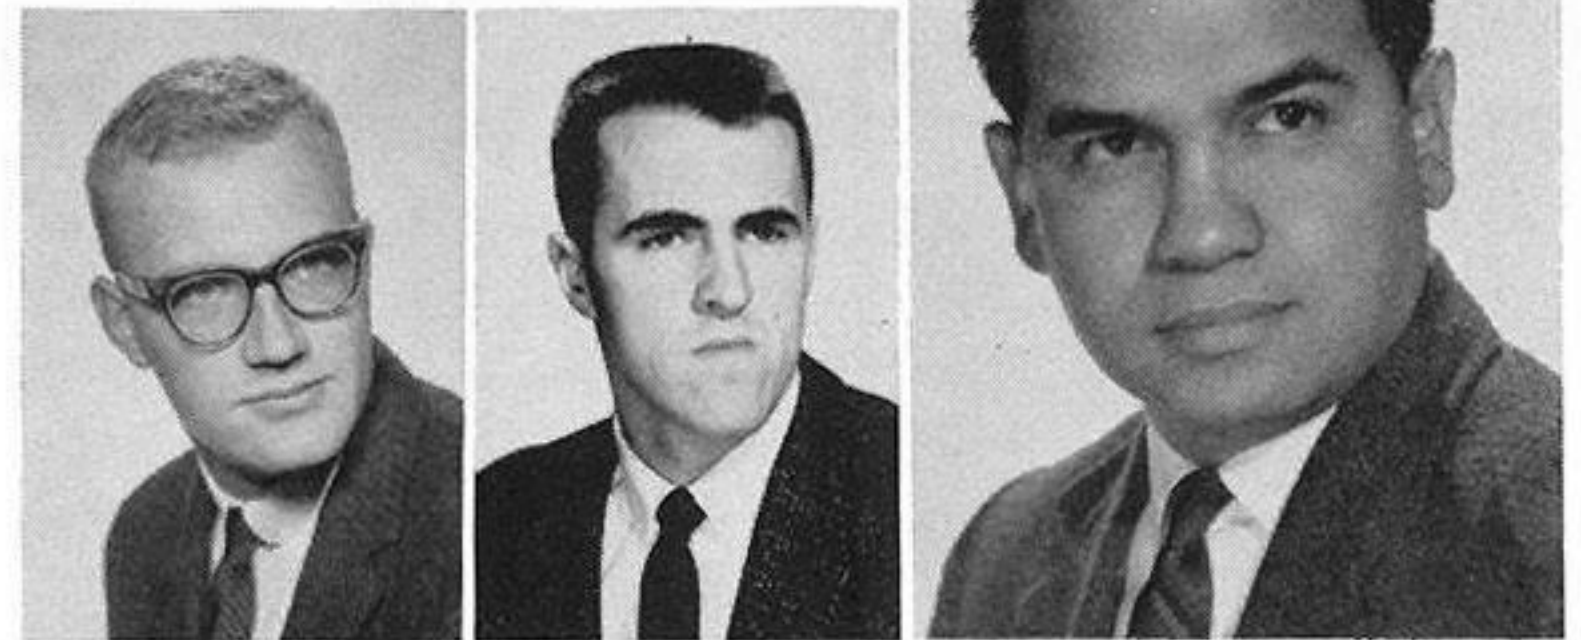

The principal aims and interests of Husky Swim Club are to promote interest and participation in swimming activities at the University of Washington and throughout the Pacific Northwest. In recent years Husky Swim Club has assisted in conducting the varsity and freshman swimming meets. It also sponsors the Pacific Northwest AAU Swimming and Diving Championships for Senior Men and the Washington State High School Swimming and Diving Championships. Both are held in the University men's pool during winter quarter.

In the spring of each year HSC joins with Silver Fish, a girls' swimming organization on campus, to present the impressive "Aqua Fantasies" for Parents' Weekend.

Membership in the Husky Swim Club is open to any male student at the University who shows an active interest in swimming, and who is able to demonstrate some basic aquatic skills.

HUSKY WINTER SPORTS CLUB

The 1958-59 season was busier than usual for HWSC. Membership increased to over 140 ski enthusiasts. The ski school under the direction of John Edgar operated for five Sundays in January and February at Stevens Pass. Sixty-five students were instructed in the fine points of skiing by Dave Lombard, Isa Giese, Art Hall and Bill Montgomery. A dinner was held after the last session.

HWSC again participated in the Winter Carnival at Mt. Hood February 14-15, sponsored by Portland State College. Susan Dean, nominated by HWSC, was chosen queen. Last year the HWSC team won the team titles in the slalom, downhill and combined plus many individual honors.

A successful University of Washington Winter Carnival was held at White Pass March 8. Bill Wade was the director. It featured races, a queen contest and a spaghetti dinner. The club meetings, held twice a month, featured speakers and movies.

Fred Pease, Rod Sampson, John Phillips, Bill Montgomery, Ed Eckberg and Jim Burt, not pictured, composed the Husky Winter Sports Club Ski Team. The team placed third at the Portland State College Intercollegiate Winter Carnival. Fred Pease won the slalom.

KAPPA PHI

National Methodist Women's Club

Kappa Phi, the Methodist Women's Organization, took as their theme this year "Ours To Choose." The group met bi-monthly at Wesley House and speakers shared their experience in such fields as politics, missionary work or marriage.

Fall quarter began with "Friendly Persuasion," a friendship tea. Winter quarter saw the initiation of the pledges and also a Sadie Hawkins dance sponsored by them.

Throughout the year the club worked at Atlantic Street Center and collected old magazines to send to schools in foreign countries. This work brought the girls closer to fulfilling their aim of "Every Methodist woman in the University of today, a leader in the church of tomorrow."

GAMMA DELTA

Gamma Delta is an international association of Lutheran college and university students of the Synodical conference. Gamma signifies gnosis, Christian knowledge, and Delta signifies diakonia, Christian service.

Beta Zeta chapter here on campus had many activities throughout the year. During fall quarter new members were initiated in a candlelight service at Messiah Lutheran Church. Many of the members had the opportunity to hear Bishop Hans Lilje when the group went to the Lutheran Reformation Rally. During Lent they presented the play, "Christ in Concrete City" for various Lutheran churches in Seattle. Members met with other Gamma Deltans from the western states at a convention in Missoula, Montana. Parties were given to celebrate Halloween, Valentine's Day, and Christmas. In the spring members went on a weekend spiritual retreat.

Gamma Delta offers an opportunity for students to meet and encourage Christian action through Bible discussion programs, projects, and inter-campus fellowship among students of the Synodical Conference Lutheran faith.

As an engineering society, the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences provides opportunities for students on campus to benefit by participation in programs and activities related to the aeronautical sciences. Membership in the I.A.S. is open to every engineering or physical science major with a bent toward aeronautics. Activities of the I.A.S. include high quality technical meetings with leading men from the aircraft industry. The I.A.S. membership gains first-hand information of aviation on the field trips offered each year. The bi-annual engineering open house is an interesting project in which the I.A.S. members work together as an engineering team.

LITTLE SISTERS OF MINERVA

Little Sisters of Minerva, an honorary affiliation of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, was founded this year on the Washington campus. This is a new national organization of SAE, of which there are now 40 chapters, designed for the purpose of promoting enthusiasm for SAE.

In reciprocity these girls are initiated into a body which functions as a part of the fraternity, and given a life-time membership. The girls are chosen on the basis of interest and enthusiasm, activities and personality.

The constitution limits membership to 25 new members, to be selected each spring.

Little Sisters of Minerva is not meant to be a deeply obligatory organization, but mainly for spirit and enjoyment.

Twice monthly the girls have dinner-meetings at the SAE house. Their activities this year included participation in the pledge class sneak, Mothers' Club Teas, and car washes. They attended football games, pizza dinners, helped with cookie sales, and rush and Friday afternoon parties.

Back row: Pastor Al Dilleuth, Orthos Huseby, worship chairman; Bob Bratt, program chairman; Gwen Nesheim, fellowship chairman; Sharon Hanson, evangelism chairman; George Rhyneer, publicity chairman; Jeanne Rehwinkel, counselor.

Throughout the year varied speakers were heard at Thursday dinner meetings, learning shared through Bible studies, an evangelism project carried out, and ideas exchanged at Sunday night discussions at Luther House. LSA enjoyed fellowship with other religious groups at exchange meetings, square dances and bowling parties. It also met LSA'ers from other campi at a fall retreat near Bellingham and a spring retreat and workshop at Camp Menucha, Oregon.

As part of a national and international Lutheran student movement, Lutheran Student Association is united with Christian students all over the world, providing aid through LSAction, and participating in the Life and Mission of the Church study project.

At the same time, LSA provides a many-sided program for local students. Highlight of the LSA year was the visit of Bishop Hans Lilje of West Germany to the Seattle Reformation Rally and his talk to the LSA in November. Another rewarding experience was the pre-Lent Quiet Day and succeeding midweek Lenten matin services.

MANAGERIAL COUNCIL

John Torrance
President

Managerial Council acts as a co-ordinating body over all managers in various sports. The council's objectives are: to promote the interest of the University of Washington, to promote interest in both athletics and managerial activities, to assist individual managers in all problems that may arise in the performance of their duties, and to encourage all to strive for excellence both academically and athletically.

To close the school year, the Managerial Banquet is held in May. Awarding of the Darwin Meisnist Trophy for the inspirational senior and announcement of next year's managers are made at that time.

MARKETING CLUB

The Marketing Club on campus is an organization designed to coordinate business and textbook views. Such a club also provides a social outlet for many students with one major interest—that of marketing. To bring in outside objectives, various speakers are selected to discuss their views and practical experience in business. These businessmen represent various enterprises in wholesaling, advertising, retailing, market research, and sales management, as well as other facets of the business world.

The Marketing Club is an affiliate of the American Marketing Association. There are 87 campus chapters throughout the country. The Puget Sound division held its dinner banquet on January 13 at the Edmond Meany Hotel; guest speaker for the occasion was Dr. Wendell Smith, President of the American Marketing Association.

The club meets on the first and third Wednesdays of each school quarter. The program always includes a business meeting and a guest speaker, followed by an informal discussion period with refreshments.

Pilgrim Club is the organization of Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed students at the University. In addition, it attracts students from other denominations and the unaffiliated who like the atmosphere of searching and learning. The Sunday evening forum-discussion type meetings and various study groups are especially suited to the student who is seeking to understand himself and his relationships to his friends and to God. Along with this is the opportunity for service and fellowship, in work projects and dances. Pilgrim Club is located on the corner of 16th Ave. N.E. and E. 45th.

NEWMAN CLUB

With fall quarter, Newman Club put out the welcome mat to introduce the incoming freshmen to Newman's intellectual, spiritual, and social activities in the annual Open House. Thanksgiving found Newman Club delegates attending the Northwest Province Convention at Moscow, Idaho, where Washington Newmanite Bob Morris was elected Vice Chairman of the province. The winter formal, Moondrift and Mistletoe, closed the quarter, but was still remembered at the pre-Lenten Mardi Gras dance. In the spring Newmanites took to the country for their annual picnic. In May Newman Club commemorated fifty-one years on the campus at the annual Communion Breakfast.

Throughout the year Newman Club enjoyed full houses for Monday Night Workshop, Survey of Catholicism, and Thursday Night Inquiry Series. Under the direction of Rev. W. Dooley, OPSTD., Newman Director, the club offered quarterly courses in Scholastic Philosophy. At Newman Club's monthly Communion Breakfast, members greeted University faculty members and off-campus visitors at informal after-breakfast lectures.

Representing the Catholic Church on the campus, Newman Club has offered fourteen hundred Catholic students a chance to supplement their learning with the intellectual, spiritual, and social heritage of their faith.

PRESBYTERIAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

The Presbyterian Student Fellowship at Westminster House, 4558 17th N.E., is a community of study and action, sponsored by the United Presbyterian Church for the University of Washington. It is open to all—Christian and non-Christian, doubter, skeptic, inquirer and critic—who wish to explore the relevance of the Christian faith to the academic enterprise. Through study, students find new meaning to life and vocation; through action, students experience the Christian call to work in the world. All are welcome who will adventure in a fellowship of discovery and concern. The group finds ultimate meaning through the common worship of God. The various services are planned and led by students and staff.

Margaret Richey
President

Various social events are planned each quarter: square dancing, bowling, ice skating, pizza parties. Informal "get-togethers" frequently are enjoyed as these students around the piano indicate.

Small groups study and discuss challenging questions provided by students' searching inquiries and the able staff members.

International students meet with American students on Sunday evening. The meal they share and this time spent together enable all the students to become better acquainted.

PHRATERES

After a long summer of rush planning, we hurried back to carry out our plans—Frosh Night, rush tea, sub-chapter rush parties. The organization roster was swelled as seventy girls joined us as pledges. The traditional Sunday Morning Pledge Breakfast and, later, the pledge dance, "Harvest Moon," opened the year in a grand manner. Our fall sign-up for the all-campus car pool boomed with sixty new subscribers. The Christmas season closed the year with caroling and parties, but is best remembered by the Korean orphanage project.

Winter quarter heralded our 30th year on campus during which the election of 1959 officers was held. The election was followed by a candlelight initiation of pledges and installation of officers climaxed by a ball, "Pearl Lagoon," at the New Washington.

Phrateres girls were represented in Mortar Board, Totem Club, Sigma Epsilon Sigma, Rally Girls, Board of Control, and numerous activities and departmental honoraries.

During a year of hard work and fun, Phrateres girls strove to uphold their motto: "Famous for Friendliness."

The University of Washington Sky Diving Club is composed of members of the Seattle Sky Divers, a local affiliate of the Parachute Club of America, who are in attendance at the University of Washington.

Our organization has a two-fold purpose. The first is to promote a general interest and awareness among the students in the sport of parachuting and "sky diving." The second is precision sky diving and parachute jumping contests, in competition with other colleges and universities, and preparation for international and world championship competition.

The Pacific Northwest is fast becoming the "parachuting capital" of the U. S. In fact, this organization has been privileged to have a member on both the 1st and 2nd five-man United States Parachuting Teams which competed with all the countries of the world in the 1956 and 1958 World Championships of Parachuting held in Moscow, U.S.S.R., and Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, respectively.

Membership is open to men and women sincerely interested in the exciting type of recreation sport parachuting offers.

The Society of Advancement of Management received its national charter in winter quarter this year. The chapter is an outgrowth of the Management Club which has been active since 1948.

The student SAM chapter brings together executives and students in business and distributes information on the problems, policies and methods of industry and management. The organization also plans activities dedicated to the promotion of the art and science of management. Membership is open to students above the freshman level in economics, business administration and engineering.

Bi-weekly programs and a yearly banquet have been a source of knowledge and inspiration to all members.

U.W. YACHT CLUB

The 135 members of the University of Washington Yacht Club, after an active spring and summer schedule, stared in dismay at the holes appearing in the launching ramp at the club house on the Lake Washington Ship Canal. However, the Building and Grounds Department soon installed a new concrete ramp.

An active program of participation in Summer Twilight, Fall, Winter and Spring Frostbite Series, the Pacific Northwest Intercollegiate Regatta, Spring Interclub races, Opening Day Regatta and constant cruising kept the club's six Penguin class dinghies and six 18-foot Husky sloops busy.

This fall Dr. Charles E. Odegaard, president of the University, was admitted to the club. He was issued a membership card at a presentation ceremony held in his offices. An ardent sailor, Dr. Odegaard will be in competition with the club's advisor, Dr. Maurice Rattray of the Oceanography Department this coming season.

Over Christmas vacation, the club sent two teams to Newport Harbor, California, to represent the University in the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Regatta. They returned with fourth place honors.

The clubhouse is open every Saturday morning to sailing enthusiasts who want to receive instruction and relax on a beautiful sailboat.

Part of the Yacht Club's fleet serves as a backdrop for this picture of club officers.

The Health and Physical Education Club for Women revised its constitution this year to add "health" to the name of its club.

New members were initiated at Christmas. Toys exchanged at the initiation banquet were added to the Christmas basket of staples, canned goods and a turkey which was given to a widow with four children.

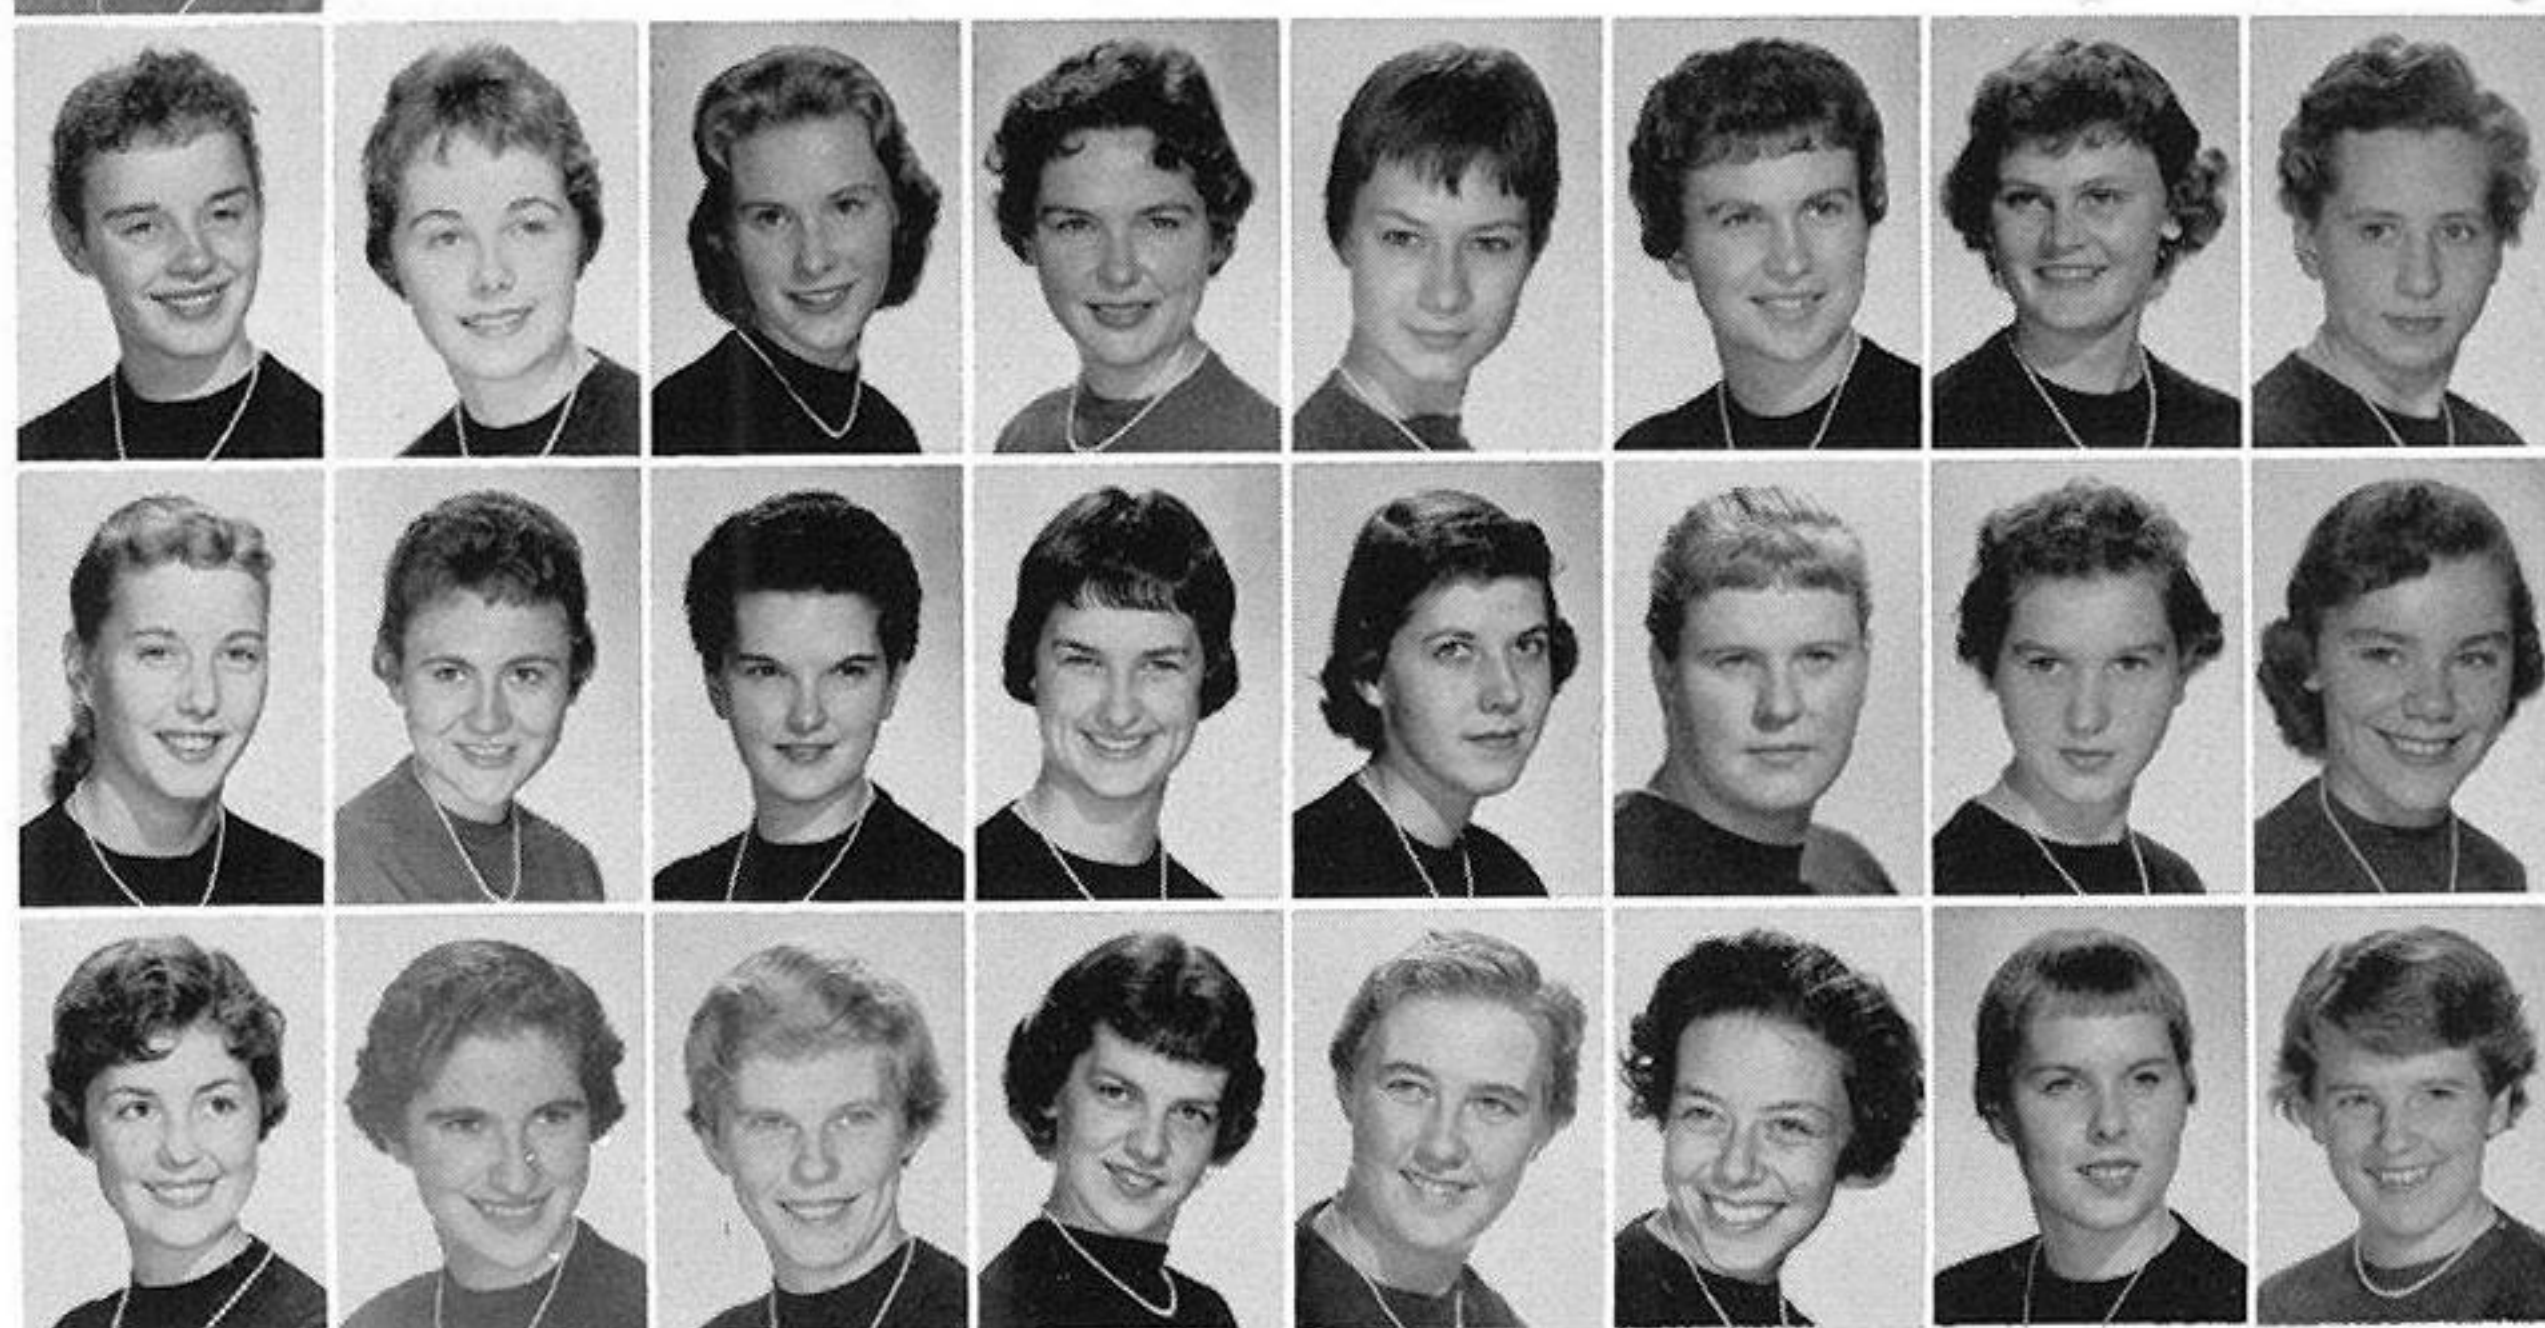

Two members represented the club on a panel at the Washington Association for Health and Physical Education convention in Wenatchee. Their assignment dealt with "Health in the Space Age." The Club's Public Relations Committee invited high school girls to visit the department and hosted these visits. A spring banquet in May honored members outstanding in scholarship and contributions to Club activities.

TURKISH-AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP CLUB

Turkish-American Friendship Club was founded in 1958 by Turkish students and their friends to promote friendship and better understanding between Turks and Americans; to exchange cultural, educational and social ideas; and to provide Seattle with information and news about Turkey.

The club got off to a strong start last year, featuring free weekly Turkish language classes, informal social gatherings with Turkish music, and displays of Turkish art and handicrafts.

A six-week television series on Turkey was presented by the club and such topics as "Where Does Turkey Stand in the Free World?" and "Origins of the Turks" were discussed.

Free lecture service to any organization was provided as part of the club's activities. Literature and publications on life in Turkey were given out, and colored slides of Turkey loaned to anyone who wished to use them.

The club also represented Turkey at community international affairs, aided Turkish students and visitors on their arrival in Seattle, and provided information to American tourists going to Turkey.

President

Organized in 1947 for Japanese girls attending the University of Washington, Valeda has grown in membership and activities through the years to serve better both the University and the Japanese community.

Under the capable leadership of president Carol Tada and the guidance of Mabel Shigaya, advisor, the group this year planned such activities as the Welcome Social, community service projects, and Christmas dance; promoted international relations by sponsoring an exchange with the University of British Columbia Varsity Club; and initiated a new project establishing a scholarship to be awarded annually to a member.

The Club has provided a means by which the 22 entering freshmen could make new acquaintances and learn about and participate in more University organizations and functions.

YMCA-YWCA CABINETS

How do you coordinate a sincere Christian purpose with activities which are not only beneficial but also fun and appealing to students on our campus?

The exec., cabinet, and adult staff of the U. of W. YM-YWCA answered this question with a well-rounded and challenging program for 1958-59.

Opening the year with the traditional and festive International

Banquet, the "Y" gave students with diverse backgrounds an opportunity to meet and share interests. The Political Forums brought in excellent speakers on timely topics and aired their viewpoints. Through the world religions course an insight was gained into other cultures. Again World University Service was a major project and gave all students on campus a chance to show their concern for university students of other lands.

HONORARIES

ALPHA EPSILON DELTA

Pre-Med Honor Society

Alpha Epsilon Delta is a national premedical-predental honor society, and Beta Chapter has been active on the Washington campus since 1958. Members must have a 3.01 grade average in 75 hours of work. Its goal is to unite similarly interested students. Lectures by members of the medical and dental professions, field trips to hospitals and institutions, and the annual spring membership banquet served to achieve the purpose.

Among the high points of this year's program were the sponsorship of the biennial Pacific Northwest Preprofessional Conference for premedical and predental students, attended by about 250 students from 25 colleges, and the sponsorship of a Microscope Demonstration for the Washington campus.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI

Commerce Fraternity

Alpha Kappa Psi, the first and oldest commerce fraternity, was founded on October 5, 1904, at New York University in New York City.

Rho chapter at the University of Washington was installed in 1919, becoming the seventeenth chapter. Each year Alpha Kappa Psi sponsors professional programs with outstanding speakers from the business world and from education. In addition we promote industrial tours, special commerce school events, and certain social activities.

As our members are drawn from all fields of Business College study, we are able to have a program of broad diversification and interest. Our activities are directed to those basic groups, alumni, faculty, university relations, and professional programming. In so doing we are able to further the outlook of our members and to educate them in the various phases of business activity which they will encounter in the business world.

ALPHA TAU DELTA

Nursing Fraternity

Alpha Tau Delta is a women's fraternity formed in 1921 at Berkeley, California. Delta Chapter at the University of Washington was established in 1936. Eligibility for membership requires completion of two quarters in the School of Nursing, with an accumulated grade point of 2.75. Registered Nurses enrolled at the University may become members.

Delta Chapter has been busy this year. We adopted a family of our own to help care for during the year. Car washes on cold days, selling fudge, and close gutter-ball competition in our bowling party all contributed to a year of work, fun, and comradeship.

The goals of Alpha Tau Delta are to promote higher educational standards for women in nursing and unite members in service for their profession.

OVAL CLUB

Upperclassmen's Activity Honorary

For the past 52 years Oval Club has maintained a tradition of recognizing men who have shown outstanding leadership in student affairs at Washington, in order to strengthen and perpetuate a feeling of loyalty and service to our alma mater. Members are chosen from the junior and senior classes in the spring and fall of each year.

"Service to Washington" is also exemplified in the activities of Oval Club. Last fall the group organized the Rooter's Rally for the OSC game in Portland. The University Chorus, an all-University singing group, was also a project of Oval Club. Through these and similar activities, Oval Club is continually striving to strengthen the spirit at Washington.

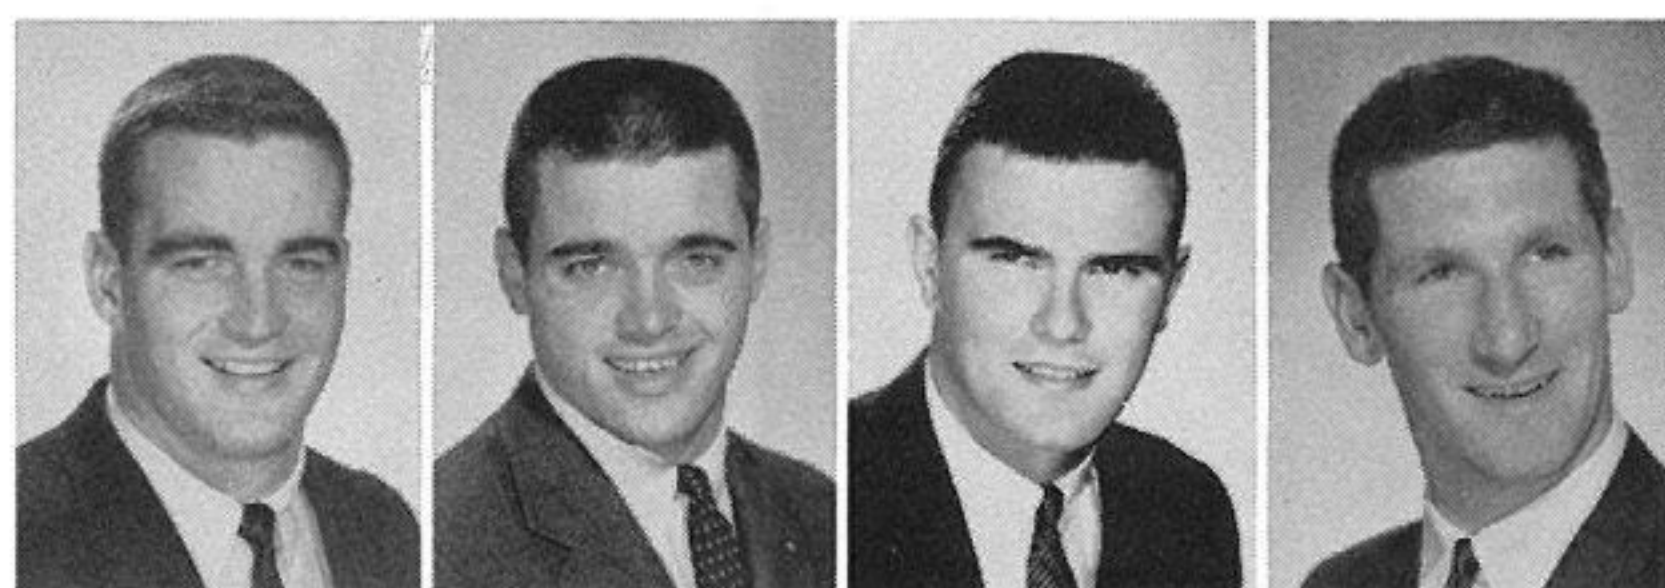

The leaders and members will continue to meet their challenges with the motto "service to Washington" foremost in their minds.

PI LAMBDA THETA

Education Honorary

Pi Lambda Theta is a national honorary professional association for women in education. Its organization not only aids those of us on campus to attain professional status, but serves for the alumni and field members as a meeting place for exchange of ideas.

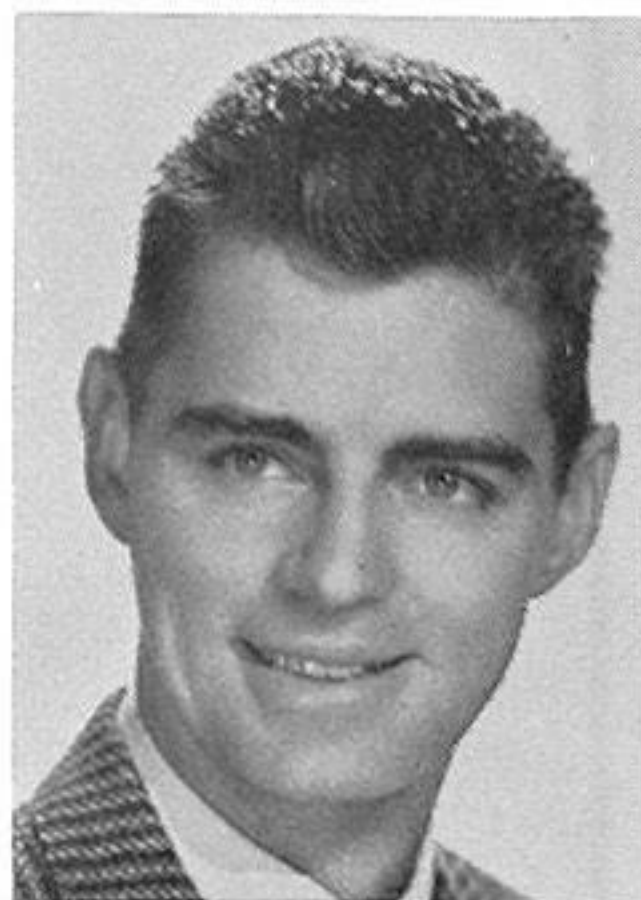

Washington was one of the first seven universities to recognize academic and professional achievement for women in education when Zeta chapter of Pi Lambda Theta was formed in 1915. A woman must have a 3.0 accumulative grade point and a 3.0 in education courses to be recommended by the faculty of the College of Education.

Through its campus program this past year Pi Lambda Theta has attempted to show the vast opportunities open to the educator. The theme, "A World of Teachers," outlined the world as the realm of the teacher.

Zeta chapter has also been honored this past year by having Dr. Sylvia Vopni, National President of the honorary, on campus.

Each spring and fall Pan Xenia holds an initiation banquet at a downtown restaurant. The fraternity takes an active part in the Washington State International Trade Fair. At the bi-monthly meetings on campus, the members hear guest speakers recently returned from abroad or businessmen from the foreign trade field.

PI OMICRON SIGMA

Inter-Fraternity Honorary

Pi Omicron Sigma is an Inter-Fraternity Honorary at the University of Washington. It was founded in 1954 by Rocky Lindell and James A. Noe, who are both past presidents of the Inter-Fraternity Council, and Glen T. Nygreen, then I.F.C. advisor.

This honorary fraternity was formed to recognize and honor senior fraternity members who, in the estimation of the active chapters and the president of the Inter-Fraternity Council, have made an effective contribution to fraternity welfare and give promise of continuing their effective work toward maintaining and extending the good name and the educational leadership of the fraternity system at the University of Washington during their remaining years in college.

The name Pi Omicron Sigma was chosen for the following significance: Pi is the first letter of the Greek word Politeria which is translated to mean citizenship, the responsible membership in the body of citizens. Omicron is from the Greek word Oikonomia meaning stewardship, one who works around the house. Sigma is from the word Scholia meaning scholarship, the scholarly use of leisure time.

SAIYUK SOCIETY

The Men's Residence Hall Saiyuk Society was created in the winter of 1954 by the firm of Young, Richardson and Detlie, architects for the residence halls. Members of Saiyuk Society are elected by present members during Winter Quarter in recognition of outstanding service and leadership in the halls.

The name of the society is derived from that of a secret society found among Northwest Indian Tribes. The emblem is an adaptation of the thunderbird design found in Northwest Indian art.

An annual mixer dance and the winter initiation banquet were the honorary's activities this year.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

Military Honorary

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade is an honorary organization of Army, Navy and Air Force upper-division cadets and midshipmen. At present there are 160 active companies of Scabbard and Blade on the campuses of various American colleges and universities.

At the University of Washington "I" Company of the First Regiment was organized in 1914. The founding of Scabbard and Blade was the result of a feeling on the part of a number of college men that such a military society was necessary to develop and foster the ideals and practices of military education in the United States. Basically professing the belief that military service is an obligation of citizenship, cadet officers and midshipmen join together to more closely unite military departments of American universities and colleges, to preserve and develop the essential qualities of good and efficient officers, and to spread information concerning the military requests of our country.

Members are chosen from the upper third of their military classes and must have qualities of leadership, integrity and honor, combined with University activities, academic achievement and military proficiency. Several social functions are held throughout the year, including Officer's Club dances and climaxing with the Military Ball in the spring.

Ronald Harrison is the Scabbard and Blade Captain this year.

Sigma Epsilon Sigma is a National Scholastic honorary for sophomore women who have maintained a 3.5 minimum grade point average during their freshman year.

The main goal of Eta Chapter at the University of Washington is to promote high scholarship among freshman women in all branches of learning and to encourage a continuance of superior scholastic achievement in the remaining quarters of college.

Many of the members of Sigma Epsilon Sigma have proven their ability to participate in campus activities and in the activities of our organization as well as maintaining high scholarship. The organization taps its members the first week in November and initiates them immediately. The women find Sigma Epsilon Sigma not only a business-minded organization, but also a friendship group. The members serve as hostesses at the President's Reception, present a Spring Tea for freshman women who have received a 3.5 one or more quarters and plan an annual project to raise money for their scholarship fund.

TAU BETA PI

Engineering Honorary

The Tau Beta Pi Association, national engineering honor society, was founded at Lehigh University in 1885 by Edward Higginson Williams, Jr., "to mark in a fitting manner those who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship and exemplary character as undergraduates in engineering, or by their attainments as alumni in the field of engineering, and to foster a spirit of liberal culture in the engineering colleges of America."—Preamble to the Constitution.

The Tau Beta Pi Association now has 102 chapters located throughout the United States and has a membership in excess of 97,000. The Washington Alpha chapter at the University of Washington was founded in 1912 and has been dedicated since that time to the task above. In addition to this, the chapter published a guide book of honor societies and presents an award to the outstanding freshman in the College of Engineering each year.

TOTEM CLUB

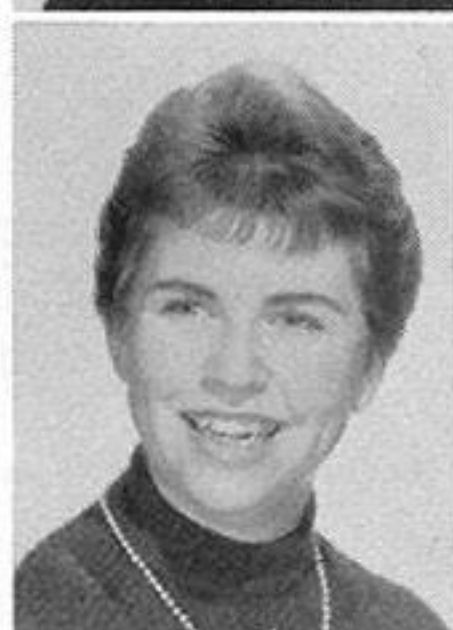

Activities Honorary

Totem Club was founded in 1932 at the University of Washington to honor junior and senior women outstanding in leadership and service to the University. To be eligible for membership, a girl must have a 2.0 grade average and a superior record in activities. Candidates for membership are tapped each spring by the presentation of a miniature totem pole, symbol of the organization.

Members of Totem Club have ample opportunities for continued service. The principal event of the year is the presentation of Song and Stunt Night, the annual University Variety Show with each class participating. Proceeds from the show provide scholarships for deserving freshman women.

The Varsity Boat Club is an organization of oarsmen, coxswains, and managers who have turned out for crew for six quarters and have been voted into membership. Its purposes are to focus the attention of the squad on the traditions and high standards of Washington rowing, and to insure continuance of these high standards by the frosh rowing squad. The Club is the governing body of the living group at the Shellhouse. The governmental structure lies somewhere between a pure democracy and mob rule. Members are entitled to wear the familiar "Husky Crew" jacket.

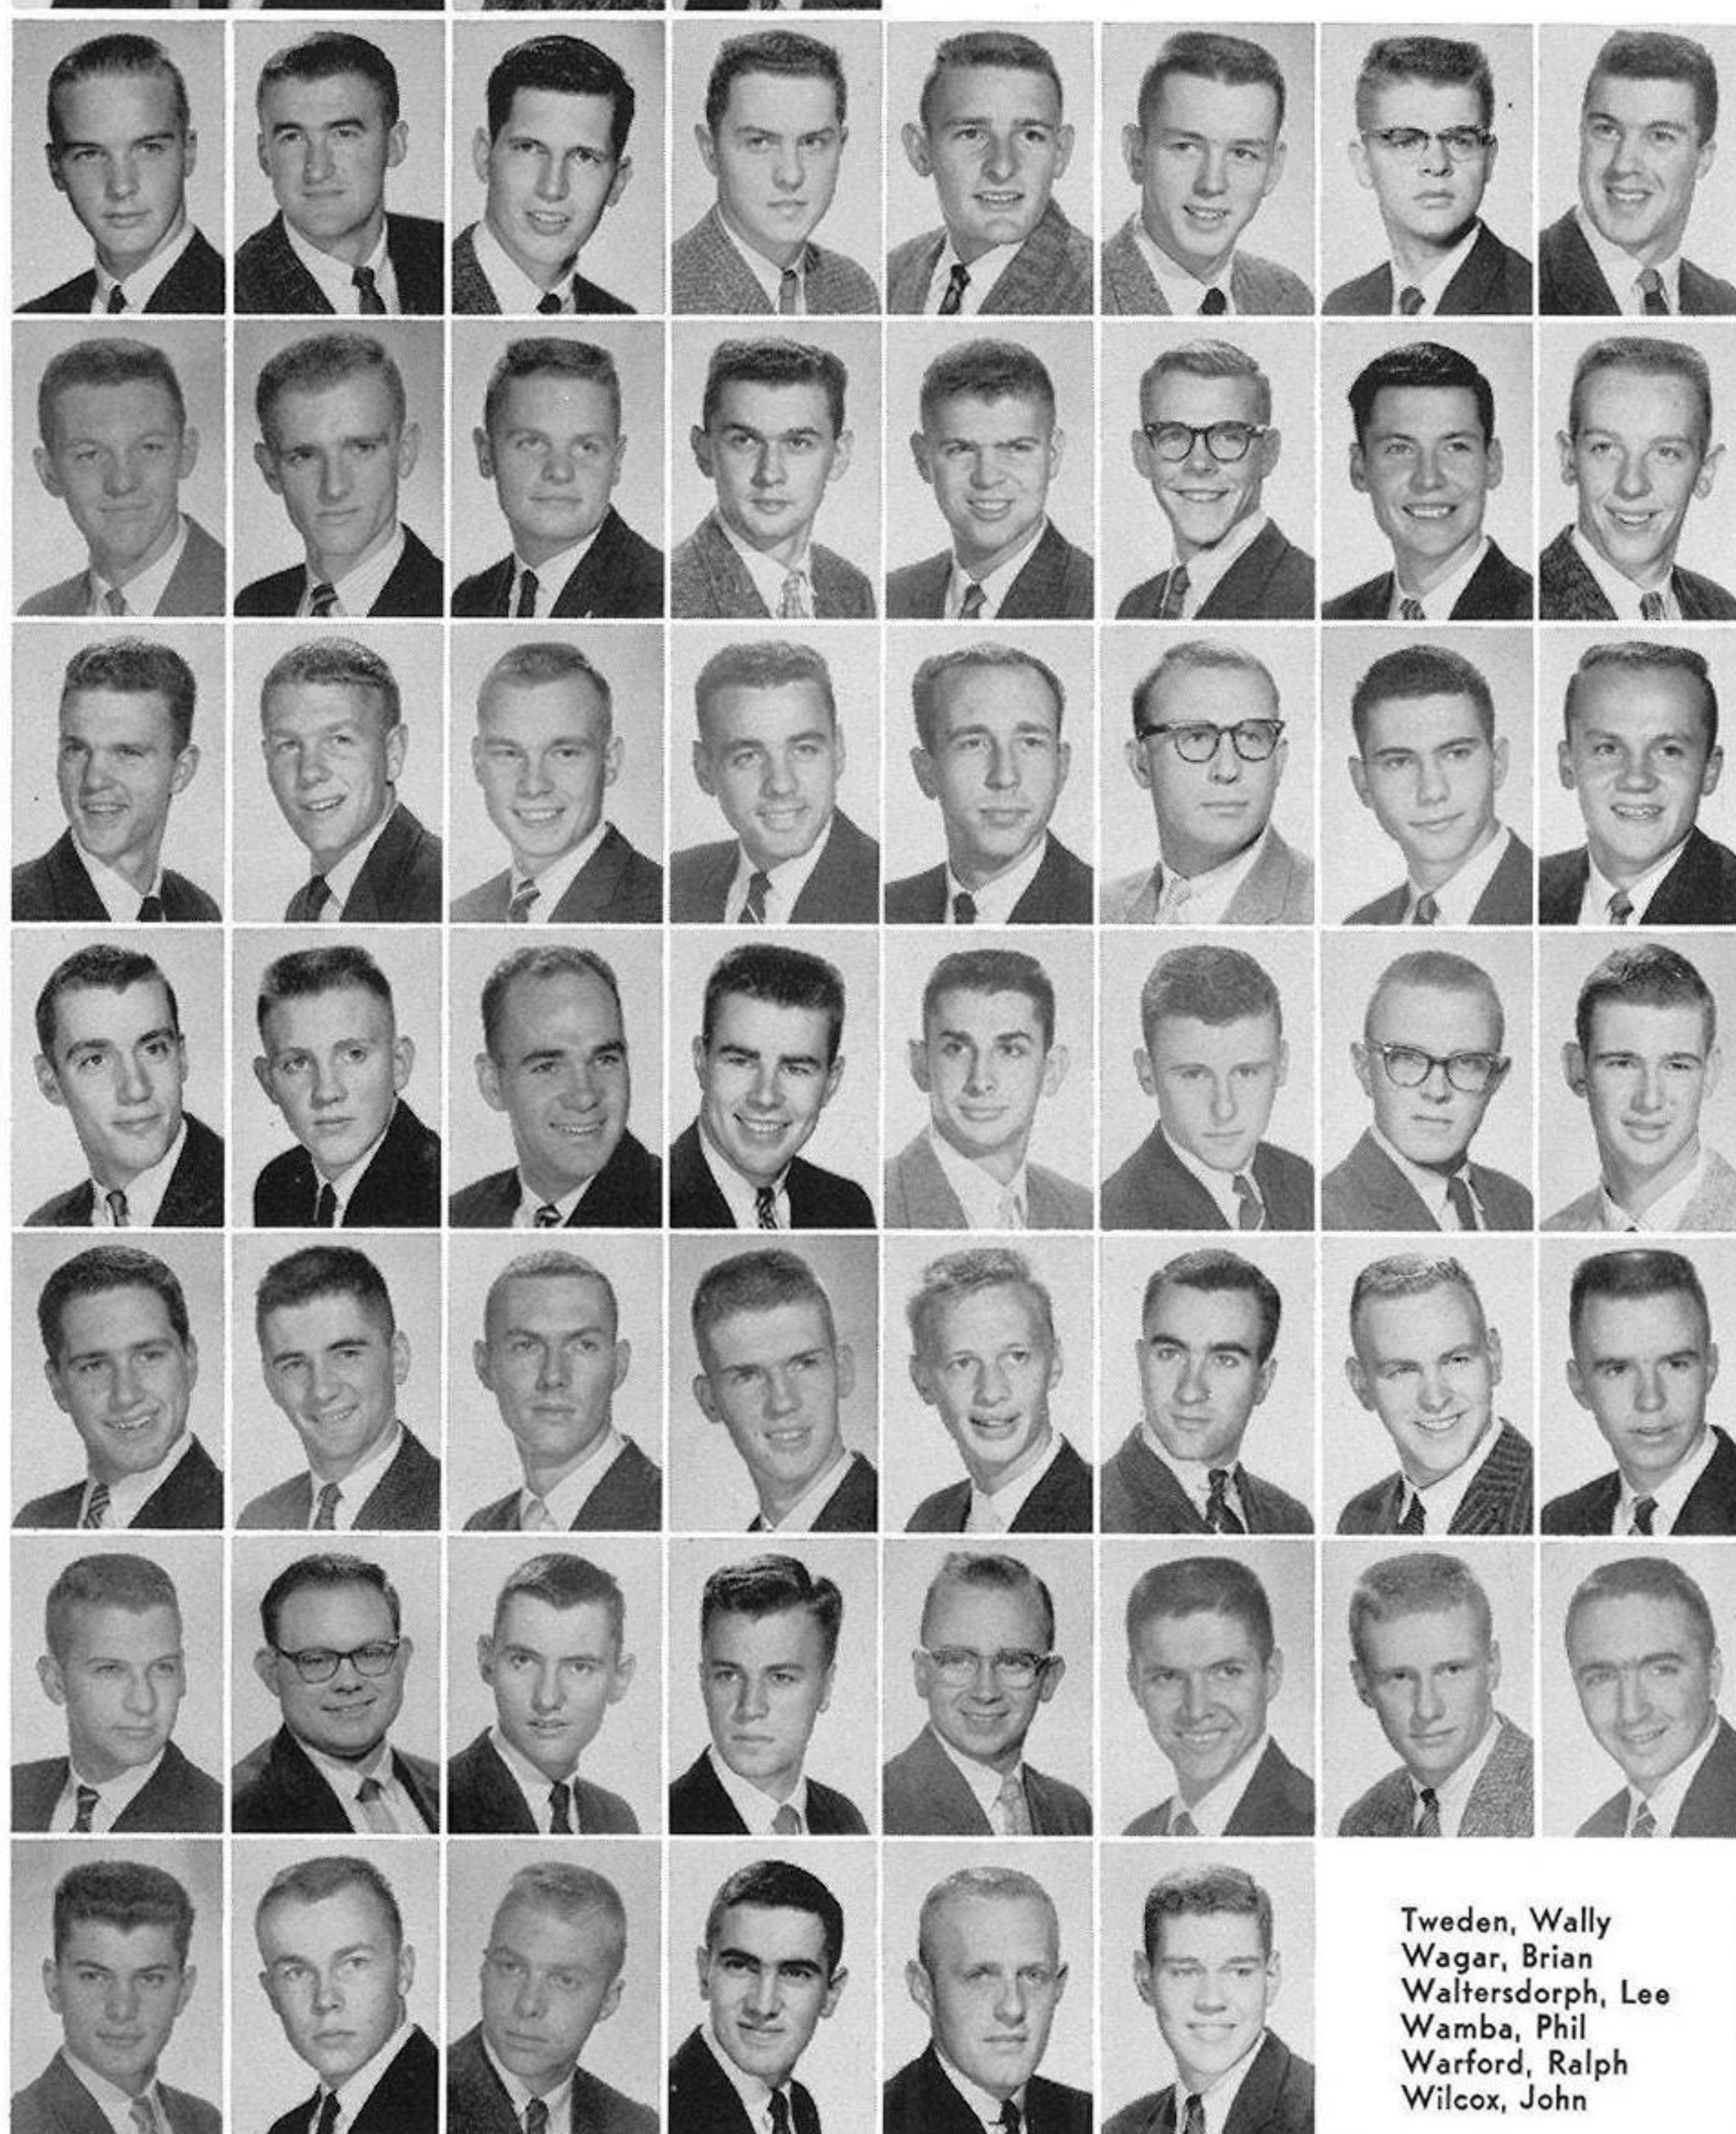

After an abbreviated social season ending in February, the oarsmen go into strict training until the final race in June. The VBC sees to it that the training rules are adhered to. The crew will return to the collegiate championships at Syracuse, New York.

W-KEY

Activities Honorary

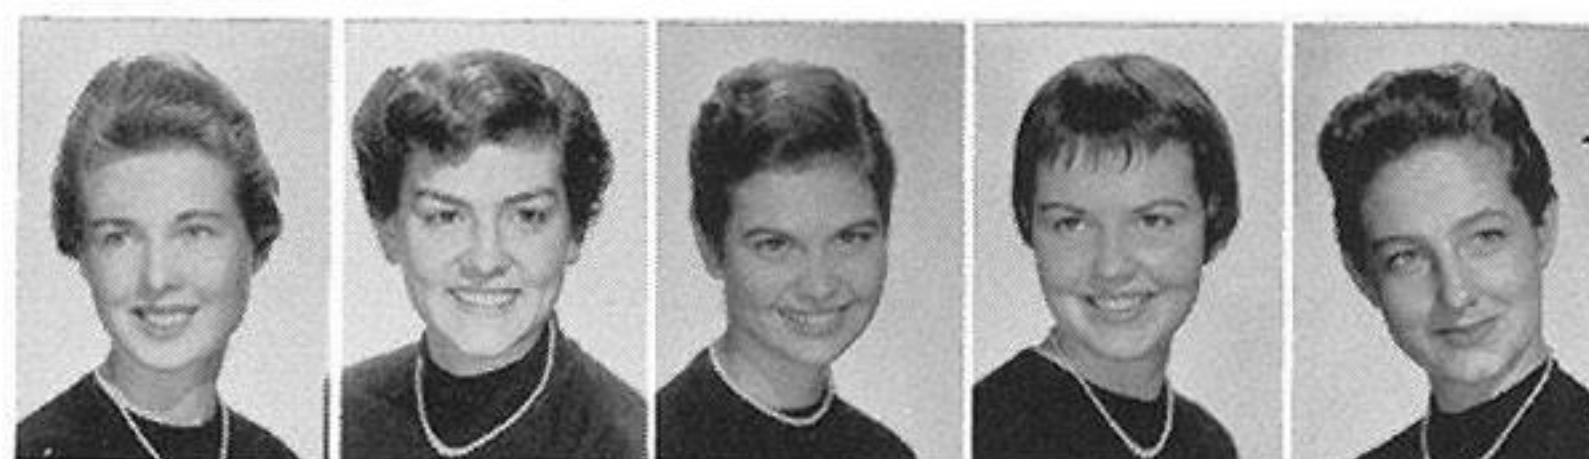

The purpose of W-Key is "to give service to Washington." This is done by making an earnest effort to help at worthwhile University activities. Three of the main functions accomplished this past year were assisting at Freshman Preview, the fall Frosh Activities Conference, and the President's Tea for freshmen. Appropriate to the spirit of Valentine's Day W-Key held a successful candy sale to raise money for their annual Scholarship Fund.

The 38 members are all sophomores elected in the spring of their freshman year. They are chosen for their outstanding participation in activities as well as having maintained a 2.5 grade average.

All of the members agree that W-Key has been helpful in promoting friendships, in bringing them within closer touch of campus affairs, and in extending their interests as Washington students.

Zeta Phi Eta, a national speech arts professional fraternity for women, was founded at Northwestern University in 1893. Members are students in the fields of general speech, speech therapy, speech education, radio, television, or drama. To be selected one must have an accumulative grade point of 2.5 and at least a 3.0 in their major field. The purpose of the organization is to build a professional philosophy for women in speech and to stimulate dramatic enterprise.

With the present group of senior members who joined the organization last spring, Beta Rho Tau has been increasingly active. One of the concrete examples of the increased activity of this organization is the campus program which is broadcast over KUOW-FM every noon. This program is designed with the student in mind to the end that it will provide him with good musical entertainment as well as keeping him informed of campus activities. This program was initially conceived and planned by the members of Beta Rho Tau with the guidance of our advisor, Mr. Harold F. Niven.

Another program fostered by the organization is "Beta Rho Tau Presents." This program tells the story of the various departments of the University of Washington through the eyes, so to speak, of the honoraries of those departments. Using the talents of those groups in the departments, Beta Rho Tau tells the community about some of the more interesting and perhaps lesser known aspects of our University. We feel we are now in a good position to continue to provide the department of Radio-Television with enthusiasm and spirited activity.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The last page has been sent to the printer. There are no more identifications to make; no more late membership lists to wait for. With hard work, a few tears, and lots of fun, the 1959 Tyee has been designed, and room 151 is empty for a while. I have cleared my desk of this year's problems to make way for next year's book to begin. The book is finished. It isn't a perfect book, but the staff and I feel we have produced the best book yet. A new printing method was used this year. All the type was set and all the printing done by photography with machines requiring perfect balance for their delicate precision work. We have tried to establish uniformity throughout the book, and to use more, and bigger, pictures. Sometimes we were limited by available material or space, but we are, nevertheless, proud of our book and proud to present it to you.

As I think back over the months of work involved in this book, there are many people I would like to thank for their part in making this book a good one. Thank you, Taylor Publishing Company, for your fine job in printing the 1959 Tyee. Especial thanks to Sandy Sandven, and Wes Cooper for their good advice and many trips to Seattle for personal conferences, and to Tom Murray in Dallas who supervised the work done on our book.

Thank you, Kennell-Ellis, for your photography, and for the cooperation in helping us to meet our deadlines. The queen pages were posed and taken by Les Peterson. Thank you, Les, for this part in adding an interesting section to our book.

For encouragement and helpful advice goes a special vote of thanks to our advisor Clyde Robinson. Sue Smith and Mrs. Lenore Sheckels, thank you for your willingness to help, and your encouragement from the publications office.

To the ASUW photo staff, I say thank you for working so hard to help us meet our deadlines, and for taking, and sometimes retaking, pictures at all hours of the day. To Vic Bagnall, Cec Morrison, and Ron Lopp, thank you for our on the spot color division pages.

Don Pittenger took over the role of artist at the end of fall quarter. He designed the cover, as well as doing all the art work that appears in the book. Thanks, Don, for doing such a fine job in such a short time.

Margi Morrill read all the copy for the 1959 Tyee. Thanks for a tremendous job, and thanks for being there to call on as quickly as copy came in.

For hours of work and a tremendous responsibility, I wish to thank the three division editors who worked on the book all year, Lucy Pullen, Jo Clayre Marven, and Bill Greger. Between the three of them was divided the entire book, and the supervision of the section editors. Thank you, Karen Seppi, for an excellent job as office manager.

To Maggie Salyer, Florence Gravelle, Carolyn Smith, Harriet Buckman, Jane Mason, Nancy Solie, Karen Stout, Nancy Storjohann, Karen Lenzie, Gloria Bryson, Mary Scott, Jim Needham, Larry Brown, Alice Kling, all the members of the sports staff, and all the others who contributed work to the 1959 Tyee, thank you for a job well done.

To all who have contributed to the 1959 Tyee, thank you.

Congratulations, staff, on your book.

Sincerely,

Ann Clinton

How about you: how do you rate as a date?

Does the way you look make her glad she's with you . . . or make her wish she'd stayed at home? True, you can't judge a book by its cover, but shabby books (and careless guys) often get shelved. Next time you go out, give yourself a break. Make sure that what you wear will put you high on her list.
